Hello everybody. Good to see everyone. Let's go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father, praise Your Holy Name. Thank You Father for Your mercies and Your continued grace upon us. Thank You for giving us strength to face another day.
Thank You for getting us through this week. Thank You Lord that we still have time.
Thank You that the door is still available, that the door is not yet closed. Father, we do ask for special help and strength today for this worship service.
We ask for Your special anointing. We ask for Your blessing on it. We accept it. We ask Lord that Your Spirit be prevalent and evident.
We ask Lord that You help us to feel Your presence stronger and better. Help us to walk in the center of Your will and not according to our own opinions and our own interpretations.
If we are wrong about anything, doctrine, teaching, or life, please show us the truth and help us to repent.
We ask all of this and pray that Your Word today not return void nor vain but accomplish the purpose whichforth You stand in Jesus' name. Amen.
Praise Jesus. Thank You, John. Thank You, Robert.

Let's turn to Isaiah 10. Isaiah 10. I play that shofar soundtrack today. That alarm, that shofar, that trumpet because today we're talking about the true identity of the end time antichrist son of perdition, also known in the Islamic world as the 12th Mahdi.
The end time world leader of the one world religion and one world government empire, the Assyrian empire that will be set up upon the earth in the coming years.
We must first clarify our definition of the word antichrist. We know, we understand, we are not ignorant of the fact that the Bible says that there are many antichrist and that they already walked in the earth during the time of the Apostle Paul, even in the time of Jesus, even before that.
But we are talking today in the context of specifically the antichrist, not an antichrist but the antichrist, the end time man of lawlessness, man of sin and son of destruction, very specifically.
Just to kick out half the people that will listen to this later, right there is your reason to clarify now.
It's ridiculous what we have to do, what we have to clarify, but there you go.

And many people try to say that it's impossible to know who is the end time world leader, antichrist, impossible. But that is a very foolish way of thinking that it would be impossible for a God himself who knows all things and all mysteries, impossible for him to reveal to his church, his bride, his people, his kingdom, his citizens, his children, his people, his chosen elect such mysteries or such facts.
Very foolish thinking that God's not able nor willing to reveal to his own people such things that are of great importance for the end time.
They only want to think it's impossible because they don't care and that's the fact.
That's the bottom line. They don't care who it is and therefore they don't want you to care who it is.
That's the truth. The Bible says straight out who it is. Absolutely. It says it straight out.
We'll read it today. It identifies him not only by nationality but by name. We will prove that without a shadow of a doubt.

Now I know that the people who are devoted to listening to our sermons every week, you already know who we're talking about and you've already read the article and most of you are in agreement, but as we get closer and closer to that time of when he will publicly and worldwide proclaim that he is the Mahdi, that he is God, that he is God above all gods.
As we get closer to that moment, it is important, very extremely important to declare these facts yet again publicly and make it easier for more and more people to find the information.

The more we speak about it, the easier it will be for them to find it. It's very important to reveal his identity in advance ahead of time, as far ahead of time as possible because he is a danger to people.

He's a danger to our families, our societies, to the true church, to us, every one of us individually, to every person that will ever hear, ever, ever in the future or currently hear this sermon.

The Antichrist is a real danger to you personally. It's important. It's a very important topic and as we are running out of time, it's becoming even more important.

Every day that passes, every month that passes, every year that passes, it becomes even more important because people must absolutely be warned to not worship him, even though him and his associates will do great miracles, raise the dead, bring fire down out of the sky, heal the blind, the lame, the deaf and the mute, that you've still yet must not follow him, even though if you don't follow him, you will not have a job, you will not have money, you will not have a check, you will not be able to live in society, you will be thrown in a concentration camp, a prison, a jail or beheaded or tortured.

Something will happen unless you are hiding and protected by God. So, it's very important to warn people, even though they are not going to believe us, they are not going to believe us anyway about the Sabbath, the true holy days, the timeline or anything else.

The world is blind and they don't want the truth and that's just the simple fact.

They don't want the truth about any of these things, but that doesn't stop us from sharing the truth with people that possibly could listen.

We're looking for that one next person and that's all it is, is one. It might be somebody that you know in your local area, that one next person that is willing to hear the truth and how do we know that unless we ask, unless we proclaim, unless we evangelize.

We don't know who will accept and won't accept unless we are actually putting it to action of doing what the Bible says to do and that is to go into all the world as a witness to all nations, baptizing them and teaching them everything that I have taught you. Amen.

We have to try. Again, it's between them and God. A lot of people hold people back.

You might be holding somebody back. You think, well, they won't listen. They won't believe. They don't care.

How do you know if you haven't tried? Amen. Don't be the person that holds somebody back. They might shock you. Amen.

And it's also very important to understand that even though they won't believe right now, prophecy is key to beliefs, vital, extremely important.

The spirit of prophecy is the spirit of Christ. It really is. It's been said that a third of the Bible is prophecy. A third. That's a lot. Amen.

It's very important that we be prepared for the future, but it's also important because if we share a prophecy and even though they're going to laugh at us and think we're stupid and think we're crazy and think we're deceived, nevertheless, once the prophecies are fulfilled, they will stop laughing and they will remember what you told them because these are incredible prophecies. Amen.

These are incredible prophecies that the other churches are not sharing with the people.

So, once they see the fulfillment, they'll be like, wow, that person, that such-and-such person, I thought they were stupid.

I thought they were crazy. I thought they were deceived. I thought they were following a cult, but they were right when they told me about the president of Syria being the end-time Antichrist.

They were right. And if they were right about that, then what else were they right about?

They will immediately begin to listen to you. They will immediately begin to have their eyes opened for the very first time in their lives because you did plant a seed of correct prophecy with other seeds of correct doctrine.

They saw the prophecies come true, then obviously, very clearly, you may be right about other doctrines as well.

It could be just what it takes to see a great fruit for the kingdom. Amen. It could be just what it takes for somebody's salvation.

In Isaiah 10, it tells you who the Antichrist is.

Verse 1, woe to them. I want to make sure we have, verse 1 is where we want to start, and we're going to read through verse 14.

Verse 1, woe to them that write wickedness. For when they write, they do write wickedness, perverting the cause of the poor, violently wresting the justice of the needy ones of my people, that the widow may be prey to them and the orphan a spoil.

And what will they do in the days of visitation? For affliction shall come to you from afar.

In other words, from a foreign nation. And to whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory, that you may not fall into captivity? For all of this, his wrath is not turned away, yet his hand is still extended to you.

Woe to the Assyrians, the rod of my inundation, rod of my wrath. In other words, his paddle stick.

The Assyrians are the paddle stick or the switch that God will be using to spank the Americans, to spank the unruly children. Amen.

Because that's what a good father does, is to discipline his children. And God will discipline America, Australia, Canada, and other Israelite nations, including the Jews, by using the Assyrians.

Verse 6, I was in my wrath against, or anger against, a sinful nation. Talking about Israel.

And I was charged by people to take plunder and spoil, and to trample the cities, and to make them dust.

But he meant not thus, neither did he devise thus in his soul, but his minds are changed, and that to destroy not a few.

What is saying in verse 6 and verse 7 is that everyone on earth is his physical children, not necessarily his spiritual children, and are physically his people, not necessarily his spiritual people, and that the Antichrist will destroy multiple nations, not a few.

Verse 8, and if they should say to him, you alone are a ruler, then shall he say, have I not taken the country above or upon Babylon, and this other place, and where the tire was built, the tire of Babylon, have I not taken Arabia, Saudi Arabia, and Damascus, Syria, Samaria, have I not taken all these regions.

So he's boasting about his military victories. Verse 10, as I have taken them, I will also take all the kingdoms, all of them, all the nations.

How, you idols in Jerusalem and in Samaria, for as I did to Samaria and her idols, so will I do also to Jerusalem and her idols.

And it's come to pass when the Lord shall have finished doing all these things on Mount Zion and Jerusalem, that I would visit upon the proud heart, talking about the Antichrist, because he boasts out of pride, that I would visit him, even upon the ruler of the Assyrians, right there it identifies him, the ruler of the Assyrians, and upon the boastful arrogance of his eyes.

For he said, I will act in strength, and in the wisdom of my understanding, I will remove the boundaries of nations, and I will spoil their strength, and I will safely inhabit cities, and I would take with my hand all the world as a nest, and I will even take them as eggs that have been left, and there is none that shall escape me nor conjure victims.

Very boastful, very proudful, it's all about him, him, him, he exalts himself above everything, and everyone, amen.

But he's the ruler of the Assyrians.

You can do a simple internet search, how many Assyrians live in the United States, how many Assyrians, why is the Assyrian population in Turkey, in Jordan, in Israel, in Russia, you can go down the list, and nothing compares, nothing even comes close to the number of Assyrians that were in Syria, common sense, it's just common sense, they don't take even much common sense to understand this.

I understand, I'm not ignorant of the fact that at one time in history in the Bible, the Assyrians and the Syrians were not the same people, they was at war against each other, the Assyrians and Syrians were not at one time the same people, but they did fight war, and there was conquest, and they did become the one and the same people.

As I said, a simple internet search will reveal to you that the nation of Syria did have the largest world's population by far, no one else even came close to the number of the Assyrian people in Syria.

Now, they claimed that changed with the so-called civil war in Syria, and that a lot of them departed to other nations, and so they say we don't know how many are still left in Syria, they don't know the number.

So, but that doesn't tell us that that number is not still yet the largest world's population of Assyrians, they claim it might not be now, but then in recent years, they have begun to return more and more and more every year, they are now returning.

And it really doesn't make any sense to me, I mean not in a sense, but I mean doesn't matter to me about even if they never came back.

Because it was until the recent years of that war in Syria, it was the world's largest Assyrian population, and that would have been true for probably thousands of years, at least hundreds of years, that would have been true.

So that's, you can't just ignore that, you can't just throw that away just because of recent developments.

You've got to also think that prophecy of course is written for the time in which the prophecy would be fulfilled, is written to us today more than what it was written for people that was living on earth 500 years ago, or even 200 years ago, or even 100 years ago, or 2,000 or 3,000 years ago.

Prophecy for the end time is statistically written for our generation more than any other generation that's ever existed. Therefore, would not God use such terms that we could understand Assyria in our day and time being Syria?

It's simple, it's easy, it's common sense. He would want us, that's why he's writing to us, that's why God is using these prophets and apostles to write things down, is to deliver a message.

Duh! Come on now, common sense. Delivering a message, he wants us to know something, that's why you write somebody, that's why Paul wrote the church, that's why God had the prophets and apostles to write things down, is to relay a message.

He wants us to know something. The Assyrians, the ruler of the Assyrians. Whether you call him king, whether you call him president, it don't matter, whether you call him prime minister, the ruler of the Assyrians in our generation, the last, the end time generation is a saw.

And it can't be anyone else. And we'll even show his name in the book of Revelation here in a few minutes.

But first let's go down to verse 24 here in Isaiah 10, verse 24. Therefore thus say of Jesus of all creation, be not afraid my people who dwell in Zion of the Assyrians.

Don't be afraid of the Assyrians because he, specifically the ruler of the Assyrians, shall strike you with a rod, again he is God's paddle stick, for I am bringing affliction upon you that you may see the way of Egypt for yet a little while and then the wrath shall cease that my wrath shall be against their counsel.

So we must know about who the Antichrist is but not necessarily fear him so much that we can't go around telling people about it. Amen.

Now we do have to use wisdom, we do have to use caution. God does not expect us nor want us to be so fearful of him that we don't even have an article or a sermon talking about this.

That would be a sin. If we know it, we're held responsible to reveal it, to proclaim it, to speak it forth.

So that's why he's saying don't fear the ruler of the Assyrians. Most translations actually say it as do not fear the ruler of the Assyrians or the king of Assyria rather than saying don't fear the Assyrians.

Most translations specifically say don't fear the Assyrians. However you want to word it, it doesn't matter.

It's the same thing. But just because we don't fear him doesn't mean that we should not use caution.

God does not require us nor expect us to be foolish. We have to use caution. And what I mean by that is not using government Gmail because Gmail, Google mail is government email.

Absolutely. And they will track every person you know and everything you say. We have to use caution not that we're breaking the law at the current moment but once the great tribulation starts and the law is proclaimed that if you say anything at all against Assad or if you say that Assad is the Antichrist that you will be arrested or worse then that what you have written in the Gmail will come against you, will be held against you as evidence.

And they are monitoring all of that right now. They're already making a list of who to arrest.

That list is already written. Amen. But you're just adding to the evidence and adding to the how easy it is to find you and your family and your friends and other members of the church making it easier for them to track you down, find you, every move you make, your routine, your schedule, everything.

You're making it easier for them every time and every time that you use the government mail, the Gmail.

That's foolish. That's foolish. Amen.

But let's continue over in chapter 11 now, verse 1.

And there shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse and a blossom shall come up upon his root.

This is talking about Christ coming out of Israel. In verse 2, the spirit of Theos rests upon him, upon Christ, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and strength, the spirit of knowledge and godliness shall feel him.

Amen.

Verse 3, the spirit of the reverence of Theos. He shall not judge according to appearance nor reprove according to hearsay, but he shall judge the cause of the lowly and should reprove the lowly of the earth and shall strike the earth with the word of his mouth and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one, talking about the ruler of the Assyrians.

It's important to understand that originally there was no separation between chapter 10 and chapter 11. In the original Bibles, there were no chapter separations at all in any of the books of the Bible. So you would have been reading about the ruler of the Assyrians and the Assyrians and his invasions and his boasting having come to this verse. So it's still talking about the ruler of the Assyrians when it does say the ungodly one. And it shows that when Christ returns upon this earth that he will strike the ruler of the Assyrians with the breath of his mouth. And this verse refers straight to what Revelation 19 verse 15 speaks about that very same event as well as 2 Thessalonians 2 verse 8. Both of those verses in the New Testament are 100% directly related to, we have those footnotes right there in verse 4. 2 Thessalonians 2 verse 8, Revelation 19 and 15, they are both referring back to what Isaiah the prophet wrote. Amen. Isaiah the prophet wrote it but it's written for our generation. Amen. And then Paul spoke of the same event and then John spoke of the same event. So we got three prophets here speaking of the exact same event. Is it like Daniel 7? Oh no, it doesn't matter. So Paul would have known that the Antichrist was the Assyrian and so would have John. Paul didn't write that he was the Assyrian that we knew of as far as the writings we got. We don't have all the writings of Paul, we know that for a fact that not all of the writings of Paul survived. We know that for a fact. The same thing with John, so when we say that John and Paul didn't write it, we're only talking about what writings that we have left. But we do know by common sense, just only by common sense that John and Paul would have known that the end time Antichrist would be Assyrian because they would have known the book of Isaiah. And Isaiah was extremely popular and extremely well known in that day and time of Jesus and Paul and John. Isaiah was one of the most popular and most quoted books and even Jesus himself in the New Testament quoted Isaiah I think more than any other book of the Old Testament that he had quoted. So we can't ignore this and yet churches do worldwide ignore this fact and it's a simple fact.

Now a lot of people say all of these are talking about the Assyrian invasions of 3,000 years ago or even in the time of Antiochus 2,300 years ago. And they would be right that they were fulfilled thousands of years ago. But what they don't understand is that prophecy is dual and that many multiple prophecies have a first fulfillment and a second fulfillment. And even Christ himself said in Matthew 24 that we are to wait for and watch for the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet. Speaking of Daniel 12, abomination of desolation. Now he spoke that in the very clear absolutely clear context of the end time Antichrist the end time generation not of 70 AD because of all the other verses before and after that in Matthew 24. It's very very very clear talking about the end time because Jesus did not come back in 70 AD. So it's very clear talking about the end time generation and yet what Daniel was talking about in the abomination of desolation in Daniel 12 being also the end time generation was not what was fulfilled in the time of the Maccabees of Antiochus. So let me just say this again. Let me get this into your head. Yes many of the verses in Daniel was fulfilled with the Syrian and Antiochus, during the time of the Maccabees, the Maccabean war, the conquest of Judah in that day and time when what most people would say the origin of Hanukkah. That was a fulfillment but then hundreds of years later Christ was still predicting it for the end time. So right there alone proves absolutely 100% proves that there is a first fulfillment which had already been fulfilled before Jesus spoke that and then a second fulfillment of the end time of the same prophecy. A first abomination of desolation during the time of the Maccabees who was conducted performed by Antiochus the Syrian. He was the rod of indignation, the rod of God's wrath, God's paddle stick for that day for that time as I said every generation has his own great tribulation. Amen.

Before we leave Isaiah 11 there is another indication that it has the end time right there which is that right after the destruction of this Assyrian you have the turn of Jesus the kingdom and millennium right there. All right in chapter 11? Yeah. So brother Robert said chapter 11 also talks about the return of Jesus and the establishment of God's kingdom.

So right there it transitions from what is obviously already been fulfilled thousands of years ago and then transitions into an antichrist of the Assyrian ruler of the Assyrians.

Because it starts talking about Jesus coming back and it does talk about Jesus coming back even in verse 1, and then all the way down into the rest of this chapter even it becomes not only the birth of Jesus but these that could come in of Jesus and the establishment of God's kingdom.

So right there shows you as well that that is talking about an end time ruler of the Assyrians.

Now let's go over to Daniel 11. All right Daniel 11 and let's look at we're just going to glance at verse 21.

Daniel 11 verse 21 and if you look there you see a footnote and the octopus the fourth 175 to 164 BC that these events occurred of verse 21.

You see verse 22 171 BC verse 23 170 BC and it goes on down as it gets closer to zero date verse 29 168 BC and so forth.

When you get down to verse 35 and 36 is the transition into the end time verses 21 through verse 35 it's talking about Antiochus the fourth the king of Syria during the time of the Maccabees and what people normally would consider the origin of Hanukkah verse 21 to 35.

Now all Bible scholars agree across multiple denominations and churches across the world.

All Bible scholars agree that verse 21 to 35 is Antiochus, the king of Syria, but at the same time they also all agree that verse 36 transitions to talking about the end-time antichrist, the end-time antichrist.

Except for of course the few people, the few Bible scholars that don't believe in an end-time antichrist, which is really stupid, but there's a few of those.

But all of the ones that do believe in an end-time antichrist, which is the majority of them, they admit that verse 36 through the end of Daniel is the end-time antichrist.

But yet when you read these verses it does not distinguish between the personage, the person, the being that are performing these actions.

It doesn't make any distinction at all between verse 35 and the previous verses and then the following verses through the end of the book again.

No distinction. You can't tell that there is a different person or different being performing these actions, doing these things.

What does that say to you? Common sense. It's the same being. It doesn't say anything like, for example, a being later on that will arise, another king, another person, another being, another ruler.

It doesn't say anything like that. It's still talking about the same being. How is that possible? That's why people can't mind it, fleshly mind it, not spiritually thinking why they don't see the connection.

Because how can it be the same being when it's 2,200 years later? How can it be the same being?

Because most people don't even know that the antichrist is a fallen angel and the ones that do understand that he's a fallen angel, they think that the antichrist is Satan himself, which is also ridiculous and cannot be supported by scripture.

In fact, the scripture says that Satan gives him his power. So if Satan gives the antichrist the power and the authority and the seat of authority, then it cannot be Satan himself.

It has to be a separate and different being. But he is still a fallen angel, which makes it possible to be the same being 2,000 years later.

This identifies him as being the ruler of Syria, specifically, because it was specifically Antiochus Epiphanes, which was Syrian, not just Assyrian.

And it does not distinguish of it being a different ruler or a different nation or a different nationality as we get into the end time verses of verse 36 and through chapter 12.

We do know that it says that here in verse 36 says, if we look into the old Greek, but actually let's read the Theodotion version, which is the first portion of each.

The reason I want to read that one is because it has been gone through with a fine comb better.

I still got to yet go through the old Greek closure with a fine comb to fix anything that needs to be fixed.

So we'll look at the Theodotion, the top verse, which is in a bolder font. Verse 36, and he should do according to his will, his own will, and the king should exalt and magnify himself against every god and speak great swelling words and would prosper until the innovation, the wrath, should be accomplished.

So that word innovation referring back to Isaiah 10 verse 5, that is a clue where it says that the Assyrian is the rod of his innovation.

So that is another clue. And verse 37, you would not regarding the gods of his predecessors, his forefathers and so forth.

So we know that the Antichrist will exalt himself above everything called God, even Allah, which the Muslims call God.

We have video proof at isawthelightministries.com/antichrist.html video proof that Assad, his soldiers, his kingdom, that they force people to say that Assad is God and God above all gods, even above Allah.

Syria and Assad are typically seen as being Islamic. Muslims worship Allah as God, Satan as God, Yah, Allah, Yah, Yahweh, they are all the same.

They, that's who they worship. But yet, there is video proof. We've had this video proof for multiple years, years. How can you have any doubt who the Antichrist is when you have such video proof?

I don't know of any other president, king, prime minister upon the earth where his soldiers and his followers are forcing people to say that their president is God above all gods, even above Allah.

There's no other president like that.

Yes, there are people claiming to be Jesus that have followers of a few hundred or only a couple of thousand, but we're talking about kings, presidents, prime ministers, those that are actual rulers of nations.

That's what we're talking about, not somebody with only, that has no government control, that only has a couple hundred or a couple thousand followers.

So, Assad is the only national leader that fulfills this description that we have video proof of, or any proof of, and he is the ruler of the Assyrians, of the largest Assyrian population on the earth in all modern times.

How can there be any doubt? We've already, we could just shut the book right now.

We could just close the sermon right now. This is enough evidence. How can anyone doubt, but yet people will read not only what I've shared so far, but we have on the website at isawthelightministries.com, we have 51 main proofs.

When I say main proofs, it could be divided up into over a hundred if I was to break them down every little tiny point.

Well, over a hundred, probably two or three hundred. But the way that we have grouped them together, 51 main, tremendous, strong points, not weak points, but strong points in that, proving that he is the antichrist.

And people read down that list and see not only ten points, not only twenty points, not only thirty, not only forty, but fifty-one points of evidence of proof and still not belief.

And when that happens, it's obvious the person doesn't want to believe the truth regardless of what the truth may be.

Regardless of what the truth is and is not, such people don't want the truth. That's the bottom line.

But that doesn't stop us from sharing the truth. Amen.

The good news translation, which is a very poor translation, is a horrible translation.

But nevertheless, a translation of the Bible called the good news translation in Daniel 11 verse 36, instead of just using the word he, it says the king of Syria, because they know it's talking about the king of Syria.

And verse 36 is, as I said, agreed upon many different churches and denominations, Bible scholars across the world of different nationalities and languages.

Verse 36 is talking about the end time antichrist, where that translation specifically says that it is the king of Syria.

Let's go to the book of Revelation, Revelation 13. Revelation 13 should immediately come into your mind that that's the chapter that's talking about the mark of the beast.

Revelation 13, every time you hear that for the rest of your life, Revelation 13 is the chapter of the mark of the beast. You've got to get that into your memory so that when you are witnessing, witnessing, evangelizing with your family and friends and co-workers and people and strangers that you know what you're talking about. You can just jump right to that chapter. Amen. Verse 1, and the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore. Now what seashore?

Pacific ocean? No, of course not. The Bible is a book about Israel, specifically. Amen.

From cover to cover, from A to Z is about Israel. The shore is the Mediterranean Sea. Amen.

So this dragon is standing on the beach of the Mediterranean Sea in the Middle East.

And I saw an evil beast. Now all other translations only use the word beast, which is ridiculous because the word Greek means wild beast or evil beast, not just beast.

So it's ridiculous that they don't translate it correctly. But he's an evil beast.

He's a wild beast. Coming up out of the Mediterranean Sea having ten horns, seven heads, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads blasphemous names.

Now these heads and crowns, they represent different empires that has existed, come and gone, and shall be come back. But also ten end time world leaders as well.

Now on his heads, blasphemous names.

Not just one name, but there's an S on the end of this. It's plural, more than one name.

Yahshua, Yahweh, Yah, Allah, the name, the list, the list, the list, the list goes on and on and on of these names. Amen.

They would, of course, be Assyrian names because that he is already identified in the Bible as being Assyrian.

So they would be Assyrian names. The Assyrian wouldn't have a German name. The Assyrian wouldn't have an American name. So why are people claiming that the Antichrist is Biden or Trump or Prince Charles or King Charles now? Amen.

Because those are not Assyrian names and they are not Assyrian people and they are not rulers of the Assyrian people, never have been. Amen.

And Jordan has never been a large Assyrian population in modern times ever and neither has Turkey been a very large Assyrian population.

But a lot, tons and tons and tons of people are trying to claim that the president of Turkey is the end time Assyrian because there's a very famous preacher proclaiming that.

There's been books sold by the millions proclaiming that the president of Turkey is the Assyrian.

But that's just ridiculous with such a small Assyrian population. But these are Assyrian names.

Verse 2, and this wild, this evil beast which I saw was like a leopard which we know is a symbol of Iran and his feet like a bear which we know is a symbol of Russia and his mouth like the mouth of a lion and the dragon which we also know is a symbol of China gave him his power and his throne and his great authority.

But we also know that the dragon is Satan and Satan gives the Antichrist his power, his throne, his seat and great authority.

Now if you read this verse in Arabic where it says wild beast, it would have Asa's real surname, his last name, his real one.

We say his real one, his original one, because he is so supposed so called grandfather.

We know he's a fallen angel so it wouldn't be his real grandfather. But the person that they claimed was his grandfather changed the family name.

And I don't know how to pronounce it Wahash, we could say w-a-h-a-s-h, Wahash, was their original surname.

Why did they change the name? They changed the name because it means a wild beast or evil beast and they didn't like that.

They didn't like that because it's too obvious, especially if you had an Arabic Bible and your name was there as being the Antichrist then you change it if you want to conceal your identity. Amen?

If you want to conceal your identity you change your name. Amen? Amen. So right there it names the Antichrist. And then when you get to the word lion, if you read this in an Arabic Bible, if you was a Christian in the Arabic world, which is millions of people, millions of people, perhaps even a billion, I don't know how many.

Let me just look it up real fast because I want to know this. I have John to do it please.

Look up how many Arabs, however you want to word that, what is the world's population of Arabs or whatever, how many Arab people exist in the world?

Let me know please. And that would be a huge number of people that could, of course they're not all Christians, they're mostly Muslims, but that's significant.

But the word lion here in an Arabic Bible would be Assad. Assad. So that again identifies who the Antichrist is. Assad is the name they changed it to, but it's there both the original and the current last names.

So I don't see how there could be any debate. Amen? How there can there be any debate? The Bible says it is Assad.

The Bible says it is wahash. And both of those words are in the same verse, in the exact same verse.

And then if you keep reading it has beast over and over and over and over throughout this chapter, that would be wahash, wahash, wahash, wahash, wahash, it is. Amen.

So thank you Kareem, four hundred and fifty six million Arabs. Four hundred and fifty six million Arabs on this planet.

That's a lot.

They're not all Christians, but they know Arabic. Amen. Now, let's consider two objections to this. A lot of people that I have shared this information with, they always want to have this objection that no, there's no way it could be Assad because of their own opinion.

Okay, just forget what the Bible says. Just forget all of this. Just forget everything. Forget the video proof, his name being in the Arabic Bible repeatedly, both the original name and the current name.

Just forget it. Just throw it out the window. Just forget that it says that he is the leader of Assyria. Just forget that it is talking about Antiochus Epiphanes, the Assyrian in the end time. Just forget all of this, just because you have an opinion. Because the world does not love him.

Oh, the world doesn't love him and adore him like the antichrist will be. The antichrist will be this guy that is easily appealed to as far as like people appealed to him very easily and the world doesn't do that.

The world hates him, so it can't be him.

Well, I'm on many different social media outlets.

Twitter, which they now call X, Facebook and so forth and I can tell you people do adore Assad.

They do, absolutely. Many so-called conservatives, which they need their man card removed and they need their Republican card removed and they need their conservative card removed and they need their Christian card removed because they believe that Assad is a good guy.

That he's the victim of America and Israel. That America is the bad guy and Israel is the bad guy and that Assad is a good guy and Putin is the good guy and Alex Jones is the good guy.

It's ridiculous. People have lost their minds. No common sense, no brains. No common sense, no brains.

I just got to say it the way it is. No brains, zombies.

The other excuse that they use is that the antichrist would come to power through a peace treaty.

Show me that in the Bible. The best they can do is a verse in Daniel 9 and that verse takes interpretation and it doesn't say peace treaty.

It says covenant. A covenant. Well, there's many different types of covenants. It does not say a peace treaty.

So that's interpretation and the Bible says that there should be no private interpretation of prophecy.

The Bible says that. No private interpretation of prophecy. If you take the word covenant and change it to peace treaty and you can't verify that in the Greek, in the Hebrew, in the Aramaic, in the Jordanian.

If you cannot translate it and you just change it just out of your opinion then that's private interpretation which is forbidden.

It's not private interpretation to say this is the Arabic word is Assad. That lion does mean Assad.

That's not private interpretation. That's translation. Amen. Totally different. People's opinions have got to stop because people's opinions are usually always wrong. Amen.

The Bible interprets itself. The Bible explains itself. The Bible teaches itself.

The problem is people's opinions and what you've been taught by the church of YouTube and the church of government Google.

That's the problem. You've been reading this bestseller books saying that the president of Turkey is the Antichrist.

That's your problem. You're reading these man-made books rather than just believing what the Bible says that he is the ruler of the Assyrians.

It's easy. Amen. The Bible actually does tell us how he comes to power.

Let's go back to Daniel 11.

Actually we're here in Revelation 13. Let's look at some. Revelation 13. It says here in verse 3.

Revelation 13 verse 3. One of his heads seemed like it had been slain but his fatal wound was healed and the majority of the earth was amazed and followed after the evil beast and they worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the evil beast.

And they worshiped the evil beast, saying "Who is like the evil beast and who is able to wage war with him?"

Why do they say this? Who's able to wage war with him? You look at Assad and multiple nations for multiple years have tried to wage war against Assad and try to overthrow him and it is exactly what they've been trying to do is to try to overthrow him for multiple years.

Israel, Turkey, America and Saudi Arabia have tried to overthrow Assad. They sent soldiers by thousands and thousands and thousands from Saudi Arabia and other nations to try to overthrow Assad.

That's why I say it's a so-called civil war. So-called. It's not a civil war. It never was a civil war.

The Syrian people worship Assad. But these other nations sent in foreigners to try to overthrow Assad which is a good thing but impossible.

Only Christ will destroy Assad if you believe the Bible. Amen. Only Christ will destroy Assad. He can't be killed with a gun.

He can't be killed with a sword. He's an angel, a fallen angel. You can't kill a fallen angel with a gun or a bomb or airplane. Amen.

Only Christ can and will absolutely destroy Assad. Amen.

So the objections just go right out the window if you choose to believe the Bible rather than private interpretation written in men's books and videos and movies. Amen.

Go back to Daniel 11 because I want to show you what the Bible says how he comes to power.

Verse 40, in my volume is page 205, I mean 505 but it might be a different page depending on when you ordered your coffee, page 505, Daniel 11 verse 40.

At the time of the end, the end time, not 2,000 years ago, at the time of the end he will comply with the king of the south which is Egypt which the old Greek actually says is Egypt and the kingdom of the north — which I'm saying is NATO, America, Turkey — will come against him with chariots, with horsemen, with many ships and he will enter into the nation of Egypt.

That's war. That's not a peace treaty and there's nothing between verse 36 and 40 or even after this that says that he breaks the peace treaty or had a peace treaty.

It just describes a war. So he comes to power through war. Amen. Through war. Who was able to wage war with him? Now not only has there been war in Syria for multiple years, but we also know that Revelation 12 which comes right before Revelation 13, that there's a war in heaven and even against Israel, against those that keep the commandments and that there's attack against the church.

Revelation 12, last few verses. So there's not only what has already occurred in the fake civil war in Syria, but also a war to come that is much more intense that causes the deadly headwind.

If we allow the Bible to interpret itself, Daniel, let's see if we're finding it.

Is it chapter three that says and maybe even chapter seven that talks about the head of Syria.

I'll find it here in a second. Isaiah 7:8, that's where it's at. Turn to Isaiah 7:8. We know that Isaiah 7 verse 8, what page number is that? 387.

The head of Syria is Damascus and the head of Damascus is Rasim.

So look at the word head there. So in Revelation, it talks about the deadly head wound.

The head wound, people think, is a shotgun blast. Why don't they allow the Bible to interpret itself?

The head is the capital city. The head is the capital city. Even in the Greek, the word for head can at times mean a capital city. It's not always a human head.

So even by the Greek word, as well as Isaiah 7, verse 8, that the head, meaning the capital of Syria, is Damascus.

Then there's the other verse about Damascus being a ruinous heap. Isaiah 17, verse 1.

Isaiah 17, verse 1. The word against Damascus, behold Damascus shall be taken away from among cities and shall become a ruin.

Most translations say it shall become a ruinous heap, a pile of dirt, in other words.

So we have a prophecy here that Damascus, which is the head of Syria, the capital city of Syria, will be destroyed.

If you remember, Isaiah 10 and Isaiah 11, specifically was talking about the king of Assyria.

So if we consider that chapter 10 and 11 is talking about the antichrist, chapter 7 is identifying the head wound, the head of Syria being Damascus, and chapter 17 is the destruction of Damascus.

Are they not all related? Chapter 7, chapter 10, chapter 11, chapter 17, they're not even that far apart. Amen? 7, 10, 11, 17, they're not even that far apart.

So if you take all of this and add it up with some common sense and what Daniel says and what Revelation says, why would anyone doubt except for they don't want the truth that we won't shut up anyway? Amen?

No doubts. No doubts.

The President of Syria is the only Jewish, Iranian, Islamic, Christian, Buddhist, Hindu president on earth. Yes, Assad is the only Jewish, Iranian, Islamic, Christian, Buddhist, Hindu, one world religion co-exists national president on earth. He observes Sunday, Christmas, Easter, while claiming to be a Muslim. He observes Christmas, believes in it, has a special Christmas message to the nation on Christmas and yet he's a Muslim. He even believes in communion. There's no other world religion, I mean national leader that blends the Roman Catholic religion with Islam, Buddhism and Hindu. He believes in reincarnation which is a Buddhist thing as well. There's no value that can fulfill the one world religion co-exists national empire, I mean international worldwide empire and gather the worship of people across all nations as much as Assad could possibly do since he blends all religions, all religions, all religions together. He does. He even sent his own version of the Quran to Islamic organizations worldwide. So isn't that very telling that he is the end time world Mahdi, the end time Islamic leader? The president of Jordan and the president of Turkey, they've not sent copies of their own Quran to Islamic organizations worldwide. They've not done it, but Assad did.

Iran, which is best friends with Assad, has declared that they do know who the end time Mahdi is, who the end time world leader to describe to you who the Mahdi is or what Mahdi is.

What is the Mahdi? M-A-H-D-I. Again, that's M-A-H-D-I. What is that? That is the person that Islam predicts as conquering the entire world in the end time.

Conquering, waging war against all nations and will conquer and take over Israel and America and all nations worldwide.

A one world religion, a one world government. They confess this. That this is their goal. That this is what they are pursuing.

This is what they are pursuing in Gaza. This is what Hamas wants. This is what Hezbollah wants. This is what even Assad wants.

This is what all Muslims want. That's the antichrist. That's the antichrist. And Iran says they know who it is.

They have publicly said they know who it is. And they have also publicly said that a future attack on Syria would be connected to the revealing of who he is.

An attack on Syria would be connected with revealing who he is. Well, if he's not the Syrian, if he's not the president of Syria, then why would the attack on Syria reveal who the Mahdi is?

Come on, use some common sense. They're telling you right there that it's the president of Syria.

The United Nations has repeatedly declared that Eastern Jerusalem belongs to Syria.

I think they declare that at least once every year. That East Jerusalem belongs to Syria.

That Israel must give up the land. It belongs to Assad. They proclaim that all the time, constantly. The United Nations has said that over and over and over and over again.

And Syria has a history of trying to invade Israel, even in modern times. I'm not talking about 2,000 years ago.

Even in modern times, Syria has tried to invade Israel. So it doesn't take much common sense to know what's going to happen in the future.

That's all. That's the sermon.

But now I will also, as I open up the chat room now, I will declare to you that we've had the Expose Assad Task Force for a lot of years now.

Expose Assad Task Force. That continues and will increase. And today I announce that we will push forward with the activities and the works of the task force.

And I'm asking every one of you to join the Expose Assad Task Force and to commit to printing out or ordering stickers to help expose Assad.

Stickers and pamphlets and fliers and brochures and different things that we're going to be making more of.

We've already got some of these things and we'll be posting that in case you haven't seen that stuff yet.

But it's been on the website for years and years and years. So I don't know why people haven't seen it or been using it.

But we'll be posting all that stuff again as well as making some new materials as well.

And I really am asking every person that hears my voice today to print these things out and start getting them distributed in your local areas because I don't have the money to travel to Mississippi or Kansas or South Carolina or South Africa.

I don't have the money to do that. But you're there so you can print these things out.

Or if you don't have a printer and you don't want to go to the library to print, if you don't want to go to a family's house to print, if you don't want to go to a friend's house to print and you want me to send them to you, I will if that's what it takes.

I will go out of my pocket and I will go out of my way so that you can print. And just ask for it and I'll do it.

I'll send them to you for free. If you want 100 flyers, I'll send you 100 flyers.

And because the work must be done, somebody's going to do it. We've got to get the word out there.

We're running out of time. Rather, we've got six months, eight months, a year, two years, three years, it don't matter.

We're still running out of time. We've got to warn people. These small round stickers are really handy. They save a lot of paper.

Small round stickers that you can put on a light pole, a parking sign, a railing.

So I really like these round stickers and you can make them yourself. You can print them out and then just take some packaging tape which is really wide, clear, transparent tape that they call packaging tape and it's pretty affordable as well.

And just take that and just tape the round circle printout from your computer without any glue on it and just tape it to the wall.

Tape it to a railing or a light pole. And that also protects it from the rain as well.

So you can make your own stickers without much money, without any fancy equipment.

People just want to make excuses. I can't do this. I can't do this. I can't do this.

I can't afford it. I can't afford it. What you just don't care is the truth. It's not a matter of not being able to afford it.

It's a matter of not wanting to work for God, not seeing the importance of it, not believing the truth, not willing to grow in the truth and not willing to do something about what you know.

We need people to help us in this ministry. We need other people to propitiate in this ministry, to do a work in this ministry.

And that's what we're asking. Chat room is open if anybody has any questions about anything I've said today or anything related to this topic as well as if you have a testimony.

You just want to say for the Lord, and I'm a firm believer, that every opportunity that you're given, every opportunity to say something for God, you should do it.

And that is a shame not to. It's a shame not to take the opportunity to just say the words, I love God.

Decipher in Korea says, can we expect to see any recovery of the destroyed of Damascus after 2025 or whenever it does occur.

A recovery of it. Well it does say the daily head wound, that he does recover from the daily head wound.

But that might be only talking about Assad himself escaping the destruction, Assad himself surviving.

So, I don't know about specifically the city of Damascus being recovered, rebuilt, or anything it might be.

So, I really just don't know. I can kind of see it going either way there. Him wanting to rebuild the city, but at the same time maybe him just letting it stay.

He ruined his heat and moving all of his resources to Saudi Arabia. And there is a verse, we just read it today, that he will take Saudi Arabia as well.

And Jerusalem. Yeah, so he's going to take everything and the Bible does say that all nations will be given to him, that God will give him all, every nation on earth, every nation, every nation, every nation, Haiti, Jamaica, all the Caribbean, China, everything will be controlled worldwide by Assad.

So, he may just, and it does say in Daniel that he will plant his palace in another place.

So, he may just abandon, he may possibly just totally abandon Damascus. There could be a nuclear strike there.

A lot of people have theorized all of my life. I've heard the theory that it will be nuked.

That's possible. I don't know. So, he may just abandon Damascus, which it is a possibility because I think really he will revert his energy to ruling from both Jerusalem and Saudi Arabia.

I really do think that he will energize his rulership, his kingdom, his palace to be from Jerusalem and Saudi Arabia.

Thanks for that question.

And M R W C C says, I believe God has removed a major stumbling block or perhaps an aisle from my life this week. I love my two sons, but an incident happened Thursday and they are both going out of my life.

I do hope that this is not forever, but they cannot and do not want to come back at this time. Amen.

So, M R W C C, I understand and I know there's a great disappointment and a great frustration that at the same time it is a major stumbling block removed.

So, praise God for that at the same time. Thank you for sharing that. And, Calm Adam quotes Sirach 25 verse 12 that says, the fear of the Lord is the beginning of his love. Amen.

And faith is the beginning of cleaving unto him. Amen. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of his love. Amen.

And the faith is beginning of cleaving unto him. Thank you for sharing that. Amen.

Praise God. Most people don't have fear of the Lord. So, I think, I do think that every person that is signed in and registered and signed in, decipher M R W C C and, Calm Adam, I thank you for every one of you have made some sort of a comment.

I would still like to see something that glorifies God more as well. But these, this is good.

My brother, Robert, come on up here where they can hear you.

Robert: "One of the things about Assad that also stands out is being a leader of a very weird religion, which is Alawites, Alawi, which is referring to an Islamic figure, Ali, who they say that the 12th female body will be some kind of related to that.

And it's actually in the name of the Iranian version of Islam, Shia, but the abbreviation kind of takes it out and hides that name.

And then that being specifically Trinitarian belief in Assad's version of that."

Yes, Assad believes in the Trinity as well.

Very relevant. Which also highlights the role of the Roman Catholic Church, which many people proclaim that the Pope would be antichrist, which isn't quite correct, but nonetheless, the false prophet and Satan was the oaks at the same time as Assad too.

And very likely, I would expect, at the time of this revolution, the Catholic Church to declare Assad as being the Holy Spirit according to their doctrine, the Catholic doctrine.

We would definitely see the Catholic Church, the Vatican and the Pope and Saudi Arabia and the King of Jordan and all these people and more say that Assad is God.

That's going to happen. Every one of them will say that Assad is God. And I expect to hear that even from the leaders of the Greek Orthodox Church and the Russian Orthodox Church and world leaders, presidents, prime ministers, kings, religious leaders from around the world.

Buddhism, Hinduism, Christianity, from all different areas of life, we're going to see a lot of people claiming that Assad is God.

What else?

"I reflected on something recently that displays the wisdom and intelligence of God. Which is that when the people of Israel had forsaken Him and He caused the Assyrians to invade, that they replaced His name in scripture with the names of the Assyrian false gods, Yahweh (YHWH) and so on. It has caused, as an effect, atheists for thousands of years to blaspheme in the name of Satan."

Yeah. And that's the wisdom and power of God. Amen. Absolutely. I thank you for that.

Calm Adam says, Isaiah 12 verse 1, and in that day you shall say, I will bless you, O Lord, for you were angry with me, that you have turned aside your wrath and have pitied me. Amen.

Thank you for all these comments. Thank you for all these contributions. I'm extremely wore out, got to bed very late last night.

I was trying to watch the northern lights. We're going to try again tonight. Hopefully, we'll be able to see them as soon as the sun sets and up through 10 o'clock.

Hopefully, we'll be able to see them at some point of that time. But that's another heavenly sign because even though northern lights are a every night thing in Canada, it's extremely rare to be seen in Tennessee, this far south, extremely rare.

I think it was 2003, that last time that anybody in Tennessee was able to see the northern lights, 20 years ago.

When was the last time before that? Probably much, much, much longer than just 20 years.

Probably 100 or 200 years because things are increasing in the heavens, in the universe, in outer space.

Things are increasing. Things are breaking records. This is just one more upon another, upon another, upon another heavenly event. Signs, the comet, the solar eclipse, the lunar eclipse.

Being with God, they're saying that some star, supernova, is going to explode, actually did explode what millions of years ago and we're only just now going to see it and we get to see that every 40 to 50 years.

And then the lunar eclipse happening during Ramadan, only every 46, well the solar and lunar eclipse alignment every 46 years.

But all of these different things and now this record-breaking solar storm, it's not just northern lights, it's a solar storm of great severity of magnitude 5 out of 5.

I'm not being able to open up the news today to read the news. I'm not had time to see how many nations lost internet and phone service.

I'm expecting for the number to be large of how many people lost even electricity, different things, ships were not able to navigate, GPS, different things because of the very severe solar storm.

So this ain't just beautiful lights in the sky. This is a storm. And for this to happen, a record-breaking storm and the supernova and the solar eclipse and the lunar eclipse and the comet, all things will just keep aligning to this year.

How many more are we going to see this year of heavenly signs, heavenly events, just continue to bombard us, pound, pound, and pound us constantly this year, these heavenly signs.

Why is this? Why is this? Obviously, somebody's trying to knock on the door and wake people up. Amen? Amen.

And MRWCC says even some people, even Mississippi, were seeing the northern lights last night.

Wow, that's amazing. Amen. I hope we can see them tonight.

But this expose Assad task force is a dangerous thing.

This ain't a child's play. It's a dangerous thing. And it is why I have told people repeatedly to not use Gmail, especially if you're contacting anyone in the church, and why I've repeatedly said to use usernames, that is internet usernames, fake names, for social media.

Back when the internet first came out and Facebook first came out, I remember I'm old enough to remember that people never used their real names on the internet when the internet first came out.

No one. Even when Facebook first started and all the other social media when people first started using social media, at first the big social media was Yahoo originally before Facebook.

Everybody was on it. Everybody that had the internet was on Yahoo, Yahoo Instant Messenger program.

Anybody remember that? When everybody used it? And as how you communicated with family and friends, and they had a million chat rooms, million chat rooms, more than a million, 10 million, 100 million.

I mean, they had just tons and tons and tons of chat rooms about anything you could name, anything you could think of.

Oh, I forget my point. I got to sit down.

So right, why we got to use internet usernames.

Nobody used to use their real names on the internet because they had a concern for safety.

And then Facebook changed that by requiring people to use their real name, requiring it.

Why would they do that? Think about that. Why would Facebook require absolutely to know your real name? Why do they have to have to know who you are?

Why? Because they want to track what you believe, what you say, what you teach, even who your president is, who your favorite president, who you're voting for.

They keep track of that. Absolutely. And it will come back to haunt people. It will absolutely come back to haunt people.

It is wise to conceal your identity when you are exposing the Antichrist. That's why this ministry does that.

It's a good reason. It's a wise decision. Amen. Be as shrewd as the serpents, the Bible tells us to do. Amen.

Okay. Thank you, Calm Adam, for relaying the message. And that's okay. That's an every week situation right now. And that's okay. All right. We'll put on a song.

And so a special shout out to Sister Kiki in Australia because I know that you're not able to log in and that's fine. Thank you. John did relay that message so that I would know. So thank you for that. And that's okay. I understand.

Let's see. I know we've seen this song a lot, but it's very relevant in the context of all of our trials and sufferings, people mocking and laughing at what we teach, and the threat from Assad.

Keep on the firing line, page 39.
