

Full Sermon Transcript: Countdown to the Real Jesus Revolution April 11, 2023 (Last Day of Unleavened Bread)

Today is a High Holy Day, so that means there must be a blowing of a shofar. Amen.

Let's turn to the book of Leviticus, Leviticus 23. For those who are listening for the first time, we are reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible, a restoration of the original Scriptures using older manuscripts and scrolls of the Bible, older than the manuscripts that was used for the King James Version. In Leviticus 23, we're going to start in verse 9.

This is the passage of Scripture that tells us to count 50 days to Pentecost, starting with the first Sunday of these seven days, of these seven days, the first Sunday that comes after Passover. So, we are within that count right now. Right now, today is 47 days to Pentecost out of those 50.

We're going to read this instruction that we are to count 50 days, and we're going to talk about one of the reasons. One of the reasons, I don't believe that we really fully understand all the reasons for this yet, but nevertheless, the main reason that I'm going to discuss today is a very significant reason. Very significant.

And it says in verse 9, And Jesus spoke to Moses, saying, "Speak to the children of Jesrael, and you shall say to them, 'When you shall enter into the land which I give you and reap the harvest of it, then shall you bring a sheaf, the firstfruits of your harvest, to the priests.'"

Now, notice that the land was given to Israel by God. Amen? So, we should not fall for the propaganda of the anti-Zionists, anti-Jews, anti-Semites that claim that the land belongs to the Palestinians, and that the Israelites, the Judah people, the Jews are there illegally, and they have no right to the land, such and such so and so and so on. We should not fall for that Islamic propaganda. And this is exactly what it is, Islamic and communist and Nazi 666 propaganda. We should not fall for that, because the Scriptures are extremely clear, and it says it over and over and over and over again, that God gave them that land, and even more land than what they currently reside on. Amen.

And it says that they are to do this harvest and bring a sheaf offering, firstfruits of the harvest, to the priests. Verse 11, "And you shall lift up the sheaf before Jesus, to be accepted for you. And on the next day, after the first week of the Sabbath, the priests shall lift it up. And you shall offer on the day which you bring the sheaf a lamb without blemish of a year old for a burnt offering, whole burnt offering to Jesus."

And we know that as we read this, that these offerings, burnt offerings and the waving of the sheaf up into the sky, that these are things that are temporary rituals of the old covenant, ceremonial law, just like circumcision and clean and unclean meats and animal sacrifices, these far offerings and such. These things were definitely done away with at the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ Jesus. We know this is extremely clear in the writings of Paul and even in some of the words of Jesus and in common sense. We know that those things were done away with.

But the Ten Commandments also in the writings of Paul and the words of Jesus and common sense, that the Ten Commandments are not done away with, including the seventh day Sabbath, including Passover also, even though that's not the Ten Commandments.

But we also know that God's holy days and tithing, that these things were not done away with because the spiritual principle of God's holy days and the Ten Commandments and tithing, if we follow the spirit of the law and not the letter of the law, if we are not following Torah and Hebrew roots but we're following Christ Jesus himself, using some common sense, using the words of Christ, using the words of the New Testament, and even the Old Testament, talking about these lasting forever and prophecies of these things continuing into the millennium, it's so clear. It's not confusing at all. It's abundantly clear and undeniable what is taken away and what's not taken away. It's not confusing at all.

If you read the whole Bible and consider every verse and not consider just only some verses, but rather consider all verses and all the Bible and just add it all up and the sum of it, the total of it, is the right conclusion. Amen.

So we know that these Old Covenant, for all offerings, are replaced by our prayers. And so verse 13, there's a meat offering and so forth and there's different things here.

And then verse 15, and you should count from the day after the rest day. During these seven days of unleavened bread, you start your counting the day after the Sabbath. So that would be starting with Sunday after Passover, from the day on which, that you should read this, seven full weeks.

That's not confusing. That's not hard to understand. Seven full weeks. Until the next day after the last week. So you're going to land on Sunday again. Amen. Fifty days.

So that brings us this year to May the 28th. May the 28th will be Pentecost of this year, 2023. But that will be a different date every year because the Roman calendar does not match up with God's calendar. God's calendar starts with the new moon, the appearance of the first crescent moon after two or three days of complete darkness of the moon. So that's completely different from the Roman Catholic calendar that the Western world is using. So it's not going to match the date every year. But Pentecost will always be on a Sunday. Always. Because you start it on Sunday and count 50 days. So always land on a Sunday. It's very unique in that it's the only holy day of God that is always on a Sunday.

Now we understand that we have a biblical command to count to 50 days to Pentecost.

Now let's go to the book of Daniel chapter 12. Daniel 12 and the prophets volume. And we're going to read about how long will the great tribulation last and the wrath added together as well as the time of fleeing. You add all that together, how long will that be?

A lot of people believe as we turn to Daniel 12, we know that there's a lot of people in traditional religion, false religion, false Christianity that teaches a seven year tribulation. And that's just not scriptural. It's not biblical.

They confuse the Bible, they twist the Bible, they don't understand the Bible. But this passage makes it abundantly clear.

Daniel 12 starting in verse 10, actually verse 9, Daniel 10 verse 9, I mean Daniel 12 verse 9, Daniel 12 verse 9. And we have both the Theodotion version and the old Greek version here in the Alpha and Omega Bible. That's two different translations. The Theodotion version which is the top sentence for each verse here. The Theodotion version being translated in the first century A.D. But the second sentence of each verse is the old Greek which you see the letter G which in the brand new PDF and in the next update of the paperbacks it would be OG and the G stands for Greek and the OG stands for old Greek. So we're going to change that to where it says OG for old Greek. And OG was translated, I'm not for sure what century but it was definitely in the B.C. years rather than the first century A.D. So the old Greek is older. So let's just read the older version, the old Greek in verse 9.

"And he," talking about the angel, "said to me, 'Depart quickly, Daniel, for the ordinances are veiled and sealed.'"

Now we're going to have to check the word ordinances there to see if that's correct. Brother Jared, if you make a note that we need to check to see if that is correct, if we need to change that letter if that's correct translation. It says words in the Theodotion version so Jared is it words or is it law or is it ordinances.

Either way there is something about the end time because the book of Daniel is prophetic and in the context of the previous verses it's definitely talking about the end time. So it's basically whether it's words or ordinances or whatever the proper translation is, it's talking about information for the end time.

That it is sealed over, closed or hidden until the end time. It was actually impossible for the people of previous decades and previous centuries to fully understand end time prophecy. So we can't really blame Herbert W. Armstrong that was the apostle of the true church back in the 1930s up until he died in 1986. We can't really blame him that he was incorrect on certain prophecies. He did have other prophecies correct but it was not possible for people in the previous decades and centuries to fully understand end time prophecies.

However we can blame the false church for their outrageous prophecies that are totally off the mark. We can blame that demonic false prophecy.

So there is a difference between a false prophet that's given false prophecies and a true apostle or minister or pastor that's truly called and chosen of God, that's living in the truth and has a lot of things right and is on the mark on many things but has made some mistakes.

There is a difference, absolutely a difference.

A lot of people don't understand that a prophet, an apostle and a true man of God such as Paul and Peter that they can absolutely make honest mistakes and still be called and chosen by God. People don't understand that. People think that the apostle Paul was perfect in every way, that everything he said was from God, everything he said is holy and true and accurate, that it was impossible for him to make any mistakes on doctrines and teachings and that a man of God today must also be 100% correct on every prophecy and every prophetic word. There is no room for human error even though we are talking about humans. People don't understand this.

Now we seek perfection, absolutely. Amen? In prophecy and doctrine and life and everything we are seeking perfection and the man of God should seek perfection. Amen. But we are humans and the apostle Paul was very abundantly wrong.

That's very easy to understand that he was wrong when he said that it was a shame for a man to have long hair and that even nature itself teaches us it's a shame for a man to have long hair. That's not correct because nature does not teach us that it's a shame for a man to have long hair because by nature a man's hair can and will grow just as long as a woman's hair if left uncut. So nature doesn't teach us that it's wrong. It doesn't.

Just use some common sense there. And he contradicted the scripture itself in Numbers chapter 6 that talks about that if a person wants to devote themselves unto the Lord to not cut their hair and let it grow long. So he contradicted the scripture then. So yes he was wrong and he even said at the beginning of 1 Corinthians 11 where he talked about that that this is just his custom. And he ended that passage of scripture also saying that if this caused any trouble with anybody just ignore what I just said. Just ignore it because it's not from God. It's just his own opinion. He made that clear twice in that passage.

But yet you've got Christians, so called Christians out here, condemning me and other men for having long hair using only part of that passage while they ignore what Paul said two times in that passage. That it was only his custom, his tradition, his opinion and not even worry about this. If it caused anybody to get upset or have a problem with it don't worry about that. They ignore those words. They pick and choose what they want to believe based upon what some pastor somewheres or some person somewheres told them in church somewheres or a book or a video or YouTube whatever and not reading the whole chapter for themselves. Amen.

Traditional religion is more legalistic than what we are. Amen. That a man must cut his hair. No, he must not. I mean he doesn't have to. Amen.

So anyway, it was impossible for people earlier to understand prophecy but other doctrines such as hair would have been easy because he said it himself. Paul said it himself in other places in the New Testament, the writings of Paul. He said it again and again that some of his words were not from God but his own opinion. So that's easy to understand. But once we get into prophecy for the end time, it can be difficult and more difficult if you was living in a previous time frame. But notice here that the ceiling, the closing up of understanding the prophecy is not forever. It's until the time of the end. So in our day and time, then we are now able to understand prophecy better and more accurately than at any other time in all of human history because it is now the seals is now opened up. Four out of the seven end time seals are now already opened. Verse 10 in the old Greek second sentence, many will be tried and or tested and sanctified and the sinners sinned. They continued to sin.

And none of the sinners showing any wise understand that they that understand will give heed. So give heed is listen and obey. So that's possible we might change that as well. Listen and obey is possible. We'll look at that. We'll look at that. But that's what it basically is trying to say.

Verse 11 old Greek second sentence, "From the time of the offering in heaven is removed and the abomination of desolation is made ready and granted", by Michael stepping aside, "there shall be 1290 days."

I think any of us can easily calculate in our head instantly that that's 30 days more than the 1260 that's listed in Revelation 11. Revelation 11 says over and over of three and a half years or 42 months or 1260 days. Revelation 11 is very very very clear that the great tribulation only lasts three and a half years. That's 1260 days. And yet this adds 30 days unto it starting with the abomination of desolation.

For now that God has opened up the understanding of prophecy in this ministry more than any other ministry that we know of on earth. We now understand for the first time only in recent years I don't know last few years that we now understand that you have the 1260 of the great tribulation but the extra 30 days that it adds here is 30 days of fleeing before the great tribulation. 30 days starting with the abomination of desolation that you have once you see the abomination of desolation occurring in heaven then you have 30 days of getting out of the danger zones. Getting out of the urban areas and places that are the most dangerous and getting into a place of safety.

That's the complete opposite of a pre-tribulation rapture. People are going to be held in safety in secret places on the earth rather than in heaven. Complete opposite of the traditional false Christianity.

The abomination of desolation that begins the 1290 day countdown will occur on the date of Purim of some year. We read about the festival of Purim in the book of Esther and we are also one of the very few churches that observe Purim. Even among some of your best churches out there that have a lot of foundation of truth they don't even keep Purim. So we are one of the very few that keep Purim other than a lot of the Torah Hebrew roots people they are all caught up in all kinds of falsehood but at least they've got that one truth to keep Purim in Hanukkah and the Sabbath and so forth even though they do it in a very legalistic way. But it starts with Purim and we have proven that on the website at isawthelightministries.com/purim.html and the other article isawthelightministries.com/templeStrongDelusion.html and the other article isawthelightministries.com/dates.html. In those three articles if you read all three of those articles it becomes 100% clear and undeniable truthfully undeniable. You really cannot deny it if you're willing to examine what you believe and why you believe things and what the truth really is according to the Holy Scriptures and if necessary take it in prayer and fasting. If you have a sincere heart for the real truth, if you do not love the lies of traditional religion but are willing to grow in the real truth of Scripture then it is absolutely undeniable that the abomination of desolation will occur on Purim. I'm not going to go into all the details today because I'd be here forever.

We have to narrow it down to today's topic and we're talking about a countdown to the true Jesus revolution. Now there's a countdown to Pentecost but there's also a countdown that starts with Purim of a future year whether it's next year or the year after or whenever. It starts with Purim and once we start counting down the 1290 starting on Purim of a future year when we see the abomination of desolation we begin counting the 1290. Somewhere in that timeline, somewhere within those 1290 we're going to have a 50 day countdown to the Pentecost of that particular year, somewhere within that 1290. And that's going to make that particular 50 day countdown. Even though we count down 50 days to Pentecost every year, that particular year the 50 day count will be way, way more important and significant. Way more important.

So we have to learn how to do that now so that once we get into the great tribulation that we're already in the practice of counting the days to the holy days. This in itself is absolute undeniable proof that we must keep God's holy days. Because if we're not keeping God's biblical holy days that are listed in the Bible such as Purim and Hanukkah and Pentecost and Passover and so forth, if we're not keeping His commanded holy days then we will be caught dangerously unprepared for the end time events. We have proven on the website at isawthelightministries.com that if you take God's holy days in the Bible, not Christmas and Easter and all that, but rather the holy days that the Bible says that you must keep and lay it on that timeline of the 1290 and we're going to read about a 1335 here in the next few verses, 1335 days, you lay that 1335 days over the calendar and then you take all the other information in the Bible, Revelation 11, the 1260 days and other verses in the Bible talking about how many days it's going to be between each end time event. And it does tell us, it does.

Then you come out perfectly to five different biblical holy days, not just one, two, three or four, but five biblical holy days that are the exact number of days between each other in which the Bible also tells us the exact, the same exact number of days between end time events. This is mind blowing, but undeniable. And you can calculate it yourself. That's okay with me. Calculate it. You will absolutely come out to the same conclusion and that cannot be coincidence. You might could try to claim coincidence if it was one or two days, but five? Come on now. Five different holy days feeding perfectly on the end time prophetic biblical timeline is no way can that be coincidence. No way. This is God's biblical plan and it is set in stone. It cannot be changed. It's in the Bible. It's written in the Bible so that we can count the days so that we'll be prepared for it.

God equips His people, His church, His bride. We will not be called like a thief in the night. The traditional church false Christianity teaches that we'll never, ever, ever know even during the great tribulation, even as it gets closer and closer and closer, even when it gets down to the last thirty days, we still won't know when the coming of the Lord will be or when the end of this age will be or any of these things. But the Bible says, count the days. Why would it tell us to count the days? Why would it tell us the exact number of days from the abomination of desolation until the coming of the Lord? That's what it says here in different words.

Daniel 12, let's keep reading here, which is read about the 1290 and then we get over here to verse 12, Daniel 12 verse 12, "Blessed is he that endures and comes to," oh let's read the old Greek, the old Greek, "Blessed is he that abides (stays true) then assembles at the 1335th day."

So, that is a subliminal message right there. Blessed is he that comes to the 1335th day. People's like why? What's going to happen on that day? Because people ain't got no sense. What's going to happen on that day? Come on, you got only one more verse to go here in this book of Daniel. Only one more verse left after this and the entire book of Daniel unless you consider Bel and the Dragon. Come on now, use some common sense people, please use some common sense. What's going to happen? It's the end, it's the end. Amen? The end. Lord have mercy. So, it's easy, this is easy really.

It's always been easy but God was previously in previous centuries, God was doing something on a spiritual and physical level to prevent us from understanding something that was so easy. Amen?

Alright, so let's move on to understanding something here. If we start with Purim of whatever year that begins the great tribulation, 30 days after Purim is Passover. That would begin the 1260. Now, there's also the 1335 here. This is an easy calculation. So, 30 plus 1260, that still leaves another 45 days at the very end of the tribulation after the tribulation to make it come out to 1335. 30 plus 1260 plus 45 equals 1335. So, it's very easy to say and to understand 30 days of fleeing, then 1260 days of great tribulation, then 45 days of wrath.

Actually, it's not 45 days of wrath but rather you take that 45 days and it's the first three and a half of that 45. The first three and a half is the two witnesses laying dead in the streets of Jerusalem. And then when they rise from the dead on the day of atonement, that's the same day that the entire church rises, those that are ready for the resurrection will rise at the same time to meet the Lord in the air and go up into heaven for the marriage supper for 41 and a half days. Those 41 and a half days while the church is in heaven, that is the time period that the wrath of God, the seven last plagues, the seven vowels of plagues will be poured out upon the wicked that are on the earth. So, the wrath is 41 and a half days not 10 days. People are very, very confused. This is easy calculation. Now, once we start the 1335 countdown on Purim of a future year, you then come to Passover 30 days later to start the 1260 of the great tribulation. Then you go two years into that three and a half years great tribulation, go two years into it and you finally come to the Pentecost of that particular year. The Pentecost of that particular year, we have the 50-day countdown to that particular Pentecost like we do every year. But we'll be counting the 50 days to Pentecost of one year before Christ returns, so it will be extremely significant. Now, after Pentecost of that year, we also come to the fiesta of trumpets in which the seventh seal will be opened and the seven trumpets of the seventh seal will continue to blow over a period of one year of time. So, I know it sounds confusing, but once you see it on paper, once you see it on the website and we've got a chart that lays it all out very simple for you, it's not really confusing.

Now, we're going to go now to book of Acts chapter 2, Acts chapter 2. Let's go there, verse 14. I know that some of the things I say are hard, hard and difficult for a lot of people to accept because it's strange, it's different from what people have heard before and the world is full of false prophets, full and overflowing with false prophets. So, I understand at certain levels of doubt, but at the same time, a person should be willing to, if a person says to you, as I am, that the proof is solid, that you can't deny it. It's undebatable, undeniable because I give you the scriptures that absolutely prove it.

If I say that, that demands reaction. That demands that you at least look at it to see if this claim is true

Because if this claim is true and you reject it without even examining it, without even testing it, then you might be throwing away a huge prophecy of the Lord, a true prophecy of the Lord. What if it's true and you didn't even test it to see if it was true? You could be throwing away the word of God. It's a serious thing.

If I'm making such a serious statement, then it demands a serious testing of it thoroughly. So, go test it. Look at these verses that I've laid out on the website at isawthelightministries.com/dates.html.

Now, here in Acts 2, starting in verse 14, Acts 2 verse 14, but Peter standing, we know it's the day of Pentecost, "And Peter, taking his stand with the 11, raised his voice and declared to them, 'Men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you and give heed or listen and obey to my words. For these men are not drunk as you suppose or as you think, for it is only the third hour of the day.'"

It's still morning time. That was his reasoning. These are not drunk because it is still morning. That was his reason. He did not say they're not drunk because they don't drink. Or that you shouldn't drink or it's against the law or whatever, but rather it's too early to be drunk was his reason. Too early.

Verse 16, "But this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel." He's quoting the book of Joel now, "And it shall be in the last days that God says that I will pour forth of my ghost, my Holy Ghost, on much flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy and young men shall see visions and your old men shall dream dreams. Even on my bond servants, both men and women, I will in those days pour forth of my Ghost and they shall prophesy."

Notice the word bond servants here because it's saying that we are under servitude to Him. But yet most of your traditional false Christians have this mentality that we are free to do anything we want to do. We don't have to keep God's commands. That we're under mercy, we're under grace, we're not under law, therefore we don't have to keep the Sabbath, we don't have to keep the commandments, we can do whatever we want. But this describes us as being servants that are tied to or chained to Him, that we are under His authority, that we have a master. This is what this refers to, a person who is under the authority of a master, basically a slave to a master. So this is something to think about right there.

You should slowly read the Bible, not quickly, you should slowly, carefully dissect every word. It's a very significant word right there. Amen.

"And will pour forth of my Ghost, and they shall prophesy, and I will grant wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and vapor of smoke. The sun will be turned into darkness, the moon into blood before the great glorious day of the Lord shall come."

Now the moon will not literally turn to blood. Use some common sense here, use your brain. The moon which is made out of tons and tons and tons and tons and tons and tons of rock and dirt is not literally going to turn to blood. But there's actually a lot of people that think it will, they have no brain. Use your brain.

What it really means is that it will turn red and not the type of red that we see in the eclipse. However, it is a redness that I believe that is caused by atmospheric dust from volcanoes and nuclear war and asteroids and different things like that. I do believe that it's like clouds and debris in the atmosphere. I do believe that that is the cause of it.

Nevertheless, because at the same time it's happening there is the stars falling from heaven at the same time. Those stars are not really and truly the stars. The stars cannot fall. That's impossible. The stars cannot fall. It's meteors. Stars are literally bigger than the earth.

Those stars that you see in the sky every night on a clear night, they are bigger than the earth itself. They only look small because they are so many, so far away. But they are bigger than the earth. So it's not literally those stars that we see at night that's going to fall. But rather it is asteroids, meteors, comets, whatever that's going to be impacting the earth.

That's what it's really talking about. Like a major, major meteor shower that is the biggest and brightest and most powerful meteor shower of our lifetime. Because we're going to have meteorites or meteors hitting the earth, that's going to cause a lot of atmospheric debris, dust in the air. That's common sense. If you have a ton of large meteors that are actually destroying buildings like it's going to be, then you're going to have a lot of atmospheric debris. So it says here, it says even the darkness right here, the sun will turn to darkness. That doesn't talk about, that doesn't mean that the sun itself will become weak, but rather cloudiness in the sky, debris in the atmosphere blocking out the sun. That's what it's referring to. Before the great and glorious day the Lord shall come. Very clear here.

Now if you compare that to the book of Revelation where you've got the seven seals, that is very clearly describing the sixth seal, the sixth seal of the book of Revelation. So it's impossible for the day of the Lord to come until we see that. And yet there are false prophets on YouTube claiming that Jesus is coming this year or that Jesus already came back. The Jehovah witnesses and I believe even the seventh-day Adventists believe that Jesus has already come back a long, long, long time ago. He's just secretly on the earth.

That's stupid. That's stupid. You've got to be stupid to fall for such, and you've got to be stupid even to go to that church that believes that.

Why would you go to the church that believes something that is so outrageous?

Somebody's got to say it the way it is. People don't like this type of preaching, but I've got to say it the way it is because that is such an outrageous teaching that it deserves such a bold statement. Such a bold statement. It's very deserving of people being called stupid.

So that you might wake up to understand how incredibly ridiculous that doctrine is.

Why would you want to go to that church ever, ever, ever, ever?

We have to see this happen before Jesus comes. Amen.

In verse 21, "It shall be that each/many who call on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Again, he's quoting Joel 2.

The traditional Bibles say all that call on the name of the Lord will be saved. That's not true. That's not true. We can take the word all out of that because it's not true.

Because even in the great tribulation, even in the final year, which is why it's talking about the final year of the great tribulation because it's the sixth seal, it's not enough to just say Jesus' name. It's not. Matthew 7 tells us that. Amen.

Matthew 7 tells us that many will say, "Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name? Did we not cast out demons? Did we not work many miracles in your name?" But Jesus will tell them, "I never knew you. You're workers at sin. You're workers at sin, iniquity. Get away from me. I didn't know you."

That's the way Jesus is going to respond to those Christian leaders and Christians. Amen.

That's the way Jesus is going to respond to these people that are calling on his name, that are worshipping him, that are doing great wonders in his name.

Right there proves it's not enough to just pray to be saved because those people prayed.

Amen. You know they prayed. You know they said the so-called prayer of salvation. You know they're going to church every Sunday and Christmas and Easter and everything else because they're casting out demons. These are very religious people. These are religious leaders.

And yet Jesus said, get away from me. I never knew you.

If you read verses like that, then how can you continue to believe that all you got to do to be saved is just repeat the words after me a prayer of salvation? Those people said that prayer of salvation and they still wasn't saved. Amen.

So anyway, there is a reason why Peter thought that it was the end time and Peter was wrong. Amen.

He thought because he was quoting Joel here as very self-evident, very clear, very obvious, that he thought it was the end time.

Peter was not perfect. Not everything he said was accurate. He was wrong.

It was not the fulfillment of the book of Joel. It was not. Can you deny it? Can you deny that he was wrong? He was wrong. He was wrong. But he was a man of God. He was called by God. He was truly a member of the church. He was a true minister of the Lord. He was a true apostle of the Lord according to what he called himself the apostle in his writings of Peter. Amen.

But he was giving a false prophecy. He was. But he was not a false prophet.

He was a true prophet of the Lord but giving a false prophecy. He is saying that this day that he was alive, standing on the earth right there in front of the church. He is speaking to the church as a leader of the church saying this is the fulfillment of the book of Joel and it wasn't. He was giving a false prophecy that yet he was a true prophet of the Lord.

But it was impossible for people in that day and time to fully understand prophecy. Of the end time. So we really can't condemn him very much. And we definitely can't say well he just wasn't called or he's lost. But yet today if a true prophet of the Lord was to say anything wrong at all automatically he's of the devil and he's a false prophet. Automatically. That's the way people think today. Upside down thinking. Amen.

But he thought it was the fulfillment of what Revelation describes as the sixth seal.

But he didn't understand about the seven seals. That hadn't even been written yet, the book of Revelation, when he preached this sermon. So he didn't even know about the seven seals at all. The seven seals had never even been listed by anyone else in all of human history until it was written in around 90 or so AD. 90 AD or later that John wrote it, the book of Revelation. And that was new scripture and that was new information that no one before that had given. That Matthew, Mark and Luke and John had never heard before until John wrote it in 90 AD or later.

And yet if new scripture was to be written today people would be like it's not in the Bible therefore it's not true. People back in the first century AD, the true Christians, the disciples, the apostles, they understood that God can and does continue to speak to people and people write down what God is saying. They understood that. People today don't understand. People today think that it's totally impossible for God to give new information and new revelation to a prophet of the end time and he write it down. Impossible.

But why would that be impossible? Use some common sense. Why would that be impossible? The Bible doesn't say that it would be impossible. The Bible doesn't say that there would never again be any new scripture. If you think about it, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus and Deuteronomy, the first five books of the Old Testament, that's all there was for a long time. That's all there was that we know of. And it took years before another book came out. Then it took years before another book came out. Then it took decades for another book to come out. Then it took centuries for another book to come out. And there was another book later on and another book of the Bible written later on and not only the Old and New Testament but even the Middle Testament of the Apocrypha which actually was in the Bible that Jesus used. The Bible in the first century A.D. had at least around 12 books more than what we have now in most Bibles. The Alpha and Omega Bible restores those Apocrypha books that was in the book of the Bible of Jesus. It restores it back into the Bible that should have never ever been taken out in the first place because it was there. We know it was there. You can't deny it was there. It was there. You can't deny it. If you look, if you do your research and studies assuming things that you don't want to believe. Amen.

There's always been new books in every time period of God working with mankind. In Moses' time, in the time of Samuel and the Kings and the Chronicles and the Judges, different times and then even in the time of the Maccabees and then even at the time of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, and then even the time of John later on when he was an old man and I believe even after that, even after Revelation, I believe in the end time that there are books that have already been written and will be written. I firmly believe that because God does not change. He's the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. The same way that he dealt with mankind way back then is the same that he would do today. He doesn't change. He doesn't. So why would it be any different for our generation? Why would it be any different? People hinder God. They do. They hinder God.

"Well, that's impossible. That's impossible. That's impossible. You can't prove it by Scripture. It's impossible. You can't." Amen. So anyway, thank God for the boldness. Amen. God has given me.

So he's quoting Joel. So let's go to the book of Joel. Amen. Let's go to the book of Joel, chapter 2 now. Joel chapter 2 verse 1.

If you have the paperbacks, this is page 203. It's possible that your edition, depending on when you got your Bible, might be page 202 or 203 or 204 in that range.

But I'm looking at page 203 in my copy, book of Joel, chapter 2.

And you know what? Peter even wrote the book of Peter, and yet he wasn't a perfect apostle.

He wasn't a perfect person, perfect apostle, perfect prophet, and yet he wrote Scripture. And yet that Scripture did not exist during the time of the writing of Hebrews. It didn't exist yet. It didn't even exist in the time of the writing of Matthew. So Peter was a new book, just like the book of Revelation was a new book in different decades and different generations and so forth that new books came to be written. And God does not change.

Joel 2 verse 1.

Look at the word confounded, Brother Jared. We'll look to see if it's really confused or if it might be amazed or something. I don't like the word confounded. We're going to study that out and see if there's a better word or not. For the day of Jesus is near.

Now, a very important footnote here in the Alpha and Omega Bible. And it says on November the 30th 2016, Jesus led me to write on the ministry newsletter online that Jesus will burn every copy of the King James Version. Then I found out, after I wrote that, I found out that just the previous day that a man in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, which was extremely close to where I was living at the time, had just found a burnt King James Version Bible page with only these verses right here. Joel 1 verse 13 up to chapter 2 verse 1 preserved unburned on that page. I estimate that probably a thousand King James Bibles was burned in the last week in the great Gatlinburg fire.

Ain't that mind-blowing? That give you goosebumps? I mean, that's mind-blowing.

I wrote in the ministry newsletter that year, November 30th 2016, I wrote in there that when Jesus comes back, he's going to burn every King James Bible on the earth. Every one of them will be destroyed by God because it's so corrupted. Very corrupted. They changed words on purpose to hide the truth. On purpose to hide the truth. And then after I wrote that, then I found out that a man, they reported in the news that a man had found one page, only one page because the rest of the Bible had been destroyed and burnt up. He found only one page laying in the streets of a King James Version Bible and the only verses left on the page that had not yet been burned was these verses here. And it was a great fire that had destroyed lots of different buildings in that community. It was a huge, huge fire and there were some people that died.

A lot of people lost their homes. Some motel rooms and some churches, I believe it was, and businesses burnt down. And I estimated, depending on the number of buildings, the number of churches, the number of motels, the number of houses, the number of businesses, I came up with an estimate of probably how many King James Version Bibles were burnt in that fire. And I estimated probably a thousand or more. Now I might be wrong, just like Peter had been wrong, but I believe that probably a thousand King James Version Bibles had burnt. Even as he had found the remnants, one page only, of a Bible, King James Version Bible, that had been burnt.

Now that's not coincidence. If you think that's coincidence, there's something wrong with your brain. How can that be coincidence? Me writing about King James Version Bibles being burnt and then after I wrote it, then I read in the news, or video, however I learned about it, that this Bible was burnt. That can't be coincidence, can't be. Amen?

That's proof right there that the King James Version Bible is not blessed by God. And not approved of by God. Amen?

Now go down to verse 28, chapter 2. No, listen, yeah, chapter 2. Chapter 2, verse 28.

Joel 2, verse 28. And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out my Holy Ghost upon much flesh, many people, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

And on my servants and on my handmaids, again that means like slaves to God, that we are under his authority and he is our master. In those days where I pour out my Ghost and I will show wonders in heaven and upon the earth, blood and fire and vapor of smoke, and the sun shall be turned into darkness and moon into blood before the great and glorious day of Jesus comes. And it shall come to pass that many shall call in the name of the Lord, not everyone, but many who call in the name of the Lord will be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall the saved one be as Jesus had said, and they shall have glad tidings or good news preached to them whom Jesus has called. Amen.

So today we're talking about the countdown to the real Jesus revolution. I had a sermon recently about why the movie that came out recently in the theaters in America called the Jesus Revolution. I preached about why it is not correct, why it's not true. They do Sunday, Trinity, Christmas, Easter, all that, which is false Christianity, not based on Bible commands and Bible obedience.

But there is a real Jesus revolution. There is a real Jesus revolution and this is the description of it. What people call revival. We in there is going to be a lot of people saved and this is going to happen on Pentecost. Now the reason we know that for one reason is because even though Peter did not understand it and it was incorrect in his statement. There is something that we can learn from that is that he understood the outpouring of the Holy Ghost that he was witnessing in relation to this verse. That's what this verse talks about, an outpouring of God's Holy Spirit and many people getting saved, truly, truly, truly saved. That's what he was witnessing. That's why he thought it was the fulfillment. God uses the mistakes of people and sometimes he is even the reason for the mistake.

I believe that it's entirely possible and likely that that particular false prophecy of Peter and misunderstanding of Peter and misstatement, wrong words, of Peter was actually put into his mouth by God himself on that date. That he was truly Holy Ghost-empowered, that his words were truly coming from God in order to let us know that this true fulfillment in the end time will occur on that particular Holy Day in which Peter was preaching the day of Pentecost although he had the wrong year. So actually Peter had the correct interpretation but he had the wrong year and I believe that it was God, not the devil, and not his human frailty, human weaknesses, but rather God's ordaining that brought forth the misinterpretation so that it can be declared on the very day of the year, the specific Holy Day in other words. And then another reason why we believe and understand and know that it will happen on the day of Pentecost other than just Peter declaring it on the day of Pentecost is because once you start with term for the 1335 day countdown and then 30 days later come to Passover and then count two years into the future and come out eventually to Pentecost and then you continue to count one year later to the Festival of Trumpets and then the Day of Atonement on this timeline then you have five Holy Days and they all come out perfectly to the number of days between each one of the biblical end time events.

So Pentecost being fulfilled on the sixth seal, the sixth seal, this description, the sun and the moon and the stars occurring on Pentecost is the only possibility, the only possibility. There's no other possibility, no other possibility of the day of the year that it would be fulfilled because of the exact number of days between that one and Trumpets and the Day of Atonement and Purim and Passover. All five Holy Days fit perfectly on the timeline. They fit perfectly on the timeline. All five of these Holy Days. So there's no other possibility. It will absolutely be fulfilled on Pentecost.

Therefore that tells us that yes God was behind Peter speaking forth words that was incorrect, incorrect words and yet still coming from God. You better be careful not to call a true man of God a false prophet because even his mistakes could be ordained by God. Even his mistakes. Amen. Amen. God is good.

Now let's go back up to verse 20, verse 20, chapter 2, Joel 2, verse 20. "And I will chase away from you the northern adversary/enemy, and will drive him away into a dry land, and I will sink his face into the former sea, former sea and his back parts in the latter sea. And his stench, his smell, bad smell will come up and his stink come up, because he has worked major things, big things, great things."

The reason I'm reading that verse is this, in connection with the timing of the final year of the great tribulation starting on Pentecost, actually being 13 months before the end of the tribulation of that year, not only will there be a Jesus revolution in the spirit but there also will be a Jesus revolution in the physical realm dealing with World War III. So when I say Jesus revolution, countdown to Jesus revolution, I'm talking about spiritually and physically. What we're going to see at the beginning of the great tribulation is the defeat of America, Australia, and the UK, and the European Union, Scotland, Ireland, England, Canada, all the British empire and the American empire brought to naught, brought to nothing, destroyed in nuclear war and invasion and captivity even as we're about to read here. So it's going to look very destitute, amen.

There's those first two years of the great tribulation, America and American allies, the Israelites, will suffer great defeat. There's literally going to be millions and millions and millions of Israelites, Jews, Americans, British across the world, the white race, destroyed, killed, murdered, beheaded, tortured, enslaved, and so forth. Black people as well but more so the white people as you see the war against white people right now already in great intensity. It is a war of the races, Esau and Ishmael against Jacob, against Isaac, against the tribes of Israel.

So it's the Chinese out of their own mouth saying that they want to destroy the white race. They said that out of their own mouth. China is behind it, Syria is behind it because the Syrian president is partially Iranian and Iran they are behind it, being an Arab nation they hate white people and so forth. It is a war of race, it is a race war. So it's going to be mostly the white people that suffer the killings of the first two years of the Great Tribulation.

But then when we get to Pentecost of one year, 13 months actually before Jesus comes back, we're going to see a change in the war. That God will bring a revolution both spiritually with a great revival, with a great number of people getting saved in the final year, and the war turning around. The Americans, the British, the Jews starting to have much more victory in that final year. And so it says here in verse 20, Joel 2 verse 20 that God will chase away that northern enemy from us. So it's talking both about Assad because he's north of Israel and he's called the king of the north and some verses so forth, different words for him. And it's also talking about the Russian government, the Russian military Putin as being the northern enemy of God's people. And we're going to see this repeated in Ezekiel 38 that we're about to read here as well. And we're going to prove that the northern adversary in many ways is talking about Russia as well as the Assyrian Empire. So this is a military victory as well as a spiritual victory.

Then go back down to chapter 3, Joel 3 verse 1, for behold in those days and at that time when I shall have turned, that means to undo the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem. And I will also gather all the Gentiles and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat and will plead with them there for my people and my heritage Israel who have been dispersed or scattered among the Gentiles and these Gentiles have divided my land.

Right here is a description of the end time war between the Gentiles and the Israelite people, the white people. Right here is an end time prophecy describing a race war between different nations based upon the races of the people in the end time. And it also shows that these particular tribes and races upon the earth is still important to God in the end time and important to Satan in the end time. Now anybody of any color, any nation, any color, language, or nation can be adopted into the spiritual family of Israel and you're my true brothers and true sisters if you do the will of the Father obey Him. Amen. And have His Spirit. But on a physical level the bloodline of the tribes is still important to God. It is not correct to say that the bloodlines and the tribes and the races is not important to God. That's incorrect. They are important to God. Even in New Jerusalem the names of the tribes of Israel will be written in the structure of the buildings. The gates and the walls, the floors and so forth. The tribes of Israel. Amen. Think about that. Think about that. It's not the tribe of the Arabs. It's not the tribe of the Chinese that's going to be written in Jerusalem. But rather the tribes of Israel. Their names in paradise forever and forever and forever and forever without end. Those particular names and only those particular names written in the structures of the eternal Jerusalem. So don't tell me that race is not important to God. Amen.

People don't like this because it goes against what they're taught in traditional false Christianity. But this is a revolution of God pouring out His Spirit, His help. Amen. A lot of people call the Holy Ghost the helper. Amen.

So He's going to pour out His help upon His church and upon the chosen tribes. He's going to turn the war around that final year. Jesus revolution. Amen.

But the Americans and British and Jews will be in captivity not just killed but Joel 3 verse 1 even says captivity. So there's going to be Americans and British and Australians and Canadians and so forth that are taken as slaves into China, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Russia, so forth.

But in that final year He's going to undo that and start giving us some victory. But there's going to be a great war and look at verse 11 chapter 3 verse 11. Gather yourselves together and go in. All the nations round about and gather them there and let the timid, the fearful, the weak become a warrior. Amen. Think about that. All these people that are pacifists that think war is wrong, Sergio and others, weak ones. I could think of a better word but I better watch my mouth.

All these people that don't believe in war and fighting, they've been feminized. Amen. They've lost their masculinity because traditional Christianity demasculates. Is that the correct word? That's a correct word, yes. It is correct. Demasculates men. False religion does. The false Christian church does emasculate men. Absolutely. Amen.

The Bible says let the timid, the fearful, those that are weak, that don't have the boldness of a man become a warrior. So yes, God does bless war and battles and fighting when it's for the right reason. And to tell you the truth, if ever war has been for the right reason, you might have been on the wrong side. Amen. But ever war has been for the right reason of some sort or another, God working it out, God doing what he needs to do. God is in charge. Amen. God is in charge.

Let's go to Ezekiel now, book of Ezekiel chapter 39. We're going to read about the war turning around there as well, Ezekiel 39. Somewhere around page 140. Yeah, page 141 is what I've got. And maybe page 140, 141, depending on your version of the Alpha and Omega Bible. Ezekiel 39, verse 1.

And you, son of humans, prophesy against Gog. Gog is Russia and Putin. A lot of people right now are idolizing Putin. That's very bad, very evil, very foolish. They've fallen for the Russian propaganda, the communist and Islamic propaganda, the anti-Christ propaganda. They've fallen for it. Hook, line, and sinker. It shows how foolish Americans are today. Very, very foolish.

Gog is the Russian president. And it says prophesy against him. Against him, not for him, not on his support of him, but against him. And say this, say it, Jesus, behold, I am against you, O God, Rosh, Prince of Moscow, and Thobel, and I will turn, I will assemble you, I will gather you, and guide you, and raise you up from the extremity of the north. And I will bring you up upon the mountains of Jesrael.

Now when it says mountains of Jesrael, we've got to understand in prophecy, the word mountains can refer to different nations and different governments. Even as the Bible does come, we've already read it already in the previous verse, the mountain of the Lord, the mountain of God, referring to his kingdom. So this is the kingdoms of multiple kingdoms of Israel. People don't understand that Israel is not just one little nation in the Middle East, but rather in the eyes of God, Israel is also the kingdom of America, and the kingdom of the British Empire, as well as the kingdom of Judah in the Middle East.

So Russia is going to come, it says, from the extremity of the north. This proves again that it is Russia that it's talking about. The only nation on earth, I looked it up on the internet last night, the only nation on earth that has a point of land at all, at all, more north than Russia, is only Greenland and Canada. Only Greenland and Canada has any point of land farther north than Russia, and that's not even a lot of land that is more north than Russia.

Do you really think Greenland is going to be the nation that leads the entire world in the war against the Israelites? That would be very stupid thinking. Do you really think Canada is going to lead the entire world, all the Gentile nations, communist nations, and so forth, communist and Islamic nations, against Israel? Of course not. Canada is part of the British Empire, British commonwealth. They are Israelites. God ain't going to send the Israelites against the Israelites in the end time, even though that's happened before. It's not prophesied for Israelite to come against Israelites in the end time.

So Canada and Greenland doesn't make any sense, and also Canada and Greenland are not north of Israel, specifically, but Russia is north of Israel, specifically. And only Russia, if you look at the world today, you look at all the different nations, you look at the United Nations Security Council and so forth, you look at the most powerful armies and the biggest armies on earth, you consider everything there is to consider.

Only Russia could really lead all the communist nations, amen, and all the Islamic nations, because who are the allies of Russia? Iran, North Korea, Venezuela, and so forth. So this is easy to figure out. It is Russia that controls the Security Council along the side of America and so forth, and China, and Russian China being great allies. So it's easy to figure this out, easy. This is easy to understand.

So it says that I'm going to bring you from the extremity of the north upon the mountains, the different nations of Israel. In verse 3, and I will destroy the bow out of your left hand and your arrows out of your right hand, and I will cast you down on the mountains of Jesrael.

Very clearly talking about God turning the war around. Now a lot of people think this means that Russia will not have any success at all, not even from the start, and that's not biblical because you have to compare this with Revelation 11 where it does say that Jerusalem will be, it calls it the holy city there, will be under captivity, tread under foot of the Gentiles for 42 months. That's 1260 days. So very clearly the invasion and the war against Israel will be successful, will be successful.

So all these people that think that this is a turnaround of the war from day number one, they're ignoring what it says in Revelation 11. It will be a successful war, but only in the final year will God begin to turn the war around and take the bow out of the hand and the arrows out of the hand of Russia. What that means is that their missiles will no longer be as active or maybe even running out of supply, removing them from their hand.

Verse 4, "You and all that belong to you shall fall and the nations that are with you shall be given to the multitude of the birds even to every fowl and I've given you to all the wild beasts of the field to be devoured. And you will fall on the face of the earth, and I have spoken of Jesus. And I was sent afar upon Gog, upon Russia and the islands," talking about the British Isles, the UK, "shall be securely inhabited again and they shall know that I am Jesus," knowing that Jesus has turned the war around, in other words. Amen.

"And my holy name," my holy name, my holy name is significant to this because it's only through the English-speaking people worldwide, only the English-speaking people that bring the true name of Jesus to the entire earth, to the Gentiles, into Africa, South America, to all the nations of the earth. It's only through the English-speaking people that the J sound in Jesus even exists. They don't even have the J sound in the Gentile languages. They don't even have it. You can't even, you know, a lot of it, you can't even pronounce it in the Korean language. So it's only through the Israelite nations that salvation can come to the earth. Jesus said it himself, salvation comes from the Jews, from the Judeans. But that word Judean is a symbol for not just the Jews but for all the Israelites. Just like sometimes we read about Ephraim representing all of Israel and other times in the Bible. It's a word of symbolism for all the tribes of Israel, not just the Jews only.

And think about the Alpha and Omega Bible, where did it come from? Alpha and Omega Bible coming from the United States of America. That right there shows God's blessings upon America.

So Jesus revolution, the real one, not the fake one, or fake Christianity, but rather the real one, a spiritual and a physical in heaven and on earth, a turnaround of real salvation coming to the earth only in the final year of the great tribulation and not until then. We're not going to see a large number of people getting saved until we get to the final year of the great tribulation. You can read the entire Bible and you will never see a prophecy, an end time prophecy, of a lot of people getting saved in the end time until you get to the Pentecost of that final year, last 13 months before Jesus comes. And only then, and only then, so that's biblical proof that all these revivals that they're talking about in Kentucky and Ohio and California and so forth and what they call the Jesus revolution and all that crap, that is biblical proof. Biblical proof.

If you want to believe the Bible, if you choose to believe the holy Scriptures, biblical proof that there is no such real Jesus revolution or revival and won't be until the final year.

But people don't want to believe the Bible. They want to believe what? They want the tickle their ear message, watered down message, gentle message.

And this is a message against the president of Russia. It doesn't take much logic to figure out who he's talking about. Who upon the earth, a world leader that can lead other gentile nations. Is it going to be Venezuela? Of course not. Use some logic. Is it going to be Libya? Of course not. Egypt? Ethiopia? No. We're talking about, if you look at the whole list in chapter 38, this is a lot, a lot of nations. The world leaders, the big world leaders is America, the British, Russia, and China. That's it as far as world leaders. Russia, China, America, and the British. Those are your world leaders.

So out of those four, which one makes sense to lead the other communists and the other Islamic nations in this war against Israel? Russia is the only one that makes sense. And then we have the divine confirmation from heaven back in 2008 when I was walking on the side of the highway and found the chains. Then just a few minutes later, read Ezekiel 38 verse 4 that says I will put hooks in their jaws and with the chains I found hooks as well. And they're laying right here by my feet right now. So that was a divine confirmation from God, even though I didn't explain the whole story right there. I've explained it a million times and it's written on the website. If you go to isawthelightministries.com/chinese.html, you can read it. You can even see a picture there.

And if you would take these things in a sincere heart to the Lord in prayer, and if you're truly hearing from God, and you truly have a relationship with God, and it's a true relationship with God, rather than just your fantasies thinking that you're saved, which is like everybody.

Everybody just has a fantasy thinking that they're saved. You don't know how many people I've talked to, people that don't even live for the Lord, and yet they say, oh, I'm going to hell. I know I'm saved. I know, I know, I know, I know I'm saved, and yet they don't even live for the Lord, addicted to drugs, living a very chaotic life, getting arrested every weekend, and yet they still say, I know I'm saved, because the Baptist Church, the Baptist Church told me I'm saved because I went to the altar as a kid, or I went to the altar when I was such and such years old, and said the prayer, and I will always and forever be saved.

And yet they live for the devil. Everything in their life is for the devil, and God never comes first for them ever, and yet they still think they're saved. That's your typical church. That's not the exception. That's the typical Christian, so-called Christian church. The average Christian church, that's their thinking.

Let's go to Isaiah 11, Isaiah chapter 11. This was brought to me divinely last night, this particular verse, this passage last night, divinely, Revelation, okay, I'll get it right here in a minute. Isaiah, Isaiah chapter 11, page 11, Isaiah 11 on page 11, praise God. Verse 1, and there came, there shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse, and a blossom shall come up from his root. This is a prophecy that Jesus would eventually be born, come upon the earth in the flesh, and the Spirit of God shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and strength, the Spirit of knowledge and godliness shall fill him, and it should say in verse 3, instead of the same the Spirit of fear, it should say the Spirit of reverence. Verse 3, it should say the Spirit of reverence of God, and he will not judge according to appearance, nor reprove according to the hearsay, meaning just rumor of what people's accusations are, but he will judge the cause of the lowly, and shall we prove the lowly of the earth, and shall smite the earth, or strike the earth, I must change that to strike the earth, I already sent that to brother Jared, smite the earth with the word of his mouth, that's what it says also in Revelation 19, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one, talking about Assad, who is also a great partner of Putin, very close friends with Putin, is Assad, the man that has killed a lot of people, including so-called Christians, that has a lot of people, so-called Christians in the dungeons and torture chambers, right now that's been proven, that he has a lot of people in captivity, in torture chambers, and has repeatedly used illegal chemical weapons on his own people and on other people, and this has been proven over and over and over. And yet a lot of Americans think that Assad is innocent, and that all these accusations against him are American propaganda and American lies, and this is the American population.

Americans have ate something that has turned their brains into mud, silly putty, amen, and they have been brainwashed by Russian and Islamic propaganda to hate their own nation, and to think that everything America does is wrong, and to take the side of Putin and Assad both, therefore it wouldn't surprise me if they start taking the side of Iran, which is what they're really doing when you take the side of both Assad and Putin both, who's the third axis there, who's the third one? Iran and China, right? And North Korea, that's the evil axis that Ronald Reagan correctly pointed to and declared, amen? The evil axis, he was absolutely right on that, on a whole lot of other things too. We have to be careful about propaganda, not only in behalf of certain people, but also against certain people. Propaganda can turn you against the people that we should be declaring as heroes, and people that we should be declaring as on our side. Amen.

People are such victims to propaganda. Propaganda is very powerful, extremely powerful, extremely. People don't understand how strong propaganda is.

So, God is going to destroy the Antichrist, Assad, when he comes.

Verse five, Christ shall have on his loins girded with righteousness, or clothed with righteousness, and his sides clothed with truth, and the wolves shall feed by the lamb. We should have a line separation out there between verse five and six, Brother Jared, I did not put that in the notes to you last night, but it should be a line separation between five and six, like an empty line. Because it's not very clear in this chapter of when a particular time frame stops and begins, and when it recycles, and so forth.

But at some point of time, the wolf shall feed with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat. And the young calf and the bull and the lion should feed together, and a little child shall lead them. And the ox and the bear shall feed together, and the young shall be together, and the lion should eat straw like the ox.

In other words, there's coming a time when animals and children, for sure, will be able to dwell together in peace without one attacking the other.

That is the absence of Satan. So that's, even during the millennium, you're going to have Satan in a bottomless pit in prison for a thousand years before he's released out for 100 years.

And then at the end of the 100 years, Satan will be destroyed and all the fallen angels will be destroyed, totally, and so will the wicked people also be destroyed. Only a thousand, one hundred years after Christ comes back. All wickedness will be destroyed and there will be no more hunting animals for food, and there will be no more killing one another, there will be no more death and so forth. So whatever time frame the millennium or paradise, whichever it's talking about here, that these things would be like this. And notice in verse 10, I do believe that it's talking about the millennium.

In verse 10, and in that day there should be a root of Jesse and he that shall rise to rule over the Gentiles. In him shall the Gentiles trust and his rest shall be glorious and in it shall be in that day that the Lord shall again show his hand to be zealous or passionate for the remnant that is left of the people and shall be left by the Assyrians and that from Egypt and from the country of Babylon and from, notice how it says the country of Babylon, and out of and from Ethiopia and from the Elamites and from the rising of the sun and out of Arabia.

And so this is talking about people are left over from the great tribulation, people that are left, a remnant that are left, and He is gathering, God is gathering the Israelites and the church of all colors out of the Arab nations, amen, where they had been taken captive during the great tribulation.

This is a turnaround of the war and coming into the millennium where there will be peace.

Verse 12, and he shall lift up a standard for the nations and he shall gather the lost ones of Israel and he will gather the dispersed or scattered of Judah from the four sides of the earth.

Verse 13, and the envy of Ephraim, and again the word Ephraim here is a symbolism in this particular case for all of Israel except for the Jews, and the envy of Ephraim should be taken away, and the enemies of Judah shall perish, and Ephraim shall not envy Judah anymore, nor neither should Judah afflict Ephraim. Because right now sometimes you have under the Biden administration, Biden has turned America against our allies, Judah. And you've got certain people in the British Empire as well as leftist people turning against Israel and stuff like that.

So this is a prophecy to where the British and the Americans and the Jews will no longer have anybody in the government that's turning them against their own people. Amen.

Verse 14, and they shall spread sails in the ships of the Philistines, and they shall know at the same time spoil the sea and then that come from the east and Edom of Jordan, and they shall lay their hands on Moab first, but the children of Ammon, which may also be Jordan, shall first obey them. This is talking about Arab and Gentile nations obeying the Israelites in the millennium timeframe.

Verse 15, and Jesus shall make destitute the sea of Egypt, and shall lay his hand on the river with a strong wind, and will strike the seven seas on the seven channels, which are bodies of water, so that men will pass through it dry-footed, and there should be a passage for my people that is left in Egypt. And it shall be to Israel as the day when he came forth out of the land of Egypt.

Notice this, at the exodus Israel came out of Egypt, that was the Night To Be Much Observed, which we kept last week the Night To Be Much Observed. So this uses what happened on the Night To Be Much Observed to be repeated that there is an exodus of Israelites coming out of Egypt in the end time. Wow! Ain't that cool? The Israelites leaving slavery from Egypt again in the end time. Wow! (And all the mockers and the atheists still in Egypt will see it again.)

Amen, as well as all of Saudi Arabia and these other nations.

Now notice the city of Babylon right now is being built in Egypt and Saudi Arabia and Jordan. That city of Babylon known N-E-O-M is actually declared that it will be into Egypt, into Jordan, as well as Saudi Arabia. So there will be people captive in Babylon includes being captive slaves in Egypt and Jordan which is mentioned here and Arabia which is mentioned here.

This is the country of Babylon, that area, that whole region. Very significant, that region.

This is a reversal of the war in the final days, months, and thirteen months, and especially as you get closer to the very day that Jesus returns more and more and more success in this revolution against the evil axis. This is a Jesus revolution against the evil axis in the final days. Amen. God is good.

And finally let's turn over to Revelation 7. And again as you turn there, what we just read in Isaiah chapter 11 came to me last night when I had mentioned something which I will not explain, but I had mentioned something to brother Jared. And he said that reminds me of a verse in Isaiah. He looked it up, gave me this verse, and when he gave me this verse and I started reading it, I knew this has got to be part of the sermon. I didn't tell him that. I wanted it to be a surprise. I held it back from him. But when I read it, I'm like, yep, this has to be part of the sermon. And I wasn't going to give that verse, but it fits perfectly in the sermon. And brother Jared did not even know what I was going to even talk about today. He did not even know the topic that I was going to talk about today. And yet he gives me this particular passage. And what I said to him really is not directly related to what I'm talking about, a Jesus revolution, a turning of the war, and a revival, and people coming to salvation.

And what I had said to him really has nothing to do with these things, specifically. And yet he gave me this verse not knowing that this verse specifically does refer to today's topic. That's God. That is God. Amen. And we see things like that happen in this ministry on a constant basis.

We see God's hand, and God's voice, and God's presence, and God's working power in this ministry constantly. So how can you deny it? Amen. Revelation 7, now. Let's turn to Revelation 7.

When you go to these Sunday churches, that doesn't happen, does it? When you go to these Sunday churches, and the pastor is talking, and he tells you what Bible verses he's using, he can never claim, because it doesn't happen, he can never really claim that he's given the verses to use in his sermon, that he has given to them in a divine way that proves the hand of God. They can't claim it because it doesn't happen in those churches. It doesn't happen in the Sunday churches because that's not God's church, therefore he is not present, although he's present in other words, he is not present in them in the extent of blessing and anointing. He is not there in a form of anointing or blessing in their services. Amen. If He's there, He's there only to spy upon the wicked, to watch their evilness. Amen. Their wickedness.

Revelation 7, now. Revelation 7, verse 1. Revelation 7, verse 1. It says, after this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, restraining the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or any tree. Verse 2. I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God, and cried out with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the bondservants, again, those that are in servitude, to our theos, our God, on their foreheads. And I heard the number of those who were sealed, 144,000 sealed, from every tribe of the sons of Jesrael.

This is not talking about spiritual Israel, but rather it says the sons of Jesrael, which proves that it's talking about physical bloodline. Their sons, their descendants, the descendants of the original tribe tribes of the Israel. Amen. So the Jehovah Witnesses, which is mostly a black church, a Gentile church, even though some white people do go there, some white people are slaves within the Jehovah Witness cult, but it's mostly a black church, a Gentile church, and they think that they are the 144,000 and that only the Jehovah Witnesses and only the Jehovah Witnesses are the 144,000.

That's what the Jehovah Witnesses teach. And yet they're not even Israelites. They're not even the descendants of Israel. So how can they claim this? It doesn't make sense. It's impossible. Their doctrines are wrong. Amen.

And this is something easy to understand. Verse 5, from the tribe of Judah, 12,000 were sealed. And so forth. The tribe of Reuben, 12,000. The tribe of Gad, 12,000. Asher, 12,000. So when you get down eventually, in verse 6, you get down to Manasseh, which is Americans. Verse 7, Solomon, Levi, Zebulun, so on. Benjamin, we don't have to read all this. You get the point in Joseph in verse 8. 12,000 from each of the 12 tribes of Israel. So notice here that the tribe of Judah was mentioned 12,000.

So why then does the traditional churches, your Sunday churches and your traditional false Christian, teach from the pulpit that it's going to be 144,000 Jews that will be sealed on that day? It doesn't say that. It doesn't say it. In fact, it says the opposite. It says only 12,000 Jews, only 12,000 of the tribe of the Jews, of the tribe of Judah.

This shows how ignorant of the Bible your traditional average Sunday preacher is. Ignorant. They don't understand even the most basic, easy, foundational, elementary baby stuff in the Bible. They don't even understand that much of the Bible. They don't understand the Bible. And they're very, very ignorant of such basic information. Only 12,000 of the tribe of Judah, only 12,000 Jews will be sealed. Only 12,000 in the world, that number of Jews.

And yet there are people, there are some preachers on YouTube preaching that none of the Jews will be saved. None of them. That the Jews can't be saved because all of the Jews are the children, literal, physical, bloodline, seed, seed of Satan.

There are preachers preaching that. And this verse proves them wrong. Amen? And why would anybody follow such a so-called ministry that preaches that there's an entire race of people, the entire Jewish race cannot get saved, cannot get saved because they're demons, children of Satan. Why would you follow such a ministry? Why would you be that stupid, that gullible and that wicked? You would have to be wicked. You have to be wicked to believe such a wicked doctrine. To believe such a wicked doctrine, you yourself have to be wicked. It's ridiculous.

Even the Americans right here, unless you're American as a Jew or American of one of the other tribes, basically if you're pure-blooded British, only 12,000 will be sealed. But the thing is, this ain't talking about how many people are saved. But yet the Jehovah Witnesses use it in that way. The Jehovah Witnesses, not only are they mostly Gentile church, but also they're twisting it to try to say that these 144,000 are the only ones that's going to heaven, ever. And that's not what it says. That's not what it means. That's not what it's teaching. But rather, it's saying that these 144,000 are specifically the number of people protected from these winds that's about to come upon the earth and the fruits thereof in verse 9. Here's the fruit of these people, which will help you understand the purpose of the 144,000. Verse 9, people don't get this. The churches do not understand this.

Verse 9, after these things are looked and behold, a great multitude, a great multitude of people, larger than the 144,000, which no one could count, that many people, no one could even count this high, from every nation, every tribe, people and language, standing before the throne, before the Lamb of God, clothed in white robes and pond wrenches in their hands, they crown to the Lord, saying salvation to God, who sits on the throne into the Lamb. They're worshipping Him.

Go down to verse 14. I said to Him, My Lord, you know, He said to me, These are the ones, the people, who come out of the great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

It tells you right here that the number of people who will get saved in the great tribulation is way more than 144,000. It's a great multitude of people that could not even be numbered, could not even be counted, of even the Gentiles, of every language, of every race on earth, every race, every language, the African, every tribe of Africa, every nation of Africa, every nation and tribe of South America, that will be saved.

This is a great revolution spiritually, which would require even a physical revolution to achieve. You would have to have a physical war revolution to start getting the gospel of the truth, the real truth. This message that you're hearing and reading about today, this is the message of the gospel of the kingdom of God of Matthew 24:14.

Matthew 24:14, and this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached unto all the world as a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come. And not until then, not until then, because this gospel has not yet reached every language and every tribe on earth is still lacking. Amen. That the end cannot come, cannot, will not, Jesus will not come back, cannot and will not come back until the truth, this message is brought to every language on earth. And that work will be done through the 144,000 male evangelists, white Israelites, virgins that are sealed in this scripture. Amen. These are young male virgins. I'll tell you how I knew that. I believe it's chapter 14, Revelation 14. Verse 4.

Verse 4, Revelation 14, verse 4. These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgin males. These are the ones who fought on the land wherever he goes. How much more clear can you get? How much more clear can you get? God is good. The word males, does that need to be put in parentheses or not? We have checked that out. But we know they are virgins and we know that they are males because they are evangelists. There's no such thing as a woman evangelist. If you ever meet a woman evangelist, you need to tell her to shut her mouth. Amen. God does not call women as evangelists. As a prophecies, yes. As a deaconess, yes. But as an apostle, no. As a prophet, no. A prophecies and a prophet are totally two different things. Totally different things. People don't even know the most basic things in the Bible. Amen.

So this is not 144,000 total saved because we know it's going to be a great multitude of every language, of every tribe, of every color. That is only the number of evangelists that will have a special anointing. It's not just a protection from the wind or from the plagues, but it's anointing from on high, as we say, from heaven. Anointing, a special anointing in addition to any other true preachers already sealed, already. Amen. We're already sealed by God already. You don't have to wait until the sixth seal and the sealing of the 144,000. Brother Jared is already sealed in his forehead. I'm already sealed in my forehead. You don't have to be part of the 144,000. You don't need to be part of the 144,000.

I'm not a virgin, thank God, and therefore I'm not going to be part of the 144,000. That doesn't mean I can't be evangelist. That doesn't mean I'm not saved. That doesn't mean I'm not going to heaven for the marriage supper. It only means that I'm not one of the selected 144,000 evangelists that have a very specific ministry, that have a very specific time frame in which to preach. That's not today. That's not yesterday. That's not tomorrow. That's only in the final year of the great tribulation, and not until then, not until the final year of the great tribulation are you going to see this many true preachers.

You don't even have 1,000 true preachers on the earth today. You don't even have 500 true preachers with their anointing and seal of God on this earth today, among the entire planet. You don't. There's not even 500 men on this earth preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God in Matthew 24, 14. If there was, then the end would have already come. Amen.

Matthew 24:14. After this gospel of the kingdom does reach all nations, then the end will come. If the true gospel has already been on the earth for a hundred years like they try to say, or 2,000 years like they try to say, then the end would have already come. We'd already be into the millennium by now if what they say was true. Amen.

If Sunday and the Trinity, and Christmas and Easter and birthdays and all that crap, if that was the true gospel, we would already be in the millennium by now. Amen. But to have 144,000 true preachers having great success with the fruit of an uncountable number of people that actually truly get saved in the final year of the great tribulation, that's going to take both a spiritual outpouring of the Holy Ghost and a change in the Lord to allow travel, to allow evangelism, to allow baptism because you've got to baptize the people before they can be saved.

So that's a major change from hiding from the soldiers and being afraid and being timid and holding back and not being able to travel and not being able to get the message out there to a large number of people. You're hiding in the caves, you're hiding in the forest, you're trying to just stay alive.

But in that final year, finally the Russians, their missiles are not working correctly anymore, God is changing the war, God is allowing the Americans, the British and the Israelites, the Jews to have some military victories finally and that changes everything. The revolution against the communists, against the Putin idolaters, against the Christmas people, against the false religion.

You're not going to have the TV evangelists of the Sunday preachers anymore because everybody by that day and time will be sick and tired of their crap. In that day and time after two years of great tribulation, nobody is going to want to listen to the Billy Graham type of preachers, the Joel Osteen, the Joyce Meyers, these women preachers that have an inch of makeup on their faces looking like Jezebel selling the number one best sellers and yet they've got an inch of makeup on their face. Jezebel preachers. The people are going to have enough of that, sick and tired of it, they ain't going to put up with it no more, they will finally be listening to the truth and yet there will still be actually a large number of people to resist even then, even though it's going to be a very large number of people saved, there will still yet, according to the Bible, still be also at the same time a large number of people that continue to not repent, as it said in the book of Revelation that they still will not repent of worshiping stones and demons and wood and I think maybe silver and gold, whatever it says there, that there will still be people who do not even repent of worshiping physical things and demons. But at least there will be a lot of true salvation, there will be, praise God.

So in that final year we will be counting down to Pentecost, fifty days, knowing in that time because of the teaching of today, because of the message you're hearing right now, you're going to be understanding in that final year the significance of that particular Pentecost of the sealing of the 144,000 is going to occur on Pentecost one year which is actually 13 months and some days before Jesus comes back and we'll continue to count even after Pentecost, we'll continue to count to the next holy day and the next holy day and the next holy day as it gets closer and closer and closer to the very blessed event of the coming of the Lord on the 1335th day of Daniel 12. Amen. Praise God.

We're so blessed by God to receive from heaven the revelation, the end time revelation of which God has given us. Amen. We're not perfect, we have sinned, we have made mistakes, but God has chosen to give us His message to take to the world that will be multiplied in the future. Amen.

We will have more brothers and more sisters and more congregations even before the final year, but it's only in the final year that we're going to see the great increase, huge increase in numbers worldwide. It's a great and glorious time that it will be. We look forward to that.

These holy days are for shattering of that. Praise God. God is so good to us. Amen. Let us close in prayer.

Lord Heavenly Father, we thank You, Lord, for giving us this knowledge, this understanding, for opening up understanding to us and to Your people set apart from the false Christians. Thank You, Lord, for the special calling.

Thank You for the special anointing. Thank You for Your presence of anointing and blessing, for Your divine word. Thank You for choosing to call the lowly, those that don't have a lot of money or a lot of power. We don't have the perfect speech, but we have Your blessing, and we treasure that. We pray for more brothers, more sisters, even though it's not going to be a great, huge number, we still pray for that one more person, one more, and one more, and one more, and one more person who's willing to assemble us. Thank You.

We pray for the accept of Your truth and Your commandments, Your holy days. We pray for the sick, the afflicted. We pray for Brittany, for healing of her mind, body, and soul. We pray for Brother A.J. in South Korea, for the healing of his body that he may get good sleep, be delivered from his afflictions, healing for his prostates, healing from lack of sleep, and that You give him wisdom about what to do, and that he would practice wisdom that he get much more rest. God help him, Father.

Please build the Cape Town, South Africa congregation. Give them a safe place to meet, and help them to exercise courage and to not be overly fearful of the public. Help them, Lord, to exercise wisdom and courage and faithfulness and endurance and perseverance. Help Brother Simon to stay in the truth and to separate himself from the fake Christians. Help Brother Adri, Hugh, and Sister Dominique. Please help them. Help Brother Salavat, Brother Jonathan, and other brothers and sisters around the world, every one of them. You know their names, their needs, their circumstances, their situations. We accept Your help for our brothers and sisters and for ourselves.

We accept Your help. We accept Your presence of anointing and blessing and help and deliverance and strength in Jesus' name. Praise Your Holy Name on this seventh day of unleavened bread. May You be glorified in this and in this church and by Your people. May we lift up Your name, worship You, and praise You in truth and in spirit forevermore without end. In Jesus' name, so be it. Amen. Praise Jesus.

Okay. So, we'll let you go, talk to you later. God bless.
