Let's go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father praise your holy name. Thank you Lord for getting us through this week. Thank you Lord for any sleep that we may have gotten last night.

Thank you for this new day, this day of rest and worship and fellowship. Thank you that the audio is working right now.

To where they're going, where they can hear the message today. Thank you for this option, this way of getting the message out there to the people.

Thank you for all the new people that are learning about the Alpha and Omega Bible and the ministry and your truth.

Thank you for all of our brothers and sisters that you're going to be gathering with us.

Thank you that very soon now the Passover and the Days of Unleavened Bread will be here.

And the night to be much observed. Much time of learning and thinking and reflecting about the meaning of these holy days.

How they are significant to each one of us individually and as a church and as a kingdom, as a people.

Praise your holy name. Thank you Lord for the victory that Israel has already experienced.

Found much victory they've been having for the past several months. Thank you that we still got another year left, Father.

Thank you for giving us plenty of time and plenty of heads up. Warning, notice in advance.

You're so loving and wonderful to give your people so much time to get ready. You're truly the God of second chances.

Praise your holy name. We accept your blessing, your anointing on this service and on this sermon, this message, this spirit of spiritual need that we're about to receive.

And we pray that it would return back unto you and your kingdom a hundred fold. That it would not be in vain but shall accomplish the purpose of which forth it is sent.

In the name of Jesus, so be it. In Jesus' name we pray and the church said, Amen.

Praise God. Amen. Amen. Praise Jesus.

Praise Jesus. Discerning the times. Discerning the times and the seasons.

April the 20th, 2025. Let's turn to Matthew 16. Matthew 16. Well, Brother Calm Adam from Kansas is scheduled to be here arriving Monday.

Praise Jesus to be here preparing bread. But not to be much observed. To spend all that time with us and we are so much looking forward to that. Praise Jesus.

Praise God. Cannot wait. Amen. Praise God. And we're praying that God would bring other true brothers and sisters here locally to be part of the local congregation as a support for the International Ministry.

So there's some in the floor right next to my seat. And we have got the Cape Town congregation in South Africa gathering together.

Brother Andrew is traveling into town and will be with the rest of the brothers and sisters there for the Passover season.

Celebrations and memorials and everything that's going to be occurring. And we're praying for new congregations, more congregations, more deacons, more pastors, more brothers, more sisters in every region, not just locally, but around the world.

For Australia, South Korea, South Africa, India, other regions, Russia. We have like one member in each nation for most of these different other nations.

But Cape Town we've got four or five. So we praise God because more people are learning about the ministry and the AOB all the time.

Every day there's new people coming to the website learning. And even if they don't embrace everything, all truth, they usually embrace a lot of people over time have embraced at least some.

Additional truth. But everybody grows at a different pace, a different speed. Some people grow faster, accept the truth faster, other people slower. But we're all on the same journey hopefully.

So we praise God. Amen.

When the Pharisees came up and testing Jesus, they asked him to show them a sign from heaven. But he replied to them, "When it is evening, you say it would be fair weather, for the sky is red. And in the morning there will be a storm today, for the sky is red and threatening. Do you know how to discern the appearance of the sky but cannot discern the signs of the times?" Amen. "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign and a sign will not be given except the sign of Jonah." Talking about three days and three nights that he would be in the tomb. And he left them and went away. That references Matthew 12:40 where he specifically says three days and three nights.

Now this verse 4 is commonly used by false preachers trying to claim that we don't need any sign and that we should never seek a sign, look for a sign or proclaim a sign from God.

About the end times or anything else. Such so called teachers don't understand the Bible at all.

And again that's a perfect example of what we call one verse theology. Looking at one verse alone.

To teach what they teach that is wrong to have a sign or seek a sign or knowledge or proclaim a sign from God about the end times.

They would have to not only use one verse theology but really in other words to ignore the entire book of Revelation. Amen.

The entire book of Revelation. The book of Revelation is full of signs. You will see this sign, you will see that sign. It might not say it that way but it is full of signs. Joel chapter 2 about the sign of the stars and the sun and the moon and the sixth seal.

That book of Revelation talks about the sixth seal. Amen. The Bible is full of signs. The context is that particular generation and the fact that God dwell in the flesh right in front of their eyes and all the miracles that he was performing.

Great, wonderful miracles that he was performing. And his wisdom, his knowledge and everything else about him. Everything about Christ. Everything about Christ. Where he was born. Everything about Christ. Where and when he was born. Everything was evidence and proof that he was God. Everything.

And they could see all of that and still denied that he was the Messiah.

They knew that the word Messiah more correctly, Messias, but today people say Messiah.

But they knew that the Messias was going to be God. That the Messias was the one that could save you of your sins and the only one that could save you of your sins was the one and only God.

When they used the word Messiah, they knew they was talking about God and they did not accept him as the Messias. But they should have because everything, everything about him pointed to his divinity. Amen.

That is why, that is the context in which he speaks these words that they are a adulterous generation. Amen.

And that they seek after a sign but they didn't need a sign because there was so much proof.

They didn't need additional signs. They didn't need a comet. They didn't need an eclipse. They didn't need all these different things that he's given us today. Amen.

But other than that, another point is that in verse 3, he condemned them for not being able to discern the signs.

So in one hand in verse 4, he condemned them for wanting signs and seeking signs and asking for signs.

But verse 3, he condemned them for not acknowledging and seeing the signs. That's not contradictory at all in the context.

You have to understand the context. Is that again, the context is they should not need to ask for lightning and thunder. This is so relevant to people today. They can read the sacred names article and other articles about different topics on the website and be pointed directly to the scriptures and to historical evidence.

So much solid, undeniable proof. Even the dates article about the five end time prophetic events that would occur exactly on the holy days.

That is so solid. It is undeniable. It is absolutely undeniable. If you just read all the scriptures and all the points of evidence about that, and yet because people haven't seen lightning and thunder come out of the sky, they don't believe it.

Regardless of which of these topics you're talking about, the evidence is undeniable and they still reject the truth. Amen.

So he is condemning them for not seeing what is obvious. Amen. He's condemning them for not seeing what is obvious and still asking for more.

Which is exactly what a lot of people do today. A lot of people. Amen. Asking for more when you've already been given a ton of solid, undeniable proof and still asking for more.

Which is definition of hypocrisy in one sense. It is definitely hypocrisy. Amen.

But Matthew chapter 24, which is parallel with Luke 21 and Mark 13, they all detail the exact same list of signs of the end time.

And the question they asked him in Matthew 24 is what will be the things that we need to look at.

Did they use the word signs or not? Let's look at Matthew 24. The sign of your coming. Verse 3, what will be the sign of your coming?

And his response was not condemning of seeking a sign. In Matthew 24, because Matthew 24, he's speaking to the disciples.

But Matthew 16, he's speaking to the Pharisees. So he's speaking to a different crowd of people.

So when they ask for a sign in Matthew 24, when it's the true church and the people that really care about the truth and the people that really truly follow him, he does not condemn them for asking a sign.

Because it wasn't a sign that he was God, because they didn't need a sign for that.

It was so evident. But rather the question in Matthew 24 is a sign about future generations.

The end of time. So it was a more reasonable question. A much more reasonable question. So he gave them a whole list of signs in Matthew 24.

A whole list of multiple signs.

And the main sign being the abomination of desolation. Amen.

In verse 15, that's the main sign. But he never mentions, look for the rebuilding of the temple. Amen.

And if we did need to look for the rebuilding of a temple, then we would have to see that in verse 14.

Because that would be about where it would be right before the abomination. How can you, you know, by traditional false interpretation, the abomination of desolation is the defilement of the third Jewish temple.

You can't have that in that particular interpretation without Jesus first saying, you will see the temple rebuilt.

Which he never says. In Matthew's account of what he said, in Luke's account of what he said, in Mark's account of what he said on this particular message, sermon right here that he was given.

He never said, according to all three men, he never said that you must look for the rebuilding of the temple.

So the abomination of desolation has nothing to do with a third Jewish temple at all.

The abomination of desolation has nothing to do with a rebuilt Jewish temple at all.

He actually says the opposite. He does speak about the temple in verse 2. Not one stone will be left upon another. If it was done to be rebuilt, that would be huge.

Exactly. The rebuilding of the third Jewish temple would be so huge, so huge, that it would be either in Matthew 24, Luke 21, Mark 13, or the book of Revelation, or in Thessalonians, or in more than one case.

And probably, most likely, if such an event were to ever occur, it would be recorded in prophecy in more than one place because it would be so huge.

Of course, they falsely interpret Daniel 9, and they falsely interpret Revelation 11.

But in both places, you have to interpret those things. It doesn't actually say that they're going to rebuild the temple.

It takes interpretation in both of those locations that they try to use of Daniel 9 and Revelation 11.

It takes private interpretation, which the Bible says we have no right to a private interpretation. Amen.

But that verse 15 is a heavenly sign. That's the number one sign, the main sign, because I ever think before that, he says, you're going to see this, but it's just the beginning.

This is not it. This is not yet the end. This is not yet the great tribulation until you actually see verse 15. That's the sign.

That's the number one major sign, and that is a heavenly sign. People don't know that that is a heavenly sign.

They think it's an earthly, physical, earthly, manifestation, and really is a spiritual, heavenly, manifestation up in the sky because people don't think spiritually.

So, a lot of people think that it's Project Blue Beam, which supposedly is a government operation, a government plan to put a laser beam up in the sky to project a fake image of Jesus in the sky, which is really stupid theology teaching that a lot of people embrace because the government would not even want you to think that God has come back.

Right? The government would not even want you to think that God has come back, except for the government of the antichrist acting as God.

That's the only exception to that. Amen. The government normally, especially the American government, which is what they claim that Project Blue Beam is, the American government and NASA would not want you to think that God has come back, but rather they would want you to think that God is never coming back.

It's the exact opposite. Amen. It's the exact opposite. NASA and Hollywood and Star Trek and all the sci-fi, they want you to think that God is never coming back.

That's their objective. Amen. That's their goal. That's their plan. It's for you, for everyone to think that God is never coming back. There's no Project Blue Beam to make you think that God has come back.

That's nonsense, absolutely nonsense. The things that people are so gullible that they just fall for hook, line, and sinker is the old saying.

They'll swallow anything. These are heavenly things. These are spiritual things. We rational against flesh and blood. These are spiritual powers, spiritual principalities. These are demons we're dealing with, and they don't need CERN, C-E-R-N.

They don't need a, what would you call that machine? Hadron Collider.

They don't need that. Come here, brother. Speak up here. Come here where they can hear you.

What's it called? Large Hadron Collider. Okay, hopefully they heard that.

So, demons don't need a machine to enter the earthly realm.

How silly can people be? Demons don't need a scientist to push a button and turn on a giant machine for them to enter through a gateway from that realm, a spiritual realm, to the physical realm.

Demons have been here forever since the original creation. Amen. Demons were here in the Garden of Eden. Amen.

Did Adam have to push a button and turn on a machine in order to allow Satan to enter into the physical realm?

Bullcrap. People are so silly what they fall for on the internet because of the Church of YouTube. Amen.

Is this waking you up? Is this waking some people up? We pray so. Amen. That this is going to wake you up. We need to be spiritually thinking. We're dealing with spirits.

They don't need a machine to manifest. We need to be able to discern the signs of the times.

Jesus did condemn the Pharisees for not being able to discern the signs of the times.

Because Christ was among them. And even though we don't have Christ in the flesh in the same manifestation today, we do still yet have Christ in the flesh among us today.

God is dwelling in the flesh through the Holy Ghost, dwelling inside His church. Through the Holy Ghost, dwelling inside His servants, His people, anyone and everyone that is truly, truly, truly saved, then God is dwelling in the flesh inside that person.

Teaching, guiding, leading, directing, correcting, chastising, all of that and more. Amen.

And if we have truly the presence of Christ inside us, then why do we fall for such foolishness?

Examine yourself to see if you are truly in the faith. Examine yourself to see if you are truly saved.

Examine yourself, examine your head to see if you are more carnally minded or spiritually minded.

Do you think things through before you embrace them? When you hear it on YouTube, or anywhere else, or read it, or watch it, or wherever.

Do you think it through? Do you use logic? Do you test it? Do you test the Spirit?

The Bible says to test the Spirit. Amen. But the problem is a lot of people think they test the Spirit with the Holy Ghost when they're not testing the Spirit with the Holy Ghost, but rather they're falsely testing the Spirit with their own carnal thinking.

And that's not really testing the Spirit at all. I just think they are. They test the Spirit in their own carnal thinking and with their own false doctrine.

So they can claim all day and all night and forevermore that they're testing the Spirit.

They're not. They are condemning and wrongfully judging with their own legalistic doctrine.

That's different than testing with the Holy Ghost, entirely different. Today we preach this sermon in the context of recent events with Iran and Israel.

We should be able to discern the times and the seasons. God has given us a wake-up call, multiple signs of what is occurring, has been occurring with the Gaza war, the Ukraine, rumblings, rumors of wars in the South China Sea,

Korea.

And the recent events of where Iran attacked Israel and then more recently Israel attacked Iran.

These are extremely serious historic events. I remember 1979 when the Iranian revolution occurred and the previous government was overthrown during the Carter administration, President Carter, Democrat.

When that occurred, how weak he was about it. And then when Reagan came in and Iran was immediately afraid of Ronald Reagan and released the American hostages immediately on the first day that Reagan was in office because they knew that he was a Republican rather than a Democrat.

That he meant business and he did mean business for his entire administration. He repeatedly bombed communist camps across the world.

He was a great leader, a very masculine alpha leader. He wasn't perfect but he was one of the best leaders we've ever had in the American presidency in modern times.

Because masculine leaders worldwide, they respect power and masculinity. They do not respect weakness that they see in Biden.

They do not respect that at all. They despise that. They hate that. Although they glory in the fact that America is being led in such great weakness but at the same time they hate and despise such weakness and take advantage of it. Amen. But we need to recognize what's occurring and I did declare in the past day or two, I did say that we have one year left and no more than that and no less than that.

How can I say that? The fact is that when Iran struck Israel with hundreds of drones and several missiles, that was the first time since the present Iranian Islamic regime since they took over in 1979, that they have directly militarily attacked Israel within their homeland.

Now of course they've done terror attacks against Israel worldwide. 1991 or something like that, they did an Iranian bombing, terror attack bombing, not airplane air strike of the Israeli embassy in South America.

I think it was somewhere down there, I forget exactly which now, Argentina maybe but somewhere in South America and other places around the world.

Iran has been conducting terror attacks against Israel ever since 1979, many, many, many times.

But this was different, this was historically different and major, major, major to actually fire a long range missile, multiple missiles from Iran into Israel and there was drones or missiles one or the other over the Temple Mount.

I saw pictures of either a drone or a missile something in the air from Iran being projected over the Temple Mount and over Jerusalem.

That's historic, that's a very major event, there's a major significance that you cannot overstate it, you cannot overstate how big that is.

I'd like everybody in this room to stand up please. Thank you. Then it was what, I don't know how many days, three days or so, it didn't take long until Israel struck back. Amen.

And Israel, even though it was a weak response, it was at the same time a strong response because it was the first time that Israel struck inside Iran using air equipment, whether it was a missile, whether it was a drone, the different theories, we don't know for sure exactly what it was, different, I've read different things, different opinions, different theories, but it was different from all the previous attacks because we have seen Israel use secret agents, people on the ground inside Iran, spies for Israel, plant bombs in the nuclear facilities multiple times.

We have seen that, that bombs go off underground and above ground both inside Iran multiple times to attack the nuclear facilities multiple times and that's big, but this was the first time that it was an air missile or air drone or something like that to strike a radar system of the nuclear facility that is historic and is an escalation.

Now it was only a message to let Iran know that they have that capacity, that they have that ability to strike militarily from the air deep in the center of Iran, in the center of Iran, not just in the border regions.

So it was a strong message and only a message to let them know what they could do.

So I think it was a weak response, but yeah, a strong message at the same time. So this is serious enough, especially the Iranian attack against Israel, is serious enough to know that we've entered a new season of time, that things are escalating, especially in the context of the Gaza war, the Ukrainian war.

Things are escalating.

Then we've got the November American elections coming up very quickly that will be here before we know it.

Time goes fast. Amen. And we can definitely expect chaos to come out of that regardless of who they declare as the winner.

We can expect chaos. Both sides are predicting chaos. Both sides are predicting chaos from the November elections in America, and that's going to affect the whole world.

Whatever happens in America affects the whole world always, always has, always will.

But at the same time, why am I not saying, well, we could have the great tribulation by June or May or July.

How come I'm not saying that we can expect the Israeli invasion, the conquest of Israel, the start of the great tribulation, all of this within the next few months?

How come I'm not saying that? Because Purim has already passed. Therefore, we have to wait to the next Purim, the next year, 2025. The great tribulation cannot begin until we see the fulfillment of this sign, the major sign, the number one sign we must watch for, Matthew 24, verse 15, the abomination of desolation, which Daniel chapter 12 says is the beginning of the 1290 day countdown and the 1335 day countdown, both at the same time.

That's the beginning. So we can't have the total fulfillment of Ezekiel 38 and the start of the great tribulation until Purim slash Passover, only 30 days apart, that time, that season of whatever year, for the fulfillment of the abomination of desolation and the beginning of the great tribulation.

So we have a minimum of one year, obviously.

But yet, how come I'm not saying it could be two years?

How come I did put in the newsletter just the other day, that is definitely 2025 now, definitely.

Why did I say that? That's a big risk for me and for this entire ministry. It's a huge risk for me to declare it's definitely 2025. It's a huge risk because if it doesn't happen, then tons of people will say automatically I'm a false prophet, even though it will be fulfilled.

Whether it's the next year after that or ten years after that, it's going to be fulfilled exactly on the date of Purim and Passover because the Bible says so, absolutely it does say so, but you have to read between the lines.

It doesn't say it ABC, it will happen on Purim, it will happen on Passover. It doesn't say it in those terms in ABC, but rather you have to read between the lines, you have to read spiritually minded, you have to be seeking, you have to be searching, you have to put it line upon line, precept upon precept, principle upon principle.

And when you do that, then it's absolutely undeniable that it does declare it, it does teach it.

You can't deny that it teaches it if you're willing to study it out. It's kind of a Bible code.

We don't believe in Bible codes where they try to circle letters like a crossword puzzle or whatever you would call that. The people that do that are another example of the extreme stupidity, amen, that exists in this world.

We don't believe in that type of a Bible code, but if there's any such thing as a true and real Bible code, then this is it, which is just simply adding line upon line and precept upon precept, teaching upon teaching, chapter upon chapter, book upon book, studying it out and coming up with the sum, the conclusion of the matter.

A scriptural Bible code, amen.

I concluded that it must be 2025 next year because that these events that we just eyewitnessed are that dramatic, that serious, that historic.

And in the context of the November elections coming up, in the context of the Gaza war, and how they're getting down into the southern tip of Gaza now, and the Ukrainian war, how that is really intensifying and coming to a head, and how they're trying to get Ukraine admitted into NATO, and all these different things.

Everything's really coming to a head. For the people, different languages, trying to explain what that means, coming to a head, if a person has a pimple, and a lot of times you cannot pop the pimple, you cannot get the stuff that's inside the pimple out of it until it comes to a head, until it is ripe, until it is raised.

And everything in the world, all these different battles and different flash points across the world, each one is coming to be ripe, is getting ripe for this season.

We need to be able to discern the seasons that it is the things we're getting ripe to pop.

It can't continue forever the way it is. It can't continue, can't just have the Ukraine war, and the Gaza war, and the South China Sea situation, all of this just continue, and continue, and continue, and continue for another ten years.

No, you can't. Come on. Have some common sense. There's going to be a time sooner or later that these different flash points just go boom. Amen?

(I shouldn't have put my drum up so early, I shouldn't.)

[Bangs drum loudly]

Sooner or later these flash points will go boom. Amen.

Praise God.

We have to consider the comet, the lunar eclipse, the solar eclipse, but more so the lunar eclipse than the solar eclipse. The solar eclipse was not nearly as important as the lunar eclipse. But you had all these YouTube videos and websites and false preachers talking all about the solar eclipse more than the comet and more than the lunar eclipse. It was all about the solar eclipse to them. Whereas with God and these heavenly signs, it was more about the lunar eclipse.

They had it backwards. Amen. More about the lunar eclipse because the Quran does predict judgment day or resurrection day or however it terms it as occurring during a lunar eclipse during Ramadan or at least during a lunar eclipse.

And because the lunar eclipse was on a holy day, whereas the solar eclipse was not on a holy day. So that as well.

But I just learned of another heavenly sign that I just learned about just a couple of days ago.

And that is an exploding star that will become visible to the naked eye sometime this year.

And they don't know when this year, but just sometime this year they're expecting that we'll be able to see that exploding star.

And it actually exploded 3,000 years ago. 3,000 years ago it exploded, but because of how far away it is from Earth it takes 3,000 years for the flash of light of that explosion to be seen from Earth.

3,000 years. And we'll be able to see it for a few days before it vanishes a few days with the naked eye.

It'll look like a star. It'll just look like a star that wasn't there before. And so that's supposed to occur sometime this year, and I think that's very major, to see an exploding star from 3,000 years ago.

That's a pretty amazing, heavenly sign to occur in the same year as the comet and the lunar eclipse on Earth and the Iranian attacks. Very significant.

Let's go to Ezekiel 33. page 469? 469, thank you. If you have the one volume, page 469, around that area, somewhere as close to that, 469.

No, it's not 469. Ezekiel 33. 551. Page 551. Okay, so we got two different editions of the one volume with different page numbers.

Let's see, mine's in February and yours is from what? March. So most people actually have the March one. So it would be, what's the page again, 469?

Page 469. I've got multiple copies of the Bible here, and I moved the Bible around from upstairs to downstairs, so I ended up with one of the older copies from February.

So because we moved some of the books of the Bible, we had moved only in the paperback conditions, we moved some of the Apocrypha books to the rear of the Old Testament.

That's because the Apocrypha books were written, some of them, some of them, such as the Maccabees, was written after the time of Malachi.

So we moved some of the Apocrypha books to the back of the Old Testament, only in the paperbacks.

We didn't do that in the e-sword and some of the other things. We didn't do that on the website edition, only in the paperbacks.

So that's why we got a difference in page numbers here between the February edition and the March edition.

But nevertheless, Ezekiel 33, Ezekiel 33, verse 1, and the Word of Jesus came to me saying, Son of humans, or Son of mankind, speak to the children of your people.

And you shall say to them, on whatsoever land that I should bring a sword, or war, and the people of the land, take one man of them and set him for their watchman, and he see the sword coming upon the land, and blow the trumpet, or the shofar, or the alarm, and sound an alarm to the people.

And he that hears the sound of the trumpet shall hear indeed, and yet not take here to listen and obey.

And the sword shall come upon him and overtake him. His blood shall be upon his own head.

The person that heard the alarm being sounded, but did not prepare for the war, for the attack, is upon your own head, not upon the prophet, not upon the man, the watchman, that blew the trumpet, that blew the alarm.

So if we think about this spiritually rather than physically, it's saying that if I sound the alarm about the great tribulation coming, the strong delusion, the abomination of desolation, the Antichrist, the war, the invasions, all these different things, and you don't prepare for it, then your own blood, your own destruction, what happens to you is upon your own head, not upon me.

God cannot hold me accountable for you, your complacency, your lack of action. Amen.

Verse 5, because he heard the sound of the trumpet the people did, and took no care to listen and obey, then that person's blood shall be upon that own person.

But the other, because he took care to listen and obey, has delivered his soul. Those that did listen and obey to the sound of the trumpet has delivered their own soul.

But if the watchman, or in our case if the prophet, sees the sword coming, and I got to say I see a sword coming with what I'm seeing in the Ukraine, the South China Sea, North Korea, the November election, the Gaza war, Iran and Israel, everything I see across this world, I see the sword coming. Amen.

And I do not sound the trumpet, and the people do not watch and the sword comes and takes a soul from among them, that soul is taken because of its iniquity sin, but the blood thereof will I require at the watchman's hand. Amen.

I will be held responsible because I did not warn you. So I would rather take the risk of you and a lot of other people calling me a false prophet.

I'd rather take that risk, as serious as that is, for my embarrassment, my downfall, the really cool and mocking against me.

I would rather risk all of that, rather than if God really is giving us signs and warnings through the Holy Days and these events, and I not say I think it's coming, I think it's got to be next year, and if it really is next year and I don't say that, then it's much more than just me being just as much more than just me being embarrassed or ridiculed or mocked, but rather it is your blood on me in my hands.

My hands would be red and bloody, felt guilty of your blood because I did not proclaim it.

So it's which side is a risk either way. Amen. It's a risk either way. Which side is safer?

I would be safer to proclaim what I think I see. Now if I'm seeing incorrectly about the time frame, then my vision is not correct about how I'm discerning, how I'm reading the clock.

If I look down, if I wear a watch on my hand, on my arm, on my wrist, and I look at that and it's really two o'clock, but I think it's three o'clock and I'm seeing it incorrectly because I need my eyeglasses, and if I don't wear my eyeglasses and I say it's three o'clock, but it's really two o'clock on a spiritual time frame, but the prophecy is correct, but the timing is wrong.

Will God judge me severely and condemn me severely because I misunderstood the time, but the prophecy is correct? I think he would be forgiving of me. Amen. I think he would be forgiving of me, but still yet corrective of me at the same time.

He would still, between him and me on our personal relationship, he would still try to correct my vision.

He would still try to correct my eyesight to be able to see better spiritually, to discern the signs of the times better, whatever, to hear his voice better, more accurately, louder, more easily.

He would still work with me in some form of correction, but I don't think that he would overly condemn me for giving a correct prophecy, but reading the watch wrong about the timing if I'm only off by one year for a few years.

Think of the prophets and the Apostle Paul. The Apostle Paul said the day is at hand.

The Apostle Paul said that. Amen. The prophets of old in the Old Testament, they thought the Messiah was returning as King of Kings and Lord of Lords in their lifetime.

Absolutely. Absolutely. And even the disciples, when they asked that question in Matthew 24, tell us the signs of your coming, they thought it was in their lifetime.

All of the prophets and all the apostles and all the disciples and all the men and all the women of God in the Bible, every one of them, every one of them, thought that the second coming or the main coming of Christ as King of Kings and Lord of Lords to rule the entire earth was going to be in their lifetime.

Did God overly condemn them and declare them as being not saved, not his servants, not called of God, but rather that they were, every one of them, a false prophet?

Did God view Paul as a false prophet because Paul actually did say the day was here, that the day is at hand?

No. Did Paul ever ever ever call Paul, did God ever call the Apostle Paul a false prophet for declaring that Christ was at the door?

No. Jesus Himself said "I'm at the door." Amen. 2,000 years ago, Jesus himself said I'm at the door. Amen.

A thousand years is as one day with God. A thousand years is as one day with God. Amen.

But I have to consider what I'm seeing, use logic. God requires us to use logic. I'm not required to hear a thunderous voice out of heaven saying it will be definitely next year.

Go and proclaim it to my people. I'm not required to hear that. God wants me to use logic and wisdom and if I have even physical eyesight to be able to watch the news and be able to see the signs that God is displaying to the whole world, missiles flying over the temple mount.

Isn't that a sign to the whole world to wake up, to get ready? Amen.

Think of Jonah, how God told him go and tell Nineveh they will be destroyed in 40 days.

And that was very specific. 40 days. Very, very, very, specific. Guarantee you they marked it on the calendar.

It was a specific date. Amen. Were they destroyed in 40 days? Absolutely not. Of course they repented as a nation.

Many, many different people. The king and everybody repented. And that's not going to happen in this case as far as a national repentance.

It's not going to happen. All these people that are praying for national repentance.

How ignorant can you be? All these churches and pastors and so-called Christians praying for national repentance.

You're wasting your time. There's no such thing as a national repentance. The Bible tells us that by telling us that he is going to judge the nations. Amen.

God is good. Even when men are wicked, God is good. Now I'm going to cover why that Israel and America and our allies will be destroyed.

Why? We've talked about the time frame. We talked about the signs. So now let's talk about why.

A lot of people praying for God bless America. God protect America. All that crap. God will not bless a nation that has half of its population in support of a communist antichrist government.

Why would God bless such a nation where half of your family, half of your friends, half of the people are in support of such a demonic government leadership.

Why would God bless such a nation? Over half the people in support of abortion. The embracing of homosexual activity including President Trump. Embracing homosexual marriage.

Homosexual activity and other forms of sexual mental illness. Widespread embracing of Islam and Muslims.

Tolerance of Muslims. The Catholic Church, Catholic doctrines. Catholic doctrines in many different so-called, falsely called Protestant churches such as Sunday observance, Trinity doctrine, Christmas, Easter.

All of these are very demonic pagan doctrines have embraced all the way back to the Assyrian Empire.

But because I proclaim these historic facts which absolutely can't be denied, I'm called a religious fanatic.

When all you got to do is open up the encyclopedia and look at the origin of Christmas, Easter and Sunday worship and the Trinity and read it right there.

Historical proof. We know these things to be fact that these are of Assyrian origin, pagan origin, pre-Islamic origin, not Christian origin. Amen.

Passed down from empire to empire through the statue of Daniel, the image that Daniel saw the different empires.

The head of God being Nebuchadnezzar who was of the Assyrian language and Assyrian culture and Assyrian bloodline.

Down into the Persian Empire. Does that ring a bell? The Persian Empire. Does that not ring a bell with anyone?

It's Islamic. These are Islamic doctrines that was passed down eventually into the Roman Empire which is the Roman Catholic Church and the Roman calendar.

Roman holidays which are Assyrian, Babylonian.

But people are so far in pride that they think they can't be wrong.

"It's impossible that I could be wrong. I'm serving the Lord," they say, which is like they did at the golden calf when Moses came down from the mountain after 40 days of being with the Lord.

And they was worshiping the golden calf and they said, "We're making this as a feast unto the Lord. We're worshiping the Lord!"

That's what they do every Sunday is they're worshiping a golden calf and saying we're worshiping the Lord.

That's what they're doing every Sunday, every Christmas, and every Easter, every Ash Wednesday.

It's no different. It really isn't.

This is why God will destroy America. So you can pray and pray and pray but you're not repenting so your prayers are in vain. Amen.

And what did God himself say? I think it's both Ezekiel and Jeremiah, if I'm not mistaken, that says basically that if even if Daniel and Noah stood before me and asked for these people to be rescued and not punished I would not answer their prayers positively.

I would not I would not deliver these people. I'm going to destroy them. Even if these prophets of God were to intercede for the people I will not stop this judgment.

I am bringing the judgment upon the people. Amen. That's basically what God said. How come people never read those verses?

How come people never proclaim those verses at church? How come people never make a meme of those verses?

Amen.

They want to pick and choose only the feel-good things, only the things that tickle their ears. Amen.

This is why God will absolutely destroy America. This is why the entire state of California will be totally wiped off the map, the entire state.

You can't just flee to another city within California. It would be in vain. The same thing with a lot of other states and regions across the world. The pre-tribulation rapture doctrine, which has the express purpose of Christians so-called worshipping the Antichrist when he appears in the air at that time of abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel. In the air, sitting in the temple of God, displaying himself as God. In the air, in heaven, in that Revelation 12 war in heaven. Second Thessalonians chapter 2, Daniel 12.

If people would just read the entire Bible and read it and read it and read it until they understand it and then keep reading it. Amen.

Pre-tribulation rapture is why people it says right there this is why I'm going to do this in the second Thessalonians. He says because people love a lie. They do love a lie and have no love for the truth and for righteousness.

They don't fear God and they don't want to fear God. They don't even want to fear God.

They think that that's wrong theology to say that you must fear God. That's no reverence for the Lord.

They can say all they want to that they're a good Christian and they can pray five times a day just like a Muslim but with without any fear of God. You're no better than a devil worshiper that prays five times a day. Even a devil worships pray five times a day.

King James only people. Another reason God will destroy the Bible Belt. A lot of the Bible Belt and a lot of America and around the world people worshiping a King James Bible that's named after a person.

That's no different than if I'll call the Alpha and Mega Bible if I'll call it the Apostle Zimmerman Bible.

Wouldn't that be blasphemy? Wouldn't that be ridiculous? Brother Jared said that there actually is a Donald Trump Bible but I don't think that Donald Trump actually named it after himself but King James named it after himself and that's the difference.

How come these King James version people they don't even think about that point a Bible named after a human being that's ridiculous.

That's fact religious. It's blasphemy. It's ridiculous.

Another reason that God will destroy America and many other nations including Israel is how that the nations and people have allowed the women to rule and dominate in church business family government and society in general. God will destroy the nations because they have women senators congresspersons women police officers women soldiers women sports player women basketball players women wrestlers women women preachers pastors all this crap women managers women doctors all this crap is all is all demonic every bit of it.

Women were not made by God to rule in the family in church in government in society.

People always want to point out the exceptions of Deborah as a judge of Israel. That was an exception.

There are exceptions. That's not the general rule. You can point out one female judge congratulations. What about the names of all the prophets and all the disciples?

It wasn't disciple Judy, disciple Amy, disciple Susan. It was all men for the twelve disciples were all men.

It was prophet Daniel — not Danielle — and then it was prophet Ezekiel and then Moses Noah and they say oh but everything has changed because of the blood of Christ because the crucifixion and resurrection.

Well who wrote the book of Revelation in 90-something AD 60 years after the resurrection of Christ 60 years later.

It was John — not Joanna. Amen. The blood of Christ did not do anything to change gender roles. Amen.

The allowance of Gentiles ruling in Israelite nations. Right now we got up there in Scotland or Ireland or both of them. Gentile rulers and England as well. It's ridiculous and there's a Hindu Indian running for American president.

It's ridiculous. That is not the will of God. Amen. That's not the will of God. They have their own nations. Let the Hindu Indian man rule in India. People don't like this. This is not very popular preaching right here. This is not very popular preaching but the truth is the truth. Let the African man rule in Africa. This America is an Israelite nation. That's the way God designed it. George Washington was an Israelite. He was not an African.

Thomas Jefferson and all the different presidents until Obama, and he was not legitimate. He was not a legitimate president. He was born in Kenya. He was not legitimate. It was a coup. It was a coup and overthrew the American government. It's exactly what it is. He was not legitimate president of America. We've never had a black president of America.

Never have and never will. Ever. I go by the definitions of God not the definitions of men. Amen. But this is why another reason out of a million reasons why God will destroy America is because of them putting up there in leadership or thinking that the person in leadership is a Gentile ruler in an Israelite nation. That is not God's will for these nations. There's a reason why he sent them away from the land of Babylon to different nations. Amen.

Was it not God himself that confused the languages? Was it not God himself that formed the boundaries of the nations and the continents? Amen. Was it not God himself that put the Atlantic Ocean in between America and Africa separated by over a thousand miles? Was it not God that designed the earth and where men settled? It may not be popular but it's the truth.

Weak beta males. Preachers that don't preach so boldly as this because they themselves are blind. They themselves are deceived into the woke message what they call woke which is not awake at all. Not at all. They are not enlightened at all. Preachers and community leaders, church leaders, religious leaders that are not bold enough to say that it is against God's will for these foreigners and people of foreign ancestry to be ruling in the Israelite nations in the UK, Ireland, Scotland, Australia, America and Canada and so forth. Because they're worried that you won't listen to them anymore and they'll lose their hundred thousand or million followers on YouTube.

They're more concerned about how many followers they have and how many followers that they can keep by tickling your ears and going along with the mainstream message, mainstream coexist, mainstream tolerance, mainstream lies and deceptions and brain washing rather than telling you that God the honest truth. Amen. Weak beta males, weak society, weak pastors, weak Christians, weak husbands and weak government leaders.

Next on the list is video games. I'm not talking about all video games. We know that it's okay if you're playing tennis on a video game. Boring but not a sin, not demonic to play tennis on a video game. I don't never have time anymore but I used to do where you could build a city, Sim city. I like that. I still got, well I lost that computer but it was on my computer. I like that. There's nothing wrong with that. You're just building a city, planning blocks and buildings, your residential zone and your industrial zone and your business zone.

I think that's actually helpful for your credibility and your mind function to help your mind function and think and plan and think things through. I think that's creative and fruitful. Nothing wrong with watching TV and for a man to sit down and drink a beer while he's watching UFC or boxing.

Nothing wrong with this. Nothing wrong with watching a comedy TV show or a game show on TV, Price is Right. Nothing wrong about that. Nothing wrong about that. We have to be careful what we watch, what we listen to and how much time we spend on recreation and leisure because there's a lot of work to do. There's a lot of work to do for every one of us, for everybody that's listening to this. There's a lot of work to do. There's nothing wrong with spending some time relaxing on the couch and listening and watching to entertainment.

Entertainment has a place. There's a place and a time for entertainment. It's okay. But we have to be very careful what TV shows, what music, what movies, what video games. But God is going to destroy a lot of people and cities because of the demonic horror movies and demonic video games. Japan will be destroyed primarily because of the video games and anime. The anime that has come out of Japan, the video games and their influence upon video games and their influence upon anime and other things like that, judgment for Japan.

They deserve the judgment that they're going to get. They deserve it. Even though they are American ally, they deserve what they're going to get. For their influence upon electronics and demonic energy that they're sending out into the universe of corrupting the minds and souls of the youth.

A lot of the Hollywood will be destroyed because of this, because of their movies, rap music.

I would that the people who claim to be saved would have enough common sense to know what is music and what is not music.

Rap, for the most part, I know that there's exceptions. There's exceptions. But I'm talking in general. Most rap is not music, it's noise and there's a huge difference.

A lot of the modern urban music is nothing but noise. But young people like it because their brothers and sisters liked it and other people at school liked it and they want it to fit in, look like everybody else, sound like everybody else, act like everybody else.

So, their brain was corrupted to actually like such trash. To actually like trash.

Brainwashed zombies, society that we live in. These white boys acting black. Black wannabes. That's not God's will for white boy to be out here dressing black, talking black, dancing black, acting black.

Wearing his shorts halfway down his butt. That's not God's will. That's brain damage. It's brain damage.

Act like your own people, amen. Act like your own people. If you're Indian, act like an Indian. That don't mean you have to embrace their false religion of Hinduism.

But there's a culture, amen, associated with India. There's a culture associated with Africa.

There's a culture associated with Scotland. That's fine. There's a culture associated with America. That's fine.

There's a culture associated with Africa. That's fine for them. It's not fine for us, amen.

The idols of money, cars, sports, the NFL.

It's a major God to people here in America and around the world. NFL is a major demonic God that is worshiped in a great degree, amen.

Witchcraft, tarot cards, fortune tellers, dungeons and dragons, and the demonic Assyrian Y-names.

This is why America will be destroyed. Buddhism, other false religions and cults including the seven day Adventist women's cult.

The seven day Adventist cult, we've got to realize. I know that in a lot of regions, seven day Adventist might be the only local church that gathers on Saturday for the most part, but that's not an excuse to go and attend with them when we have documented facts that that cult was organized and created by a false prophecies who wrote false scripture, who not just that she was wrong on dates, not just that, but rather teaching that Michael, the archangel is Christ, which is blessing me as having a false God, having multiple women pastors across a worldwide that is not an exception to the rule in their denomination, but rather is a common thing that there'll be a woman preaching constantly every week in many, many, many, not just a few, but many, many of their congregations.

That's not God's will. That's not right. That's not right at all. We have to be careful who we attend with, what we compromise on, because that spirit of feminism, of female leadership is corruptive in so many ways.

You got to understand that family, church, and all these things are connected. Amen.

It's connected. What we see happening at church that influences what we believe and how we think about other areas of life.

If we compromise with having a ton of women pastors in the church, then we're going to also compromise with female leadership within the family at home as well. Amen.

If we see the women leading in the church, we see the women leading at home.

All these men are scared to death of their wives. That's not right. That's not God's will for men to be scared to death of their wives. People think it's funny and they laugh at it.

They make jokes about it all the time, how a man is afraid of his wife. I've been in Hollywood influencing that, even though I do love that show, King of Queens.

Nevertheless, it is really a woman dominating a man. Such things like that, we may think it's funny, but really subliminally.

What is it doing to the minds of the children that watch it? Amen. A grown adult not can watch it and realize it's just comedy, that it's just entertainment, but a child is a different thing.

A child that is two years old, three, four, five, six, seven, eight years old, that is growing up watching this TV show, showing how the woman is controlling the man, then how are those children going to react in their marriages and their relationships when they become 16, 17, 18, 19 as an adult?

Their relationships with husband and wives is not going to match the way it's supposed to be if they was raised watching these shows.

I'm not against watching King of Queens as an adult, but children should not be watching that stuff because it will transform their mind, their way of thinking for their future.

We've got to be careful what the children watch because they are learning by what they are watching, whether it's a video game, a movie, or a TV show, or music, or the friends they hang out with.

The children are learning from this interaction with the world. Amen. Parents need to be carefully and wisely monitoring and controlling what their children watch, talk to, interact with, read, so forth.

A lot of parents these days, they don't care what their children watch on TV at all.

They don't care. That's not loving your children. You can say all you want to, that you love them, but if you allow your children to watch and play anything they want to watch and play, you don't give a crap about what they watch and play.

That's not real love because real love would include discipline, spankings, chastisement, and control of that child.

Children need to be taught how to sit down, how to be quiet, how to respect their elders, how to respect adults of all ages. Amen.

How to behave at church, be quiet, listen, learn when the sermon is occurring.

How to sit down just like an adult sitting there listening. The children are sitting there listening, paying attention just like the adult, not running around playing all this crap.

We still got the millennium. Amen. The children still have to learn because the time is not over with. Amen.

The children still have to grow up. They're not going to heaven. Little children are not going to heaven. It ain't going to happen.

What that means is little children must grow up, be baptized as a person above the age of puberty, whether it's a boy or a girl or even one.

That person must have some hair on their body and between their legs before they can be baptized.

Learn more about Jesus. Learn more about life. Grow up into an adult and then inherit the kingdom of heaven at that time, meaning the kingdom of God over the entire earth at that time.

Not until then. Because little children don't get a free pass. Nobody gets a free pass.

All of us, regardless of what our age is, both children and adult, we all have to earn our rewards. Amen.

People don't understand what it means to be saved by grace and not by works.

Yes, we're saved by the blood of Christ, out of mercy, out of grace, that he did that for us, that he died for us, that it's available to us, that we don't have to pay a million dollars for our salvation, that we don't have to sign a letter of the Catholic Church in order to receive our salvation.

So it's saved by grace, not by works in that you don't have to write a check. Jesus wrote the check at the crucifixion cross stake.

But we still have to obey him as a requirement of accepting his sacrifice. And if we do not obey him, then we have not truly embraced his sacrifice and not truly applied his sacrifice to our soul if we're not obedient and reverent to him.

Amen.

We do not inherit our father's belongings and his eternal life and his kingdom unless we are reverent to our father.

Otherwise we are cast out from our father, the Bible teaches that, with the two goats of the Day of Atonement. Amen.

Those that do not have the blood of Christ atoned for them, they are cast out from the presence of the Lord.

Another reason that God will destroy America and the United Kingdom and many other nations including South Africa is because of the rejection of God's true prophets and the rejection of correct doctrine.

Literally millions of people have heard of I Saw The Light Ministries. Millions upon millions of people across the world have heard of I Saw The Light Ministries.

Thousands of people come to the ministry website every week, literally thousands every week of unique visitors that have never visited the website before.

Thousands. Every week. There's no excuse. Amen. No excuse. Rejection of God's messages. If you had lived in the time of Daniel and you rejected his words then you rejected God.

If you had lived in the time of Moses and you rejected the words of Moses then you also reject God.

If you had lived in the time of Paul and you rejected his words then you also reject God. Amen.

If you had lived in the time of Noah and you rejected his words then you also reject God.

The nations will be punished and this city and this county will be punished because that I lived here five or six years or seven or eight years whichever it is now and they did not accept God.

People that have come to the worship services, people that have met me in person, people that have looked to me eye to eye face to face and yet they're not here today they will be judged very severely by God by not continuing to support this ministry.

How can you go to Noah's church and leave Noah and stay with God? It's impossible. Amen.

How could you be a follower of Moses or Daniel or Jeremiah or Ezekiel or Paul or Matthew, Mark, Luke or John for a while and then leave that and still think you're okay with God. Amen.

This is why I have said when you get baptized you must agree. You must agree this is a requirement of baptism in this church, God's church, God's true church that if we baptize you and you leave the church you abandon this church rather it's your decision or our decision whether we push you away or you push us away whichever it goes.

You no longer attend with us and listen with us and join in with us then you're not part of the God's church anymore.

How can you be part of God's church and not be part of God's church at the same time? Amen.

How can you be part of God's church but not be part of God's church at the same time?

It's either one or the other it can't be both. Amen. You can't be wandering out there all by yourself without a pastor that's not God's will.

What happens to the body when you cut the head? Amen. If we have a man named Steve and Steve his head is cut off does he not die? You can't have a body of Christ without a pastor.

You can't. We have to have a pastor. If we have a pastor we have to have an apostle. Amen.

You have to have this. This is the structure of the church according to the Holy Bible.

You got all these false Christians and false pastors out there saying that we don't have apostles no more that we don't have prophets anymore.

You can't prove that from the Bible. Absolutely not. You can't. You can't. They say but the Bible says that a prophet has to or apostle whichever it is has to be a witness of the life and death of Christ.

Well as far as we know the apostle Paul was not present during the crucifixion of Christ.

There's nothing in the Bible saying that he was present then. Nothing. He never said that he had been present at the death of Christ. Paul never claimed that that he was present at the death of Christ.

So that proves them wrong.

The Bible, that's not what the Bible really teaches, but rather what they're talking about is at that particular time in history. That verse is talking about.

They preferred that the living disciples and the people that had seen and heard the direct teachings of Christ, that those be in the leadership position at that time. At that time, of course. Of course, amen.

But common sense tells us that as those people got older and older, that they would have filled in the vacant empty positions of pastors and bishops, and so forth, deacons, and so forth, with the younger men that had learned from them, their sons. Amen.

Their sons and their brothers and their disciples that had come along that learned from John. Amen. Those that learned from Matthew, those that learned from Paul, they would have filled the vacancies as those men got older and began to die off.

You wouldn't have the church just disappear from history. Amen. As all those disciples of Jesus eventually died out, did the church just stop existing? Did the church just stop meeting together?

Did the church just stop having any sermons, any teachings, any leaders? That's stupid. That's stupid, amen.

I guess we should close KFC because no one knows Colonel Sanders, no one saw Colonel Sanders make the chicken, right? Great brother Jared.

He said, "I guess we should close all the KFC restaurants in the whole world because nobody alive today was actually literally taught by Colonel Sanders." Great point, amen. Perfect example, perfect example.

What about the signers of the independent Declaration of Independence and the Constitution? Should we just end America because all of our forefathers of America died and just not have the United States of America anymore? Just because everybody that signed the Declaration of Independence and everybody that signed the Constitution, that they're all dead, therefore there's no America anymore? It's stupid what they are teaching in the churches. No apostles, no prophets, that's crazy talk. God has always had prophets and apostles, always, the amount of being under different names, different titles, but there's always that office of leadership for God's people, amen.

Let's go to Matthew 11, Matthew chapter 11, Matthew chapter 11 verse 16, Matthew 11 verse 16. "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to the others and say this: 'We played the flute for you, but you did not dance; we wailed or cried, but you did not mourn.'

For John came neither eating nor drinking, meaning that he was fasting a lot and he was a Nazarite so he didn't touch alcohol of wine, of grapes, and they said that he has a demon, even though he was fasting, even though he was a Nazarite and had a vow to God, they said he had a demon, John the baptizer.

Now what did John the baptizer do wrong, amen? What did John the baptizer do wrong? Of course, we know that there's no man without sin, but only Christ, because he was God, which proves that he was God, amen, because all men have sinned, all men have sinned, but Christ never sinned, which is proof that he is God, because all men have sinned, all men.

So John the baptizer had some type of sins, just like all men have, but the Bible never points out any of his sins, not even one, because he was a good prophet of God.

Verse 19, "The Son of Man came, did come eating and drinking," which means that he did not have the Nazarite vow, he did not fast very often, even though he did fast 40 days straight.

But as far as how often he fasted, it wasn't often, according to another verse, amen.

He did absolutely drink alcohol, absolutely, and they say, 'Behold, he is a gluttonous person and alcoholic, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.'

Yet, wisdom is vindicated by her offspring, amen.

People have always been and always will be over-condemning of God's servants, whether that's you or me, they're always going to be over-condemning of us, God's true people, the true church, because that the men should be alpha. A man should drink alcohol, absolutely, every man should drink alcohol, unless he has a vow to not drink alcohol, maybe because he was an alcoholic and so he has to abstain from alcohol, that would be a good reason to abstain, amen.

So there's exceptions, amen. Perhaps he has diabetes, therefore he shouldn't drink or shouldn't drink much at all, different health problems, schizophrenia, other things, other health problems that would limit the amount of alcohol. So those are exceptions.

But in general, in general, as a general rule, men should drink, because that's a masculine trait, that's a masculine characteristic, as a masculine theme, that guys do, they drink together, get together, watch UFC, that's fine, there's nothing wrong with that.

I'd much rather for them to get together drinking, watching UFC than football, much rather, because UFC is much more masculine than men wearing tights, slapping each other on the butt.

And how the NFL does the demonic halftime shows and how they have gone so-called woke, and so on, and how the black anthem at the football game, at the NFL.

All these different things about NFL, so many things, and yet people continue to idolize it, whereas UFC, for the most part, has been very conservative, for the most part.

Of course, you see some corruption starting to enter in, but in general, for the most part, traditionally, the UFC has been much more conservative, much more right-wing, and much more skilled, much more talent, and much more masculine, not so gay.

And there's a lot to it about a man needing to be able to fight, a man needing to be able to defend his family, his wife, his children.

There's a lot of reasons why, how it can be fruitful for a man to watch the UFC, to help his mentality as a man, to help his masculinity, to help him relate to other men, to help him feel that primitive nature of being a warrior.

It's more natural than just throwing a ball and trying to catch a ball like little children.

Football is so, so childish and immature, UFC is for men, NFL and football is for little children.

The reason I point out verse 17 here in Matthew 11 verse 17 is that the prophets, and this is what he's really talking about, really what he's really talking about is that the prophets have proclaimed the word of God, but the people did not do anything in reaction to it.

People have not moved, people have not changed jobs, people have not facilitated jobs, people have not forsaken families and friends, they continue to hang out with the same hooligans, the same idiots, the same demon worshipers. They're not willing to sacrifice anything for God in their lives. They're not willing to change their habits, their activities.

You can't tell any difference between them after their baptism than before their baptism.

Nothing's changed about them.

They're still going, wasting tons of money, still wasting tons of money over there in India, taking all these trips all over the place, and taking pictures, selfies of themselves.

Well, this, I went to this place today, now I'm over in this place, and I went to this place today, and I went to this place today with their buddies, and everybody's happy and smiling, and they got a million buddies and a million friends because they're not sharing the word of God.

And yet they think they're saved. They're not sharing the word of God. They're not telling about, "You're in sin because of your Hinduism." They're not telling their brothers and sisters that.

They're not telling their friends that. They just hang out with them like if they had never been baptized, just like they had never joined God's church.

They just continue in their old lifestyle of never forsaking anyone, not sharing enough truth, tolerating all the wickedness, not building a church.

How can you be baptized so many years and not have brought anybody into the church yet?

Brother Simon is a wonderful example to the church. Brother Simon, I think that he's going to be a great leader for the church in the future.

Brother Simon, he's out there, he's telling people, he's witnessing to people, he's witnessing to his family, he's witnessing to his friends, he's out there witnessing, he's showing fruit. Amen.

Now different people have different skills and how many people you know, stuff like that.

Brother Jared is here with me and in this prison here with me as a prisoner of the Lord.

We don't get out very much, we don't have people because they're supposed to come here. Amen.

This is where Jesus has set his name. People are supposed to come here. Amen.

But Brother Jared has been very fruitful with the work of the Alpha and Omega Bible and the different things that he's done for the ministry, many different things, limitless.

I couldn't begin to list all the things he's done for the ministry, for the kingdom.

And so everything, everything, every time somebody comes into the church, that's just not my fruit alone but also his fruit. Amen.

When somebody, anybody in this ministry is baptized, even if it's Simon witnessing to Kenny and Kenny is probably going to get baptized Monday, that's an announcement that this Monday before Passover evening, Kenny is probably going to be baptized.

I still got to review his baptism questions, so that's not 100. Yeah, that's still up in the air, but he might be baptized Wednesday, and then Simon's mom might be baptized soon as well, sometime, sometime another next few weeks, maybe before the second chance Passover.

But anytime anybody's baptized in this ministry, no matter where and what nation it is, that's the fruit of Brother Jared, that's his fruit as well as my fruit, as well as Simon's, of what he's doing there.

You know, the fruit of the Alpha and Omega Bible, the fruit of the website, all the work that Jared has done with me on the website, that's his fruit as well, amen.

But other people, you may have jobs, you may have families, that we don't have jobs and family outside of this prison. We're in here because this is our job, amen. But if you're out there in the world, what an opportunity.

If you're out there to where you've got people that you can talk to, and you've got family that you can talk to, and you've got coworkers you can talk to, or college students or whoever, whatever, then you need to be planting seeds, amen, and let the Holy Ghost lead you and when to exercise more courage, not be overly afraid about sharing about when and what to say to people, amen.

We have to learn how to witness effectively. It should not always be shoving the truth down somebody's throat, but rather more often it should be planting a simple seed of agreement, of that, that Islam is wrong, that communism is wrong, that communism is bad, find common ground and then see where you can expand from there, mostly the Sabbath, the seventh day is one of the most important things you can share with them, the Sabbath.

You really have no business speaking to anybody outside the church about fleeing, absolutely no business talking about fleeing with somebody outside the church.

Because if they're not spiritually saved then it doesn't matter whether they're going to be physically saved or not, amen, if they're, you know, because destruction is coming, nuclear war is coming.

And this is something I've been meaning to declare because the Bible talks about it, and I'll write it down right now.

One fourth destroyed by war, and one fourth destroyed by famine, and one fourth by pestilence, disease, and only one fourth of the world's population to survive the great tribulation.

So, well, how many people got on Earth? Eight billion now, eight billion people. So that's two billion, is no, how many is a fourth? Two billion, right now, my brain ain't functioning, I've barely been able to take a sip of my coffee.

Two, four, six, eight, yeah, that's right, okay. So according to the Bible, this is not my private interpretation, this is the Bible, that two billion people would die from starvation, two billion other people would die from disease, plagues, viruses, epidemics, another two billion people would die from war, that would be nuclear fallout, sword, beheading, captivity, slavery, and only two billion will survive out of eight, only 25 percent of the people in this world, only 25 percent will survive the great tribulation.

You can equate that to one out of every four of the people you've ever met, amen.

But that doesn't mean that they would necessarily be thriving just because they're surviving, amen.

There's a difference. Even if they survive, that doesn't mean that they're going to be thriving.

They could still be sick, they could still be slaves, they could still be in concentration camps, amen. Amen.

But just alive, that's all that means. Two billion people still alive, amen. As Jesus said, it's going to be the worst time that has ever happened to all mankind ever before and ever will be, amen.

Let's go to one last verse, Matthew chapter three. Matthew chapter three, verse one.

We're going to read 11 verses there. Matthew 3, verse 1, 11 verses. Now in those days, John the Baptizer came preaching in the desert of Judea, saying, "Repent." This is what John the Baptizer preached: "Repent." He didn't preach, "Pray, pray, pray, pray, pray." He preached repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

For this is the one referred to by Isaiah the prophet when he said, "The voice of one crying in the desert: 'Make ready the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.'"

Now John himself had a garment of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

Then Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea, and all the district around the Jordan River.

And they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins.

That's very significant right there. That's extremely significant. At baptism, you confess your sins.

Do they do that in the Baptist church? No. Do they do that in the Seventh-day Adventists? No. When they baptize people, there's no confession of sins.

But according to the Bible, when you are baptized, you confess your sins. They leave that out, don't they, these false churches?

That's why we are the true church and they are not, amen.

In verse seven, "And when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, 'You generation of poisonous snakes, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Therefore bear fruit in keeping with repentance.'"

He did not baptize them. He didn't.

Most preachers, and most study Bibles, and most churches claim that he did baptize them, but it doesn't actually say that he did.

It only says that they came to be baptized. But what was his reaction when they came and they showed up for baptism? It was rebuke, amen. It was rebuke. Instead of saying, "Oh, hello, I'm glad to see you. Come on down in the water and let me baptize you," you don't read about that.

That didn't happen. His reaction to them showing up for baptism was rebuke. He said to them that they needed to bear fruits of repentance. Now, had the Pharisees and Sadducees shown fruits of repentance? Of course not. No, the Pharisees and Sadducees did not show fruits of repentance. So very clearly, he did not baptize them.

This shows that before you are baptized, you need to show fruits of repentance.

That's why I will not baptize you unless you answer a million questions. Will you keep the Sabbath day?

Do you promise not to do Christmas and Easter and Sunday? Do you promise not to go to those Sunday churches?

Do you promise to stay continually in this church? And do you understand that if you are forced out or leave out of this church, that you're no longer part of the church?

Do you understand this? It's serious and very sick because a lot of people in traditional false Christianity, they treat baptism as child's play.

It's not serious to them. It's not a requirement for them. Even if it is a requirement for them, they still treat it too lightly.

It's not serious enough to them.

It was serious enough to John the Baptizer that he refused it to the Pharisees and Sadducees.

He refused to baptize them. He didn't just baptize anybody and everybody that came for baptism.

No, absolutely not.

In verse nine, he says, "And do not suppose that you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our forefather,' for I say to you that these stones God is able to raise up children to Abraham.

The axe is already laid at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." He is condemning them.

He is rebuking them. He is cussing them out, basically, amen. These are strong words. He is being very bold about why he will not baptize them.

Verse 11, "I, on the contrary, baptize you with water for repentance." That doesn't mean I'm going to baptize you.

That's not what he said. He did not say, "Yes, I will baptize you," but rather that this is how he baptizes anyone.

That if he was to baptize a person, this is how he does it. That's what he's really saying, for he who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I'm not fit to remove his sandals.

He will engulf you with the Holy Breath and fire.

Now the Pentecostals who speak in tongues every time they gather together, which is ridiculous, constant, constant, constant speaking in tongues.

It's not really of the Lord. No wonder they are called Babel, Babylon.

But they think this is a good thing. They think that this means that a preacher or anybody should be baptized with fire when they were baptized with the Holy Ghost.

And that you must speak in tongues and all that crap. That's not at all what John is saying.

He's still cussing them out, he's still rebuking and condemning very fiercely. He's saying that God is going to burn you.

That's why he's saying. He's saying that God is going to kill them, to annihilate them.

He's going to burn them up is what he is warning. He is doing nothing but chewing them out.

Verse 12: His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clear his threshing floor. And he will gather his wheat into the barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire, amen, referring to Malachi 4 that the righteous will grow up as calves of the stall.

It's symbolism, and the symbolism here is that both the righteous and the wicked, both everybody, everyone that has ever existed at any point of time in all of humanity, everyone without exception will be in the lake of fire, both the righteous and the unrighteous.

Everyone will be in the lake of fire. But the righteous, instead of being annihilated and consumed by the fire, they are only increasingly purified by the fire, purifying the earth of every unclean thing, even in our hearts and minds.

Even in our hearts and minds, God's very presence is that lake of fire and will purify our hearts and minds to where there will not be an evil thought, not even a temptation to come into our minds, because even Satan, the tempter, and all his legions of tempters will cease to exist.

They will be annihilated and within that same lake of fire. Therefore, we will not have temptation anymore.

There will be no temptation in the future paradise. How wonderful that is, amen. Praise God!

God has a perfect plan and we've got to remember, even though times get tough, very, very, very tough, that God has a plan and we have to go through all these different stages of His plan to get to the finish line.

And we have to endure into the end. We have to endure into the end. We have to endure sound doctrine, we have to endure tough preaching, we have to endure chastisement and rebuke, we have to endure testing and trial. We have to be tested.

And I am here to test you and to toughen you up and to help shape you to be stronger, more mentally and emotionally and spiritually and physically prepared for the harshness of reality, of tomorrow, of those things that are going to happen in the future, weeks, months, and years ahead.

Other preachers, by far, by most, are not preparing the people for the harsh realities of the future.

We must have strong words. We must have adult words, strong words, strong words to get your mentality, your heart, your mind, your body ready for the storm that is brewing.

And I see the storm brewing on the horizon. I see the sword coming. I must blow the alarm, I must sound the trumpet, I must prepare, I must prepare the army of the Lord.

The drummer is always out front of the marching band, the military band. Years ago, God gave me a drumming key, a tuning key to tune the drums with.

It was a piece of the puzzle, and the way He gave it to me was a divine miracle. A little child, a little boy, had picked it up from somewhere within the church building and brought it and said it in my seat where I had previously been sitting, but I was standing at a different part of the church building and was praying with the others.

I returned to my seat, and there was the drum key, and I didn't know what it was.

I didn't even know it was a drum key, just some type of a screw, and I said, "God, what does this mean?" And He said to me in my heart, in my mind, He said to me, "I will fasten you that you would never leave me again, and I will bring together the pieces of the puzzle." I mean, He said that.

I knew that it was true, that God speaks to people, that He can speak, that He does speak to humans today in this day and time.

Up until that moment, I wasn't sure because I was only a babe in Christ, but then I heard the voice of God.

It wasn't lightning, it wasn't thunder. It was a quiet, still, calm voice.

We have to be willing to hear His voice, and that is a major problem in the world and in false churches because they're not willing to hear the voice.

And sometimes the voice of God is a quiet, still voice, sometimes it is thunder and lightning, sometimes the voice of God is the voice of His prophets and the voice of His apostles, amen.

Not everybody heard the voice of God directly with Noah, but Noah heard God's voice, and he relayed the message to the people.

And that's what the word apostle in Greek means, messenger. The apostle is a messenger that delivers.

He's a mailman that delivers the message from God to His people. So I've not only played the flute, but now I'm playing the drums, and there's not a lot of time left.

We praise God. We do have yet another year and you about to cherish this time that you have and not complain about it.

"Oh, I've only got one year left, I only got one year to get ready." Instead of being childish and ungrateful, you need to raise your voice to God and praise God that He is good enough to give us that much more time to get ready.

And don't cry that He didn't come last year. In the last year, or rather the great tribulation didn't start, but be thankful for the extra time and the delay, because the Bible says that when He does come, that He would not delay anymore, amen.

So very clearly that means that there was a delay. What is the definition of a delay?

The definition of a delay is that He would have come at a certain time but He didn't come at the pre-planned time.

He did not come and the great tribulation did not begin at the time that it would have began.

That's the very definition of delay, is that it would have happened earlier that didn't according to the Bible, there would be a delay.

Well, God has delayed, but how much longer will He delay? I think He has delayed because He's been waiting on people to grow up, He's been waiting on people to get baptized, He's been waiting on people to make up their mind.

There's people that's been listening to the sermons here for months and months and they still ain't made up their mind.

How long is it going to take to make up your mind? Am I speaking the truth or not speaking the truth?

Am I a true servant of God or am I not? How much do you have to hear? How much do you have to fast? How much do you have to study?

How much do you have to pray until you make up your mind? By the time you make up your mind, it'll be already done and over with a long time ago, amen.

People are waiting for thunder and lightning to come out of the sky when you're already hearing the voice of God in a different way.

It's not always going to be in the way you choose, amen. God speaks in the way that He chooses, not the way you choose, amen.

The last thing I'm going to cover real quickly is the most dangerous places during the great tribulation.

The most dangerous places to continue to dwell during the great tribulation. Actually, when it actually starts and even before then, even though we're talking about the great tribulation, even before then, even before the great tribulation begins, these are still yet dangerous places but even more, much more during the great tribulation.

Oceanfront properties, oceanfront mileage. Not just right there on the beach, but even, I would say even 50 or even 100 miles from the coastal line is dangerous because of the tidal waves.

Many, many different people have had the dreams and visions of the huge tidal waves coming in very far inland.

And especially when you're dealing with places like the Gulf Coast of America, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida.

You're already at sea level. So when you have a giant tidal wave of either a landslide under the ocean, a volcano or meteor asteroid or something impacting the ocean or mist or something, you have a tsunami coming up and you're already at sea level.

That can come much farther inland than what a normal hurricane low pressure storm brings in.

The tidal wave is going to be much more of an impact, much farther inland than a hurricane when you're dealing with a tsunami that's caused by a giant asteroid or landslide under the ocean or volcano under the ocean or anything like that.

We're going to see major dramatic shifting of things in the universe and the earth.

Also, large urban metro centers. And I'm not just talking about cities that have millions of people, but of course, I'm talking about that too.

That's a very dangerous place to live, a very dangerous place to raise a family, a very dangerous place to have children and wives.

Extremely dangerous. People need to be thinking about such things.

But not only places that have millions of people, but even, even over 35,000 people, by most of your definition of a lot of people, 35,000 is a pretty small town by a lot of people's definition.

But even a town of over 35,000, I would say is extremely dangerous for the great tribulation because the larger the population, the more murder and chaos, people killing each other for gas, for cigarettes, for alcohol, for food when that great tribulation occurs.

People are going to be killing each other for one bite of food. It's going to be total chaos.

Cities where there are large military bases, very dangerous to be near those places.

Cities where there's nuclear silos, major earthquake fault lines, Memphis, Tennessee, California where there's major fault lines, Arkansas, other places, major volcanoes, Yellowstone, other places.

When I talk about volcanoes, I'm talking about both active and dormant volcanoes that are not active yet they will be coming back to life, amen.

Hawaii, that'd be incredibly stupid to continue to live there for a million reasons, hurricanes, storms, tsunamis, China, volcanoes.

They're Democrat-controlled, a million reasons not to continue to live in Hawaii.

And I understand that the Hawaiian lifestyle of being on the beach and all this is, I know that there's temptation, whether it's family or beach and sunny weather and a luxury lifestyle and different temptations in different regions.

But we've got to make sacrifices and use wisdom about where to raise a family, where to live, where's going to be safe, where is my child going to be safe, where's my wife going to be safe, and where am I going to be safe in the future time, and not just in the great tribulation but in the next few months as the entire world goes insane, amen, as the entire world goes insane.

Certain cities in America, a white man can't walk in public without being murdered.

We're going to have to use some common sense and take action instead of just praying, take action, rent a U-Haul, get out of there, amen.

Places of national, federal government centers, of course, those are going to be military targets.

Democrat-controlled states and cities and nations. Democrat-controlled like the ANC and other communist regimes. This California, Oregon, New York, New Jersey, anywhere where there's a Democrat governor or a Democrat mayor, I would be seeking the Lord how to get out of there.

Now, there's exceptions about all of this, there's exceptions. Perhaps the Lord is going to send Jonah into Nineveh, into the danger zone.

There's exceptions. But if you are dealing with an exception of where to live for the great tribulation, then you've got to be hearing lightning and thunder because a lot of times when people are hearing things with a quiet still whisper, a lot of times they think it's God and it's really you, it's your own imagination.

I know that God does speak to people with a quiet still voice, but there's also people's imaginations.

There's also people's imaginations and so both of those can be reality for different people, so you've got to be careful, you really are hearing from God if you're going to stay in such a dangerous place.

Regions with large Muslim populations, regions where there's a lot of Catholic populations, Mexico and other places, you've got to be seeking the Lord about where to go.

Now here's another huge thing, is when to go. Maybe some of you should stay until we see the strong delusion and then flee into safer regions, but that's only some of you.

Other people have a different calling from God and should go ahead and move before then so that you can help prepare places of refuge, so that you can prepare the ground, so that you can prepare supplies, so that you can prepare for the influx of other people coming into places of refuge.

Different people have different callings but you also should consider children, family, wives, your own safety, local conditions, your calling, so forth.

There's all kinds of things to consider. There's all kinds of things because I can't tell, I can't make it just a general blanket statement that everybody must immediately this month move.

I can't make such a blanket statement because there's different callings for different people and so the only thing I can say is that each person should be seeking the Lord about how to be more wise, how to be more prudent, how to be more intelligent with your decisions, how to hear His voice stronger and better and more accurately, things like that as we head for Passover in the days of Unleavened Bread and as we head into more difficult times, as times become more and more and more difficult and it will.

We need to really be drawn closer to God to really hear His voice for ourselves individually and know the difference between our voice and His and to grow in that, to grow in that ability.

That takes prayer, that takes reading the Bible, that takes worship, that takes getting down on your knees, that takes crying out to God, that takes some level of fasting, that takes sacrifice, that takes forsaking certain people, certain things, certain things that you love, certain people that you love.

It takes taking up your death stake, your crucifixion stake and denying yourself, your will, your plans for the future, your college career, your money career, different things, your plans, your will, your family's plans, your mom's plans for you.

It takes sacrifice to really serve God according to what Jesus said, according to what Jesus Himself said, "If you're not willing to deny yourself and to take up your stake and follow me, then you're not worthy of me." It takes a real sacrifice to be a true Christian, to be part of the true church.

Being part of the true church isn't that you decide a piece of paper or just be baptized, but rather it's real sacrifice.

That's why I'm saying if you still got a million friends and taking pictures and spending money everywhere you go like there's no tomorrow and you're spending all this money on luxury, I don't think you're really saved.

I think you should be baptized again and get rid of some of your friends and family and start speaking more boldly about the truth, being a brighter light in the darkness, but do so in a way that's using wisdom about how to speak, who to speak to and when to speak to, but do to do so more, to do so more than what you have.

That there's a time, Jesus said, I think Jesus said that there's a time, a day coming when no man will work, work while it is still yet day, for there's a night coming, a time coming when no man can work, amen.

We've got to be getting those distribution, those flyers out there, those gospel tracts, those gospel tracts and flyers.

They're on the website at isawthelightministries.com/gospeltracts.html No space. Print them. Be putting them out there.

Talk to your family, talk to your co-workers, talk to your friends, talk to people in the store that you meet, in the park, talk to people, start a conversation, say hello, be friendly, start a conversation, amen.

People are too much robots today, don't talk to anyone.

I talked to this, uh, this couple I saw on the street downtown the other day, complete strangers.

They were taking pictures and reading the historic signs and stuff like that. I'm like, "Hello, are you, uh, local or are you, uh, visiting?" And they looked at me like I was going to murder them.

Very, very, very suspicious. They didn't know. It took them a minute before they knew how to respond to that, like if nobody had ever talked to them before as a stranger.

And more and more and more, that's people's reaction because people don't talk to each other anymore.

They treat each other like nobody's important, like we're not human, we're just computer profiles.

We need to be more human, more friendly, more vocal, talk to people, let's bring humanity back to earth, amen.

It's ridiculous. Yeah, say hello to someone, please. Call, yeah.

Okay, I got a testimony from Sister Kiki in Australia as we open up the chat room now.

And this is, she wanted me to share her testimony from July 2018. Testimony sent in from Sister Kiki in Australia from July 2018: Proof that demons in all forms are on the loose, prowling around, seeking out Jesus's true children, his true followers.

They were out seeking, trying to destroy our faith in Jesus. Another, a different pit bull incident today, they seem to be getting bigger and meaner each different incident.

This pure white massive pit bull cleared a six-foot fence and came for my dog named Angel and I.

My heart pounding and praise Jesus that He blessed us with a miracle by His hand, the hand of God.

Distracting the pit bull, can't explain but this demon dog was coming for us and then miraculously, by the grace of Jesus, praise His name, suddenly was distracted, sniffing around.

He kept looking up at us but it was as if he was held back by an unknown force. Of course, it was Jesus's hand.

When these dogs zoom in on attack, they go for it but praise the name of Jesus that He helped my dog Angel and I.

To believe it was to see it, truly a miracle. Eleluje, Jesus protects. He is called out once, amen.

So that was from 2018 and I thank Sister Kiki for sharing that testimony again because that's a beautiful reminder and a powerful reminder that Jesus is able to do miracles and to protect us.

That we also have to be within His will because we do know that the Bible says a lot of people will be beheaded and so forth even the true saints.

So there's different callings for different people but like I said even with all the disciples and prophets that were martyred they had many years of protection before they were martyred and we have to be within God's will about where we are at, what we're doing, what we're saying.

We cannot expect God's protection if we're outside of His will, following our own will or own plans or own pursuits.

But if we are living in His will then we'll have many years of protection until the time comes that we may be captured or martyred for the Lord and if that is God's plan for us then praise His holy name then we will endure that for the Lord as a testimony for Him and for the kingdom, amen.

It's a beautiful testimony and witness to the fact that God is able to protect us if we're in His will and that is a beautiful blessing and encouragement as we face this difficult time ahead of us as we go into the great tribulation next year or whenever it is.

Let's remember such testimonies, let's remember such miracles, let's remember that what God did for Sister Kiki, He could do for others.

The time that me and Brother Jared was out on a mission at nighttime and a tree branch went in my eye and I yanked it out several inches out of my eye and no blood and no blindness.

I did not have to go to the emergency, I did not have to go to hospital or doctor, my eyesight was fine after that, that was a miracle and that's divine protection, the hand of God.

Many other testimonies that we've shared over the years of divine protection.

We have the chat room now open if anybody wants to share other testimonies of divine protection or divine healing or answered prayers of any type.

Now is your opportunity to praise God, now is an opportunity to let your light shine, now, right now. The chat room is open on Mixer and I'm also going to check now on WhatsApp and Telegram and also text messaging however way that you have available to communicate with me, I'm looking for those things right now. I'd rather that you not use the Parrhesia website for this particular thing at the moment while we are live on the air, but rather please use Mixer, Telegram, or WhatsApp or text messaging.

Brother Jared, you have anything to share? "I just have to agree with what you said. I just have to agree and it's very upsetting and disgusting both how few people will accept the truth despite having seen it, and just with all the weakness and ridiculousness. So there are people in places like California, running around and blocking roads with signs that say Death to America, and rather than being arrested or killed they basically have legal protection." Yeah, yeah, it's crazy, very much so. Where are the heroes that we had during the Civil War and the American Revolutionary War? The thing is, during the Civil War and the American Revolutionary War, we had men. Yeah, there are no men today, hardly. Manhood, masculinity, barely exists anymore.

We have a question from MRWCC. "Question: Jesus had 12 apostles and the opening left by Judas was filled by Matthias to keep the number at 12. Do you think there have always been this number of apostles throughout the world since then?"

If there are only two billion people after the tribulation, it seems that there must be divine intervention in that."

No, I don't believe that there has always been the number 12 apostles ever since then. I believe that there's always been apostles sent amongst us since then, but not always 12. But it's a good point to make and it's a very good question. They did want to keep it at 12 for however many years or however many decades, we don't know that. They wanted to keep it at 12, but I believe that at some point of time they would have stopped the practice of keeping it exactly at 12.

Then, as far as divine intervention, yeah, absolutely. That two billion people is still a huge number when you're dealing with nuclear war, invasions of many different nations, when you're dealing with very fierce regimes, that two billion people alive, there's still going to be a lot of miracles.

And a lot of those two billion will be saved eventually. In the final year of the great tribulation, we do have the Book of Revelation, Chapter 7 and Chapter 14, describing what is called a great multitude that the angels couldn't even number, couldn't even count the number of people that will be saved during that final year from the witnessing of the 144,000 young male Israelite evangelists.

These 144,000 male Israelite evangelists evangelizing the truth, the gospel, the true message to the entire world during that final year after the sixth seal, resulting in, I would say, the majority of those two billion people, because it's so many that the angels could not count.

And it says from every language, from every color, from every tribe, from every kindred on earth, many people will be saved in that final year.

And the reason for that is the judgment that they had just witnessed for the first two and a half years of the great tribulation, having seen six billion people die of starvation and disease, famine and war.

So that's a good reason to repent, amen. And the witnessing as well of the two witnesses and the 144,000 of the fruit of their evangelism, amen.

So there's really a lot of miracles we're going to see, grand, wonderful miracles, even in the midst, even in the first two and a half years, there's going to be awesome, awesome miracles.

Even on day number one, there's going to be an awesome miracle that the Bible prophesies, amen.

In Revelation 12, prophesies on the very first day of the great tribulation, there's going to be a grand miracle for part of the church, similar to the parting of the Red Sea.

God has wonderful things planned for his people, it's awesome.

Thank you for those questions and giving time for everybody to ask, to say, to do something for the Lord, to let your light shine.

I believe that anybody and everybody can ask or do participate at this point of time.

This is an opportunity, this is an opportunity, and who will seize the opportunity to participate in the worship service? Paul said that when we come together, each one has something, one has a song, one has a prophecy, one has a tongue, one has an interpretation, let everything be done to edification.

This was Paul's instruction of what is to be done when we come together for worship service.

I played the drum, I played the pipe, I opened up the chat room, and not many people participated.

Yes, Brother Jared. "The Bible does say the end times would be just like the days of Noah how people don't even keep the signs of the times, just keep on going until the destruction comes."

It does say that even when Jesus comes, people still be marrying as if there's no end, as if Jesus ain't coming back. People need to be wise about their decisions, what are you going to do, your relationships, your families, different things.

People are still going to be building buildings and still marrying as if you're really going to have a life with that person, it's crazy.

And that's the way people are acting today and, man, they're going to continue to act like that even in the middle of the great tribulation, even when you have the plagues, all the way up to the day Jesus comes back when there's only two billion people left on earth, there's still going to be people thinking that Jesus ain't coming, that's pretty crazy.

Well, Monday is Passover. Monday evening, that is, at sunset, we gotta see what time sunset is, but Brother Calm Adam from Kansas will be here about that time so we can have communion with him.

And then the day after that, we're going to have special worship services on Tuesday, special worship services Tuesday, April the 23rd at 11 o'clock in the morning for the first day of Unleavened Bread.

And then we have the night to be much observed Tuesday night, April the 23rd, after sunset.

So that's entertainment, drinking, conversation, fellowship, activities, whatever you can do if you have any local brothers and sisters to do that with.

And I thought about doing something online live, but who would participate? There wouldn't be enough propitiation, so I'm not gonna do it.

If we had enough people that would participate, then they would do it, but we just don't have enough people to participate.

MRWCC says this: "Three nights ago, I had a dream about getting prepared and ready for a nuclear war. I don't usually remember my dreams, especially not the entire thing, but this one has stayed with me."

Amen, thank you for sharing that dream about getting prepared and getting ready for nuclear war.

That's something we all need to be doing, is getting ready and prepared physically, spiritually, mentally, and emotionally for nuclear war because it's coming.

It's coming, amen.

And then we will also have special services on the last day of Unleavened Bread, the 29th, April the 29th, Monday morning, 11 o'clock in the morning, Eastern Time Zone for the last day of Unleavened Bread.

So special services Tuesday, regular services Saturday, special services Monday the 29th.

Now, for the Passover communion, we are not doing any broadcast. Passover communion Monday evening, the 22nd, there is no broadcast.

That's just a private ceremony of just your local people or just you by yourself if you don't have any true brothers or sisters.

It's you by yourself and only if you have been truly baptized by a true minister.

If you've not been baptized yet by a true minister of the Lord, then you should not take the Passover communion.

But you can still do the seven days of Unleavened Bread starting from Monday sunset to abstain from any leavened bread, grains, pies, and cakes, and other things, cookies, and crackers that have leavening in it to abstain from those things for seven days starting from Monday sunset.

Even if you're not baptized, you should still do that part.

And in addition to abstaining from leavened bread, you also should still yet take at least one bite a day.

You can eat as much as you want, but take at least one bite a day of unleavened bread that you make yourself.

I encourage people to make it yourself rather than buying crackers in the store because if it's Jewish crackers, they've been prayed over by the Y-names most likely.

And also it's just more meaningful if you make it yourself. It's just more meaningful, it makes it more heartfelt, and doing more for the Lord.

If anybody has any questions, please email me or contact me through the website. Any way that you can find to contact me, contact me and ask me questions, and feel free to ask me the difficult questions, the most difficult questions you can throw at me.

I'm asking for it, send them to me, I'm very glad to help you out. Many, many, many people over the years have said that I was the only one that could answer these questions.

I've heard that many, many, many times because there's a famine of the word of God, amen.

There really is a famine of the word of God.

Okay, we'll put on a final song to take care of any audio delay.
