Let us go in prayer. Lord Holy Father, praise your holy name. In the name of Jesus, thank you for this special day of the week to rest, to get re-energized, refueled, to hear your voice better, to receive your instructions, to worship you, and to rest our souls.

Thank you, Lord, for appointed time, a good time, a blessed and sanctified and set apart time.

Praise your holy name. We do ask and receive your special blessing and anointing on today's message and today's services, everything said and done.

Let it be all to your glory for the edification, edification of the church. Let your church be empowered from above with the power of your Holy Ghost, with the power of the blood of the Lamb of God, and with the power of the name of Jesus.

We accept it and we ask for your encouragement upon all of our weakest brothers and sisters and those that are coming into the knowledge of the truth, that you help the Lord to surrender to you, understand the truth more clearly, more accurately than ever before, and for all of us to come into the center of your will, one way or another, that you would move the mountains, that you would move the valleys, that you would move anything that needs moved and realigned to where we can and will be more in the center of your will.

For nothing, Lord, nothing good is impossible with you, that if we trust you and follow you and obey you, you will make a way.

When there's no way, you will make a way, for you are God of heaven and earth and all the inhabitants thereof belong to you.

Every mountain, every valley, every power and every authority, every name and every creature belongs to you.

You are the Alpha, the Omega, the first, the last, beginning and the ending, the author and the finisher of our faith, our King, our Lord and Savior, Master, God Almighty, Jesus is your name.

In the name of Jesus, we have prayed and we do ask and receive more of your presence, your spirit and your will.

In Jesus' name, amen. Praise God. Praise God. Amen. Praise Jesus.

Let us turn to Esther chapter 9. Esther is that the history books? Brother Jared, for the people that have the 5 volumes.

Brother Jared? Yes. All right, it's in the history volume if you have the 5 volumes. History book, chapter 9.

Brother John in Kansas is supposed to get his 1 volume today and Kayden, Kiki's grandson in Australia, received his 1 volume today or yesterday. Different time zone over there so I don't know, I guess you would say yesterday by now since it's the middle of the night there now.

So people start starting to receive those and we're supposed to receive a shipment here today as well.

Thank you, calm Adam, page 291 in the 5 volume. Thank you.

Esther chapter 9 and let's go down to verse 27. Esther 9 verse 27.

And Mordecai, or Mardocheus, established it, that is the holy day of Purim, which is actually 2 days.

And the Judeans took upon themselves and upon their seed, upon their children, upon their descendants, upon those that were joined to them, not just only their children and their descendants but also those that were joined to them.

That means all the inhabitants, even their servants, even the foreign Gentile servants and Gentile friends, anyone that was joined unto them, any connection with them.

So it wasn't just the Jews only but rather even the Gentile servants and Gentile friends that associated with them and served the same God to keep Purim.

Neither would they on any account behave differently. So even those that joined to them would not behave differently but rather would indeed observe the same holy days.

But these days were to be a memorial kept in every generation, not just in Old Covenant time frame, not just in the Old Testament time frame, but for every generation and city and family.

The word family there could be tribe so that could be even beyond the tribes of Israel and Provence. Amen.

So we have more than one word within this verse that indicates that it's more than just the Jews keeping Purim and more than Old Covenant time frame.

Most people don't observe Purim because they never heard of it even though it's in the Bible.

And most people don't observe Purim if they did read about it in the Bible because they think that it and all of the biblical holy days and the Sabbath is only for the Jews when in fact it was never ever only for the Jews. Amen.

There's no scripture at all saying that Purim or the Sabbath or the other biblical holy days is for only the Jews.

You would never find such a statement in the Bible. Amen. Even when it says occasionally speaking to the children of Israel, you would still find in the context or in the other verses nearby there or in a related chapter or related book referring to the same thing, you would find where the servants, where the Gentiles, where the people that join themselves to them, other phrases similar to that also was observing the biblical holy days.

So there's really no question to that if we read the Bible and believe it. Amen. Amen. Rather than going with modern, Western, traditional, false Christianity.

If we go with the Bible rather than religion. Amen.

Now it does say every generation. It doesn't say until the end of term.

It doesn't use the word perpetual which is a mistranslation when you do find that in the Bible sometimes.

But it doesn't have it here. So there's not a end of term. There's not an end to this. It doesn't end with the blood of Christ.

It doesn't end with the cross. It doesn't end with the birth or death or resurrection of Jesus or the end of the old covenant or any such thing.

But rather every generation it does not make any determination of an ending point.

So it would still exist today. Amen.

And we are Judean Christians. It's very important to use that word Judean Christians rather than just the only Christians although we can sometimes say only the word Christian.

It would be more accurate to say Judean Christian because that just like using the word Holy Ghost rather than Holy Spirit when referring to God inside of us it would also be important to recognize that we are Judean Christians meaning that our Christianity has a foundation and a root in the Israelite people and the promises that God made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that is very foundational and vital and important. Amen.

It's also important to understand that according to scripture not only do you have physical Israel which most people think are only the Jews or not only Jews physically but also even Americans, British and their descendants around the world, Australia and across the world Canada and so forth.

But also in scripture we have spiritual Israel and spiritual Israel including the Jews anyone that is truly saved, anyone that has the blood of the Jewish Christ upon their soul is spiritual Israel and spiritual Israel is just as important as physical Israel especially when we come to understand as we should that we should observe the law of God in the spirit of the law not always by the letter of the law although there are certain aspects of it that should be followed by the letter but the spirit of the law sometimes overrules the letter of the law. Amen.

The spirit of the law means in what spirit or for what reason did God command it. Amen.

Because if you don't understand, if you don't recognize the reason for the law or commandment or ordinance then you will not be observing it correctly to what God really intended. Amen.

You must understand the reasoning or the spirit or the spiritual principle of the law.

Now, so there's physical reasons why Purim was observed but there are also spiritual reasons why Purim was observed and why Purim should continue to be observed until the end that is until paradise. Amen.

Let us go over to the book of Romans chapter 2. Romans chapter 2. Page 176 in the file volume.

Page 176 if you have the file volume edition. Romans chapter 2 in the one volume edition is page 729.

Romans 2 verse 28 and verse 29. Romans 2 verse 28, for he is not a Judean who is one outwardly nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh but he is a Judean who is one inwardly and the circumcision is that which is of the heart by the spirit not by the letter and his praise is not from people but from theos.

I did not even realize that the comparison of the spirit and the letter was in that verse before we turned to it just then.

I did not realize that. I did not read every word of that verse this morning or last night.

I did not remember that it talked about letter or spirit but I only thought of that verse last night as I was preparing the sermon notes for today.

I thought of it as referring to what is truly a Judean in New Covenant spiritual thinking but I did not realize or remember the difference between the spirit and the letter being written in that verse.

So you just witnessed the voice of God, the movement of God, the existence of God and God's anointing in this ministry so that you know that as I preach it is not always my word or my words but rather God speaking through me and teaching you and me at the same time. Amen.

Now we should not misunderstand this verse because some people twist it, misunderstand it and misinterpret it. Some people claim that this verse says that there is no physical Israel or physical Jews in the eyes of God now in the New Covenant time frame.

They're misunderstanding and they're also ignoring in the book of Revelation where it talks about in paradise in the new heavens, new earth that the names of the twelve tribes will be written in that holy city of New Jerusalem. Amen.

So very clearly and we have other verses talking about the tribes of Israel for all eternity.

We have multiple verses referring to that, that the promises of God through Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Manasseh, Ephraim that those promises upon their descendants are truly eternal going into the new heavens and new earth that time frame of paradise.

Physical Israel, although they won't be in the flesh anymore, those tribes we should say, those tribes will always be important to God, always and forever.

Physical Israel still exists very clearly in prophecy. Amen. But spiritual Israel is even more important. Spiritual Israel includes the Jews.

The book of Romans here as we go into other chapters talks about how the Gentiles are adopted into the same family. So they are joined to the tree of life with the Jews. God is not eternally casting the Jews away from them. Amen.

Book of Romans teaches us that he did cut them off, prune them like he pruned a tree or bush.

He did cut them off for a time and a season so that they would grow back better. But that he's also bringing in the Gentiles and that we come into one tree of life, one family.

So they're being, different tribes are being grafted in and we're joined to the same God. Amen.

So if we serve the same God and if we are all joining together as one body of Christ, then the Jews do not have a separate law or a separate way of obeying God or a separate mannerism for God.

But rather we serve the same God, the same law, the same 10 commandments, the same holy days. Amen. Absolutely. Even in Old Testament times, a person had to be baptized in order to convert from their heathen witchcraft ways, false holy days, false holidays, false gods, to convert and repent away from the Trinity gods that people were worshiping and other false gods in those days and Christmas and Easter and Valentine's Day and Ash Wednesday, all of those days are already in existence even before the birth of Christ.

And when people repent of those days and came and converted to accept the God of Israel as being the true God, they would be baptized.

So it is even the same mannerism of conversion. Amen. For both Jew and Gentile. And we'll look over at 2 Timothy 3, 2 Timothy chapter 3.

It's 251 in the 5 volume. 251 in the 5 volume. 251 in the 5 volume. 1 Timothy 3, I mean 2 Timothy 3, if you have the 1 volume already, that's page 772.

2 Timothy 3 verse 16. Every writing inspired by Theos is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness.

So that the people of God, Theos, may be advocate, equipped for every good work. Amen.

So very clearly, scripture in the Old Testament is what it's talking about, because most people, most of the church didn't even have hardly any of the New Testament yet at all.

He's obviously, Paul is talking about Old Testament scripture, and he's writing this two or three decades after Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection.

Two or three decades later, he is still teaching the Old Testament. Amen. But yet, churches think that we shouldn't use the Old Testament. Anytime you point to the Old Testament for hardly anything, they'll say, oh, but that's done away with.

Oh, that's the old, that's the old covenant, all that. They hate God's scripture. Amen.

They hate it, and they completely reject it. A lot of them own only the New Testament. A lot of so-called Christians own only the New Testament.

That's sad. That's very sad. But Paul, as he's writing a letter to Timothy, which is a pastor that he had ordained in the church, he's telling this pastor that he had ordained and talked and mentored that you should read and teach from, not just read, but even teach from the Old Testament.

And that all of those scriptures are useful, profitable, useful for teaching, for training in righteousness, even for correcting people in that.

So we could consider that that would include Esther. In fact, Esther was one of the more well-known books of the Bible in that day and time.

It was more common than a lot of the other books for people to own a copy of Esther.

It was one of the most commonly owned scrolls that people would have in their homes if they did have any scroll at all. Esther was very common.

So as we consider Purim in today's sermon, today's sermon is why observe Purim, because that's coming up here in just two weeks, March 24th and March 25th.

March 24th and March 25th, Holy Days that are commanded for us to observe. And people like to say, but God didn't command it, only Mordecai and Esther commanded it.

What they are missing, those people that say that, what they are missing is that God speaks through his servants. Amen. He spoke through Moses. He spoke through Noah. He spoke through Paul. Amen. And he did speak through Mordecai and Esther, that it is holy scripture, is scripture that is anointed, blessed, and approved of by God.

God approves of those instructions given by his chosen servants. God chose Mordecai and Esther.

They were his messengers of his instructions, of his will, of what he desired for his people. Amen.

It doesn't always have to come directly from the mouth of God. It can come through his servants. It also, Purim, has great relevance, or I get that word right, to our current time frame, the events that are going to occur soon within our lifetime.

A great connection to what is about to occur in our life. Purim, even though it was thousands of years ago that Mordecai and Esther instructed the people to keep it, to observe it, has a great connection to our life today, and what is about to occur to all nations, all tribes, and all languages upon this earth.

Some major events are about to occur.

Let's go to Ezekiel chapter 38. Ezekiel 38, which is in the prophets volume, if you straight out the five volume, which everybody, mostly everybody still has, Ezekiel 38.

Around page 146, Ezekiel 38. I'm going to keep the notes till after the service that you're doing, because that's just the strategy.

What was the page number again? 146. In Ezekiel 38, verse 1, and the word of Jesus came to me, to Ezekiel, saying, Son of humans, set your face against Gog, and the land of Magog, Rosh, prince of Moscow and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say to him, Thus saith the Lord Jesus, Behold, I am against you, Rosh, prince of Moscow and Tubal, and I will turn you about, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will gather you and all your hosts, your multitudes, or your armies, horses and horsemen, all wearing breastplates with a great multitude, shields, and helmets, and swords. Verse five, Persians, which are Iranians, or what we would think of as Iranians, and Ethiopians and Libyans, all with helmets and shields, Gomer, and all that belong into him, and the house of Thorgama, from the end of the north, and all belonging to him, and many nations — or Gentiles, it could be translated — with you.

Be you prepared, and prepare yourself, you and all your multitude that is assembled with you, and you shall be to me for a guard.

He shall be prepared after many days, and he shall come at the end of years, at the end of time, and shall come to a land that is brought back from the sword, when the people are gathered from many nations against the land of Israel, which was entirely desolate previously, and he has come forth out of the nations, and they shall all dwell securely.

The interesting thing here, which we need to add in the footnote to verse eight, is that before the British Empire divided the land in the Middle East, and created the nation of Jordan, and the nation of Israel, the way we see today, even though Israel has existed for thousands of years, but the British Empire and the United Nations were together to divide the land between Israel and Jordan, and some of the other surrounding nations, Lebanon, and some of the other surrounding nations, those boundaries was decided upon mostly by the British Empire and the United Nations. Now, before that occurred, and before the Israelites started traveling back to their ancestral land of Israel, it was pretty desolate, uninhabited for the most part.

You may have a few people there, here and there, but we have several history books, different sources, different authors, that talked about how mostly uninhabited it was.

There was not a lot of people there, so this is a land that was desolate until the Israelites was regathered back to the land, but they at times had war multiple times to defend the land of Israel and themselves in their existence, and they have been brought back from the sword. Amen.

So, we have seen some of these words fulfilled only in the past, I don't know how many years, 70, 75, whatever, how many years it is now that they have been brought back.

But the word Persians, up here in verse 5, talks about how Gog and Magog, Russia and China, and Iran, which are allies, Russia, China, and Iran, will come to invade Israel.

The reason that this is important in what we're talking about today with Purim, is that in the book of Esther, it's all about the Persian people, the Persian kings, the Persian princes, and the plot against Israel, or the plot against the Jews and the Judeans that was living in the land of Persia, today known as Iran.

So, it's the same people, the same area, the same region, the same location, and the same opposite sides, Israel versus the Persians, the Persians versus Israel.

Same location, same two groups of people, and not only will it be the same two groups of people and the same location, but even the same date.

History repeats itself, not only with events and location, but even the date. Many times throughout history, certain dates continue to be very eventful, very important, and very historic repeatedly, repeatedly, repeatedly, that certain dates are important, especially to Middle Eastern people.

Those dates are important. We know that certain dates are very important to God. He has his holy days, and we know that certain dates are very important to Satan, the devil.

He has his holy days as well. We know that the Muslims and the Catholics and other heathen people that dates and their own holy days are very important to them, and many times the terror groups of Islam will plan specific major events to occur on dates that are historically important, and we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but rather there are spirits, dark spirits, fallen angels that are behind such events.

It's not just only humans, but you've got Satan the devil and his workers, fallen angels, cooperating in the hearts and minds and hands and feet of the workers of Satan in Islam and in the Vatican, in Rome, in the Catholic Church, and in the Democrat Party and communist dictators around the world.

Like the recent October 7th massacre in Israel. Exactly. Even the recent October 7th terror attack invasion of Israel was relevant to historical dating, so dates are very important to the spiritual realm, to dictators, to evil groups, so we should not ignore this fact as a very important fact.

We should learn from history and we should recognize a very important fact that dates are important in the spiritual realm to both God and Satan, to good groups, to bad groups, to the true church, and to the false church.

Dates are important and have a relevance of repeating history. So we're looking at date, time, location, events, people. Very important.

There are many reasons why we should be observing Purim coming up in just two weeks away.

Very important. Multiple reasons. Not only because Mordecai and Esther said so, but because God wants us to. Amen. It was God's will, God's anointing, God's words in their mouth and they didn't have to say God commanded it or I heard it from God.

Sometimes the servants of God say things and instruct things without saying, thus say of the Lord, but it is thus say of the Lord, even if they say it's not thus say of the Lord. Amen.

There's been many times that I said something and then I did not say that God said it, but later on it became evident that it was definitely God influencing my thoughts and my words and my actions and my decisions.

Sometimes we don't know for sure that God definitely working until later on and it becomes self-evident.

Let's go back to Esther and we'll go to chapter one. Esther chapter one. Now it's very important also to recognize that the Greek Septuagint agent original version of Esther contained many more words than what the modern revised edited changed version of Esther contains.

It's very important that we have the Alpha and Omega Bible which restores the scripture.

It's not a hundred percent accurate. I have never claimed for the AOB to be a hundred percent accurate, but it is more accurate than any Bible that you could find in the store today and it becomes more and more accurate really every week as we continue to perfect it.

So we're reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible and it's going to vary differently from other Bibles.

And it says in verse one, Esther 1 verse 1, in the second year of the reign of this however you pronounce it, Artaxerxes is the great king on the first day of Nisan, the first month, Mordecai the son of Jarius, the son of Semeias, the son of Cisaus, of the tribe of Benjamin.

Verse 2, a Judean dwelling in the city Susa in Persia, Iran, a great man serving in the king's palace had a dream. Now he was of the captivity he had been taken there captive when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried captive from Jerusalem with Jechonias the king of Judea.

And this was his dream. Behold voices and a noise, thunders and earthquake, turmoil or tribulation it could be translated as upon the earth.

And look, two great serpents came forth both ready for conflict and there came from them a great voice and by their voice every nation was prepared every nation was prepared for battle even to fight against the nation of the righteous. Really we can relate that to Ezekiel 38 where you've got many multitude of nations coming against Israel. Amen.

Now there are different meanings of this dream, but as end-time Christians, as end-time Judean Christians, we see we discern spiritually the connection of Ezekiel 38.

Verse 7, and behold a day of gloom or sadness and darkness, tribulation and wrath, oppression and great confusion upon the earth.

And all the righteous nation Israel was troubled fearing their own afflictions and they prepared to die. Amen.

There are different elements of these verses, the word tribulation, the word wrath, the fact that there is a battle coming from many different nations against one nation that hint, give us hints or clues of the end-time Gog, Magog, World War III.

There's other things throughout this chapter or rather throughout this book of Esther, other things also give us hints or clues of end-time relevance to what is occurring here.

So when we think of Esther and Mordecai's instruction for every generation to observe Purim, we should recognize that there is more to it than just obeying those servants, more to it than just remembering history, more to it than just being a memorial of what has already occurred, but rather also prophetic significance for our time and our generation.

Reasons why we must, must recognize these dates every year, but more so every year as we get closer to the fulfillment of the great tribulation becomes more and more important, not less important, that becomes more important to observe Gog's biblical holy days. Amen.

Recently I talked about the signs in the heavens pointing to the Purim of next year 2025 and these signs occur right now.

They're already happening in the sky even as we speak and we'll continue to intensify as we get toward Purim two weeks from now.

You're going to have the lunar eclipse, moon eclipse on the Purim two weeks from now, March 24th, March 25th and this will also occur during the Islamic month of Ramadan which is when they like to wage war and strike with terror attacks.

The Quran, even though it's not holy scripture, the Quran claims that a lunar eclipse will occur on what they call judgment day or resurrection day, but what the Muslims call judgment day or resurrection day is not the true resurrection and judgment day, but rather a counterfeit, a counterfeit coming of Messiah.

It is actually the date that the Antichrist in our vocabulary, the Antichrist, which is not what the Bible calls him, but in traditional modern Western Christianity, false Christianity, what they term as the Antichrist, which is more vividly accurately called the son of perdition, the son of destruction, the man of sin, but we'll use that modern vocabulary word of Antichrist just for the ease of speaking, we'll call it the Antichrist, which is a fallen angel, the president of Syria, Bashar Assad, evil be his name and may his name be erased, amen.

When he appears in the sky in a fake coming of Christ, that is their version of judgment day, so the Quran declares it will be a lunar eclipse when that occurs.

Some of the traditional Islamic hadiths, at least one, I think maybe even two, talk about it occurring not only during a lunar eclipse, but also during Ramadan.

So what we have in this year of 2024 on Purim of March 24th to 25th is a lunar eclipse, the date of Purim, the date of Ramadan, and also comet which is called in the news, they're calling it the devil comet, Pons-Brooks 12, appearing to the naked eye by that time, and as that comet gets brighter and brighter and then gets closer and closer to the Sun, it makes its closest approach to the Sun.

Right now they're predicting a day before Passover in April, so that's significant, so this comet has a significant connection to both Purim and Passover, it's connecting the beginning and the ending of a 30-day time window, time frame.

The comet becoming visible to the naked eye around the time of Purim and making its closest approach to the Sun around the time of Passover, a connection between those two holy days, that is significant, that is extremely significant, it's like taking a pointer, a stick, a pencil, something, a laser, and connecting the dots, amen.

That's what that comet is doing, we're taking an ink pen and connecting the dots, we're taking two pieces of a puzzle and connecting them together, that's very significant, something that we should not ignore.

Now you're going to have the lunar eclipse on Purim again next year, 2025, also during Ramadan, but without the comet, so the comet is a significant pointer, pointing us to something.

I believe that the comet is just a final warning shot over our heads, saying pay attention, that this is a major, major, major warning, and even though this is pointing toward the Purim of this year, it is also pointing toward the Purim of next year.

Because God always sends multiple warnings before the actual fulfillment, and we have seen over the years, multiple times, multiple years, on the date of Purim, in multiple years we have seen great pointers, great, significant, awesome foreshadowings, repeatedly.

One of those years we saw that there was an event of a satellite crashing into the ocean, very near where people were standing, watching what they were describing as a visual image of Jesus in the clouds, very near that same location. As well as people dressed up as demons, maybe the same year or a different year that we saw pictures in the news, people dressed up in the streets of Jerusalem or in the streets of Israel on Purim, because it's like a Halloween to them, putting on costumes. They've turned God's holy days into satanic days, they've corrupted it, they've defiled it, they've turned it upside down.

But I saw the picture and we put it on the website, it's still there on the website, pictures of two men dressed as demons following angels with black wings from the Game of Thrones, the two characters, these men dressed up like the movie, TV show, and video game The Game of Thrones, that's very significant, especially on the date of Purim.

A lot of people think because they have no discernment and they have no common sense and they have no reasoning to them, they don't look at the spiritual principle of things, they don't look for the spiritual reason behind events. So most people would say this is nothing more than two men with costumes.

But the fact that it's from the Game of Thrones, which that TV show, that movie, is about a war for the seat of God, that's what it's about, a war for the throne of God, that's mind-blowing, that is mind-blowing, because that's exactly what's going to occur when it's no longer a foreshadowing, but the actual real and true fulfillment of Purim of the Antichrist in a war in heaven, Revelation 12, for the throne of God.

And Daniel 12 talks about Michael the archangel, angel stepping aside, no longer guarding the throne of God, but stepping aside to allow the blasphemy, the abomination of desolation of the Antichrist, the false messiah, during that war in heaven momentarily sitting in the seat of God, the throne of God in heaven, as the Bible says that he will. This is not my interpretation, the Bible says that he will sit in the temple of God, displaying himself, showing himself as God. That's much different than two men standing on a temple mount, even though they will eventually stand on the temple mount. But it starts with the heavenly event, something in the sky, a fake resurrection, a fake pre-tribulation rapture, a fake resurrection, a fake judgment day.

And the Quran says during a lunar eclipse, and the hadith say during Ramadan. We can't ignore all these signs, we should not ignore all the foreshadowings of the previous years. To ignore all of this would be stupid.

Now we don't know a hundred percent for sure that next year would truly be the complete fulfillment, but to believe that it's not, to think that it absolutely can't be, would be foolish. Everything looks like that it is pointing forward next year.

Now even though the comet is this year, the reason I say next year is because you only have this alignment of dates of the lunar eclipse during Ramadan, at the time of Quran, only so many years, I think we said 42 years, I think if I'm not mistaken, about every 41-42 years. And I don't believe that we've got another 42, 43, 44 years left before the great tribulation.

When you look at the world news, if you pay attention, if you have any intelligence, if you have any common sense, we don't have 40 some years left until the great tribulation.

If you look at what's happening with Syria, Iran, Gaza, Egypt, Russia, China, the South China Sea, Biden, Trump, and everything else, the Ukraine, and other things in the world, it would be really foolish to think that we've got 40 some years left.

The alignment doesn't happen every year, the alignment happens this year, next year, and then in 26, there is still an alignment on Purim, but you don't have the solar eclipse alignment, which is another element piece of the puzzle. And I don't know how to explain that right now without looking at what I wrote on the website, because I've written so much, and everything, and I'm tired, and I'm exhausted, and I don't have enough help, and we don't talk about this enough to get it into my head, all the information, if I had more brothers, more sisters, and we actually talked to each other more, to where we're talking about it more, then I could get it into my head better, and not have to go back and look what I've already written, but the fact is, we don't have too many brothers, we don't have too many sisters, and what we do have, they don't talk much, they're pretty much silent for the most part, so I can't get it into my head firmly, because we're not talking about it enough. But that's the way it is, that's the way it is. So we've got to be watchful, we have to pay attention to the signs.

Another thing that needs to be said, is that a few years ago also, God connected the dots with the five holy days that occur in the end time prophetic calendar, five holy days.

And that starts with Purim, and the next holy day in that prophetic calendar is Passover, but then we've got the Pentecost, [and Trumpets,] and the Day of Atonement.

So five holy days, on which in the final 1335 days, starting with Purim, 1335 days according to Daniel 12, starting with Purim, and ending with the return, the true return of Christ Jesus to this earth, to start the millennium.

Five holy days within that time period, in which different events, historic and biblical, major end time events, not minor events, but huge events will occur on those holy days.

And that's written out with solid proof, undeniable, you can't reject it if you care about the truth. It's undeniable, there's no way that it can be a false interpretation, that's impossible, because the alignment of those five holy days is perfect down to the very day, no matter how you calculate it, whether you start from the beginning, whether you start from the end, whether you start from the middle, and count both directions, you can count it every one of those ways, and come out to the same conclusion.

There's no way that it can be a false or wrong interpretation, or a miscalculation, or a private interpretation, but rather only biblical.

There's no mistaking about that if you would care to examine the evidence, that people don't care about the evidence. They like to have a knee-jerk reaction of rejection, they don't want to believe it, they won't consider the evidence. But when we consider the fact of the timeline of five biblical holy days in the end prophetic timeline, starting with, guess what, starting with Purim.

I then add that to the comet with what the Quran says, with the alignment, with the alignment happening only every 42 years, which is a significant number in the Bible as well, 42, because it's 42 months of great tribulation, so that even that number is significant in this puzzle.

The hints that we read about in Esther 1 and other places in Esther, all of this added together is a very serious situation that we should not ignore, that we should not turn a blind eye to.

We must prepare ourselves first and foremost spiritually. We've got to prepare ourselves spiritually, that means we need to grow up, we need to become mature in Christ.

Mature in Christ means wise, it means exercising common sense, that means not believing in stupid things like the flat earth theory.

I can understand people asking questions about flat earth theory, but once you take more than five minutes to think about it, that's all it takes to come to realize, well that's stupid.

It doesn't take weeks and weeks and weeks and months and months and months and years and years and years of investigating and reading and watching YouTube, because if you do that, you're just down a rabbit's hole, you're just burying yourself, you're digging your own grave when you get involved in something like that and become obsessed with it and totally brainwashed by it.

It only takes about five, ten minutes of common sense, of reasoning, of serious thought to come to the right conclusion on the flat earth matter. Amen.

And not waste your time on it. People think that the flat earth is not something to split hairs over, that it's not something to do to this fellowship about. But I beg to differ, because it is such a extreme stupidity that anybody that would fall for the flat earth theory and actually believe in it and be brainwashed by it, is also foolish enough to worship the Antichrist, to believe in miracles of the devil, that when the Antichrist brings far down out of heaven, that you're going to believe he really is the Messiah, because you're that gullible, because you're that foolish.

That level of stupidity, that level of being that gullible, is dangerous to the church.

That type of person is the perfect type of person to stab you in the back and report you to the authorities for not worshipping the Antichrist.

We don't need that type of people in the church. We need people with a little bit of common sense. Amen.

So, it is a salvational issue, because Jesus is logic. He is the logos. And there's a connection, a direct and close relationship, between the word logic and logos.

God is wisdom. There are entire books of the Bible that speaks of Jesus being wisdom.

Jesus is logic, and a person that doesn't have any logic is not saved and is not a brother or sister in Christ.

We've got to use common sense, logic, wisdom, intelligence. We've got to use all these things, and practice all these things.

We have entire books of the Bible telling us to exercise wisdom. Entire books of the Bible.

If we don't exercise wisdom, then we will be easily caught in a trap, and not only caught in a trap ourselves, but pull other people in the trap with us.

That's a dangerous situation. You have to be careful who you embrace as family, as friends, as associates, as brothers and sisters.

You have to be careful who you embrace. It's a whole lot harder to get rid of somebody than what it is to embrace them. So you've got to be careful who you allow in your life.

Okay, what were you going to say, Jared? "It's interesting that I had researched what Islam had as an established option for whether the earth was flat or not.

They actually couldn't come to a conclusion of whether the earth is round, whether the earth is flat, or whether the earth is actually on top of a giant whale. So, yes, that is a dangerous level of stupidity to believe in flat earth."

Now let's go to Esther chapter 8.

This is the last verse unless God laid something else on our heart. Esther 8 verse 13.

Esther 8 verse 13. Give me a page number. Page 290. Page 290 in the 5 volume.

No, there's two verse 13s as well. Let's see. Actually, it's verse 21. I don't know why I got verse 13 written there.

Oh, I know why. Nevertheless, it's verse 21 that we're going to read and it has a star in front of it.

And it starts with, and ever see in province collectively. If you can find that, it's near the end of chapter 8.

If you go to the very end of chapter 8, go up the page to verse 21 and it says, ever see in province collectively, which shall not do accordingly, which in other words, that does not keep turn, shall be consumed with wrath or vintage by spear and fire.

It shall be made not only inaccessible to men, but most hateful to wild beasts and birds until the end of time, until paradise, or until the end of that generation or something like that, some type of timeframe.

So what it says here is that they command it that any person or place, province, city that refused to keep turn, that city will be burned.

That city will suffer wrath. So in that day and time, what they would have done is they would have tucked torches and went and burned the houses and suited them for not keeping turn.

But in our thinking for the end of time, the relevance of this is, the importance of this is, that for the people that do not keep track of God's calendar and do not observe God's holy days, those people will be caught dangerously unprepared for the wrath, for the tribulation, for the war, for the fire, for the war, for the invasion, for the captivity, for the famine, for the pestilence, for these events, for the antichrist, people, cities, nations, groups, religions, denominations, Christians, so-called, they're going to be caught unprepared.

For the most part, only this ministry recognizes the huge significance of Purim, even though there are other groups that do keep Purim, like the Jews, but they don't understand the significance, the importance, and the relevance of it, to respect it, to treat it holy, and what it means to the end time.

They don't understand those things. So they will still be caught unprepared. So it's one thing to know something, but it's another thing to understand it. And we should not only know it, but we should understand it and why it's significant, why it's important, and how it's how and why it's important to the end time, the significance of the prophetic calendar. And that is really reserved for God's people, for God's kingdom, for his church, for his bride. Amen.

The five-day connection in the end time calendar, and even who the Antichrist is, and the existence of the Alpha and Omega Bible, all these things confirm who is the true church, who are the true Christians. It is God's true church that won't be caught unprepared. Your typical average false Christian thinks that there's no way possible that we would know who the Antichrist is in advance, or when these things are going to occur. They think that those things are totally impossible. They think that way because they're not the bride of Christ. The mysteries of God are revealed to his own people. Amen. To his own people. The bridegroom whispers in the ears of his bride, get ready. Amen. And they, both the bridegroom and the bride, know or will know the date of the wedding, the Day of Atonement.

The true Messiah will not come as a thief in the night for his true bride. The true bride will be dressed and ready and waiting for the Messiah. Amen. Only the false churches, false Christians, will be caught unprepared as a thief in the night. They don't understand what Christ was talking about. He was warning sinners. He was warning false believers. He was warning the wicked that they would be called like a thief in the night, that he would come like a thief in the night to those people. But to his bride he would not come as a thief in the night breaking in the window. But rather the bride will be dressed and ready knowing when he is coming. We will know because we watch his calendar. We're looking at the heavenly clock and we are preparing. Amen.

And if we are preparing, then we should use our money wisely, not be blowing, wasting money, resources. We should be using our time and energy wisely, not wasting time and energy and money on useless, vain pursuits. We all had our own goals in life before we came to the knowledge of the truth. But now that we have the light of God shining upon us and we can clearly see, we should not continue in those same, vain, useless pursuits and goals that we had or other people had for us that are a waste of time and energy and money. Focus. We need to get on track of what God has planned for us, where he wants us to go, where he wants us to live, where he wants us to work, where he wants us to dwell, where he wants us to walk, where he wants us to be. Amen.

That's the sermon. Everybody can start typing into the chat room. I do have a few announcements that the chat room is open on Mixlr.

If anybody has a testimony, if anybody has a song, a Bible verse to share that God had laid on their heart, something that was very, something that you would share, want to share, calm Adam in Kansas. He says, with the sun rising earlier, this was the first Sabbath that the sun rose before the end of my shift, because he works third shift, and I'm thankful to have employers that allow me to leave early so that I'm able to keep the Sabbath. Amen.

Praise Jesus. Calm Adam in Kansas is a perfect example that if we want to obey God, to keep his holy Sabbath, God will make a way. Amen.

The majority of the time, if we will talk with our employers, they will reschedule us. They will, if we're good employees, if we are faithful and good employees, if we're not always running late and always out of work and everything like that, if we show up every day on time and do good work, they will accommodate our needs and they will work with us. Amen.

And the brother in Korea, South Korea, says last Thursday my desk location at work finally changed and I was moved to a much quieter place than my previous one.

I'm very sensitive to sound so thank Jesus for that. Amen. Praise God. I'm so happy to hear that. Praise Jesus for that. Praise God. People can continue to type in there as brother Jared prepares his statements and I'm also looking at WhatsApp and Telegram and text message as well as Mixlr for anybody having any comments or praises for the Lord or a Bible verse or a testimony.

Okay, brother Jared, what do you have to share? I do have some announcements as well. Brother Jared. "So I noticed one thing you're talking about how we're all adopted into the tribe of the Judeans and that the introduction to Esther describes Mordecai of being of the tribe of Benjamin then calls him a Judean." Exactly. The tribe of Benjamin was of the house of Judah as well as of the house of part of Israel.

That's not all Jews, okay? Also what else? "And also in the reasoning and authority for keeping the Holy Day of Purim, there's God's hand in the deliverance that was worked on both Mordecai and Esther themselves and also the Judeans in delivering them from the Persians, who wanted to murder them."

Yes, Purim is about that the evil prince of Persia was going to kill all the Jews which is what the Gazans want to do, amen.

It's what the Iranian government wants to do. It's what all the anti-Zionist people want to do is to kill all the Jews off the face of the earth.

"They have portraits of Hitler in their homes even to this day." Yeah, but God turned the events around and on the very same date that the Jews were to be all murdered, instead the evil prince was killed and his ten sons also which were the foreshadows of the ten toes of the end time of the feet of iron and clay. So this is all reverent.

Anything else? "And how it was kept and observed for generations by the Judeans, there's one evidence of that is in the book of Maccabees. It refers to a victory over one of the invading generals as happening the day before Mordecai's day."

Is Mordecai's day Purim? Yeah. Do we know that for sure? Do we have a note or a parentheses saying that it is, whenever it says Mordecai's day? It says that in one place.

We know that for sure. Anywhere that says Mordecai's day that we do have parentheses term if we don't have that already. Make sure we get that done please.

Now in the reminders we spring ahead, us silly Americans.

We change our clocks tonight before we go to bed. We spring ahead one hour. We move our clocks one hour forward tonight at bedtime. Therefore international listeners outside of America need to be aware that you should listen to our worship services next time, next week, and even Monday because Monday is 13th new moon.

So another announcement is that Monday March the 11th is new moon the first day of the 13th biblical month.

So we'll see you again Monday at 11 o'clock in the morning Eastern time zone and so people outside of America need to listen will be one hour earlier that means that they need to listen.

One hour earlier. So one hour earlier if we're correct about that that you need to listen on Monday and next week on their own if you're internationally.

And then of course we said Purim is March 24th and 25th and we're going to have services on that Sunday the 24th is when we're going to have special worship services for Purim.

We'll be only on the first day of Purim. Sunday the 24th. So we'll be having services two days in a row Saturday and Sunday that weekend.

And then we also have some baptisms anniversaries.

We have brother Adri on the 14th was baptized two years ago on 14th. Brother Kareem in Jamaica on March 22nd will be his four years anniversary of being baptized in Christ.

And we just had Hugh and Dominique in Cape Town South Africa this past Tuesday was their one year anniversary of having been baptized in Christ.

Praise God. Anybody got any questions? Any other statements?

"I think of the the other times that there is God works that's a great deliverance to Israel. There's the Passover in Egypt, that was one of them." Yes. Amen. The great deliverance.

So we got to remember that if we keep God's true Holy Days we'll be prepared for the deliverance. Amen.

We can be delivered from the tragedy that hits the rest of the land. Amen. But if we're not observing God's Holy Days then we will be caught unprepared for the plagues that hit the land and the people. Amen.

"And another one is in the time of Hezekias the Assyrians sent an envoy who blasphemed God. And they were going to send huge armies to conquer Jerusalem. And the Israelites didn't have the forces to really defend themselves. So they cried out to God, and His answer was to send an angel and burn 185,000 of the Assyrians overnight."

Cool. Praise God. God is great. Amen. Amen. So he's pointing to 2 Kings 19. 2 Kings 19 verse 35. And it came to pass at night but the angel of Jesus went forth and struck in the camp of the Assyrians 185,000 and they rose early in the morning behold these were all dead corpses. Amen.

God can bring a great deliverance in time of war. There's not much hope for people in the great tribulation in World War 3 unless we know the true God of Israel and keep his holy days. Amen.

Then we have hope. There's a possibility of escape. Not in a pre-Trib rapture fairy tale, not in the imaginations of people but in reality there is a true hope of fleeing into the wilderness to be protected by God in places of refuge, places that God has prepared ahead of time where he will divinely protect his people.

That's in the Bible if people would read it and believe it. Amen. Okay I'm going to have to let you go and I'll see you Monday for the 13th new moon.

We'll put on a song and I'll see you then. God bless.
