Okay, I'm hitting record button right now, and we're probably should get my wife's phone out real quick and connect to talk to you as I back up in case this connection goes down.

We just had a hurricane to come through here, and the infrastructure is crumbling and falling apart.

I have on my phone, I can't call anyone, text anyone, and the internet is down on that phone.

We didn't have internet on any of the phones or computers last night, and we lost electric a few minutes ago, and it came back on, so hopefully we'll be able to keep electric long enough to do this worship service and broadcast.

We're expected to probably lose all running water within the next 24 hours or 48 hours.

So the infrastructure, all the bridges, or not all the bridges, but some of the bridges, some of the very major bridges are destroyed and washed out.

And we'll probably have the government setting up water distribution centers this weekend.

So very historic events. We've never seen this before in this region. To the best of my knowledge, we've never had anything like this in this region. I've never experienced it in my life, and I'm not a young man.

So very historic and very significant. We'll talk about the significance of these events and other events after we finish with the prayer and as we prepare for the sermon.

But I need to call in to talk to you real quick, if possible, and get a backup connection.

So, pardon me just for a second. It's hard for me to remember to do everything, so I'm going to go ahead and get this done right now.

Let us go in prayer. Lord, Heavenly Father, praise your holy name. Thank you, Lord, that your judgment is at hand.

Thank you that the people in this county are suffering your judgment as they deserve.

Because all of your decisions, all of your judgments are justice and righteousness.

And as the angels say in the book of Revelation, that your words are true and your judgments are true and the people deserve it.

Even Daniel said that the events that occurred in his lifetime was from the sins of the people.

And it was true and it's still true today. But we thank you, Lord, for your mercy upon your church, upon your people, upon this ministry, upon your servant.

We thank you, Lord, that the trees did not fall on this property even though they fell to our left and to our right, that they did not fall on this property.

Thank you that we have electric at this moment and that we still have running water at this moment and that we have food at this moment.

Thank you that we're able to broadcast live at this moment. And we ask you, Lord, for your continued favor, mercy and help for the people of this ministry, your church, your bride, to get through this situation.

And may it open up eyes for other people that are willing to repent as it is an opportunity for repentance that there will be someone, somewhere to consider the magnitude of these events and with hospital and other world events to realize the prophetic time that we were in the significance of it and the need for personal repentance.

We pray for your blessing on these worship services and your help. Please help me to teach and to explain accurately. Please help us, each one, to grow in the measure of your whole egos and in understanding and comprehension.

May we hear your voice more clear, more accurately and follow you in the fullness of your will and not our will, but your will.

Please deliver us, save us. Heal our minds, bodies and souls. Make us whole and help us to walk straight on the path that you have set for us. Praise your holy name.

We accept your help. We accept your anointing and blessing on these services. May it be guarded with good and holy and true guardian angels and our lives as well.

May your church prosper. May your church grow and multiply in these coming days, weeks, months and years in the mighty and holy name of Jesus.

So be it. Amen. Praise Jesus. Praise God.

Let's turn to Daniel chapter 11. We finished off last week around verse 35 and we're going to pick up from there. But as people are turning to the Bible in Daniel 11, verse 35 I will go ahead and talk a little bit more about the events that are occurring.

Hurricane Helene hit Florida as a category four, four out of five. I don't know how close it was to the five range. I've not looked at those numbers, haven't thought about that until now. But category four.

And yes, there have been other hurricanes to come up through this region before. But like I said, I'm not a young man anymore and I've never seen anything like this in my life.

The exact path a hurricane can take concerning the mountains here, Appalachian Mountains, Smoky Mountains, as well as how much moisture is associated with it and also the speed that the hurricane moves.

All these things and other variables changes the situation with each and every hurricane.

Here locally we got seven or eight inches of rain over something like three days.

But to our west and to our east both the numbers was much higher and over a foot of rain in Tennessee and we're very close to the Tennessee state line and then you have the mountains that is the border between Tennessee and North Carolina that those mountains always get heavier rains all the time.

They always get much heavier rains and then you have the runoff of the water coming down from the mountains filling up the rivers and the forests and the amount of water coming from that wiped out several bridges here in this city and this county and all the way from Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee.

All of those states, multiple bridges were completely destroyed and the water intake pumps in the rivers were destroyed so that the only water that we have is only what's in the storage tanks in the city and county and that's going to be running out today or tomorrow they are predicting and so last night and today we've been filling up buckets and jugs, bottles, anything we can find to fill up with water so that we have drinking water as well as so that we will be able to flush the toilets.

The electorate has stayed on for us, the other people, some other people are, have been without electricity for more than 24 hours.

The electorate did go off here a few minutes before the worship services and then came back on.

So we praise God that we have electricity and internet right now. We didn't have internet last night so we praise God that we've got internet and electricity right now to broadcast these worship services.

Everything is fragile so we don't know how much longer that we're going to have anything.

Everything is very fragile. At the store people can only pay cash, they cannot use food stamps, they cannot use debit cards, credit cards, the restaurants are told to close down to save water and we're under curfew at night, nobody allowed out on the streets at night and I've never seen that before in my life. Amazing things.

Most people would say you have hurricanes every year and you're always going to have a record breaking hurricane sooner or later and these are just nothing, just life, just life.

But what we must consider is that all of this is also in the context of what else occurred yesterday on the same day is that the nation of Israel attacked Hezbollah headquarters in Beirut, Lebanon and that is very historic and very, very significant.

To not only attack just military sites and missile sites but the actual headquarters in Beirut is very significant and that the leader or president of Hezbollah was in the bunker that they struck in the airstrike.

I haven't been able to check on the news to confirm whether he's dead. I did see yesterday that they were claiming that yes, he's dead but we need confirmation of that and I've not been able to check on that yet today.

If perhaps Brother John could pull that up and see if he can find confirmation from a reliable news source, maybe jpost.com.

Brother John, if you wouldn't mind seeing if you can confirm that the leader of Hezbollah if he has truly been assassinated and killed in that airstrike yesterday, if you wouldn't mind looking that up while we are still on the air so that can update people.

But rather, whether he is alive or not really doesn't matter because the main point is that they tried to or did or did not, they tried to assassinate the president of Hezbollah and that is historic and extremely significant and it cannot be overstated, it cannot be exaggerated how significant it is.

Iran will consider it to the same degree as if Israel had assassinated an Iranian government official because Hezbollah is very much under Iranian control.

They are one and the same. And another thing we must consider is because of the success that Israel has been conducting very bold, very brave war campaigns against both Hamas in the south and Hezbollah in the north and having great success with both campaigns, very significant success in both campaigns, wiping out their enemies, that leaves a void for Iran and Syria because both Assad, the antichrist, Syria and Iran and Russia and China, they have been depending for decades on Hezbollah and Hamas as their proxies to fight Israel.

Now they've lost those proxies even though they've still got some very minor proxies in Iraq and so forth, but their two biggest, most significant important proxies are really basically being destroyed and are on the verge of non-existence right now is the reality.

So Brother John said yes, J-Post does confirm that he is dead and that's wonderful news, praise God.

Thank you John for checking on that for me. That's wonderful news and I think it's a wonderful thing that Israel has stepped up their bravery, their boldness.

I really never thought I would see Israel be this bold because they've been very, very wimpy really, very extremely wimpy over the years. So it's nice to see them step up to do what's necessary.

But this does greatly change the situation at the same time for actually the worst, even though it's the better, I mean you've got to attack your enemies, you've got to wipe out your enemies, but unfortunately this is going to bring Iran, Syria, Russia and China into the conclusion that because they lost their two biggest, most important, most significant militaries that are on the borders of Israel that now they are forced to use their own militaries, the actual Iranian militaries, Syrian, Russian and Chinese militaries.

So this brings us a huge step closer to the Great Tribulation. And in that context of the great tribulation and in that context of both the hurricane Helene and how serious that hurricane was and is and continues to be and having it at the same time as this Hezbollah Iranian situation, in that context it's not just another hurricane, it's not just life, it's not normal.

These are two very historic events occurring at the same time. In the Bible, a storm is symbolic of the Antichrist.

If you read it in Ezekiel 38 as well as other places in the Bible the Antichrist is seen as a storm.

I would like for you to put a bookmark here in Daniel where you add to the bookmark, a piece of paper, and let's go to Ezekiel 38.

Reading in the Alpha and Omega Bible verse 4, Ezekiel 38, verse 4, I will turn you, talking about Russia and China, I will turn you about and put hooks into your jaws, and I will gather you and all of your host, your multitude, your armies, horses and horsemen, all wearing breastplates with a great pride.

In 2008, I was walking along the highway carrying a sign that said China will invade the US, and I had done that several times before, but nobody had ever stopped along the side of the highway to talk to me, but that particular day I was walking with that sign, and I saw on the ground along the side of the highway a set of chains and hooks, two hooks, that had been left there probably by accident, really divine command, providence, by a tow truck earlier, and I didn't know that at the time, I did not know that it was from a tow truck, but I knew that whatever it was, I was supposed to pick it up and carry it with me and drag it behind me as a symbol of American soldiers in chains being dragged into slavery and captivity bondage by the Russian and Chinese soldiers that will be coming into the United Kingdom, Scotland, Ireland, England, America, Israel, and so forth, Australia, Canada, South Korea, Taiwan, and so I was dragging it behind me, and then a car stopped to talk to me for the first time, and then a second car and a third car, and the people in the third car, two young men, they asked me where in the Bible does it say Russia and China will invade the United States, and I told them to look up Ezekiel 38.

Soon after that, I went back to my tent where I was living at the time because I lived in a tent, for a total, I lived in a tent for seven years, winter, summer, spring, fall, all year round, for seven years I lived in a tent, not because I needed to financially, but because I felt that's what I needed to do, that's what I was supposed to do, that I was called to do that at that time.

Seven is the number of completion, so I completed that particular phrase of my life.

I went back to my tent, and I also, as I had told those young men to do, to read Ezekiel 38, and to my surprise, it talked about hooks in verse four.

I did not realize that until that moment after I had already told those young men to read Ezekiel 38, and going back to my tent, reading it for myself, it was very much a surprise to come to realize that God says I will put hooks in Russia and China and drag them into America and Israel. Amen.

If you read verse five, the Persians, we know, that's not debated at all, that the Persians today are the nation of Iran. It also says Ethiopia, the Libyans, will also be with Russia and China, and Russia and China is Gog and Magog.

Many people debate that about whether it's Russia and China or not. A lot of people do agree that it is Russia and China.

But what occurred with that miracle of hooks being in verse four without me knowing it, that confirms from God what I had written on the sign and what I had told those young men.

It confirmed that the Gog and Magog is Russia and China, as well as many dreams and visions that people have had over the years.

People have contacted me from different states across America and other nations to give me, tell me, testify about their dreams and visions of the Russian and Chinese soldiers coming into Jamaica, coming into Australia, coming into America, west coast, east coast, all across America.

Many different people are having these dreams and visions, which also continues to confirm who Gog and Magog is. It also confirms who Israel is, because Ezekiel 38 is Gog, Magog, Russia, China invading Israel.

And most people think Israel is only the tiny little nation in the Middle East, when in reality, if you really read the entire Bible with the Holy Ghost, with his help of understanding and with proper teaching, sermons, so forth, Israel is also not only that tiny nation, but Israel is also America, Canada, and the British Commonwealth, and all the nations that were under control of the British Commonwealth as part of Israel.

And if they have cut themselves off from the British Empire, then they have lost their birthright and they have lost their identity and blessings, amen.

South Africa, they have lost their blessings. Other nations, Jamaica and others, that have distanced themselves and turned against the British Empire, have lost their blessings and their infrastructure is crumbling, amen.

But there's a storm here in this chapter as well. Verse 9, you, talking about Russia and China, shall go up as rain and shall arrive as a cloud to cover the land that there should be with you and all that are about you and many nations with you.

So here, even though that's not specific about the Antichrist, but rather Russia and China, is seen as a storm, rain and clouds covering the land of Israel.

Let's go to Isaiah Chapter 8. Isaiah chapter 8. Verse 6.

Because this people chooses not the water of Silo that goes softly, but wills to have raisin and the son of Romulus to be king over you.

Therefore, behold, the Lord brings up upon you the water of the river, strong and abundant, even the king of the Assyrians.

So now that is talking about the Antichrist, Bashar Assad of Syria. He is the king of Assyria.

And his glory, he shall come up over every valley of yours and shall walk over every wall of yours.

So what people don't understand is that prophecies in the book of Isaiah and Ezekiel, even though they were fulfilled in type, in foreshadowing thousands of years ago, in the lifetime of Isaiah and Ezekiel, there are also those events or foreshadowings of end time events.

Just like Antiochus that we were talking about last week is also a foreshadowing of the end time Antichrist and really perhaps even the same fallen angel.

So here the Antichrist is seen as a storm. In Ezekiel 38, Russia and China, we must realize that Russia and China, they are the military muscles of Syria.

The Antichrist army of Syria is not strong enough to conquer the entire world. But if you use your allies, biblical terminology, if you use your host, all of your host, all of your multitudes, if you use all of your might, all of your host, all of your multitudes, all of your armies that you've got with you, all of your brothers and sisters of those armies, then yes, you can conquer the world and yes, you can conquer the UK and America and Israel.

And they're seeing in this context America infrastructure being destroyed and they see that over there in the Middle East, they see that from the Russian and Chinese spies that they have here inside the United States and they see how vulnerable our infrastructure is and they see that the Hezbollah and Hamas is wiped out and they see what's going on with the Ukraine and the tensions in the South China Sea and Taiwan and North Korea and the American elections.

So if you consider all of this, the context is much more serious than just a simple normal life, normal storm.

You've got to consider these things in the context of Scripture and the Bible. This hurricane is prophetically symbolic of the conquest of America by the Antichrist President of Syria and his military muscles of Russia, China and Iran with also the help of Cuba, Venezuela and other communist allies.

Now the word, the name of the hurricane, Helene, the origin meaning of that word means torch or light.

And since it is a symbol of the conquest of America by the Assyrian flood, Assyrian storm, I can see that light, that torch as being symbolic of the Purim, strong delusion, the appearance of Bashar Assad sitting in the temple of God as the Scripture says.

Now they called Noah crazy. They said Noah was crazy. They said that Jeremiah was a false prophet. They said that Jesus was demon possessed and they are going to call me crazy, radical, fanatic and ever negative name in the book because they don't know God. Amen.

They never believed the true prophets of the Lord in the Old Testament or New Testament, either one.

They didn't even believe Christ Jesus. And who is the enemies of Christ Jesus more than anyone else?

The religious Pharisees, the religious people, the churches. Those are your worst enemies.

Those are the people that want you to stay in bondage to Babylon. Those are the people that want you to continue to go to the Sunday, three God worshipping, pre rapture churches that are telling you all types of lies and brainwashing you and keeping you in that Babylonian bondage, captivity.

Revelation 18 verse four says, come out of her, my people. Come out of her so that you will not partake of her sins and of her plagues.

That's talking about the need to come out of these Sunday and Trinity churches. And any church that does not accept Jesus as God. Amen.

And the timing of these events as we get closer and closer to Purim in March of 2025.

Now perhaps the Lord will delay again as he has been year after year after year but we cannot depend on, we cannot believe that he will absolutely delay another year and another year and another year even though he has been doing that because he's waiting for people, he's waiting for certain people to surrender, to repent.

There are certain people that the Lord is waiting on, whoever they may be, for them to stand up, take action and do what they're supposed to do, whether it's a move into a certain place or leaving a certain church or whatever it may be for different people, different individuals, different situations.

The Lord is definitely delaying and waiting for certain people to do what they're supposed to do but his patience will not endure forever as the Bible says.

And the wise thing for everyone to do is to prepare for just in case that he will not delay another year and just in case he does allow the strong delusion to occur Purim March of 2025.

We need to prepare for that mentally, spiritually, emotionally and physically. Everyone, everywhere is.

We need to prepare for that in case it occurs in 2025. There's a lot going to happen next month, November 5th is the American elections and that's also a very extremely serious situation.

It would be amazing if Trump survives to November 5th. It would be really amazing if he survives that long.

And if they declare him the winner, which is a very big if, but if they declare him the winner, then it would also be amazing if he survives to January 20th, the day that he would be sworn in to office.

Because we know that the Communist Democrat party is very demonic and would do anything necessary to hold on to power.

So there's a lot up in the air, a lot of ifs, a lot of just not knowing for sure exactly what's going to happen.

And so we just have to take it one day, one week and one month at a time. But people need to be very serious about repentance and doing whatever God has called you to do and stop resisting his will, whatever it may be for each individual.

And part of that is to make sure that you completely come out of Babylon 100%, be willing to grow in the real truth and be willing to actually join and be a member and not just be an audience and not just be listening, but be an active and working coworker in God's true church.

That's very important. Matthew 7 says that not everyone that says unto me, Lord, Lord, will enter in.

For there be many that say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not done this? Have we not done that in different words?

Have I not cast out devils? Have I not worked mighty miracles in your name? And Jesus will say to them according to scripture, get away from me. I never knew you.

And that's Christians. That's not talking about Buddhists, Muslims and others. It's talking about Christians and it's talking even more specifically about Christian leaders because what Christian casts out devils, what Christian works great miracles, the leaders, the pastors. Amen.

So that's talking more than anyone else. It's talking about the Christian false Christian pastors of Sunday Trinity churches more than anyone else.

And those are the ones that's responsible for this judgment more than anyone else, is those that claim to be Judean Christians, which is exactly what Christ is talking about in book of Revelation chapter two and chapter three, the synagogue of Satan.

Those that say they are Jews but are not, but are of the synagogue of Satan. That has nothing to do with bloodline, has nothing to do with race, has nothing to do with color or nationality, but that has to do with Judean Christians saying that they are saved when they are not, but rather they are the church of Satan.

That's the reality. That's the correct understanding, the correct interpretation of that scripture.

And if you would take it in prayer and fasting, God would confirm that to you very easily. Amen.

If you really want to know the truth. But that's the problem a lot of people don't want the truth. Amen.

People don't want the truth. And they'll call us crazy, they'll call us lost and deceived because we're speaking the truth.

And the scripture says that they will hate us. And they do because they don't love the truth.

They hate the truth. They despise the truth of a great passion. Democrats are demonic. And Trinity people are demonic.

And Christmas and Easter people, they are demonic. And you can say all you want to that they love God.

But if they loved God, they would keep his commandments. That's what the Bible says. Amen.

If you love me, keep my commandments. Amen. John 14. Amen. As well as Brother John, I need you to send me this one more often. You rarely ever, ever, ever send me that one. But I think it's maybe, is it two John three maybe?

That says, believe and forgive. If you keep not my commandments, or if you say that you know me, if you say you know me, but keep not my commandments, then there's no truth in you. Amen.

It says, one John two verse four. Perhaps. So, I need you to send me that one, John.

Help me get that into my mind. It says you're a liar. You're a liar. That's what it says to every Christian, to every pastor, to everybody that thinks they are saved, that do not keep his commandments.

And what are his commandments? They say that his commandments is nothing but loving people.

Well, you would have to ignore a lot of verses to think that, to think that that's his only commandment.

And how do you love people? The Ten Commandments defines how you love people. Amen. You can say those words all you want.

And you can show tolerance to evil and tolerance to false religion all you want, but that's not real love.

And they think that's real love. They think it's real love to tolerate lies, deception, and false religion.

Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Trinity churches, pre-trib rapture churches, all of that crap.

They think it's love to tolerate and co-exist with Satan. That's not love. That's not love at all. Amen.

The Ten Commandments defines love, and God's law defines love. Amen.

But what we need to do right now is we need to get into Daniel chapter 11 and pick up where we left off last week while we still got the ability to broadcast at this moment.

We need to go ahead and go over to Daniel 11 verse 35. Now we said last week, Daniel 11, 35, is the cutoff point according to most, almost all, biblical scholars from different religions, different denominations rather, Protestants and Catholics, both.

They say that this is verse 35 is the cutoff point where it was Antiochus Epiphanes through verse 35, but starting in verse 36 is talking about the end time Antichrist, but yet the scripture makes no difference, no distinction between the person of verses 21 to 35, which is Antiochus Epiphanes, who committed the abomination of desolation in the BC years, which was Jesus spoke about when he said in Matthew 24, when he said the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel, he was talking about these exact verses, and it makes no distinction between that person and the person of verse 36 to the end of Daniel.

So they are one and the same then according to scripture. Verse 36 picks up and says, he of the Antichrist, the president of Syria, shall do according to his will, and the king will exalt, and I'm looking at Theodotion version at the top, but I want to look at the old Greek.

The old Greek says the king should do according to his will, and he shall be provoked to anchor, anchor, and he shall be exalted above every god, and against the god of gods shall he speak extraordinary words, and he will prosper until the wrath be accomplished, and the end is coming to him.

37, and he will by no means pay regard to the gods of his fathers, nor will he by any means pay regard to the desire or the wants of a woman, for in everything shall he be exalted, and to him strong nations will be subjugated.

Now a lot of people have false interpretations of that verse as they do most Bible verses.

Not pay any regard to the gods of his fathers I believe means that at some point of time he would say you don't need to worship Allah, but rather only me.

He shall exalt himself above everything that's called God, even Allah for the Muslims.

That he exalts himself even above Allah. That's already been fulfilled. We have video evidence of that on the Antichrist article that I saw the light ministries, and that video is from years and years ago, and for that long he has already been having his soldiers, his military, to worship him as God above Allah.

That's documented. So he's already fulfilling that scripture. And then not regarding the desire of women, some people think that means that he himself is homosexual, but I believe that it means that he just has no respect to the women's desires, the women's needs, as you see in Islam and in the Middle East, that there's very little rights, very little dignity for women, very little regard for women.

So I believe that's what that's really referring to. Verse 38, against his place he shall move in a godly way, a god whom his fathers have not known, he shall honor with gold and silver and precious stone, and with desirable things.

Thirty-nine of the cities shall he act, and into a strong fortress he will come of a strange god, whosoever he will know. He shall multiply glory, and he shall have dominion over it abundantly, and he will divide the province freely.

Verse 40, and at the time of the end the king of Egypt will walk horns with him, and the king of the north, which I believe may be NATO, will be very much angered with him with chariots and with many horses and with many ships, so shall he enter into the province of Egypt.

Verse 41, and he shall come into my province, and in the province of Egypt that shall not be it one who escapes.

Verse 43, and he shall lay hold on the place of gold and the place of silver and all the desire of Egypt, and the Libyans and the Ethiopians will be in his multitude.

Verse 44, and a report from the east and from the north will trouble him, and he shall come forth with a strong wrath and sword to destroy utterly and to kill men.

Verse 45, and he shall set up his tabernacle then in the midst of the seas and the desired holy mountain, and the hour of his end shall come, and there shall be no helper for him.

Now, that holy mountain I believe could refer to Saudi Arabia, because Saudi Arabia is the location of Mount Sinai where Moses received the Ten Commandments and the Law, and we also know that Saudi Arabia is very busy modernizing and building up the civilization and the infrastructure of the cities all the way from the coast of Israel and Jordan and Egypt and the Red Sea all the way down through Mount Sinai and destroying archaeological evidence and building buildings and infrastructure and skyscrapers and infrastructure and all the way down to through Mecca, Saudi Arabia.

And that entire region, huge area, is being transformed into what I believe to be the end time city of Babylon.

So it would make sense for him to establish his tabernacle in Mecca, Saudi Arabia, and so it would make sense for him to establish his tabernacle in Babylon, in Saudi Arabia, and of course he would want to combine the government all the way from Iran and Iraq through Saudi Arabia, through that entire region, and also divide the entire world up probably into ten regions, the ten horns, the ten toes, to appoint, I believe it's going to be Bill Gates, George Soros, Charles Schwab, and other demonic beings, some of those I believe to be fallen angels and Nephilim, to establish them as the governors of ten regions of the earth as the ten toes and ten horns.

Now, what's missing is the fact that the peace treaty, amen, that's missing. It does not say anywhere in scripture concerning the end time antichrist that he shall establish, agree to a peace treaty and then break it halfway through.

That's just Hollywood. That's not Bible.

That's not the Bible. That's not scripture. People don't know the Bible. But very clearly he's angered.

He is provoked to war, which is what we're seeing occurring in the Middle East right now, that he is being provoked to war.

That's not wrong for us to provoke him. It must occur. It must be fulfilled. But that's how he comes to power, is by being provoked to war, not through any type of a peace treaty.

Chapter 12, verse 1, and at that time Michael the great prince, which we also call archangel, shall be taken out of the way that stands over the children of your people.

Then there shall be a time of tribulation. Such tribulation, I'm looking at Theodotion and I need to look at old Greek.

I apologize. Let me look at the old Greek. And in that hour shall Michael step away, the great angel that stands over the sons of your people, that shall be the day of tribulation, such as was not since they were born until that day.

And at that day, all the children of your people shall be taken out of the way that stands over the sons of your people.

Shall be exalted, whoever shall be found written in the scroll. So we've got in the end of the Theodotion version, we've got a reference to Matthew 24, 21, which I want to glance at here.

There's a certain reference I want to make for sure that we've got that reference.

And I'm not for sure that is the same reference. So let me glance at Matthew 24, 21.

And that verse says, then shall be a time of great tribulation, such as not occurred since the beginning of the world until now and nor ever will shall be again.

So I believe that is the verse I was thinking about. So that's the reference. So it's there. We've got it.

Okay, good. Okay, so what we need to understand here, we do have a reference to, we have a reference already here to 2 Thessalonians chapter 2, verse 7, and that's very significant.

Who is going to be taken away? Who is going to be taken away? So let's glance. Let's leave a piece of paper, a bookmark, or just your fingers there, and Daniel, because we'll be coming right back to it.

And let's go look at 2 Thessalonians 2, verse 7. 2 Thessalonians 2, verse 7 says, For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work.

Only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way. Most Christians, most pastors, claim falsely that that's talking about the Church or the Holy Spirit, they say, taken off the earth, that you won't have the Holy Ghost and you won't have the Church here on earth during the Tribulation.

That's ridiculous teaching because Daniel 7, Revelation 13, both say that God is going to give the Antichrist, of course it uses different words, but nevertheless it's talking about the Antichrist and says that God will give him power to defeat the saints.

How can the Antichrist defeat the saints if the saints are not here on earth during the Great Tribulation?

How is that possible? Of course it wouldn't be. Amen. So they ignore many scriptures and misinterpret and twist other scriptures to fit what they want to believe.

And that pre-Tribulation Rapture theory fairy tale is a tickle in the ear, tickle in the ear as the book of Timothy calls it, tickle the ear.

And they heap to themselves teachers who will tickle their ears rather than to tell them the truth. Amen.

And they express purpose of the pre-Tribulation Rapture fairy tale doctrine is so that those same Christians that believe in that fairy tale will fall to the ground and worship the fallen angel Antichrist when he appears in heaven in the sky visible to mankind at that Strong Delusion of 2 Thessalonians 2.

As crazy as that might sound, the truth is stranger than fiction to blind, deceived, brainwashed, false, Democrat Christians.

I'm just going to say it the way it is. Amen. And not only Democrat Christians, but Republican Christians because the Republican Christians are really these days just as insane as the Democrat Christians.

They're all, every one of them, these info wars, Alex Jones, idol worshipers, all of them, they're all just as insane as the Democrats.

They're all extremely gullible, little baby sheep of Satan, not sheep of God. Let's continue here.

So this is Michael the archangel, not the church, not the Holy Ghost or Holy Spirit being removed from earth, but rather this is Michael the archangel being removed from guarding the temple of God and the seat of God, the throne of God so that the antichrist fallen angel can momentarily sit in the seat of God as it says or in the temple of God as it says in scripture, as it clearly says in scripture. Amen.

And people would say that's blasphemous, God would never allow it. Well it's also blasphemous that they would spit in Jesus' face, but God allowed it.

It's also blasphemous that they would defile the temple and set up a statue of Zeus in the temple, but God allowed it.

What you got brother Robert? God also allowed and continues to allow this time 2,000 years of the Catholic Church and over 1,000 years of Islam.

Yes, so just because it's blasphemous does not mean that God won't allow it. There's a lot of blasphemy on the earth and has been for over 6,000 years.

So it's Michael the archangel stepping aside, only momentarily to allow scripture to be fulfilled.

Then the tribulation occurs. Amen. It says nothing about needing to rebuild the temple. It says nothing about a peace treaty, but rather if you read these verses it goes from war to great tribulation immediately.

Nothing about needing a temple or a peace treaty. Verse 2 now, verse 2, and many of them that sleep in the breath of the earth should be risen up, some to life everlasting and some to encroach and some to diversion and shame everlasting.

So there's just two wrecks of wrecks and some people like to teach three, but it's very clearly everywhere where you read about the resurrections in scripture is very clearly only two and most people believe of course only in one and they've never even heard of two.

But the Bible is extremely clear about two and exactly two, no less and no more. Amen.

Now some people are easily confused about this and I can see how this verse can be confusing.

It seems like one resurrection is to life and the other one is to only condemnation, but the reality is we have to read ever, ever, every Bible verse and we can't skip the existence, we can't ignore the existence of Isaiah 65, verse 20, which brings us to Isaiah 65, verse 20, which brings us to Isaiah 65, verse 20, through the existence of Isaiah 65, verse 20, which promises us is a promise from God, He does not break His promises, that we will have a hundred years of nobody dying and both the old man and the infant both will have a hundred years of free will and choice yet again to rather be deceived again as it says in Revelation 20 or to be saved. Amen.

And Matthew 25 starting in verse 31 to the end of that chapter talks about the great white throne judgment which occurs at the very end of that one hundred years, that second life, that where you got some people on the left that are still yet lost at the end of the hundred years, but you got some people that actually got saved in the hundred years in that second life who will be on the right side of the throne of God.

So that proves that yes people can get saved when they were not originally saved at the beginning of the hundred years. So it is an opportunity for salvation. So you can't really prove in Scripture that the second resurrection is just to condemnation only, but there is that opportunity for salvation very clearly in Scripture there.

Verse three, and the wise shall shine as the lights of the universe and they shall strengthen my words as the stars of the universe forever and ever.

Verse four, and you Daniel conceal the words and seal the scroll until the time of the end until the earth be filled with madness or violence and unrighteousness.

And we see today that the earth is filled with unrighteousness. Amen. And not only unrighteousness, but that other word which is difficult to translate, madness or insanity and violence is a difficult word to translate.

Some people translate it as rage or a raging rage which kind of has a context of both the violence and the madness.

But everywhere you look on earth today, that's what you see. Amen. So we see the fulfillment of Scripture. And at the same time, not only is the earth being filled with madness and violence and unrighteousness, which is lawlessness, which is breaking God's commandments, but you also see that at the end of time, these words of Daniel and Revelation, God's words that are hidden for all those centuries and millenniums are now revealed for the first time.

Seal the words until the time of the end, which means at the time of the end, the seals are opened.

And we see in the book of Revelation, seven seals being removed, not only from Daniel, but from the book of Revelation.

So whether you're talking about Daniel or Revelation or Ezekiel or Isaiah or other scripture, even Matthew and other scripture, even in the writings of Paul, for millennium, God himself, not only Satan, but God himself has closed the eyes of the people.

So you've got to realize that a lot of these Christians, false Christians, that are blind, they are blind because God has blinded them because of the conditions of their hearts. Amen.

And they cannot understand. They cannot, because God himself has chosen to blind them because they're not worthy. Let's just say it the way it is, because they're not worthy. Because they don't want the truth.

So if they don't want the truth, then why even allow them to even know the truth if they don't want it? Amen.

God is the God of free will. He doesn't, even though people, atheists and other people, they want God in order to prove that he is love and that he is real and that he is good and holy and justice.

They want him to dictate every little thing, even while at the same time they criticize God and judge God for dictating what he does dictate.

So they're hypocrites because these same atheists want to condemn God for what he does dictate.

At the same time, they want him to dictate and make us, everyone, robots with no free will and no choice.

Hypocrisy. Amen. Hypocrisy. But God is the God of free will. And he is going to allow that free will even in the second resurrection. Let's move forward here.

Verse five. Verse five. Let's move forward here. Verse five. Verse five. How long will it take? Verse seven. That at a time and times, two times, that makes three times right there, a time is one time, that means one year, and times is two years, that's three years, and then a half a time, so that's three and a half years of great tribulation.

And it says, shall be for the end of the hands of release of the holy people, and all these things shall be finished.

So right there, there's no way that you can interpret that as seven years. No way, no way, no way.

No way you can interpret that as seven years. You can confirm that the time and times and a half a time is three and a half by reading Revelation 11, as well as other scripture, and it's very, very, very clear that it's 1,260 days, three and a half years.

It says it over and over in scripture. Verse eight.

Nine.

What is a sinner? According to scripture, what is sin? The definition of sin according to scripture is sin is the transgression of the law.

Sin is the transgression of the law. That is 1 John 3:4. So you've got a lot of people saying such and such is a sin. This is a sin, that's a sin.

They say it's a sin for a man to be shirtless in public. Where can you read that in the Bible?

You can't read that in the Bible! That's not in the Bible, and that's not logical to be a sin, but rather that's natural.

So their theology doesn't make sense and is not biblical. They're going by their thinking, their will of how they've been brainwashed by religious Pharisees all of their life and many other examples.

Sin according to the Bible is transgression of the law. Amen. So the sinners don't understand because they don't keep God's commandments. They don't want to keep God's commandments.

But those that will keep his commandments, keep his holy days, keep his Sabbath day on Saturday from sunrise to sunrise, rather than the Islamic method of day to day of sunset to sunset, with the exception of the Day of Atonement and the Days of Unleavened Bread because those are fast days.

And that is the type of fasting or the method how you fast in ancient biblical times is mostly from either sunrise to sunset or from sunset to sunset because of the way you would want your belly empty before sunrise on the Day of Atonement.

So it's a true fast rather than getting up an hour before sunrise and filling your belly full.

So to make it a full fast, you would start at sunset the previous day, which is the previous day, not the beginning of the day, according to the Bible. Amen.

So again, even with when the Sabbath starts, people have been programmed and brainwashed by false religion through the Seventh-day Adventist women's cult. Amen.

As well as from the Jews, people have been deceived from every direction.

Verse 11 is next, verse 11.

From the time that the offering is removed and the abomination of desolation is made ready and granted, there should be 1,290 days, 1,290 days, which is the 1260 that we just talked about, plus 30.

And this 1,290 begins with the abomination of desolation, which is in heaven. So if the abomination of desolation is heaven, then so is the removal of the offering in heaven.

Also, people falsely interpret this as another evidence of a temple on earth so that there could be an abomination of desolation and an offering in a temple on earth removed.

But we know that these are heavenly events. People are normally very carnal minded, physically minded, thinking that it's a physical human being standing in a physical temple on earth.

Whereas the Bible is a spiritual book and a heavenly book, and these are heavenly events and spiritual events.

And we know that Daniel 11, verse 19, actually says the temple of God in heaven. But it never, as far as end time events for our generation, it never uses the term temple of God on earth.

It never uses that term. But it does use the term temple of God in heaven concerning end time events in the book of Revelation.

The book of Revelation has to be paralleled with the book of Daniel, Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel.

It has to be paralleled. You've got to read every one of them and compare scripture with scripture.

Line upon line, precept upon precept. That's the way you understand the Bible. Amen. So these are heavenly events.

So from the time of the abomination of desolation, when Michael the angel steps aside and the Antichrist sits momentarily in the seat of God in heaven, that's the abomination.

That's the blasphemous abomination. And from that moment until the day Jesus, or let's say not Jesus, because that's a few verses, still yet to go.

But the 1260 begins with from that moment of the abomination to the 1290 would bring us to the end of the great tribulation.

But you've still got the wrath after that. Still yet to go. So what's the difference between the 1260 and the 1290? 30 days.

Why is there an extra 30 days in this verse? Because you read Revelation 11, it's only 1260.

Now the extra 30 days, does it occur at the beginning of the 1260 or the end of the 1260?

It's obviously at the beginning of the 1260. Because this is talking about a starting point, beginning with the abomination.

And because here in a few verses later we're going to read about a different number of 1335.

So the difference between the 1290 and the 1335, which is 45 days, will be at the end of that time cycle.

So the 30 is at the beginning and the 45 is at the end, these two numbers surrounding the 1260.

So you've got 30 plus 1260 plus 45. Then the 45 you can also divide also, according to the book of Revelation, into two time frames within those 45 days.

And that is three and a half days of the two witnesses laying dead in the streets of Jerusalem.

Then after that you're left with a remaining 41 and a half days of wrath. And so the wrath of God that is poured out in the seven last plagues, after the church is called up into heaven for the marriage supper, that wrath is 41 and a half days.

Now let's go back to the 30 days at the beginning. At the abomination of desolation, that appearance in heaven, you have 30 days of fleeing.

That's people running for their lives all across the world, not just in Judea. Even though Jesus focused on Judea in Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 21, that those in Judea should flee immediately or not come back off their house, you know, all these different terms.

Yeah, He did say those in Judea to flee. He was focusing on Judea because he was walking and talking in Judea at the time that he was teaching.

So He focused on Judea. But common sense is that because the Great Tribulation is a worldwide event that you need to flee, use wisdom, use common sense, to flee into safety while you have the chance, as soon as you see that event.

Amen.

Now some people need to wait a week or two, or three weeks, or four weeks, or a few days, or whatever the case may be, for different individuals in different locations and different situations.

But in total, you've got 30 days to flee and hide and get into place wherever you're going to be before the nuclear bombs drop at the Gog and Magog War.

And that's the real invasion of Israel and America, the UK, and so forth at that time.

30 days of fleeing, which is a wonderful, wonderful thing that God is going to give his people that time.

But we also know that the scripture says that he will give power to the Antichrist to defeat the saints.

So only part of the church, even as it says in Revelation 12, that some of the church will go into the wilderness, into a hiding place to be protected by God and be nourished by God, it says.

From the face of the serpent, for, it says, I think it says for 42 months, 1260 days, or whatever it says, 1260 days, it does say.

So you've got 30 days of fleeing, and then God nourishes the church, protects the church, part of the church, only part of the church, for 1260 days.

Then you've got the two witnesses in Jerusalem, which is not Moses, not Elijah, because they're dead, amen, but two in time human messengers of God that will be in Jerusalem.

Laying dead in the streets for three and a half days, and then the church get caught up to heaven at the same time as they do.

At the blowing of the seventh trumpet, the last trumpet, the last trump, 1 Corinthians 15, amen.

Now let's continue. Verse 12 here, Daniel 12, verse 12. Blessed is he that abides, and then assembles, at the 1,335 days, amen. So, again, 45 days at the end.

In total, 1,335 days from the time of the abomination of desolation until Jesus' feet lands on the earth, on the Mount of Olives, Zechariah 14 and it shall cleave in two, and all the nations of the earth, including the Egyptians, including Gentiles, shall come out to the Feast of Tabernacles every year to worship Jesus, King of Kings, Lord of Lords, in Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles.

But it would also include Pentecost, of course, and Passover, of course, three times a year that people will be coming out to Jerusalem to worship Jesus.

And if you worship Jesus, that means He's God, Amen. Verse 13, and go rest, for there are yet days and hours for the fulfillment of the end, for you shall rest and you shall rise again to your glory at the end of the days, amen.

Also, think about something about that second chance. People say, people claim, if you've known the truth, you won't rise in the second resurrection, but you'll rise in a third just to death and damnation because you already had your chance and God's not going to give you a second chance.

They surely don't know God. Now think about this. Daniel, Moses, Isaiah, all those Old Testament people, Noah and Adam, even though they were faithful to God, obedient to God, good and true servants and prophets of God, they were not saved.

They were not, because you can't be saved through the blood of goats, sheep, animals, beasts.

Only the blood of Jesus can save you. Only the blood of Jesus can save you, not by your works, even though you must do the works and be obedient to God as a requirement.

But it's only the blood of Jesus and the Holy Ghost of Jesus that saves you, and they didn't have that.

So all of the Old Testament people must rise in the second resurrection to live for 100 years.

When it talks about Daniel rising, which all people will rise, everyone will, according to Revelation 20, everyone will rise, but some at the first and some at the second.

And they will live, the Old Testament people have to come back in the second resurrection, live that 100 years to learn about the blood of Jesus, to learn about the Holy Ghost, to learn about how to keep the New Covenant Passover, how to keep all the Holy Days and the New Covenant thinking, a different thinking, where you don't have to kill animals. It's a different thinking, it's a majorly, significantly different way of thinking, and they have to learn that before they can go into paradise, eternity. Amen.

God's plan is perfect, absolutely perfect. So I want us to add that, because that only came to me right now, never thought about that before, that the Old Testament people having to come back to the second resurrection is proof that the second resurrection, 100 years, is opportunity to learn and to be saved even if you already knew the truth in this life. So we've got to add that to the hell article, so John and Robert can both send that to me.

I'd like for two people to send it to me so that, to make for sure that neither person, to make for sure that nobody neglects the job, it gets done, it gets noted, it gets added to the website, it gets added to the AOB, to where we can make for sure it's noted.

This is proof, it's absolutely solid, undeniable proof that the second resurrection is not only for people that never knew the truth, it's not. Amen.

There's a lot of reasons why us, perhaps even I myself, plenty of reasons why I myself might enter the second resurrection, I don't know. But it's very possible. Amen. Plenty of reasons, lots of reasons.

Because in this life, our minds, our hearts, our lives, a lot of things about us are so corrupted and we need, we need that great tribulation to purify us, that great tribulation where the false Christians and false pastors don't want to go through is the most important thing that we need to purify us and get us ready so that we can pass the test and we can, what the Bible calls in Greek, hitting the mark, meaning passing the test and actually being able to be promoted into the first resurrection.

And if we are not complete in Christ, if we are not perfect in Christ, we will not enter that first resurrection, but we will have to enter the second.

Which is not a disgrace at all, it's not a disgrace, but a wonderful, a wonderful and great second chance, how loving God is and how perfect He is to give us that second chance.

So it's not disgraceful for God to give us another chance and another hundred years to get our hearts and minds purified and our lives purified and to also be able to think more clearly and have less deception even though there will still yet be deception, there will still be deception according to Revelation 20, but a lot less deception because you will have God's kingdom here on earth. Amen.

Okay, we have a good question from John.

And the question is concerning Purim, the Jews keep certain days, really all the days, a lot of times will be off a day or two, sometimes even by a whole month, between different groups.

A lot of different groups have different theories about how to calculate the days.

So is it, does it have to be on the day of Purim that we calculate in the True Church, or will it be the day of Purim for the Jews, if that's a day or two off, or a different group or whatever?

So that's a good question. And I would say that regardless of how that's fulfilled, that that would still be the fulfillment of Scripture. Amen.

That sometimes we can be wrong about the exact date. And I believe that God has free will himself, because nobody is his master. Amen.

Nobody can tell God that he has to do it exact way. He can do whatever he wants to do. Amen.

So if he wants to fulfill it by the Jews reckoning of their calendar, then he can do that.

Or if he wants to do it by the way we reckon it, he can do that. Nobody can tell him that he can't. Amen.

So we need to look at what date the Purim that they are forecasting for the Jews to see if it is a day off or a month off from us.

We need to look at that and be ready for whatever that possibility would bring us.

You know, be ready for all of those possible dates and then just let him fulfill it. Amen.

And if it's a day or two difference from what we're calculating, then you're going to, of course, have the mockers, the unbelievers that are going to say that we was wrong and that we're false prophets because we was 10 hours off or 12 hours or 24 hours off.

Because you just have that type of people. That type of people exist in this world that just don't want to believe that God actually speaks to people and teaches people things. Amen.

But you know that it would be a fulfillment. Amen. We need to be ready regardless of the exact timing of it.

But if you believe the Bible and you have common sense and you can count one, two, three, and with the help of a computer or calculator or a calendar that you're able to count 1335 days. Amen.

But it's totally impossible for this to be wrong as far as the number of days that come from the beginning point of Purim going through to the time of the Day of Atonement three and a half years later and all the holy days that fit in.

Now that calendar that prophetic calendar has been on the website for years now and a lot of different people looked at it objectively, which is exactly what I wanted you to do and won't even new people coming into this.

I want you to look at that calendar objectively. I want you to do your own calculations.

I want you to see if you can find a mistake. I want you to see and determine on your own accord about if this is biblical.

And does the do the numbers line up and is it possible for it to be wrong in any context at all to be inaccurate and wrong based on the Bible or based upon the calculation?

When you got not just one holy day, not just two holy days, not just three holy days, not just four holy days, but you got five holy days, five that match up to the exact number of days between each event of the book of Revelation where it tells you that there's a certain number of days or months between each event.

And it does that continually, continually, continually. And even Isaiah and other places in Daniel.

So and you line all that up and lay it on top of that calendar. How perfect that is.

How can that be inaccurate? How can that be wrong in any form or shape? So you figure it out for yourself. And if you want to believe it, then believe it.

And if you don't want to believe it, then don't believe it. You got free will. Amen. But how can it be wrong? Amen.

And that's based only upon holy days. It has nothing to do with years whatsoever at all. And if God wants to wait another 50 years, who dare any human on this earth to tell God he can't?

As long as He still fulfills it on the holy days. Amen. On the holy days. And even what the holy days represent is those end time events.

The blowing of the trumpets on the day of Trumpets. Amen. Okay, one more thing about the Day of Atonement. One more thing about the Day of Atonement that's coming up very soon now in October.

The Jewish tradition, which a lot of those Jewish traditions are actually true and correct and some of them are not true and correct.

But we can learn a lot from some of those Jewish traditions. And they say the Day of Atonement is the marriage date. Amen.

Of the Messiah. And they also say that also the Day of Atonement is when He decides for the following year.

And there's something about a five days and a ten days. You've got ten days from trumpets to the Day of Atonement.

So ten days from trumpets the first day of the seventh month until the Day of Atonement.

Those ten days. And Jewish tradition says it's those ten days every, every year that God looks at the conditions of the earth and the conditions of the people and the hearts of the people and makes a decision for the following year about what he's going to do and what he's not going to do.

And they teach that and they have taught that for thousands of years for thousands of years they have taught those ten days is when God makes a decision for the next year.

What He's going to do and why He's not going to do. And so these next ten days start in October 3 to October 13.

God will use those ten days if that tradition is correct and I believe it is that He will make his decision about whether to fulfill scripture of this coming time or to delay at least a minimum of another year or not.

And He will make his decision and nobody can control that decision not even through prayer and fasting. we cannot influence that decision except for only by obeying him in our personal lives because if He delays it's only for the purpose of waiting for people to get into place or condition whatever it is that He's looking for. He's looking for to satisfy what He wants for making that decision so every person individually needs to make for sure.

I'm not saying you got to be completely perfect yet because I know we need the tribulation for that.

But what I'm saying though is that this stage of your life this stage of your life you need to be up to a certain point whatever certain point that may be for you for God's will and each one of us need to get into the center of his will for this particular time frame of the stage of life that he has for us individually.

That's not necessarily perfection yet but we need to strive for perfection nevertheless.

And I had saw something a couple days or so ago that there was another chance, maybe another storm coming up to the Gulf of Mexico.

We'll have to check on the news about that, too, to see if there might be another storm that's going to come up this way or what and when.

So that's something to keep an eye on as well. So I need to look up in the news. I need to get caught up on the Hezbollah situation and the weather in England.

Okay. Thank you again, everybody, for listening.
