Good to see everybody. Let's go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father, in Jesus' name, thank you Lord for getting us through this week, through last night, and thus far this year.

Thank you Lord for your faithfulness and mercy. Thank you for this day of rest and worship and fellowship. Thank you Lord for this appointed time to gather together. Thank you for this message that we're about to receive and we pray your blessing and anointing upon this message and upon these services for it to penetrate the hardest hearts and hardest minds to deliver and to save, to help and to edify, to educate and inform, to help people comprehend your love, your power and your will.

We plead to clean the blood of Jesus over the church, over the congregations in Nigeria, as well as Cape Town, South Africa, and members around the world. We ask Lord for the increase of the church, a strengthening of the church, and additional brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus.

We ask Lord that your name be exalted in the church and in the world across the globe.

We thank you Father for the success of the Israeli military, that they are having great success in Gaza, destroying and eliminating many wicked people and wicked places and wicked devices of the enemy. Thank you Father almighty that Hezbollah is not yet at this time deploying hundreds or thousands of missiles, that there is a restraint there at this time. However, we know that there will not ever be restraint from the 666 nations and groups, but that all these things must come to pass and then the ends shall come. We thank you Lord for that fact, that there is an end of the modern world, that there is an end to injustice and wickedness and every wicked device, and that your kingdom will be brought to its fullness and shall never come to an end, but shall fill the earth with righteousness and truth and goodness. We look forward to that wonderful day. We praise your holy name and commit the service into your hands. Please speak through me, use me, teach us, lead us in guidance and direct us in all things. May your spirit and your will prevail in this service and in our lives, everyone. In the mighty name of Jesus we pray, so be it. Amen.

Praise God. Let's go to the book of Exodus chapter 34. Exodus 34. For people that might be listening for the first time, we're reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible, a restoration of the original scriptures using older manuscripts than what was used for the translation of the King James Version, including the Dead State Scrolls, which they had no knowledge of in the 1500s and 1600s. Amen. Of many other manuscripts that we discovered in the 1800s and 1900s that we had no knowledge of in the 1500s and 1600s. So it's really silly for people to think that the King James Version could possibly be the most accurate version when they did not even have access to the oldest Bible manuscripts at that time. They didn't. They did not have access to many of the oldest Bible manuscripts, Dead State Scrolls and other manuscripts and fragments. They didn't have access to it.

So it's impossible for the King James to be the most accurate Bible on earth when it was translated out of manuscripts from the 1200s. The King James was translated mostly from manuscripts that was only around 400 years old at the time. And yet today we have manuscripts almost 2000 years old. Actually over 2000 years old we have manuscripts from. The Dead State Scrolls are over 2000 years old. And at the time of the King James Publishing they mostly had mostly only manuscripts from only 400 years. That's pretty insane to think about it. And yet, papal Sam was the most accurate Bible. That's silly. Amen. Really silly. And a lot of the silliness is based on ignorance. But ignorance is no excuse according to the Bible. Amen.

It's no excuse. Today people have access to the Internet. They can look up anything that their mind could imagine to research, to study, to learn. There's no excuse for watering native people. Even in Africa there is free access to the Internet. There's no excuse for ignorance in this day and time.

In Exodus 34 we're going to read several verses but first I'm going to read verse 14 and then we'll go back a few verses. Exodus 34 verse 14. "And you shall not worship foreign gods. For Jesus the Theos, a jealous name, am jealous, the almighty Alpha."

For people listening for the first time, why are you seeing Jesus' name in the Old Testament? If you look in the King

James Version, which is not based on the oldest manuscripts, but very young manuscripts, it says the Lord, in all capital letters, letting you know that that's not the original word. But rather was inserted, the word Lord in that particular verse, inserted into scripture.

That's not accuracy. You cannot call that accuracy. The same would be true to any other translation of the word. That's the word Lord there because it was in that verse originally and we know that and there's no debate about it. Absolutely no debate about it.

But for anybody that has that event of knowledge about the Bible, they would know that the word the Lord in this verse was inserted. One's not there originally and there is total agreement across the board of anyone that has information and knowledge about the Bible.

But unfortunately there are many pastors that don't know that simple, basic, elementary fact of scripture. I guarantee you that if we have the ability to interview every pastor within 50 miles of where I'm standing, that you would be literally shocked at the huge percentage of those pastors, not even within 50 miles, but even over the entire surface of the globe. You would be literally shocked at the huge percentage of pastors, leaders of churches, deacons, and even TV evangelists that are ignorant of a very simple, basic, elementary fact of scripture of the Holy Bible that the word Lord in all capital letters, as it appears today in most translations, was inserted into the Bible. Basic, elementary fact, undebatable, undeniable, totally 100%, 200%, 1000% proven, and yet many, many, many leaders, so called, of the church do not know that and are not even taught that by their leaders and their teachers. So if it was inserted, we know that the true name of God was there, and people say it's Yahweh, and all this crap.

But Yahweh, we have proven also, undeniably, that Yahweh is not a Hebrew word at all, but rather is a Syrian word. We know that the pagan holidays, most of them have a Syrian origin. We know that Babylon, and Babylonian empire, and kingdom of Eljah, that they have a Syrian origin. We know that Nimrod has a Syrian connection. We know that Assyria is the origin of a whole lot, a great percentage of evil in this world, its origins, where it goes back to. People focus a whole lot on Babylon, and the origin of Babylon is Assyria.

It was Assyrian people, Assyrian language, Assyrian religion, Assyrian culture, Assyrian everything. The Babylonian empire was Assyrian to the core. People were ignorant of that fact, because they had not been taught it by their so called leaders. Amen. The blind leading the blind. When are people going to escape that trap, and that generational curse of the blind leading the blind? When are people going to break free from that?

When are the people going to even try to break free from that? Most people are very complacent and comfortable in their ignorance, and they don't want the truth, and that's just simply the fact and the reality of life. Most people call themselves Christians, and most people that think they were saved and that they're going to heaven, most of them, I'm talking about the majority, not just a few, but most of them are very comfortable and complacent in their ignorance, in their traditional deceptions and lies passed on to them from other people of blind leading the blind.

And the truth is, you would need a desire for truth in order to receive it. And we can witness to people until they're blue in the face, but if they're not interested, then they're not going to accept the truth. And that's just the reality of it, and you've got to accept that reality and live in reality. We love people we want to lead, all of our families and friends in the truth. We want the whole world to know the truth. So does God. Amen.

But the reality is, if they do not desire the truth, which they don't, then they're not going to accept the truth. We will continue to plant seeds, witness and evangelize at the right time, at the right place around the world. We'll continue to do that in the hopes that we find the next one person. It would not be hundreds, it would not be thousands, it would not be millions, like the false church claims, but rather the next one person that accepts the truth and get truly saved. The next one person. It might be you, it might not be you, or you're really and truly going to surrender to the Lord 100% fully and surrender all to Him and really and truly obey Him. I doubt it. The Lord sought over the entire surface of the entire planet and found only one man that is alive. I tell you, it's not much different today. It's really not much different today and I'm telling you the truth.

Nevertheless, we'll continue with this sermon and the message of the actual message of what this is really about today. It sounds like God is jealous. Amen.

A lot of atheists, mockers, they don't like that, they're not comfortable with that. They use that and use this verse in order to justify their hatred of God. God is jealous. They say that's wrong. They say that's evil, that God is a monster. But what man is not jealous of his bride, of his girl? What man is not? Amen. If a man is not jealous of his girl, then he's not a man. There's something wrong with that. He's not. If he loves her, if he really wants her, then that is by nature what he will be, is jealous, by nature. Amen.

I know it can go overboard in the human nature, so man being paranoid, but being jealous itself is not evil, it's not wrong, it's not bad. By nature, every man will be jealous of any girl that he desires. Period. Amen. And that's unavoidable. If he does desire her, he will be jealous, absolutely unavoidable. It's a fact of life, it's a fact of nature, it's a law of gravity. Amen. God is the husband of the church. The church is his bride, his woman, his girl. And he does love the church very dearly, so much that he even died for her. Amen. What greater love can you have? His love is the deepest love, the most sincere love, the truest love, and the first love. Amen. He has a right to be jealous over the church, especially when the church is looking at, admiring, and for participating in adultery.

She is. The church is listening to false prophets, false ministers, false apostles, false evangelists, false preachers on TV, on the radio, in magazines, on CDs, on websites. The church is committing adultery against herself and against God. Compromising, being trying to be a member of two different churches at one time, that's adultery. Amen. For the church is, in biblical symbolology, female. The church is female in biblical symbols, and the female is to have only one husband. And yet she continues to look and listen and pay attention to representatives of the church that is not his church, the traditional church, the Babylonian church.

She is making eyes at him, at multiple churches, at multiple pastors. She is making eyes, she is paying attention to her, she is admiring, she is listening, and one man would not be jealous of a woman that does that. Amen. And not only to preachers and churches and denominations and their representatives, but also to our holidays.

The holidays of those false churches, those traditional churches, those denominations. St. Valentine's Day, which is Catholic to the core, but an origin even older than the Catholic Church. Going back to ancient, heathen, pagan religions, which Catholic Church is as well, of course, but an even older religion of which the Catholic Church was born out of. Ash Wednesday, exactly the same. The Roman Catholic pagan holiday of Ducky, with the origin of a pagan religion even older than the Roman Catholic Church. Everything has an origin, does it not? You know, everything has an origin and most people don't care what the origin is. Most people, most Christians do not care what the origin is. But the origin matters to God. Amen. The Bible says that if thousands of the root be evil, then the tree be evil too. You know what the Bible says? They're not making that up. Maybe you can research that. Amen.

Let's go back to all the way up to the top of the page. If you have an Alpha and Omega Bible you can go to verse 7. Then Exodus 34 verse 7. Exodus 34 is page 122.

"And keeping justice and mercy for thousands, taking away iniquity, which is sin, taking away unrighteousness and sins, and he will not clear the guilty, bringing the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children to the third and the fourth generation."

And again the mockers, the atheists were saying this is proof that God is a monster. But the reality is it's not God's fault and it's not God's desire to punish children or anyone. The Bible says in Peter that he is not willing for any man to perish, for anyone to perish, but for all to come to everlasting life. God does not desire to punish anyone. God does not desire to bring the punishment of sin upon adult or child or descendant. It's not his desire, but it is rather the need. The need.

There is a need to bring justice in the earth. Who would not want justice? And who would not want justice? And this is what this is about is justice. People don't understand that the context of these children and children, these descendants, is heathen, pagan, demonic generations. Generational sins that were brought down from parent to child to grandchild throughout many generations of families and cultures and nations being raised and taught demonic ways. Taught to hate God. Taught to hate the God of Israel like the Palestinians and the Muslims are. Taught generation after generation after generation. They teach their children to hate the Jews, to hate Israel, to hate America, to hate Christians, to hate, to hate, to hate, to hate and to murder and to terrorize. Such civilizations, well you can call them civilizations, but such cultures and such nations and such peoples deserve to have their children taken from them and their children's children taken from them. Only the righteous judge Almighty God is righteous enough to do that. Amen. That's actually showing mercy to those very same people who are being exterminated. To cut them out of their misery, even as you were a dog that is suffering long term in agony and defeat. Cut them out of his misery. Amen.

If you cannot save him, destroy him. They cut down a horse. They cut down animals. They put down dogs. What does the Bible and even Jesus himself call the pagan people? Dogs. Even Jesus himself out of his own mouth. He called them dogs, hypocrites and poisonous snakes and swine, out of Jesus' mouth.

And yet how many so-called Christians and so other people think they are saved and think they're going to heaven just because they never murdered anybody and they think that justifies them going to heaven? How many of those people have you heard out of their own mouth say that Jesus never offended anyone, never pointed out sin, never called names, never insulted people, never offended anyone, never judged anyone?

I've heard all of that. Haven't you? Because somebody told them that. They heard it somewhere. They read it in some comic book and that is called a church flyer or church panther or church book or church magazine or church CD. I call it a comic book. Amen. Fairy tales.

God is jealous. Amen. Because the people who are called after him, who are called Christians, Christians, who are committing adultery with all kinds of false religions, Buddhism, Hinduism, yoga, Sunday churches, Trinity churches, Christmas churches, Easter churches and even the Halloween churches. And the list goes on and on and on with all the men of religions that the so-called Christians are sleeping with. Amen. God is jealous and He has every right to be. He has a right to go into a jealous fit. And I tell you, His jealous fit is not a child's temper. Like I see other people having. You can tell when somebody gets angry whether the child is tempering or whether it's righteous anger. A huge difference is very easy to discern. God is masculine. Alpha. Amen. When he gets angry, he has a good reason for it. And he has a good reason to bring the justice to the children's children throughout generations.

Verse 8, Moses hurried and bowed to the earth and worshipped. Moses did. He did not delay, but he hurried to bow down and worship. Amen. Many people are complacent.

Moses served with passion. Verse 9, He said, If I had felt grace before you, let my Lord go with us, for the people are stiff-necked. Amen. And you should take away our sins and our iniquities and we will be yours. Verse 10, And Jesus said to Moses, Behold, I establish a covenant for you in the presence of all your people, how to do glorious things, which have not been done in all the earth or in any other nation. And all the people on you who are shall see the works of Jesus, that they are wonderful, which I will do for you.

You should take heed to all things whatsoever I command you. Behold, I cast before you the face of the Amorites and the Canaanites. I cast out, it says really. Behold, I cast out before you the face of the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Pherezites, the Chettites, the Hivites, and the Gergesites and the Jebusites. Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time you make a covenant with the dwellers of the land into which your entering, lest it be to you a stumbling block among you. You shall destroy their altars, breaking them to pieces, their pillars, and you shall cut down their groves and the graven images of their gods you shall burn with fire. You shall not worship foreign gods, for Jesus the Theos, a jealous name, is jealous, the almighty Alpha. Lest at any time you make a covenant with the dwellers on the land and go whoring after their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and they call you in need of their sacrifices. And that you would take of their daughters to your sons and should give your daughters to their sons, your daughters should go whoring after their gods and your sons go whoring after their gods. And you shall not make to yourself any molten gods, but rather you should keep the feast fiesta of unleavened bread and so forth. Amen.

God is a jealous God. He says that we should not participate in those religions at all. None. Zero. Amen. Do not participate in foreign religions, whether it's from Syria or Gaza, Saudi Arabia or China or Tibet or India or Utah or Rome. We need to not participate in those religions, those foreign gods and their decades.

People are whores. The young they think were such good Christians. The young they were whores. People think there's only one judgment day coming. But I'll tell you, judgment is already on the earth right here right now. Every day judgment comes to the wicked and they don't even know it. They don't even know they're being judged by God. They don't know that their sicknesses and diseases are brought on to them by their sin, even though it's listed in the Bible. They don't know the very basic elementary principles of God himself and they think they know God and love God and yet they're such hypocrites. They're dogs and swine according to the mouth of Jesus. And I'm just repeating the words of Christ.

People don't like it that I point out sin. People don't like it that I point out the sins of the traditional church, of every straight corner church in your neighborhood. They don't like it. They think that I should be much, much, much more softer, just like everybody else, just like those preachers. That I should be more loving, more tolerant. But I'll tell you there is judgment in the earth and that is increasing by the day, by the week, by the month, by the year. The judgment is increasing in what they call the new world order, in what they call Islam and communism and dictatorships and evil nations. God calls His power, His rod of indignation, His rod of wrath. Amen. It's not George Soros or the new world order or the Jews that is going to cause the failure of the American economy. It is not the Jews and the bankers and George Soros and Bill Gates and Klaus Schwab that will crush the economy worldwide and bring death out of millions, but rather it is God Himself using those people, using other people, using the Muslims in the 666 nations and His rod of wrath. If you read the Bible, you would know these things already. Ezekiel 38 does not say it is George Soros that would bring Russia into Israel, but it says, I will bring. God says, I will bring them. I will put a hook in their nose and bring them, or whatever it says, to bring them into Israel. God will.

God will. The Bible talks about, in different words, the end time anti-Christ, the one it calls the Christian nation of Assyria, which could be nobody else but Bashar Assad. There is no other president of Assyria. If anybody has any logic, even common sense, even a manager brain can figure out that the monitoring nation of Assyria is Syrian, even though they were two separate things at one time.

But as far as end-time prophecy is simple, people think end-time prophecy is difficult to understand. They make it difficult because they don't want to believe what it says. They make it difficult. And the false preachers, they have filled their minds with all kinds of false interpretations, have made it difficult. But if you push out of your mind, out of your heart, out of your belief, all the junk you've heard all of your life and just read the Bible and believe it, that's simple. Prophecy is extremely simple.

Who is the anti-Christ? That's written out in black and white in the Bible, but people don't believe it because of all the trash they've accepted, accepted, accepted their entire life. And you may want to fight the Bible and say, "No, no, no, it cannot be the Syrian president. Like the Bible says. But rather it has to be somebody else, it has to be Biden, it has to be Trump, it has to be this or king Charles or the president or the king of Jordan, it has to be this or two of that person, even though the Bible does not list those people."

They don't want to give up their adultery. They don't want to give up the traditional doctrines and the traditional religions and traditional practices. They don't want to give up the foreign religions and foreign gods and foreign practices. They don't want to give up one of those things for God. They do not choose God first. They do not put God first. God is not their God, no matter how much they try to pray to him.

The book of Isaiah says I'm sick and tired of your prayers. The book of Isaiah says I'm sick and tired of your fasting. The book of Isaiah says a lot of things that people need to read, but they won't read it because it doesn't tickle their ears. It doesn't tickle their ears from how I read it. If I read that God is justice, that he's bringing punishment and justice upon the earth and destroying the wicked, it doesn't tickle their ears. It's too hard for them. It's too much meat for them. They would rather suck the breasts of Babylon. They would rather stay a baby and throw their infant temperance. They don't want the deep things of God, only the superficial things. Such things are worthy to be pointed out. Somebody's got to point it out. Most other preachers won't point it out. Somebody's got to point it out because it might just wake you up. It might just wake you up. Amen. It might just help you to have a greater passion for the truth and see things for what they really are.

Let's jump down to verse 18. To keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in comparison to worshiping false gods. People don't understand that when you do Christmas or Easter or Ash Wednesday or Saint Valentine's Day or Halloween or even Sunday to go to churches on Sunday or even watch or listen to the Sunday preachers, people don't realize that that is worship of foreign gods. They don't realize it because they don't seek God. They don't seek the truth and they don't want the truth. If they really sought God and wanted the truth, they would understand such basic, elementary things. Even the encyclopedia and many other books in your local library will tell you where to go. You don't even have to have money. There is free internet across the globe. More and more every year. Free internet. If you don't know how to access it, look it up. You can learn how to get free internet in many, many, many, many nations across the globe. More and more every year. If it wasn't available six months ago, it may be available to you now because it is multiplying. World Economic Forum, United Nations, other groups are all trying to get free internet available and accessible to every person on the planet.

There is no excuse for anybody's ignorance. No excuse. Keeping the unleavened bread is in comparison in the context to worshiping false gods, which would be Christmas and Easter and Halloween and Sunday.

Why does it immediately mention God's true holy days after just saying that you're not to worship false gods and foreign gods and that God is jealous? Why is it all of a sudden, bang, keep God's holy days, keep the unleavened bread? Because there is a subliminal holy ghost message here of warning against false holy days, pagan holy days. But people don't see that because number one, you don't have the holy ghost. Number two, they don't have any logical common sense. Number three, people speed read instead of reading carefully and slowly and thinking about what they read. And number four, people don't want the truth before they can't see the truth. It's invisible to them.

But yeah, it's clear as black and white, when I look at this, it's as clear as black and white. It's a comparison between the true holy days and the fake holy days in the context of foreign gods. Amen.

People think that the biblical holy days like Passover and unleavened bread, they think that that's done away with. That's just Old Testament. It's just old kind of news. They think it died with John the Baptist. But where do you read that in the New Testament?

People think that the word law refers to everything written in the Old Testament. That's how ignorant people are. The thing when Paul preached against the law and the law is done with and you're not covered by the law and all this and all this and you're given the grace, you know, as if God changed and as if the entire Old Testament should be thrown away. Many, many so-called Christians will only read, only read, only read the New Testament their entire lifetime. From their birth to the death, many of them will read only the New Testament.

No wonder they're so ignorant. They've thrown away more than half of the Bible. I don't call that grace. I call it hatred against God. Amen. Paul himself, the, the new covenant apostle Paul, said let us keep the feast. Specifically, in 1 Corinthians talking about the feast on 11th grade is very holy day. 1 Corinthians 5 verse 8 is where you would find that if you want to write it down. 1 Corinthians 5 verse 8. So that you know I'm not making it up. But the apostle Paul said to keep the feast on 11th grade. He said.

So how can it be done away with? And he wrote out decades after Christ's crucifixion and resurrection. Not before the crucifixion and resurrection, but decades after the crucifixion and resurrection. So if Paul said let us keep the feast in the context of writing specifically about the feast on 11th grade, which is undeniable, that was the context, absolutely undeniable, it says in the very next verse.

And also Paul wrote in Colossians 2 verse 16, to not let anyone condemn you for keeping the holy days, the new moons of God. To not let anyone condemn you for keeping those days. That is what he told the new covenant church. And it's in black and white and it's easy and simple to understand, but yet in the blind they would twist that verse around to make it seem like he's saying it's done away with, when he's saying the exact opposite. The people are brainwashed and programmed to twist the scriptures completely around. That's demonic. Amen.

Let's go over to chapter 20 now. Exodus 20. And immediately when I say Exodus 20 it's a commandment to your mind. What? Ten Commandments. Amen. Ten Commandments.

Look at verse 4. That's the psychic commandment. You should not make to yourselves an idol or likeness of anything whatsoever things are in the heaven above or wonders in the earth beneath or whatever in the waters under the earth.

You should not bow down to them nor serve them for I am Jesus your Theos, the almighty Alpha, am jealous.

Repaying the sins of the dads unto their children into the third and fourth generations of them that hate me.

God knows people hate him. You can't hide that from him. He knows it. Amen. And it's in the context of false religion, false gods, the first commandment have no other gods. Remember? Context is people serving other gods in the form of statues, pictures and other carved images upon the earth including the Christmas tree if you read during my idea. Amen.

Back then they had no technology to take a picture or a video. But today the modern equivalent of a statue or carved image would be a video, a horror movie, a Halloween movie, a Halloween decoration in your yard made out of plastic or stone or glass or any other thing it would be made out of.

In recent days I have been attacked over and over and over and over and over again on Facebook for posting simple basic elementary truth such as a comparison of two houses. A picture of one house that was a simple basic house with a front lawn that's empty just like a lawn normally is, no decorations out there, basic house compared to the second image of a house that has all kinds of Halloween decorations, ghosts and witchcraft, death and bones and skulls and spiders and blood, death and gore, darkness and evil and wickedness all over the lawn and the house itself just totally decked out with nothing but demonic imagery. A very simple basic elementary comparison, which house would demons be more comfortable dwelling at? Very simple question. The answer is obvious I'm saying. Demons would feel more comfortable at the house that is displaying death and gore and evil and witchcraft, bones and skull, all this crap.

Anybody with one ounce of brain material should be able to answer that correctly, even without the Holy Ghost, even without creation.

And yet, so-called Christians, one after another after another, saying, this is not in the Bible, the Bible does not say that a lawn decorated with Halloween decorations is demonic and that demons are more comfortable in this house rather than the other house. What Bible verse do you read that in?

Such a person deserves Hamas because they are very demonic and they're teaching their children and their children's children the exact same foolishness, stupidity and hatred of God. When the great tribulation does come and the electricity turns off and they have no more access to internet and they have no more access to a local grocery store or local pharmacy and they have no more access to colleges and education and money and career and brand new clothes, then the bombs start dropping from the Russian and Chinese military and then the soldiers, the Russian and Chinese soldiers come to the door and gather up their children, God will show no mercy to that heathen and neither should God show mercy to that heathen nor their children. Because God is the God of justice and vengeance is the Lord's. The God of justice will put an end to it and will wipe out entire generations because there must come an end to this stupidity, to this wickedness. There must come an end to wickedness of every age, of every culture, of every color, of every culture and nationality. There must come an end to all wickedness of every form.

There must come an end to the swine, to the dogs, to the poisonous vipers. There must come an end to all suffering. There must come an end to the generational sins and generational curses. There must come an end to all darkness and wickedness upon the entire earth and it will come in stages, even as Israel right now has the arm of the Lord.

Israel is bringing judgment in stages to Gaza, the Palestinians and the Moslems, in Syria, in Lebanon, in Gaza, in multiple locations the form of the Lord through the missiles and military might of the army of the Lord. That right now is Israel, but will be coming through Syria. Right now the arm of the Lord is in the Israeli military might but that will transition out of their hands into the hands of Syria, Russia and China and Iran. That transition will occur and then the judgment of God will come to Israel and to America, the United Kingdom and Ireland and Scotland and these Hindu presidents of our Prime Ministers and Mayors. The judgment will come to India and China and Tibet again. The judgment will spread across the globe and then the arm of God will transition yet again out of the arms of the evil axes of the 666 nations back over into the hands of the Israeli military and this time even the American military.

Then they will transition again to the British Empire military and God will turn the war around in the final year, in the final months, weeks and days of the great tribulation and God will start giving victory to the tribes of Israel once again after they have finally repented and returned back to God and not until then. Not until then. There will finally be in that final year of the great tribulation a real revival of the people of God and not until then according to the Bible, just read it. Amen.

Talking about images here in Exodus 20. Images, there's more ways than one to have an image. More ways than one to have an image.

Turning from the 2nd Commandment in Exodus 20, let's read 1 Thessalonians chapter 5, verse 22, There's more ways than one to have an image. Amen.

Verse 22 says, "Abstain from all appearance of evil".

Abstain, boycott, avoid, all appearance of evil. If you don't think Halloween has an image of evil, then you're blind, deaf and mute. You're a walking zombie upon the earth. You're the walking dead. A robot. Many people are.

Even surprisingly, even among the Pentecostals, which blows my mind because many Pentecostals traditionally have been overly legalistic and very much abstaining from carnal things, even overboard. So it shocks me that many Pentecostals were the ones attacking me for speaking against evil. But it really should not surprise me because they are, just like all the traditional denominations, they are still the blind leading the blind. But it has definitely gotten much worse in recent years. Definitely. Amen. Even the best of the worst have gotten tremendously worse. Very sad. Abstain from all appearance of evil.

It doesn't have to use the word Halloween. It doesn't have to use the word decorations. All appearance of evil. All appearance of evil, whether it's a tattoo, a comic book, a video game. It don't make any matter at all what shape or form or medium that it takes. It doesn't have to be carved. It could be on print. It could be on video. It could be even on audio. It doesn't matter what form it takes. If it's evil, shun it. We should shun evil. We should shun the works of darkness.

And it doesn't require the Holy Ghost to see that Halloween has the appearance of evil in multiple forms. Amen. On multiple levels.

And even a child would know that, but they become programmed by the parents and grandparents saying, "Oh honey, don't be afraid. You don't need to be afraid. It ain't going to hurt you. This is fun."

By nature, the child wants to avoid the scary images. By nature, a child knows it's wrong and doesn't want to have anything at all to do with it. And they don't think it's fun. They want to run away from it. They don't want to touch it. They don't want nothing to do with it. But the parents force it down their throats.

And you're saying you love your children. And yet you force it down their throats to do what is contrary to nature. To love the evil. And people are like, "it's harmless child's play. It's kids fun."

(It's like if) We want the kids to eat this sugar. We want the kids to become addicted to the sugar. We want the kids to be addicted and feed them more and more every year and multiply that so when they grow up they'll be fat and unhealthy and have diabetes.

People want the children to serve the devil and teach THEIR children to serve the devil and feed it down their children's throats.

It's sickening. And it has an abomination against God. And it is committing adultery against God and against righteousness and against your own children. It's an abomination against your own children to teach them to worship the devil. To participate and compromise with witchcraft and darkness and the forces of death. And to copy what the druid witches were doing thousands of years ago. To copy their exact practices of going door to door "trick or treating". There is an origin to everything.

But they don't care because it's fun for the children. Even though it was not fun for the children. But you forced it down their throats and brainwashed your children! It's sickening.

The world deserves what is coming to them from the arms of Hezbollah and Hamas and then Iran and then China and Russia. And it is coming to America. Those militaries, that arm of the Lord, the rod of God's wrath, the Assyrian anti-Christ is coming to all nations according to the book of Daniel and Revelation both. It will be in every nation on earth. You cannot run and speak from it.

And you're not going to fly away in some Disney fairy town that they call the pre-tribulation rapture. If you read the Bible, that ain't going to happen. It says, after those days of the tribulation, shall the son of man come in the clouds. After the tribulation, after the tribulation, after, after, after, after, after, after, after, after. Can you show me even one verse where it says before the tribulation? No. Amen. You can't. You can search the scriptures from A to Z, from the first page to the last page. And you would never, ever, ever find words before the tribulation.

But yet they want to teach it and shove it down the throat of every person in the church building and their children and their children and their children and these generation after generation of heathens worshipping every false god that passes by you. Every demonic pagan holiday rooted in Satan worship. Christmas is rooted in Satan worship. Easter is rooted in Satan worship. St. Valentine's Day is rooted in Satan worship. All right. Halloween and even Sunday worship is rooted in Satan worship.

No. Christ was not resurrected on Sunday morning. The Bible very clearly says that the women came while it was still yet dark before the dawn of the first day of the week. It says that. And the tomb is already empty. It says that.

But yet people want to believe the street corner preacher and the TV evangelist that if they give them one dollar and only one dollar every Sunday, that that is the admission price to tell me a fairy tale. Amen.

There's more than one way to have appearance of evil. And I'll tell you a preacher standing at the pulpit on Sunday morning every Sunday morning is appearance of evil. Amen. Because it's based on a lie. That's why there is an appearance of evil in the eyes of God. Maybe not in your eyes because you don't have the eyes of God. But in the eyes of God, a man or a woman, as it is so many often these days, as ridiculous as I is, a woman standing in the pulpit on Sunday morning every Sunday morning is an abomination against God. And it breaks the first commandment. And it breaks the fourth commandment. And it breaks two commandments, which it does without debate. And it breaks all the commandments and even the commandment against adultery because it's adultery against God. So it breaks at least three. And therefore it breaks all commandments. It comes as a total package. You can't break it apart as the churches try to do.

A lot of people know what day the Sabbath is and they don't care. Willful disobedience. Willful disobedience. Knowing the truth and neglecting it. Amen. What does Hebrews 10 say about that? Hebrews 10, yep, Hebrews 10. That if you continue to sin willfully, that there is no more sacrifice of sins. Is that not what it says? And yet they willfully break the Sabbath willfully. No respect to God's holy day. No respect.

Willful sinning, there is no more a sacrifice for sins for you. And yet you keep doing it week after week, week after week, year after year, even after you've heard the true preaching. Even after you've heard the true preaching. To continue to willfully disobey and disrespect God. I tell you, the stroke is coming. I tell you, the cancer is coming upon you and you can run out the door but it's going to chase you down. Amen. You can't run from God. He will chase you down the street. The heart attack is coming. I don't have to fear because the truth is the truth. Amen.

The judgment is already in the earth and it's multiplying day by day, as Israel's ground incursion into the state of Satan. Gaza is what they call it. But it is the state of Satan as the arm of God comes down upon them and rains from the sky. Rain baby rain. Amen. Those missiles literally killed probably I hope over a thousand idiots last night and I hope tonight it will be double that number. I'm not preaching hate against humans. I'm preaching hate against demon worshippers. They're not humans. They're animals. They're monsters. They're dogs. They're swine. They were poisonous snakes. Out of the mouth of Jesus Christ himself.

The people don't see things through the eyes of God. They see everything through the eyes of babies that are addicted to the Babylonian breast milk that tickles their ears. They don't see things through the eyes of God.

They're babies. And they detest this type of preaching because they detest God. His word. His word. They detest His word and how He looks at things. They define God and this type of preaching as being a monster. But they are the monsters. They are the poisonous snakes. Amen.

Let's go back to the Old Testament. Let's go to Deuteronomy chapter 4. Deuteronomy is the fifth book of the Bible. The Leviticus remembers Deuteronomy chapter 4. Page 204 if you have the Alpha and Omega Bible paperbacks. Page 204. Deuteronomy chapter 4 verse 24. Deuteronomy 4 verse 24.

For Jesus your Theos is a consuming fire. A jealous Theos. A jealous God.

Amen. God is a consuming fire. People have this false image of God that He is still a lamb. That He is still an infant. But I tell you even when Jesus was only a teenager, He was still yet more Alpha than almost every man on earth today. Well, any man on earth today. Amen. People think of God as a weak one. But He is the lake of fire. People think of God as being three different men in heaven, each of them about six foot tall. And that is the image that a lot of people have of God. As if He is a six foot man, three of them, sitting on two or three different thrones even though they never mention a third throne and God and the Scriptures never mention a third throne, never mentions three guys sitting on one throne either, never mentions three guys on one throne, never mentions three guys on two thrones, never mentions three guys on three thrones, but yet they still what they teach. Three guys. They still what they teach even though God would never mentions that. Amen.

He is the lake of fire. He is a consuming fire. Even though His fire will be eternal, He will not torture these idiots forever. But He will put them out of their misery. That's the God of love. That is the God of love. That is the God of righteousness. That He will put the idiots out of their misery forever instead of torturing them forever because He is not a monster. He is not. Amen. And the God that would torture the idiots forever would be a monster. Amen.

But He is not a monster. He will even have mercy even on the most wicked. He will have mercy even on the most wicked. Amen. To put them out of their misery.

In the past couple of weeks God has taught us in this ministry that the lake of fire will be mostly blue. Even though we have been raised from childhood to believe in Dante's Inferno, of the underground hale that burns the red flames of a red devil with a pitchfork. It's a fairy tale. Amen. It's a comic book taught by the traditional churches, the majority of them.

But God is a consuming fire and it will be blue because it says repeatedly throughout the Bible, repeatedly, more than just one or two places, that it will burn with sulfur. And He did bring the fire down from the sky upon the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and other multiple cities. It was more than just those two cities. It talks about the cities of the plain. It was more than just Sodom and Gomorrah. And we have found an archaeological evidence of a fire burning with sulfur in that same region. Proof that God exists. Proof of what the Bible says. That it did rain with sulfur, which burns blue.

Sulfur burns blue. It's easily documented throughout the Internet and multiple sources. Sulfur burns blue. It would have been blue fire coming down out of the sky, not red. Same thing with all the Bible verses Revelation 19 and Revelation 20 of the make of fire burning with sulfur, which we know by science burns blue, not red.

I believe that there will be patches upon the earth where there will be some red flames and orange flames and yellow flames in different colors. I do believe that there will be patches of where the heat of the presence of God will be a little bit less, slightly less than the majority of the lake of fire which would devour the entire earth because I believe there will be certain wicked people, and I could be wrong, but there are certain scriptures in the Bible that leads me to believe that there will be certain wicked people that will burn longer, that won't be annihilated as quickly because they deserve a greater judgment. And their fire could be red to make it last longer in their agony and torture to last a little bit longer, perhaps another day or two or three.

But as far as eternity goes, they will still yet be annihilated and wiped out of existence and consumed away into smoke and be no more. The Bible is extremely clear about these that there will be ashes, that they will be burnt up, that there will be neither root nor branch left, not a kind of floor. Read it for yourself and with your own eyes. Read it yourself and trust me. Read the Bible and read it again and again and start believing it for the first time when it says. Amen. God is a consuming fire. He is jealous. He burns with jealousy like any good man would. Amen.

Deuteronomy 12, chapter 12 now. Chapter 12, verse 29. Chapter 12, verse 29. If Jesus your pharaohs shall utterly destroy the nations to whom you go in there and inherit the land, that would be the natives. Amen. That would be the Canaanites, the Philistines, the Hittites, the Jebusites, the aboriginals. No, I can't say that. Amorites? So, ha ha ha. No, you're right. You got the right word there. The aboriginals are these? The aboriginals. Yeah. And the Cherokees and the Chickasaws and the Navajos and many others. Many other Hittites and men. Even the Amorites and men. Jesus will consume the obviously. Even Satan himself and all the fallen angels will be consumed and exhumed because as long as they exist, there won't be peace on earth and there won't be paradise and there won't be happiness forever. All wickedness in every form will be consumed into nothingness as if they never existed ever. Even their memory will be wiped out. Anything less than that would not be paradise. But Jesus, your Theos, shall destroy them.

When we go into these nations like the Bible commands us, and I'll tell you I'm all for having gone into Iraq. Many Americans have betrayed their nation and themselves to protest having gone into Iraq. It wasn't wrong to go into Iraq because they had already invaded Kuwait. Already. They had already threatened the President of the United States and the safety of their American forces in Israel. They had already invaded Kuwait and endangered American interests and Israeli interests and the interests of the free world. They did deserve to be envied and they did have weapons of mass instruction — destruction. (Jared: "The war of the pen is worse than the war of the sword right now. Propaganda.") And their propaganda has won. The Islamic 666 nations. That mis-speech was a fitting word, instruction, because they did win the war of propaganda. To even turn Americans — many, many Americans against our own military and against our own government and against common sense.

We have tons of proof of their weapons of mass destruction. Of their chemical warfare and Iranian and how they were planning on building nuclear bombs to use against Israel. We have plenty of evidence against this. Total evidence. Overwhelming evidence. And yet, you'll find so many people saying we never found evidence. It's a fairy tale. People are so brainwashed in how quickly they forget.

The Bible does tell the Israeli nations, America, the British empire, to go and dwell in the land of the human people. It wasn't just the Jebusites of 2000 and 3000 years ago, but rather it's even the human nations of today that we should be doing this. Conquering evil. That's the duty of the Israeli nations. The English nations. They should be conquering evil.

And being that you conquer that evil and you enter into those nations, you should not worship their gods. Verse 30 and the end of verse 30, how do these nations act toward those gods? I'll do likewise. He says don't do that. He says don't say that. But that's what they do. Verse 31, you should not do so to your God for they have sacrificed to their gods the abominations of Jesus which he hates. For they burn their sons and daughters in fire to their gods.

I tell you what, the Palestinians do burn their children as a sacrifice to their gods every time that they send in a terror squad into Israel to murder people. And as they teach their generations and next generation and next generation, they are sacrificing and burning their children. They are doing this. It may not be on an altar of stone or with a knife or with a chant, but it is a sacrifice to Satan. When they teach their children to hate the Jews, to hate Israel, to hate America, to hate the British Empire, to hate colonialism, when they teach their children to hate colonialism and colonization, when they teach them to hate those things, when they teach them to hate the white people, the English people, the American people, the Israeli people, they are sacrificing their children to Satan. Absolutely. Absolutely. Sacrifice comes in many forms.

Verse 32, every word that I command you this day, it shall you observe to those not add to it or diminish from it. That every Christmas and every Sunday morning, every Easter, actually these days, St. Valentine's Day and other traditional pagan holidays, such as St. Patrick's Day, they, the American people and worldwide are sacrificing their children at Halloween and other times of the year to Satan, teaching their children's children to do the exact same thing, to go against nature, to go against God and to do that which is abominable against the Lord.

God is a jealous God and He will carry the ends and the time is coming. The time is coming for God's real ends. Time is short. As we say, the Middle Eastern war increased in the past 24 hours, even though Hezbollah is holding back right now, even though Iran is holding back to some degree right now. That restraint will not last forever, whether we have six months left or a year and a half left. A year and a half goes by quickly. God has been very gracious to us to give us delays, as the Bible says, and eventually there will be no more delay, which means there was delays. Amen. God has been gracious to us to give us, I believe, multiple delays, to give us another year and another year and another year when it could have happened.

God has been most gracious to us to give us more time to get rid of spiritually, mentally and physically. But He will not restrain forever. Judgment must come because there is not repentance until judgment comes. Amen. There is not repentance by far and wide in the nations, in the churches, in so-called Christians. There is not repentance until judgment comes and finally people are like, "Oh, I'm getting a bad spanking, I've got to repent."

Only then, and only then, will repentance come to most of these stiff-necked, stubborn people who call themselves Christians.

And I'm harder on Christians than I am on atheists, and other religious people than I am on the atheists, because I can't blame the atheists for hating Christians and Christianity. I cannot blame them because the traditional Christian is nothing more than a hypocrite. Amen. And the traditional Christian is stupid and foolish and idiot. Amen. Believe in every lie of Satan and teaching their children's children every lie of Satan and believing in nothing but fairy tales. So I cannot blame the atheists for hating fake Christianity. They are more righteous than the Christians.

And in many cases the atheist is more knowledgeable about history and the Bible and scientific facts. They are more knowledgeable than your average everyday Christian who is stuck in ignorance and stupid. Amen.

So if you want to witness to somebody that has the possibility of actually getting saved, I would say witness to the atheists. Because the so-called Christian is so lost, so deeply lost, so deeply programmed, so deeply brainwashed that it's almost impossible to penetrate their hard hearts and their hard minds. You would be much better evangelizing and witnessing to the atheists. It is a little bit more open-minded and it has a little bit more, actually a lot more common sense. So seek out the unbeliever because the believers, there's not much hope for them. Seek out the unbeliever and talk an intelligent conversation with them. They will be shocked to meet a Christian that has intelligence. They will be shocked to find a Christian that has intelligence, that actually knows something about the Bible and the history thereof. They actually know something about the origin of the pagan holidays.

They will be shocked, and I know this for a fact, they are usually shocked any time a Christian knows the origin of the holidays. They're shocked. What? A Christian that knows something? They're shocked when they find a Christian that knows something about history. I'm telling you the truth.

People don't like it and I call people idiots, but the truth is the Bible is full of the word idiots in different words, synonyms. Amen? It really is.

And the truth is the only people that will be annihilated by the make of fire will perish and be punished by the make of fire will only be idiots that have chosen death.

You would have to be an idiot to choose death as far as eternal death in the make of fire. You would have to be an idiot to choose darkness over light. You would have to be an idiot to choose a lie over the truth. You would have to be an idiot to want to be on the wrong side of the spiritual war.

And it is a choice. It is a choice, life or death. And you can't have both at the same time. Life or death. It's not eternal life for everybody. It's either life or death. The Bible makes that very clear in Romans 6:23. It's either life or death. You can't have both at the same time. It's a choice on which side you choose to stand. Choose you this day whom you will serve. It's a choice.

And the only ones that will be annihilated, perish and suffer the make of fire will be idiots that have chosen to stand on the wrong side, chosen the wrong gods, chosen the darkness over light, chosen death over life, chosen deception and lies and fairy tales over the truth. Such a person deserves to be called an idiot. Amen. We were once all idiots. We once were all in darkness.

We were once all dogs. And now we are a people, a royal priesthood. We are more holy than we are. Amen. Now, Amen. We are holier than thou. We are more holy than a Satan worshiper.

We are God's precious people. We are God's precious chosen people. We are God's treasure.

We are the sons of God, even the women. We are the people of the Lord. We are the citizens of the kingdom. Amen.

We are to become the saints of the Lord. And the saints are holy.

And those that are not holy are not holy. And they'll be burned up as trash into Gehenna, which was the trash dump.

Jesus chose to use the symbolism of the trash dump just to be the wicked. Did he not? Amen. Did he not? Jesus himself chose the symbolism of the trash dump when he talked about the final lake of fire. He himself used the symbolism of wicked people being burned as trash when he used the word Gehenna, which is the valley being known, which was the trash dump that was kept burning 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, when they took their trash and threw it, as well as diseased animals and sometimes criminals was thrown in there.

But people find the truth offensive because it's not baby milk. It doesn't tickle their ears. It doesn't make them feel good.

But I'll tell you what the truth is good. The truth is good. As we watch events unfold in the Middle East and Ukraine and around the world, we must realize that judgment is already occurring for many people worldwide, and it's only a matter of time before all of America and all of the world will face the same judgment of war, invasion, famine, disease, and more in the soon coming times that we call the Great Tribulation, also known as Jacob's Trouble. Amen. God is a jealous God.

I'll now open up the chat room on Mixlr, and as Brother Jared prepares anything that he wants to say, I'll also open up an invitation for anybody that I've actually talked to. If I have previously already talked with you in email or telephone, then you're welcome to talk to me right now with questions, comments, and you're welcome to testify for the Lord, share prophetic dreams, visions, what the Lord laid on your heart this week, what the Lord spoke to you this week, about a verse you read this week, sing a song for the Lord, play a musical instrument for the Lord. There's many different ways that you can participate in these services as a person that we trust and know as a brother or sister in Christ Jesus, and now is the time to type into the room and let me know, and you can contact me also on WhatsApp or Telegram if you have those, if you know my contact information or not.

Brother Jared, what do you have? What would you like to say?

"I've got a few points here. First, before I learned the truth, I was a non-militant atheist for many, many years because of the hypocrisy of Catholic and false Christian denominations. You can just look at them and see their hypocrisy, how they believe in a three-headed trinity god who burns people in hell forever, that's obviously evil. That's obviously evil and can't be God, so just not knowing the truth about Jesus [and hearing all the traditional lies about God] will make someone an atheist.

I also agree with how it's better to witness to the unbelievers than to the fairy tale believers because they're stuck in a fairy tale, no logic, no common sense.

And also along that line, the Islamic religion, the Islam coming from a base of total nonsense and hatred shows what kind of religion, what kind of god theirs is — a false one. Rather than coming from a base of logic and truth.

Another point, these people who don't care about the origins of things, especially religious things — and you don't need to know everything about the origins of pants or buttons, little things like that — but the origins of religious things.

And they don't care about them. They don't care about God, God being the origin of all things. They don't care about origins [of religious things], so they don't, by extension, they don't care about God.

I was looking at this passage, it was said there's many, many, many ones like it where it's talking about how people forsake God so he brings punishment until they repent. Let's see, it was just 10 verse 11, that's the end of the chapter. If you can read 11, 10 verse 11."

Okay. Judges 10, Brother Jared is bringing this to my attention. In Judges 10 verse 10 it says, And the children of Jesrael cried to Jesus, saying, We have sinned against you, because we have forsaken Theos and served Valor. And children said to the children, Jesus said to the children of Jesrael, Did I not save you from Egypt and from the Ammonite and from the children of Ammon and from the Philistines? Amen. And from the Sidonians and Amalec and Midian who afflicted you? And you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hands. Yet you forsook me and served other gods. Yet I would not save you anymore. Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen to yourselves, and let them save you in the time of your affliction. Amen.

So, absolutely the Bible is clear in multiple places, even in the New Testament, that God turns people over to what they have chosen. People have chosen death, destruction, Halloween, bones, skulls, horror, and the Assyrian religion and the Assyrian gods. Therefore, God will give them what they desire and turn them over to what is unnatural and will bring the gore and the horror and the Assyrian upon them which they have chosen. They have chosen the foreign ways, the foreign culture, and the foreign tongue. It will come into our land and take over the land and take over the people because the people have chosen it. It's a choice.

It is a choice. And Americans and the false church have chosen the Assyrian power that God will use. Amen. Thank you.

"And there's one more thing that's very sad, which is people not knowing the origins of history, which is people will look and say, 'Ah, I'll look back to the customs of my ancestors,' and you get the false Assyrian, it's actually Assyrian in origin, even a lot of the, like the Celtic, the Germanic, they have Easter and that's Assyrian, but most people don't know that it is in these kinds of traditions. And not knowing that the ancestor worship they're doing is actually Assyrian in nature. So even like the founding fathers of the United States. Sunday worship has been around for thousands of years." Amen. "Even after Christ." Amen.

It was the pagans that served a three-headed single God in different cultures, different cultures, including who and what. I know that a lot of the Germanic cultures have the same history. Yeah. With ISIS, so a lot of heathen societies served the ideal of three people as God. That's in different cultures, different religions, and it was common in heathen religion, it was a pagan origin that was passed down through the Assyrian empire, into the Babylonian empire, into the Persian empire, then into the Greek empire, then into the Roman empire, then into the Roman Catholic church, then into the Baptist church and Pentecostal churches and other so-called fake Protestant churches. The origin of the trinity goes all the way back to Nimrod, Assyria, a pagan god called Isis, all these different things. There's an origin to everything and people would cure what the origin is.

And anybody that's interested, truly, truly interested in truth, should be concerned and interested in seeking about the origin of all religious things. Amen. We encourage you to visit the ministry website at isawthelightministries.com. We have articles about the Trinity, Christmas, Easter, Sunday, the Sabbath, when does the day really begin, because it's not sunset to sunset, the information of the article at isawthelightministries.com/daystarts.html, proving that the sunset to sunset is a Muslim thing. The sunset to sunset came from the Babylonian Assyrian calendar. It did not come with the original Hebrew calendar or the calendar of God. Sunset to sunset is an Islamic practice and is not based in logic, not based in nature, and not based in scripture. People have misinterpreted the Bible and been trained to twist the Bible. Anyway, the Bible is very clear that the woman came, the women came to the empty tomb of Christ Jesus while it was still yet the seventh day of the week, and yet it was dawning for the first day of the week in the morning. And if it's dawning for the first day of the week in the morning near sunrise, then common sense declares that the day begins and ends at sunrise, just like a rooster would tell you, just like the birds would tell you. The birds want more sense than humans. Amen. The rooster, the male chicken, has more sense than religious people. Animals and nature, even the sky itself, knows when the day starts and ends, but religious people don't. Amen.

Okay, we'll see you next Saturday. We're here every Saturday, and we turn on the live broadcast for our worship services at 10 minutes to 11 o'clock in the morning, every Saturday morning, Eastern time zone, 10 minutes to 11 o'clock in the morning, Eastern time zone every Saturday, and then we begin the sermon about 5 minutes after 11. The first 10 minutes is worship music, and we do encourage you to download the worship music from isawthelightministries.com/music.html. Download the worship music, the lyrics, and the music both. Print out the lyrics, learn the music, worship with us. We do encourage you to even turn the worship music on even before our live broadcast begins. We do encourage you to do that, and we do encourage you to meet back here with us again next week, same time, same channel. Amen.

Praise God. And God bless all of those that are willing to serve the Lord and the truth wholeheartedly in Christ Jesus' name. Amen.
