Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to Thee,
How great Thou art! How great Thou art!

Amen. Praise God. Singing that song that came into my mind. But you know, in this life I will never make it to Jerusalem. I don't have the money for it.

Only rich Americans can afford to go to Jerusalem. But in the next age, after the first resurrection, at some point of time I will make it to Jerusalem. Amen.

And in paradise, in the final age, when there's no more time, I will be living in Jerusalem. Amen.

Living in Jerusalem. Living in Jerusalem. Wow. Praise God. One of these days we will be walking in Jerusalem. Let us keep our eyes upon that prize. Amen. Praise God.

And if you live in Jerusalem today, you could be murdered. But in the Jerusalem of paradise, there will be no death, no pain, no suffering, no prostate problems, no kidney problems, no blood pressure problems, no infections, no viruses, no bacteria.

Let us keep our eyes on the prize. Amen. Praise God. And the greatest part of it is not just the location and eternal life, but being in the presence of the One that loved us so much that He died for our sins, that designed us, that wanted to bring us into creation, that we were not an accident, that we are not orphans, that we are not unwanted, that He actually wanted us, designed us, and had a plan for us and solved it through to the end. Amen. Praise God.

It's about relationship. Amen. Praise God. God has been faithful. He continues to be faithful to show us the future and to prepare us for the future. Amen.

Let's blow the... I think we'll pray first and then blow the shofar. Let's go in prayer.

Lord Heavenly Father, Happy 10th month. Thank You, Lord, for getting us through the ninth month of the biblical year.

Thank You, Lord, that You are faithful to see us through. Even in our sickness, even in our pain, that You are there, that You are able to give us comfort and strength and endurance and perseverance, that You are able to see us through the storm. Thank You, Lord, that You test us and make us stronger.

Thank You, Lord, that You are making an army of strong people, strong individuals, and a strong church.

Praise be to Your name. Thank You, Lord, for giving us even additional confirmation and proof of the letters J and E in Your name, in ancient languages, how You continue to confirm Your truth. People are truly without excuse.

Thank You, Lord, for this message that we're about to receive. We pray, Lord, that You help us to understand the truth and let us not deceive ourselves.

Let us not be deceived by any angel, by any spirit, by any person, by any organization, church or pastor, family member or friend.

Let us not be deceived but rather walk in Your truth and only Your truth, for it is the only truth.

We receive this word in Jesus' name. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen. Praise God.

Let us turn to 2 Thessalonians, 2 Thessalonians, chapter 2, and I need to blow the shofar as soon as I get to this page here.

The Bible does say to blow the horn on the new moons and the sabbaths. Praise Jesus.

Sermon titled, significant signs in the spring 2024. Significant signs in spring 2024.

Today's date, December 13, 2023, the first day of the tenth biblical month, and it is also the sixth day of Hanukkah.

Happy Hanukkah, everyone. We continue to celebrate Hanukkah. We continue to light our lights each evening.

Here in 2 Thessalonians 2, verse 1, Now we request you, brethren, about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him.

That you not be quickly shaken from your composure or be disturbed either by a spirit or message or letter as if it was from us to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

Let no one in any way deceive you. It is not until the hypocrisy, the falling away, comes first and the man of lawlessness or the man of sin is manifested, the son of perdition also could be translated, son of destruction, and we know that's talking about the end time antichrist, the son of perdition.

Many people like to point to another Bible verse that says that there are many antichrists and that they're already in the world. Absolutely. Amen.

But this, in the context and the wording, is very specific to one particular son of destruction.

One individual in the end time, in the very end time, of this generation. That's very clear in this context, extremely clear.

So when these people bring up that there are many antichrists, those people are going to eventually suffer from their foolishness.

That's the rule of life. If you're a foolish person, you will suffer the consequences of your foolishness.

The context is very clearly talking about one end time individual that we know will be the end time New World Order leader.

The Muslims call him the Mahdi. The Christians call him, traditionally, we call him the antichrist. So let's not strive about words. Amen.

Then, verse 4, who opposes and exalts himself above everyone. In other words, he opposes everyone while at the same time exalting himself above everyone, called God.

Or object of worship. That includes Allah or any other God exalting himself above the gods of the religions of the earth. He exalts himself above all.

So he's calling himself God. And so that he will sit in the temple of Theos, the temple of God, exhibiting or showing himself as being Theos.

That's very clear. But people misinterpret that and twist it to say that he's standing on the temple mount or in a Jewish temple. But it does not say a Jewish temple.

And it does not say the third temple or an empire's temple or such and such a temple. But only God's temple. Amen.

And if we allow the Bible to interpret itself instead of us interpreting the Bible, it does say in Revelation 11, perhaps verse 19, says that the temple of God is in heaven.

We don't have any Bible verse in Daniel, in the book of Revelation, in Thessalonians, any words in the Bible. We don't have any Bible verse that actually says that the temple will be rebuilt.

It doesn't say it. It takes interpretation. And when you deal with people's private interpretations, which the Bible says we should not have a private interpretation, a prophecy.

When you have those private interpretations, what people think is traditional eras, doctrine eras, traditions of man, not scripture. Scripture interprets it as being the temple in heaven.

Now if he's standing on the temple mount or a Jewish temple, it would not call it God's temple because any rebuilt temple in our age would be anti-Christ.

It would be against God and God would not claim it as his and it would not say God's temple because the Jews would not be worshipping the true God of Israel within such a temple.

And the animal sacrifices would be contrary to the blood of Christ. Therefore it would not say in the temple of God if it was a Jewish temple.

It was a temple of God with animal sacrifices during the lifetime of Christ. It was commanded to be built. God commanded it. The animal sacrifices was commanded during that time. Therefore it was not yet anti-Christ.

But a Jewish temple built in our time would not be commanded by God, is not commanded by God. We do not have a prophecy of him commanding it to be rebuilt.

It's just private interpretation, which the Bible says we should not have. It's very clearly that this is such a great manifestation that deceives the entire world.

If you read Revelation 13, the entire world will be worshipping him. And if you look down in verse 11, it calls it a strong delusion or a strong deception.

This is not a very weak deception but rather a very strong deception. A man standing on the Temple Mount or sitting in a Jewish temple would not be worshipped by the majority of Christians or Buddhas or Hindus.

Only the Jews would worship him. The Muslims would not worship him. The Christians would not worship him by the majority. It has to take something of very, very strong, extreme manifestation in order to get the whole world, including the Muslims and the Buddhas and the Hindus and the Christians, to worship him outside of Judaism.

Only him appearing in the sky would be that strong, would be that powerful. Only a fallen angel appearing as if he was Christ returning in the sky in a pre-tribulation rapture.

Only something that significant, only something that amazing, that strong, that mind-blowing, would be powerful enough to get all religions, co-existence, one-world religion, to actually work. Amen.

So, if we allow the Bible to interpret itself, and if we use common sense and logic, because the truth is always logical.

Verse 5, remember that while I was still with you, I was telling you these things. And do you know who restrains him? Talking about Michael the archangel in Daniel 12, verse 1. How he restrains him so that in his time he will be manifested.

Verse 7, for the mystery of lawlessness or sin is already at work, only he who now restrains Michael the archangel would do so until he, Michael the archangel, is taken out of the way. That's not the church.

If we allow the Bible to interpret itself, referring back to Daniel 12, verse 1, the Bible interpreting itself rather than man's false doctrine errors, trying to claim it's the church being taken away when you don't have any verse verifying that. It's just made up.

Verse 8, then that wicked one will be manifested whom the Lord will slay with the breath of his mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of his coming. That is, the one whose coming is in cooperation with the strong work of Satan. Right there it shows you it's not Satan itself, the antichrist, but in cooperation with the work of Satan. And it's a very strong work of Satan. With all power and signs and deceiving wonders. Miracles. Amen. And signs that deceive people. Amen.

We have to remember that just because somebody raises the dead or heals the sick or can bring fire down from heaven, just because they can do these things doesn't mean that they are of God automatically. Because even the devil can work miracles. People need to remember that. People fall for demonic miracles all the time.

Verse 10, and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish because they did not receive the love of the truth as to be saved. In order to be saved you have to have a love of truth. Which is why most Christians are not saved. Because they don't love the truth. And the truth makes no matter, no difference to them at all.

Verse 11, for this reason, Theos was sent upon them a strong deception. It is God himself that will cause the deception. That will bring the deception to the false Christians. To believe that they are propitiating, or seeing, eyewitnessing rather, in the preacher rapture. But yet not be taken.

It's pretty amazing that all Christians will be left behind by what they have been praying and watching for.

They will believe a lie. Amen. It says they will believe a lie. Verse 12, In order that they all may be judged or condemned who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. And that's really the whole world according to Revelation 13. Amen. It's really the whole world.

You can also look at Revelation 12, and perhaps that might be verse 19 as well, talking about Satan has deceived the entire world. Amen. The entire world.

This is a powerful warning for our generation as we head closer and closer to the great tribulation. It's something that we need to remember.

It's something that the pastor of the church, myself, that I must preach and remind people of and try to get out there to more people.

Now in connection with this, we have three major heavenly signs to occur in the spring of 2024. Only three and a half months away.

In the months of March and April of 2024, we should pay attention to three major important heavenly signs.

Now first, let me say that I am not declaring, thus say of the Lord, that the great tribulation or the anti-Christ will be manifested in this coming spring of 2024. I'm not saying that.

But what I am saying is that there are heavenly signs at that time. And we should pay attention to and not ignore heavenly signs.

We have seen heavenly signs as well as significant signs of the end time. In previous years, multiple different previous years, we have seen repeatedly signs in the months of March and April.

They were extremely important, extremely significant. We should have been watching and we did watch, and I don't regret watching, the heavenly signs that God brings.

The point of the heavenly signs is to cause one more person, another person, another person, more and more people to pay attention and to understand and realize and to embrace the truth that we're getting much closer to the great tribulation.

And to help people realize and understand and believe what time of year that it will occur, the season in which it will occur, whatever year it will occur, the season, the timing, even the specific Holy Day in which it will occur on. That's very important. We should not ignore such signs that God wants us to pay attention to.

Now these particular signs of 2024, I'm going to list in very brief one, two, three, and then we'll talk about them.

The first one will be on the day of Purim, March 25th. Purim is March 24th and March 25th, 2024.

During the night of the 24th, or you could say morning of 25th, however you want to say it, there will be almost a total lunar eclipse in the United States.

Even though this is not in the Middle East, it is significant because how there's three different signs that line up one after another and the dates in which they occur.

So just because they're not in the Middle East, or at least two of them are not in the Middle East out of the three, we shouldn't completely ignore it when we have three lining up on significant dates, regardless of the location.

You could consider that Washington, D.C. being in the United States, and also the fact that the United States is significant to the end time judgment, because if you destroy America, you destroy the world. Amen.

If you destroy America, then you destroy the policemen of the world. Amen. The dictators and evil can reign over the entire planet.

So it's very significant. Anything relating to Washington, D.C., anything relating to America affects the entire world. It has always been that way in the American civilization during modern times, so you shouldn't just blow it away just because it's not in the Middle East.

So we have almost a total lunar eclipse. Some people would say it's not 100% lunar, that they ain't going to pay attention to it. It's something like 98%, 97%. I don't know the percentage. It's almost total lunar eclipse on the specific date of parent, not just any day.

Then the second thing is almost a total solar eclipse on April the 8th. This is only 14 days apart. And that total solar eclipse is on the last day of Ramadan. Am I saying it right? Ramadan, the Islamic month.

Now, it also would be the last day of God's biblical month as well, of the 12th month, I think.

The 13th, I think. We have the 13th. Okay, so maybe it's not that I thought it was. We'll have to double check that. I thought maybe the Muslim month goes with the God's month, starting with the crescent month.

I don't know if that gets off sync when we have a 13th month. Well, we'll have to check into all that. But it's the last day of Ramadan, for sure. So that's April the 8th. And that's still a significant date, even if it's not a holy day in our calendar.

Because Ramadan is the month of terrorism. It is a very holy month in the Islamic calendar.

Then the third thing is the appearance of Comet 12P/Pons-Brooks, which is nicknamed the Devil Comet.

I didn't nickname it that. That's what they're calling it throughout the mainstream news websites, the Devil Comet.

And it will be perhaps seen with the naked eye by the end of March. That's what they're predicting by the end of March.

So, March 25th is the lunar eclipse on Purim. And it's probably right in that week, perhaps even that day, that it will become visible to the naked eye.

That's huge. If you have the lunar eclipse, and Purim, and the Devil Comet becoming visible to the naked eye, all three at the same time, and also it's during the month of Ramadan, that's pretty significant.

As I said, Ramadan is the holy month of Islam, when traditionally, historically, we have seen a lot of terrorist attacks and wars and different things to occur during that time frame.

Ramadan is March 10th through April 8th. It varies year to year, but that's the way it will be in 2024.

If I look at 2025, we don't see, as far as I know right now, I've not been able to find, I've not heard of, any huge major events of anything like this.

Where you have multiple eclipses, where you have a comet, where it's happening on the holy days. It's unique to 2024, as far as if we compare it to 2025.

Now, let's break this down a little bit. The lunar eclipse on Purim, March 24th, March 25th, that would be a full moon, because Purim always occurs on the full moon.

And yet, it is also almost a complete, almost total lunar eclipse on Purim. But it's also, in the Catholic church and Orthodox churches, it is Palm Sunday, so the Christians would seize upon that, their tradition of it being Palm Sunday.

And the Jews would seize upon it as being Purim. So you have Judaism and the false Christians as well, seeing that it's occurring on a significant date.

Now, let's look at some Islamic prophecies, hadiths, and also what the Qur'an says. Now, of course, we don't believe in Islamic hadiths.

But it's important to consider what the Muslims predict, what they say, what they believe, what they claim, because they historically do use the Qur'an and history, historical dates, holy days in their religion.

They use all these things in the hadiths to try to validate their wars and their religion and their lies and their deception, their evil and their wickedness.

So we can't ignore these things. Even though we don't believe in Islamic hadiths, we should not ignore what they believe, because they use that as their techniques.

There is a Hadith, I guess from the 10th century AD, that says this. It says, "For our Mahdi, there are two signs which have never appeared before since the creation of the heavens and the earth. Namely, the moon will be eclipsed on the first night of Ramadan, or on the first of the nights of which a lunar eclipse can occur. And the sun will be eclipsed on the middle of the day, and these signs have not appeared since God created the heavens and the earth."

Now, they interpret this different ways to where it might not have to be, statistically, on the first night and the middle night of Ramadan.

Now, it does mention the lunar eclipse first, and in this cycle of three signs of 2024, it is the lunar eclipse that occurs first, but it's not the first day of Ramadan.

So it would be incorrect in the timing, but they wouldn't care. That wouldn't matter to them. They would still seize upon it that it is the lunar occurring first out of the three, and that it is in the month of Ramadan.

And they do try to twist things, even like Christians try to twist the Bible, the Muslims also twist the Qur'an. So they would still seize upon this as a claim of a fulfillment of Islamic prophecy.

And there could be a lot of Muslims that are looking forward to these signs as the appearing of the Mahdi, because they know these hadiths, they know their prophecies, so forth.

They would be praying, they would be praying, that the Mahdi will appear this next spring.

Now, most Muslims don't actually believe in this particular Hadith, but it doesn't matter, because if it were to be fulfilled of the Antichrist, or their Mahdi, appearing on that date, they would automatically start embracing it.

So it doesn't matter whether they currently embrace it or not. They would seize upon it as another piece of evidence, so called, for their religion.

Now there's another Hadith, I don't know how well it's accepted, but I believe probably more so. Another Hadith that says this, quote, in this other place pilgrims would be robbed, and in this other place, I don't know how to pronounce these words, there would be a herd recall from heaven.

Attention, surely the choice from his creation is so and so, so hear him and obey. That's hard to understand, but if you read between the lines, subliminally, it's talking about, during Ramadan, basically that there would be a trumpet, a sing on a trumpet from heaven.

As, in other words, subliminally, saying the coming of the Mahdi. There's another one very similar as well. So we have two or three hadiths, at least, that I know of, that I was able to find within a short period of time of researching.

At least two or three hadiths that do proclaim, at least subliminally, at least reading between the lines, the coming of the Mahdi during Ramadan.

Now there's also something we should consider in the Qur'an. Again, we don't believe in the Qur'an, but they would seize upon it if they're given the opportunity.

And it is in, what do you call it, how you say that chapter, what they call their chapters, Surah, whatever they call their chapters, chapter 75, verses 7 through 10, in the chapter or the book, maybe they call it a book, called the resurrection.

The chapter of the Qur'an is called the resurrection. And it says, "When is the resurrection," it says, "When will be the day of resurrection?" Then it says, "When the eye is dazzled and the moon is eclipsed, and the sun and the moon are brought together, man will say on that day, 'Where is the escape?'"

That's in the Qur'an. And I did verify that. It is in the Qur'an.

If you think about their version of the resurrection, it would also, even though it doesn't say it, it would also be the coming of the Mahdi. The word Mahdi is not in the Qur'an.

But the Shiites, which is what we're worried about more than anyone else, that would be Iran and Syria, they are Shiite nations. They're the ones that's going to rule, even the Sunni nations will be ruled by the Shiite nations. And Assad's version of Islam, which is the Alawi sect, is a version of the Shiite denomination of Islam. So even though the Sunnis are just as evil, but it's the Shiites that we have to worry about the most. They are the ruling party of the axis of evil. And the Shiites do believe in the Mahdi, and when they read this about the resurrection, in their mind and in their teachings, it would be related to the coming of the Mahdi. We have been saying repeatedly over the past few years, we have been saying here in this ministry, that it will be a fake coming of Christ, which we know the coming of Christ is related to a resurrection. There is a relationship there.

So if, and I'm not saying thus say of the Lord, I'm not prophesying that it will occur in 2024, the coming of the manifestation of the great tribulation, Assad finally publicly proclaiming himself as God, I'm not saying it's going to be 2024.

But these heavenly signs of the common, the lunar eclipse and the solar eclipse, all during Ramadan, and the lunar eclipse occurring on Purim, these are things that we shouldn't just totally ignore.

At the very least, at the very least, they are very strong and significant and important foreshadowings that point to a future fulfillment of the Antichrist on the same day of Purim.

Whatever day it might occur in the Roman calendar, maybe a different date, but we're talking about the biblical dates of Purim, whatever year it will be. So again, at the very least, a very important significant foreshadowing.

But there's always that possibility it could actually turn out to be the fulfillment. And if we truly have only three and a half months to go, if that's the case, which I don't know if it is or if it's not, but I can't see all of this and then keep my mouth shut about it.

That wouldn't be right, because I'm not hearing anybody else in the church point these out. I'm seeing, I'm the one seeing it. I'm the one hearing the news, paying attention to the news, keeping track of the news.

If I see these things and just turn a blind eye to it and not share with you what I am seeing, then God will hold me accountable to that. Because at the very least, it is important significant signs that God is manifesting.

It is God that controls the lunar eclipses and the solar eclipses. It is not the devil doing that. It is a sign from God. If I just keep my mouth shut and not say anything about it, God will hold me accountable for not sharing what I am seeing.

Now, we did not mention a comet in these hadiths, but I am sure that there's a hadith somewhere about comets. I'm pretty sure I've read that over the years.

And we know that traditionally and historically, comets have been a barometer of bad news. It's been a sign of historical events.

There's a comet 12P/Pons-Brooks, called the Devil Comet. Why is it called the Devil Comet? It's called that because in some of the images, pictures in outer space, that it has what they're calling two horns.

Now, to me, it doesn't look like two horns. And it's also not two tails. They're not saying that it has two tails. In all the different articles that I have seen about it, none of the articles describe it as having two tails. It's not two tails.

What it looks like to me is angel wings. When I look at it, that's what comes to my mind. It looks like an angel. Angel wings. But they're calling it two horns. So, they are calling it the Devil Comet.

Now, if they're calling it the Devil Comet, and it comes into the naked eye around March 25th, around Purim, around that week, it just said the last week of March. It didn't give a specific date of when it would come into the naked eye.

But last week of March, that would be around the time of Purim, March 25th. As it gets closer and closer, we can narrow that time down and see if it actually is on Purim or not. But, whether it occurs on Purim or not doesn't really matter. It's still that particular same week that they are predicting that it becomes visible to the naked eye.

It would, of course, be visible by binoculars even before then. But, here's another thing about it. That's just when it becomes visible to the naked eye. But, it continues to get closer to the sun after that. And, an important time frame of a comet is always the day of when it's the closest to the sun. For whatever reason, that is always the same day.

That is a significant day for the lifetime of a comet. When is it going to be closest to the sun? And, that will be right, well, the majority of the websites I saw said April the 21st, which is the day before Passover. April the 21st is the day before Passover.

And, that's significant as well. And, that could be off by a day or two because these are just estimates of times. As it can speed up, it can slow down, and it's hard to estimate the exact date of a comet when it is still months ahead of time, still months away.

So, these are estimates. So, if they said April 21st, it could actually come on Passover or the first day of unleavened bread.

Now, there's been several times in recent couple years, while they have been watching this comet over the past couple years, it has had several, what they call outbursts, where it kind of explodes. And, really, really brightens up an immediate brightening and explosion, an outburst. And, one of those outbursts recently was on October the 5th, two days before the Hamas massacre against the Israelites. Another outburst occurred on October the 31st on Halloween. Another outburst occurred November the 17th, I believe. So, there continues to be explosions and outbursts repeatedly of this comet. It would be interesting if there is a particular explosion or outburst on Purim or Passover. These would be significant if it did.

Let's go over a list of events that occurred during the month of Ramadan of 2024.

The first day of Ramadan, March the 10th, being Daylight Savings Time, begins in America. And, on the calendar, that is the official, official new moon, which we don't consider as the new moon, because their scientific new moon on the calendar is the first day of darkness, where there's no moon at all for two or three nights.

But, that is still the official new moon on that particular first day of Ramadan. So, I guess they don't go by crescent moon from that information. They must be going from the scientific darkness new moon.

So, then our calendar would be a couple of days off from theirs. The biblical calendar would probably be a couple of days off from theirs. Now, again, we have to research the difference between God's calendar and their calendar. But, from what I'm seeing right now, in front of my eyes, it looks like their calendar is about two days off from God's calendar.

Then, during Ramadan, we come to March the 14th. We know that March 14th is related to the original 2006-2008 prophecy proclaimed by this ministry. One of the very first prophecies we ever proclaimed way back 2006 was the year that this ministry started.

And, God had given me the date of March 14th. I won't go into all the details. But, it was fulfilled in March 14th of 2008 by the manifestation of a tornado in downtown Atlanta, Georgia.

The tornado hit right downtown in the major metropolitan city and did damage to CNN News headquarters as well as the Georgia Dome in that day and time, which they now have tore down and rebuilt.

The tornado had hit those two significant locations and did damage to the roof and ceiling of the Georgia Dome during the live televised basketball game.

Basketball was part of the prophecy relating to the prophecy. The date, as well as basketball having to do with the prophecy, as well as CNN News. The news was also part of the prophecy revelation as well.

So, it was a fulfillment of prophecy, a major fulfillment. And, what happened is, at that particular time, I did not have any information, revelation about Purim.

But, that was related to the Purim prophecy that we now know, that we now have understanding of, that God revealed years after that.

That that was the first time that God was starting to open my eyes to heavenly signs relating to Purim. A tornado, a storm, being a symbol of the antichrist and a heavenly sign.

March 15th is the traditional Ides of March. March 17th, Saint Patrick's Day. March 20th, Spring Equinox. March 24th, Catholic Palm Sunday.

March 24th and 25th, Purim. March 24th and 25th, total, almost total, lunar eclipse in America. And, being Purim, it is the true Ides of March. The true Ides of March is always on the full moon of March, which is Purim. So, Purim is always the true Ides of March.

So, that was very interesting because in the original 2006-2008, March 14th prophecy, the Ides of March was declared that that was significant for that prophecy.

And, at that time, like I said, I didn't understand about Purim yet. March the 29th would be Catholic Good Friday. And, March the 31st would be Catholic Easter.

And then, April the 1st, April Fool's Day. And then, April the 8th, the almost total solar eclipse in America, and the comet being visible at the same time.

This is what I forgot to say. Is that even though the comet becomes visible to the naked eye on Purim, or around in that same week of Purim, there is also a significance during the time of the solar eclipse 14 days later.

Because during the time of the solar eclipse, the comet will be visible during the eclipse right next to the eclipse in the sky.

You will be able to see with the naked eye both the eclipse in America, both the double comet and a solar eclipse both side by side in the sky over Washington, D.C.

Now, and that is, let's see, the last day of Ramadan. And all of that list is during Ramadan.

So these are significant signs that we can't sniff at. We shouldn't ignore. They're significant.

We have several significant foreshadowings, signs, in the month of March and April of some previous years, multiple years we have seen that, including way back in 2008.

How much longer will we continue to see significant signs in March and April? Will it go for another ten years?

Perhaps.

But rather we have three and a half months, or rather we have ten years or twenty years, we should not ignore what God is doing, what God is showing, what God is saying.

He's trying to get more and more and more people to understand that it will be on the day of Purim of whatever year that will shake the earth.

Spiritually, mentally, emotionally, financially, that your life will be shaken from its composure. Amen.

Let's turn to Ezekiel 33. As we turn to Ezekiel 33, I'm reminded in my mind, in my spirit, in my soul, the gods of war that we're seeing occurring right now.

The gods of war won't be over with. Amen. It will never be over with. The Israeli government is saying repeatedly that this war is not going to end this month or this year. They have said that repeatedly.

They will continue to wage war in Gaza to destroy Hamas a hundred percent and to reshape the government of Gaza, to put something different in there, which of course you're going to have the Muslims fighting them tooth and nail about whatever is to occur there.

This ain't over with. We'll still be in the midst of war in the Middle East when it comes to March and April. We have the constant threat of Iran and Hezbollah, Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Egypt, and Biden.

We have all, and Russia and China, we've got all of these constant threats dealing with the current time frame as we go into these spring months of March and April.

So, in the context of what we have occurring, it's significant to consider the possibility of what could occur in 2024.

What page number?

133. 133. Or 134, depending on your Bible when you ordered it, and rather you have the color copy or black and white copy.

But Ezekiel 33 verse 1, And he that hears the sound of the trumpet shall hear indeed, and yet not take heed, not take action, and the sword should come upon him and overtake him, his blood would be upon his own head, because he didn't prepare, he did not take action.

Verse 5, That soul is taken because of its iniquity, its sin, but the blood thereof will I require at the watchman's hand.

Verse 7, I can't ignore and keep my mouth shut. I have to blow the trumpet, I have to share what I am seeing, and these are the things that I am seeing.

When there is a lunar eclipse, a solar eclipse, and a comet on significant dates during a Gaza war, and things are increasing upon the earth, then these are things that we must pay attention to and prepare.

So I'm going to open up the chat room now on Mixlr, and if anybody has any questions about anything I have said, you're welcome to ask questions right now in the Mixlr chat room.

As well as, if you have my contact information on WhatsApp or Telegram or text messaging, if you have my contact on any of these, let's see.

Okay. Brother Jared, do you have anything? "Just a brief comment that the Islamic holy symbol is a moon, a crescent moon, and a star. They definitely pay attention to heavenly signs, even if no one else does."

Exactly. That's a good point that the Islamic symbol of the crescent moon with a star next to it, that star could represent a comet because they do look like stars with a naked eye.

A crescent moon, in this context, could even be like an eclipse of the moon, to where you only see a crescent. It's not a total eclipse, so you would still be able to see the crescent of the moon during that lunar eclipse.

Let me go over my notes and make sure that I've shared everything. 2025 is also a concern because the American presidential elections are scheduled for November of 2024, and then whoever is declared president from that election would take office in January of 2025.

So that is also a concern because I'm convinced that we'll never again have a fair and honest American election for president. We could see a civil war break out, literally, over that particular election.

So 2025 is also of grave concern. But as far as heavenly signs, I don't see those in 2025. I see these very significant signs in 2024. Perhaps those significant signs in 2024 are pointing to 2025, saying that we've got one year left.

Perhaps that's what it's saying. I don't know. The only thing I know is, I see the signs and I'm sharing them with you. And then whatever God wants to do with them, and whatever you want to do with these signs, however you want to react to the signs, that's between you and God, but I have to share what I'm seeing.

It doesn't seem that we have any questions. You got anything else, Jared? "Yeah, Freemasonry uses the sun and moon, too. Maybe a star, too."

The sun and moon are very significant symbols of Freemasonry, as well. The sun and the moon are very important Freemason symbols. So, this is pretty interesting about these heavenly signs. Very interesting.

Especially when the Qur'an talks about the resurrection occurring during an eclipse, when the moon darkens and the sun and moon are joined. So that's... If the moon is the one being darkened, rather than the sun, then it's a lunar eclipse. And that's in the Qur'an. So that's significant. We can't ignore that. I don't know whether the Great Tribulation will start in 2024 or not, but that is so significant that I think that the only thing we could do is prepare for the possibility. And if it don't happen, then praise the Lord we have another year on the line. Amen?

That's the only thing I know to do, is to share with you what I'm seeing, prepare just in case. And if it doesn't happen, praise the Lord we got more time. Amen? Praise God.

Okay. Thank you for listening, and I'll see you Saturday. We have just a couple of days left of Hanukkah. Friday is the last day of Hanukkah. And if I was a young man, in perfect health, maybe we wouldn't have services that day. But I'm not a young man, and I'm not in perfect health anymore, so I think I'd take it as a day of rest, and just see you on Saturday.

Okay, so I see you Saturday. Thank you for listening. I will put on a song to take care of the audio delay. God bless all of those that did listen to this service today, and to those that will listen to it later today as well. God bless.

Page 47 again. God bless you. Praise God. Praise God. Praise God.

Then sings my soul, my Savior, God to Thee!
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
