The True Identity of the 2nd Horn of the False Prophet Revealed, and Update on Assad's Head Wound

Let us go into prayer. O Lord, Almighty, Almighty God, Creator, Alpha and Omega, Jesus, our Lord and Savior, Kinsman, Redeemer, thank you, Father God, for what you are doing, for what we are seeing and witnessing, your Word being fulfilled, your plan being fulfilled, the Holy Scripture being fulfilled.

You saw the end from the beginning. It is written in stone. It shall not be erased. What you said would occur is occurring and will occur.

It will not turn back. It will not be void nor vain, but accomplish the purpose whichforth you have sent it.

Everything plays into your hands. You created all power and all authority. There is no power or authority or anything that was not created by you and for you.

You are great. You are awesome. And there is none above you nor beside you. Praise your holy name.

Thank you for this holy Sabbath day. Thank you for this place and time. Thank you for entrusting us with a very special and very high calling. Thank you for choosing us for this time.

Praise your holy name of Jesus. Father, we do ask for your anointing and your blessing on this following message.

Will you help me to explain it? Teach it and deliver it with your anointing, with your help, with your blessing, accurately, 100%.

Your Word and not mine, your message, your teaching, your church, your people. Praise your holy name.

May all be to the glory of the Father in Jesus' holy name. Amen. Praise Jesus.

You may be seated.

Let's turn to Revelation 13. Good to see everyone from South Africa and Korea and around the world.

Revelation 13, of course, we're reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible, a restoration of the Holy Scriptures based upon much older manuscripts than what the King James was based upon.

As we turn to Revelation 13, the entire world right now is witnessing, eyewitnessing historic and biblical events. Amen.

The majority of the world right now, they think that Syria is being rescued.

They think that Assad is being overthrown. But the followers of Jesus, those with the Holy Ghost of Jesus, know better on both accounts.

Syria is not being rescued. And the rebels are really no holier, no righteous, no better than Assad himself.

They are radical terrorists, and they will not rescue the Syrian people. But Assad is not being overthrown.

He will recover from this deadly head wound, according to the Holy Scripture. That's not my interpretation.

That's not my opinion. That's not by my belief. That's Holy Scripture, and we're going to read it in the Holy Scripture right here.

Revelation 13, starting in verse 1, the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore, as we've taught many times, and as it says in the footnote in the Alpha and Omega Bible, that's talking about the Mediterranean Sea, since this is a Middle Eastern book.

Then it says, Then I saw an evil beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns, seven heads, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names.

We did explain recently and many times over the years that the blasphemous names must be aromatic.

Make sure the spelling of that is correct in the transcript. Assyrian names. But they're going to call it Hebrew names, but it's not Hebrew at all, but rather Babylonian Assyrian.

Multiple names that compete against the true name of God, Jesus, in Revelation 14, verse 1.

Now these seven heads are really empires that have come and gone throughout time, and the ten horns is the exact same as the ten toes of the statue in Daniel chapter 2.

The ten horns or the ten toes, or ten end-time persons, beings, that Assad, the Antichrist, the Senate tradition, will point over the world.

Ten end-time world leaders. The Bible says they do not yet have a kingdom, therefore they can't be current presidents, because they already have a kingdom.

I believe that perhaps, possibly, that these end-time world leaders, ten toes, ten horns, could include people such as Bill Gates, George Soros, Klaus Schwab, and others, those mad scientists, New World Order elites, that are trying to control the entire world.

They want to control the world, and they promote the exact same thing that Assad is promoting, that Pope Francis is promoting, and that the leader of the Eastern Orthodox Church is promoting, and that is Islam, the destruction of Holy Scripture, the destruction of everything that's right and true and holy, promotion of everything that is evil and demonic, everything that is against the true God of Israel.

They want Communism and Nazism, and are using Islam to accomplish it. That is what every one of those people do want, and they're calling it one world religion and a New World Order.

This is what we're talking about, is that empires throughout time, as you see in the statue of Daniel, coming down into the end-time manifestation of the exact same thing that we have seen in the Old Testament scriptures, where there's worshipping paganism, false gods, demons, nothing has changed.

Everything is repeating itself in history, coming down through those empires. So it's talking about empires coming down to an end-time world leader that is based in the Middle East.

Then we get to verse two. And the wild or evil beast, which I saw, was like a leopard.

That's Iran and the Greek Empire, his feet like a bear, that's Russia, and the ancient Medo-Persian Empire, and his mouth like a lion, which is the Arabic word for Assad, and also represents the ancient Babylonian Empire.

And the dragon, which is China, the Vatican, and Satan, it's all three, gave him his power and his throne and his great authority.

Verse three, one of his heads talking about the end-time empire, talking about the end-time Assyrian leader, the president of Syria, Bashar Assad, the son of perdition, the antichrist.

One of his heads, one of his capital cities, his main capital city, his head, Damascus, according to scripture that we read just the last Sabbath, that Damascus, the head of Syria is Damascus.

That's what the Bible says in the book of Isaiah. The head of Syria is Damascus. So it uses that word head in scripture to refer to the capital city of Damascus. So we allow the scripture to interpret itself, and that's from Isaiah seven, verse eight.

So this is Damascus being attacked, and we have said this for years and years and years now, that we would eventually see an attack against a fraud directly.

Now this ain't over with yet, what we're seeing in Syria occur over the last week.

What we're seeing thus far, over the last week, I don't know the exact number of days now, but basically very close to seven or nine days as we speak today on Pearl Harbor Day, December the 7th, 2024, and that's no coincidence at all either.

What we see is what they call rebels, revolutionaries, the opposition force against Assad directly fighting the Syrian army, the regime.

They're not talking very much at all about who is behind this, but we do know that Biden, Israel, and Turkey, and perhaps others, are definitely behind this of what we see occurring in this past week.

They're not talking very much about that in the news, but definitely these, if you call them rebels, the opposition against the regime, they are not on their own.

They're extremely well equipped, extremely well funded, extremely well organized.

This is extremely well orchestrated, planned out in advance, planned for months and months and months.

But God has held back this event for 14 years. It was 14 years ago. It will be 14 years this coming March, only three months away. That had to be 14 years, and that's no coincidence of the number 14 as well, because it's related to March 14th, the date of parent that's coming up.

Remember, back in 2006, when God started showing me this prophecy in 2006, even though I didn't know it had anything to do with Syria at the time.

It took years later before God gave me the understanding of the Syrian connection to it, and the Antichrist connection to it.

But in 2006 was when God showed me the number 14. He gave me the number 14 over and over and over that day. Then He gave me the number 3-14, which then I understood as being March 14th, and then years later understood as being Purim, a day of Purim.

And Purim does not always fall on March 14th, but it will in 2025. And not only will Purim, to make sure that's spelled correctly in the transcript, that it will be on March 14th, but it will also be the 14th year anniversary of this revolution occurring.

Now they want you to think that this is not divine. Even though I said they're well-funded, well-planned, well-equipped, the reality is it's not the number of horses and it's not the number of horsemen.

It's not your physical might and your human intelligence that has brought this about.

But it is divine that God planned out these dates. God planned out this. Now He could have done it even before 14 years because every year He decides, God decides as we teach in the Day of Atonement, He decides if it's going to be the year or not, if He's going to delay, if He's going to bring it to a full 14 years, if He's going to bring it early, God can do anything He wants to do.

He's God. He can bring it early or He can bring it late, but it has to be fulfilled and it is being fulfilled.

But He has chosen to go ahead with bringing it to a 14-year timeframe and to keep it to be on March 14th as well.

Now we're looking at anywhere from the 13th to the 15th, but the 14th is significant.

And there's several different events. There's several different events that we've got to watch for.

But they want you to think that, okay, we've been fighting Assad and not able to overthrow him for 14 years. Then all of a sudden, all of a sudden, out of the blue, unexpectedly, the world caught completely by surprise.

And yet this ministry has been saying over and over and year over that as we get closer to Purim, March 2025, that we are to be watching and waiting and looking for events dealing with Syria and the Middle East, Assad directly.

Damascus, we've been saying to watch that area while everybody else is caught by total surprise, we were told to be watching for a possible overthrow, a possible war, a possible attack against Assad and his government and his nation within these specific months leading up to Purim of 2025. Amen.

You've got all type of prophets so-called on YouTube and the internet, and they all want to proclaim such and such and such prophecies of their own interpretation, of their own imagination, but it was this ministry that said we are to be watching these months dealing with Assad and these months leading up to March 25. Amen.

But that's not through my power, my ability to reason, or even my ability to understand, but these are divine things that we are witnessing.

What we're seeing is not through the might of a military muscle of human beings, but rather it is the Father in Heaven saying it's time.

It's the Father in Heaven that is releasing these events and empowering those armies and bringing this to pass at this time.

Verse 3 is talking about an attack against Damascus. In the past 24 hours, as we speak here on December 7, 2024, from a harder day, Damascus is currently, right now, this moment being invaded and overthrown by the opposition forces against Assad.

We are witnessing right here, right now, this moment, the deadly head wound occurring as I speak.

But it will continue to increase. We don't know how many minutes, how many hours, how many days, how many weeks, or if it would take the full three months until March 14.

We don't know exactly how long it's going to take for them to finally say Assad is gone, he's overthrown, Assad no longer exists.

He's either been killed, they were claimed, or captured, or to flee the nation. Now you have to be careful about claims that he has fled the nation because such claims have come many, many, many different times over the years, even in the past few days, that those rumors were not true at any point of time, even in the past few days.

Although his family, they say, have definitely already fled, and a lot of his generals and military officials and government officials have already fled to Iraq and the United Arab immigrants and probably Iran.

So his family and a lot of the government's already fled, but as far as we know, as far as we know, he's already, I mean he is still yet at this time in Syria, and even if he's not in Syria, he's still in control of Damascus to a certain degree at this time.

We've still got a little bit longer to go, but we don't know how many minutes, hours, or weeks, but the max would be up through March and April maximum until they actually say that he's overthrown, no longer in power.

So we're very close, very close. Now we've said that the attack, according to Daniel 11, will be from many ships, NATO, Turkey, America, Israel. We've said this.

So I believe that Assad could possibly hold on even as long as three months, possible, because he's going to fight harder for Damascus, the center of Damascus, his government buildings, his palace, whatever you want to call it. He's going to have more help there. He's going to hold on to it longer at least to make it look good, even though he knows he's going to get the whole nation back.

He knows that. He knows what's going to happen. He knows the prophecies better than we do, and that he understands more how it's going to happen than what we understand of how it's going to happen.

He probably don't understand every little detail of it, but he understands it better than we do for sure.

But it would make sense. He would fight harder for Damascus, so it may take the entire three months. Maybe. It doesn't matter how long it takes. We could see even then announce even today or tomorrow that he's been overthrown, and then have a three-month window of where it looks like he's gone, and then he returns in another battle, another war within these next three months, accumulating with that strong delusion on the day of Purim, March 13th to the 15th, 2025.

We don't know every little tiny detail of how this is going to occur.

All we do know is that Assad will recover from this deadly head wound, from this attack on Damascus, and that the day of Purim will be the day of the strong delusion of 2 Thessalonians, Chapter 2.

And that is Assad appearing in heaven, in the temple of God in heaven, displaying himself as God, 2 Thessalonians 2. I'm getting this straight from Scripture. And so he's manifesting himself as God to the world on that day of Purim.

And we can have these human doubts that when we are seeing the Scripture being fulfilled in front of our eyes, then we have to throw those doubts away and come to that, the only conclusion that we can come to right here right now with what we're seeing.

With what we're eye witnessing right now, we have to boldly declare and boldly believe and fully believe that we are definitely going to see that strong delusion at this particular time of Purim, March 25th, followed by 30 days after that, around the Passover season, the invasion of Israel, the Gog Magog War of Ezekiel 38.

Now all of this is laid out, all the Scriptures, everything is laid out for you on the ministry website at isawthelightministries.com.

Now let's keep reading here in verse 4 now. They worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the evil beast, and they worshiped the evil beast, talking about the Antichrist, who is like the evil beast and who is able to wage war with him.

They're going to say that because they see him overthrown and then return and gain power again.

Right now a lot of people are thinking, oh that Pastor Zimmerman, that Pastor Tim, he's a false prophet and he's going to be proven wrong right now because Assad is going to be overthrown and will never return.

They say that because they don't believe the Bible when it calls the Antichrist the King of Assyria, the Assyrian.

They don't believe the Bible when it says that. Amen. We have chosen to believe what the Bible says when it calls the Antichrist the Assyrian and the King of Assyria.

Verse 5, it was given to him a mouth, speaking arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority, that's God gives him authority, to act on 42 months, to continue for 42 months, was given to him.

That's not seven years, as they traditionally, falsely teach seven years of great tribulation.

That's three and a half years. That's all. Amen. So we're about to enter, around the pass of the season, we're going to enter a three and a half year time frame of the greatest tribulation that has ever existed in all of humanity.

Our lives are about to drastically change, drastically. Everyone on earth, everyone on earth, and the majority of people on earth, you're going to lose your loved ones, your family, your friends, your co-workers, your closest friends, your closest associates.

There will be death on every street. We will no longer be able to run to the store to get food and clothing and supplies.

We're going to have to hunt for our food and grow our food. Most people have no idea how to grow food at all, not even the slightest indication.

And even more so, people don't know how to hunt. And of course, the invasion of America and Israel, the invasion of Taiwan and the Philippines, the invasion of South Korea, Australia, Ireland, Scotland, England, the invasion of America and of the free world worldwide, all of this is on our doorsteps as well.

The 666 nations that are against Israel, their military will be going down the streets of every neighborhood, knocking on doors eventually.

There will be taking houses, taking women. You won't have a job, you won't have a career.

It is time right now for people to prioritize. Get down on their knees in fasting and prayer and cry out with all of your might, with all of your power, with all of your guts, with all of your heart, mind, body, spirit and soul, to ask God, what are you going to do to protect your family, your wife, your children?

What are you going to do to stay alive? How are you going to stay alive? Where are you to go? How are you to prepare?

Because most people don't even have the slightest clue. Our lives are about to change dramatically.

The majority of the people are completely blind about the urgency of this moment, completely blind.

They are ignorant of such world events, earth-shaking events. They are totally blind.

The Holy Ghost is not even urging them in their minds and hearts that they don't have that relationship with God and they think they are saved.

There will be major destruction of America and all those nations I listed. Major destruction, huge destruction.

New York City and Washington D.C. and San Diego and San Francisco, they will cease to exist very, very, very early on in 2025. They will cease to exist. Amen.

Verse 6, and he opened his mouth and blasphemes against the theos to blaspheme his name.

So he attacks his name and his tabernacle and those that dwell in heaven, the angels.

Verse 7, it was given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them, which proves that the church is not removed from the earth before the tribulation.

That verse right there. Amen. So we need to add at the end of that verse, capital X dash rapture, because it proves that there's no such thing as a pre-tribulation rapture.

So Brother John and Robert both just gave me that edit that we need to add the X rapture there.

You can't get any stronger proof than that and yet you can read that verse to the false Christians and they still won't believe you, even though it's written in black and white and it's A-B-C right there.

It's as clear as day. I don't see how anybody can deny what it says. There will be true saints. This ain't false Christians. A false Christian is not a saint. Amen.

There will be true Christians, true Christians that are attacked and will be beheaded or otherwise die or imprisoned in the Great Tribulation.

God is not going to entirely protect everyone. And there's going to be more, many more saints, many more truly saved people between right here, right now, between this moment of today and these next four months.

It's not going to be the Great Revival that we're going to see in the final year of the Great Tribulation.

No, it ain't going to be that huge of a number. But nevertheless, in these next four months between now and Passover, April of 2025, the church is going to greatly multiply because they're seeing the prophecies fulfilled.

And there will be so many emails coming into this ministry that I probably won't even be able to even look at every email.

It's probably going to come in about thousands and thousands per day of emails. But I would do my best to read and respond to as many as possible.

But most of them will have to be responded with a general copy and paste based upon what the people say. Amen.

But some people, as many as possible, I will try to communicate with and counsel with and try to help people and help people to figure out what they need to figure out, give them some direction. Amen.

But God ain't going to protect everyone completely. He might protect, and He definitely will protect some of the saints as far as living and survive, even though they may be in prison, prisoners of war, concentration camps, and yet keep them alive.

Whereas others would die sooner. Whereas others, according to Revelation 12, will survive and prosper for the entire Great Tribulation.

God has a different plan for different people. But for people that God brings directly to me into my presence face to face, these are people that are meant to survive.

These are people that are meant to continue to do a work for the Lord while they are alive, rather than to perish, rather than to die and not be able to do a work. Amen.

There's no exception. Even Israel in the Middle East, it will be under the authority of Bashar Assad.

The United Nations has repeatedly, repeatedly said that East Jerusalem belongs to Assad.

The United Nations ain't going to change their mind about that this week. Amen. Neither will Assad.

Verse 8, the majority of those who dwell on the earth will worship him, all of whose names were not written from the foundation of the world in the scroll of life of the lamb who has been slain.

Verse 9, if anyone has an ear, let him hear. Now that verse 9, that's repeated throughout Revelation chapter 2 and chapter 3, which is another clue that those seven churches in chapter 2 and 3 are not just churches 2,000 years ago, but even today, that this entire book of Revelation, even chapter 2 and chapter 3, is written to us today, as well as those agent congregations.

Verse 10, if anyone leads toward captivity, to captivity he goes, if anyone murders with a sword, or with guns he's talking about, or with the sword, he must be killed.

Here is the perseverance and the faith of the saints.

In other words, it's saying that for the majority of saints, true saints, truly saved people, it's not meant for you to fight in this war.

It's not meant for you to be killing soldiers and fighting the Russians and fighting the Chinese once they invade.

Now there are certain people that God has and will appoint to hold back, to give some resistance against the invading armies in certain neighborhoods, in certain towns for a time and a season here and there.

But for the church, that's not our common in general. There could be exceptions for individuals, but in general, as a church we're not called to fight physically.

I'm not a conscientious objector. I'm not against war. War has a necessary place in this world. War is extremely necessary.

And men fighting battles is extremely necessary. God will use some wonderful men around the world to hold certain battle lines here and there.

And God will eventually give America and Israel the final victory against the Russians, Chinese, Iranians, and Syrians. But in general, the church is not called to fight physically.

Verse 11. Now here we get into the false prophet. And here is where we're going to give a correction in what I've taught.

And here we're going to give a brand new revelation for this end time. Verse 11. Then I saw another evil beast coming up out of the earth and had two horns like a lamb.

Oh, yeah, two horns like a lamb. He spoke as a dragon. And they exercised the authority of the first evil beast in its presence. And they made the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first evil beast whose fatal wound was healed.

And they performed great signs so that they would even make fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the presence of mankind.

And they deceived those who dwell on the earth because of the signs which were given to them to perform in the presence of the evil beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to observe or ordain or commit a stone to the evil beast who had the wound of the sword and has come to life.

And it was given to them to put a spirit into the stone of the evil beast so that the stone of the evil beast would even speak and causes meaning.

As do not worship the stone of the evil beast to be murdered. Amen. The false prophet. Who is the false prophet?

It says he has two horns. Now we read in verse one about a ten horn and that we said that's also the ten toes of the statue of Daniel two.

Everybody understands they got enough common sense that ten horns represent ten persons.

Now in Daniel there's also a prophecy about a one horned beast and they understand that that represents one horn as one person.

If ten equals ten and if one equals one then common sense dictates that two horns is two persons.

Common sense. But yeah I've never heard that taught ever before until we taught it in this ministry and we've been teaching it for several years now.

Now we were saying that those two horns were Pope Francis and Pope Benedict but then Benedict died and then we were expecting, you know how can this other horn replace Benedict.

And of course by logic we were thinking well perhaps Francis would retire just like Benedict did. Bring up another pope and then we would have two popes alive again just like we did have.

That's very logical. That's easy to see because the pope is extremely old and every once in a while you hear about him having health problems which is really just fake because he's really not human at all. He's a fallen angel.

But at the end of the sermon last week as I always do I asked anybody have any questions or comments and Brother John did ask the question about if the second horn could be from a division, a schism within the Catholic Church, an alternative pope, another pope claiming to be the true pope you know how there are different people claiming within different fractions of the Catholic Church.

And then he shared how the archbishop, leader, patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Churches is planning to meet in Turkey in May of next year with Pope Francis.

And when he shared that over that next couple of minutes after that it really hit me that John had hit the nail right on the head. Bingo.

The archbishop, the patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Churches.

So after that I started looking it up and the understanding was just opened up from heaven to me just opening my eyes, opening up my mind, opening up my understanding to help me to just see all the pieces of the puzzle just come together.

How over the past few years we have repeatedly spoken of the leader, the archbishop of the Eastern Orthodox Churches, how that he is promoting the exact same thing as Pope Francis.

Islam, one world religion, coexistence with all religion, combining all religion, he's promoting the exact same thing.

And how that I had converted several of the ministry website articles to be talking about the role of the Orthodox Church in those traditional pagan incorrect false doctrines of the traditional church.

So God has been continuing to lead us over the years in that direction of speaking more and more about the Orthodox Church and its leader.

In fact, just a couple of months ago we had made an edit to the website article about the false prophet, very specifically, and in the AOB Bible that we had made an edit to explain that the two legs of that statue in Daniel chapter 2, those two legs, that one leg represents the Western Roman Empire and the other leg represents the Byzantine, Constantinople, Eastern Roman Empire.

And I even looked back way, way, way, way back in that false prophet article where you have that image that shows the family tree of the origin of religion, of different denominations, the origin of the Baptist Church, the Pentecostals and other churches.

And it has listed there from a long time ago the Byzantine Church, the Eastern Orthodox Churches as being part of that Eastern leg of that statue.

So we didn't fully grasp it, we didn't fully comprehend it, but God was already speaking what we now are comprehending. Amen.

Sometimes God will teach us things and we think we understand it and we only understand it to a certain degree, but then as we get closer to the end time and as we get older and as we grow in the Lord and as God continues to show us more and open up our understanding more and more over time, then we start seeing and hearing what He's already said. Amen.

But there's no doubt to this.

Brother Robert, can you pronounce the guy's name, the leader of the Eastern Orthodox Church?

Economical Patriarch Bartholomew. Thank you again. [We'll call him "Bart" for short.] There you go.

He is basically the Pope of the Orthodox Church and he sits in the seat of Constantine.

Constantine, around the year 325, 350, whatever it was, that he had that Council of Nice or Nicaea that he declared you must keep Easter, you must keep Christmas, you must believe in the Trinity, you must worship on Sunday rather than the Sabbath.

He's the main character that we've talked about many years and really for the entire existence of this ministry since 2006 that we have repeatedly, repeatedly, repeatedly talked about the importance of Constantine and how he brought on this pagan religion that we now call Christianity and this archbishop patriarch of the Pope, basically the Pope of the Eastern Orthodox Churches, he sits in the seat of Constantine.

It would be incredibly ignorant and naive to not believe that he holds a very strong and major position within end time prophecy. Amen.

He sits in the seat of Constantine. Amen. The two legs of the statue of Daniel, chapter 2, the Eastern and Roman Empire.

That's simple. That is so simple. The Eastern Roman Empire, the Byzantine Church, is headed by this Bart guy whereas Pope Francis is on the left.

So these are the two horns of the false prophet. It's so clear. It's clear as day. There's no way that this can be wrong.

This is so clear. Clear as day.

And really we've been given hints for years but we just were not comprehending what God was showing us this whole time.

Okay, so I'm going to give you some information here from the internet, some articles that I got pulled up.

And one of the articles shows that the Eastern Orthodox Churches, they have a different date for Easter.

It's in May. That don't make sense to me but nevertheless they have Easter in May.

Now it's going to be the 1700 years anniversary. So that means it was 325, the Council of Nice in 325.

1700 anniversary this coming year of 2025 which is also another confirmation of the year 2025.

The 1700 year anniversary of the Roman Empire moving their government to Constantinople, the city of Constantinople is now Turkey.

What we saw around the year 325 AD is a division of the Roman Empire going to the west and to the east.

And within this anniversary of 2025 these two horns of the beast, false prophets, both of them being false prophets of the Antichrist, they plan, and this is public decoration, that they plan on uniting together as one date for Easter.

That is a major development of unity between the Western Catholic and the Eastern Catholic.

Now right here we must explain this right now because most people don't know this.

The Orthodox churches is 14 groups including the Greek Orthodox and the Russian Orthodox and 12 other groups.

This world leader that we're talking about as being the second horn of the beast is leader of all 14 divisions.

Now this does not include the oratorical Orthodox which completely broke away and does not recognize him.

But still yet 14 groups that do recognize him as the leader. And the official name of that organization of the 14 groups is Orthodox Catholic.

They use the name Catholic. It is a division of the Catholic Church. So whether you're talking about the Western Roman Empire or the Eastern Roman Empire or horn number one or horn number two or Pope Francis or Barthes, either one, you're still talking about the Catholic Church.

The Orthodox churches are Catholic in every aspect. They just have a different pope even though they don't call him pope.

They use the name Catholic. It is a division. It's the Eastern division of the Catholic Church. They admit that it's a division of the Catholic Church.

They call themselves Catholics. So it's basically another pope. And both the Barthes guy and Francis both have publicly declared repeatedly, repeatedly, that they want to unite the churches, that that is their goal, that they want to do that and both of them want to do that.

By bringing together unity of the date of Easter on the 1700 year anniversary of the split, that's huge and is a major development toward uniting those churches to be one again. And it will happen. Absolutely.

Assad is going to be a major focal point to help bring the Orthodox Catholic and the Western Catholic back together because Assad is the glue of that one world religion.

He's the glue of the Trinity doctrine. The Trinity doctrine originated in Assyria and even Christmas and Easter has an origin in Assyria.

And Assad himself actually keeps Christmas and Easter and believes in the Trinity even though he's a Muslim.

Most people don't know this but we have been proclaiming this for years and years.

The Assad believes Christmas and Easter in the Trinity. He supports the Sunday churches.

That's why you see them in years that they say that he supports Christians. It's that one world religion of combining Islam with Catholicism and Hinduism and Buddhism.

It's a one world religion that mixes all these different fragments together. Assad is the glue that's going to bring it together.

So when Assad does manifest in heaven in the temple of God according to 2 Thessalonians 2 and claims to be God, both of these religious figures will announce to the world that they accept Assad as God and as the higher person of the Trinity.

And that they are uniting all religions. That they are uniting the Orthodox Catholic and the Western Catholic.

And that they are inviting the Buddhists and the Hindus and the Protestants. That they are inviting you to join hands in unity with them of one world religion.

Now eventually, Assad will do away with all Christian aspects eventually. As he turns against that part of the beast.

As he turns against her and burns her with fire. He'll probably destroy the Vatican because he's going to exalt himself above the two horns.

He's going to exalt himself above all gods and everything called God. So he will eventually turn against the Trinity even though he starts out saying I believe in the Trinity and here's the Trinity.

He's going to eventually, with his ego, his arrogance, his pride, no longer even believe in the Trinity and no longer teach the Trinity but say that he's one and the only because he wants to copy the true God.

And the true God is only one, not a Trinity. Amen. He's starting with the Trinity to get the traditional Christians, to get the Catholics, to get the Orthodox, to get the Protestants.

But once he gets their support, he will no longer believe in the Trinity but exalt himself as the only one according to scripture. Amen.

The CatholicWorldReport.com reports that, I guess it happened in December of last year, a year ago, that there was a miracle from this Orthodox patriarch that he touched this vial of dry blood and it turned to liquid, wet blood.

It does occur that same vial turns to liquid, wet blood three times a year on exact specific dates every year.

But it wasn't time for it. It wasn't that date. So when he touched it, it turned to liquid, wet blood without even being one of those three dates that it normally occurs on.

So it's a demonic miracle and there may be others as well associated with this other horn of the false prophet.

But this same article also explains that he wants to bring unity between the Western and Eastern Catholics, unite the churches.

It's a very significant article. It's not just about that miracle, but about how he wants to bring unity to the Catholic churches and coexistence and peace and promote Islam and unity of humanity across the entire world to unite all people in religion in one religion.

Very significant article at the CatholicWorldReport.com from December of last year.

We see that Pope Francis is going to visit Turkey in May of 2025. We had posted that on Parrhesia a week ago today.

But guess what? It was in yesterday's local newspaper that it was an article of that exact same headline, exact same information was in our local newspaper yesterday, which I felt was a strong confirmation of this as well for that same article, that same information to come back up in our local newspaper just yesterday.

Okay, well that's, I believe that's all and I'm going to have Robert to share whatever he wants to share and also the chat room on Mixlr.com is available.

If you are registered on Mixlr and signed in, then right now is the time to give comments or questions as well as if you have my contact information on WhatsApp or Telegram or if you have my phone number and want to text me a question, that's fine as well.

In addition to questions, right now would be the appropriate time, the appropriate time you are welcome and invited to give testimonies to glorify our Heavenly Father, to share prayer requests as well as testimonies.

If you want to sing a song or share a song or share a Bible verse that you read this week, now is the time for the church to stand up to the plate and take your place.

Robert, you got anything? Not at this moment. Okay. And it's very significant that now God opens up our understanding of the true identity of the second horn of the false prophet.

At this time, to give that revelation is significant in this timing that we are so close to the Great Tribulation.

I did think of this, that we had gotten from Revelation 16:13 and the two horns saying that one of these false prophets would be Satan and the other one would be another fallen angel. And probably Satan is the Pope because that's six times more than the one that's in the Orthodox.

Okay, thanks for reminding me. Revelation 16 does reveal that three spirits, demons, come out of the mouth of these beasts.

So that reveals to us from Scripture that all three of them, Assad, Pope Francis, and the Archbishop of the Orthodox Catholic Church, that they are fallen angels, not humans.

So that's also relevant to understanding that they can't kill Assad. Only God can kill Assad because he's a fallen angel.

And we get from this also that Pope Francis is not only a fallen angel, but is actually Satan himself.

If I'm going to read that in Revelation 16, let's see that. Is it 16? 16 verse 13. Revelation 16 verse 13.

And I saw out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the evil beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet three unclean spirits like frogs.

Fourteen, and they are spirits of demons performing songs which go out to the kings of the entire world to gather them together for the war of the great day of the fields of the Almighty.

Let me pull this up real quick on my computer. Okay. Okay, so then when you look at Revelation 19 now, compare what we just read to Revelation 19 verse 20.

Revelation 19 verse 20. You there? And the evil beast talking about Assad was seized and with him the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence and by which he deceived those who had received the branding of the evil beast and who worshiped his stone talking about the black stone of Mecca.

That's the image of the beast. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with sulfur.

So this is how I get that Francis is Satan. It's because we have three demons coming out of the two false prophets and the Antichrist. Three. That's clear in Scripture.

And that makes sense because you've got three persons, right? But when you get to Revelation 19 verse 20, only two of them are thrown in the lake of fire on the day Jesus returns at the Battle of Armageddon.

That leaves one. Then immediately it starts talking about Satan being thrown into the bottomless pit for the millennium, the thousand years.

So if two are thrown in the lake of fire, but Satan survives and is arrested and thrown in prison for a thousand years, then that reveals the third demon that came out of the mouth of the three persons is Satan.

Two were thrown into the lake of fire, but one of them is Satan that is not yet thrown into the lake of fire until a thousand and one hundred years later. Amen.

So that reveals who Satan is. It doesn't spell it straight out for us, but we have to read between the lines that we now understand that Satan is the third demon coming out of the mouth of the three.

Now, Assad, it says that the dragon, Satan, gives him his authority. So Assad himself cannot be Satan.

So out of the two horns of the false prophet, which one would be Satan, the Archbishop of the Orthodox Church or Francis?

The answer to that is obvious, that it would be Francis because the Archbishop of the Orthodox Churches has already signed a legal document, a treaty with the Western Orthodox, with the Pope declaring that the Pope is higher than the Archbishop Pope of the Eastern Orthodox Catholic Church.

He acknowledges that Francis is higher than himself. So very clearly, the Pope Francis would be Satan because he wouldn't want to be vice president.

He wouldn't want to be second in charge. He wants to be the one that's mainly in charge between the two horns of the false prophet.

Okay, I'm going to look to see if there's any questions and comments. Yes, it is interesting.

Calm Adam, he says, I found this interesting that Bart is also known as the Green Patriarch because he's leading the charge about climate change and so forth, which Francis also is big into the climate change hoax and so forth.

So they're both promoting the same thing. They're both promoting Democrat, communism, Islam, world one world existence, all these things.

They're both identical in what they promote. Amen.

Good to see you, WRWCC. It's good to see you.

She says, thank you for this excellent teaching alongside with the previous one on New Moon.

It makes me realize just how little time we have left. Amen. It's really a little nerve-rattling even for myself to be this close because we've been waiting for such a long time for this moment.

We're humans. Amen. The scripture says that everyone on earth was shaking in fear. Amen.

It's very astounding and really honestly mind boggling the moment that we have now reached, but we praise Jesus.

He's given us this next three or four months heads up. That is so wonderful. He's given us time to gather supplies and get our minds straight about what we need to do. Amen.

Such a wonderful blessing. He's a wonderful father to given us this time.

It's good to see Felicia in England.

It's good to see everybody that's listening. There will be more coming to join us soon.

Let me check what's happening, see if anybody's typing.

I have already updated the False Prophet article on the website.

It's completely renewed, updated with this understanding. If you want to check out the False Prophet article on the website, I've completely updated that article now already.

So feel free to go ahead and check that out after we end the broadcast here in a minute.

And I will be updating the prophecy list with actual dates. With what we're seeing with Damascus, they're expecting Damascus could fall within the next three days.

That Assad could be overthrown within the next three days is what some people are saying.

It may be three days, it may be three months. But with what we're eyewitnessing, I don't see how we can doubt it anymore.

It would definitely be this coming spring for the Great Tribulation. I don't see how we can doubt it with what we're eyewitnessing. Amen.

So I would rather go ahead and declare these very specific dates now. Make all these edits on the website and go ahead and start boldly proclaiming the dates.

I'd rather do that than rather than to be wishy-washy and to continue to say it might be, and it might be, and it might be.

With what we're seeing, that forces me to take a new position. It forces me. If God delays it and it's not going to happen this next spring, well, that's between you and God about what you do with me.

If you listen to me anymore or not, that's between you and God. But I'm forced into a corner.

I have no choice. I don't. If I see the masses is falling in front of our eyes and we've been talking about this for years that it's going to happen and now we see it happening, I'm forced into a corner.

I have no choice. I have to declare the year 2025 as the year of the strong delusion and the great tribulation.

I have no choice in that. I don't see how it can be wrong. If I am wrong, then let everybody call me a false prophet if you want to. I don't fear because I have no choice in this with the information that's laid out for us right now. Amen.

And I would be glad to counsel with anyone in private about what you need to do.

I'd be glad to counsel with you. But I mean, we need to get it in gear and get prepared. Amen.

Calm Adam says you must sound the horn like the scripture says. And so over the past couple of days, especially the past few hours, I have been contacting several people on Twitter that are talking about Syria, news reporters and rebels themselves, opposition leaders and their spokesmen.

Actually, of course, their spokesmen, their Twitter guy that's reporting what's going on on the ground.

I've been in contact with these people and telling them that Assad is going to definitely recover from this attack.

And he's going to invade Israel. And the Muslims will declare him as the the Mahdi, but that he is the Antichrist of the Christian Bible.

And I said to each and every one of these, I know that you won't believe me right now, but please don't delete this message because it will be fulfilled.

So I'm reaching out to multiple people, even though they won't believe me, so that once it is fulfilled and Assad actually does recover from this biblical deadly head wound, that they're going to know somebody knew this in advance.

And how did I know it? It's not through my wisdom. It's not through my intelligence. It's from the scripture and from the Holy Ghost of Jesus.

That's how I know this in advance. Amen. How did Daniel know it in advance? What he did know, he didn't understand all of it, he said.

But what he did know, he knew in advance from God. Amen. Not of his own human wisdom.

Now, whatever you do in these next four months, don't be led by your own will.

Don't be led by your own human reasoning, not much. You've got to use some reasoning, I know.

But we must primarily be led by God himself. Be careful what you do, because you could easily go the wrong way in these next four months if you're not careful.

We must stay in line with God's plan, God's will, and God's movement. God's direction, he is the shepherd.

He is the head of the church. Let's seek his direction, because if we go our own direction, we could very easily end up in a trap.

Very easily, and a lot of people are going to end up in a trap because they follow their own direction.

We must be led by God himself. Let's work together as a church. It's time to make for sure that we are fully in the center of God's plan, It's time to make for sure that we are fully in the center of God's will for this junction of time.

Okay, if you think of any questions, you can send me those questions later on. I will be sending out a newsletter today, announcing all of this to the newsletter email subscribers.

I will be announcing all of this in the newsletter today, with specific dates and the declaration of the second horn.

And of course, people think that with President Trump having won the election, that world peace was coming.

And now with the fall of Assad, they're going to again declare world peace, peace for Israel.

What does the Bible say about this in 1 Thessalonians? That when they say peace and security, then shall sudden destruction come upon them.

We're reaching that moment right now.

And all of my life, there's never been a moment in my lifetime, because I was born after the end of World War II, there's never been a time in my lifetime that the world has shouted so loudly and so much in unity that there's now going to be world peace with what we see happening with Hezbollah and Hamas and now Syria and Trump, between all of that, that they think we're going to have world peace and Israel is going to be victorious against Iran.

What I'm expecting is for Israel to become more involved and possibly America to become more involved in these next three months in the Syrian situation.

How that's going to exactly come out, I don't know, but I'm expecting to see many more ships, American forces, NATO forces, to come into this picture in the next three months, accumulating into that war in heaven of Revelation 12 on the day of Purim.

There's still some accumulation. There's still some other events that we don't exactly understand that is coming into alignment.

And then finally, after the strong delusion, we'll see Israel surrounded by armies and Jerusalem surrounded by armies, Gentile armies as well. Amen.

The situation a few days ago in South Korea, where the president there declared martial law by shocking surprise, didn't last but only a few hours because there was great resistance within the government, their parliament, and I believe that that might be a warning shot for America.

It would not surprise me, and I'm not saying for sure, I'm not saying it will save the Lord, but it would not surprise me at all that Biden used a nuclear weapon within this next month or two months and declares martial law to stay in power, a national emergency.

Another thing that would not surprise me is if there's a major world epidemic virus that is released on purpose as well to contribute to the chaos in the world at this important junction of time.

We really don't know if Trump is going to be signed in on January 20th. We really don't know if he's going to be signed in.

He might, he might not. I'm just doing conjecture, educated guess at the moment. None of this is "thus said the Lord" on the issues of Trump and Biden, but I wouldn't be surprised of these possible developments to throw some New World Order chaos in the midst of what's occurring right now.

We've got to keep our eyes not only on Syria and Israel, but we need to keep our eyes on the Ukraine and Biden and China with Taiwan.

We don't know if China will invade Taiwan before the strong delusion or after the strong delusion.
The invasion of Taiwan could come at any moment, before or after March, at any moment.
We don't know the date of that.

So I'm expecting really total chaos from multiple directions.

Between now and March, even before The Strong Delusion, I'm expecting some new information, some new revelations, some new understanding and some new world-shaking events.

Even before March 14th, I'm expecting additional world-shaking events, breaking news, red alerts.

And as each thing occurs, we will understand more. We will see a better picture of how things are going to play out. And we're going to start having dreams and visions. Some of you are going to start having dreams and visions, and we're going to start having visitations of angels.

Because this is the way God has always done it, when it had come, these cursor moments in history, when it's changing from one major era in time to the next major era in time, and it's world-shaking and it's of biblical proportions, God always brings his angels, his manifestation, and the dreams and the visions to his people to give direction.

And we need to wait on that direction. But it would be wise for some people to make some movements in a wise and godly direction, even before you get dreams and visions.

Because God does expect us to use our human brains and human logic, human reasoning to some extent, even though we won't divine miracles, even though we don't want to go our own way or our own direction.

At the same time, there is a measure and a balance to that that God does want us to react out of fear.

The Bible says that Noah was moved with fear to the saving of eight souls of his family, of his household.

If Noah had no fear of that major transition of time, and if we ourselves, if you and I have no fear at this moment, that could be deadly.

Noah was moved with fear to the building of the ark and the finishing of the project.

We need to be moved with fear to the finishing of the project and the preparation of the ark.

We've got to take action. We can't just sit on our butts these next three months just waiting to see, just waiting to see, just waiting to see if it's going to be fulfilled, like most people are going to just wait and see.

We need to be moved at this moment to take some action.

And what I'm asking, at the very minimum, is every one of you to be sharing these messages on social media.

If you have a Facebook account or Twitter or Pinterest or whatever you may have, get it out there.

Copy and paste my messages, copy and paste articles, share the links to the articles, share the sermon, share everything you can from this ministry right now, more than ever before, and work at it.

Spend some time with it, some real time, more than just five minutes. Amen. It's important that we warn people and get the messages out there. Okay, I'm going to let you go, and we'll put on a song.

Let's do Trust and Obey, page 40.
