

Prophetic Review: Violence to Increase

Full sermon transcript.

(Notice: This is a computer generated transcript of the sermon. Therefore, there could be mistakes such as the computer rarely misunderstanding certain words, and especially periods where they don't really belong. But for the most part, the computer program outputs a very good, accurate transcript.)

He watches us, every one of us. He truly cares. He knows our sufferings and our trials and our tribulations.

As I think about that song, I think about the testimony of confirmation of today's sermon.

Brother Jared had no idea of what I was preparing last night for today's sermon.

This morning I found two bookmarks on the platform behind my desk, behind where I sit, where I keep my set of AOB Bibles and some other things.

I found these bookmarks, book markers there, and one of them says the Middle East and the other one says Europe.

What these bookmarks are is where I had gotten an extremely long time ago.

I think these are bookmarks that were originally published and printed by another ministry, a missionary ministry that I used to follow.

That purpose of them was to remind people to pray for these missionaries in the Middle East and in Europe.

One bookmark is to pray for the missionaries in the Middle East and the other one is to pray for the missionaries in Europe.

When I saw the word Middle East, immediately that came into my mind as prophecy because when we deal with prophecy, we're dealing primarily more than anything else is the Middle East, Europe. I mean the Middle East as being Israel and Iran and Egypt and so forth.

I do believe even though this was originally received to pray for the missionaries, I receive it today as seeing it this morning in the context of the sermon, the context that I did not see it laying there until this morning, but Brother Jared laid it there, did you say several days ago? Several days. Several days ago, he laid it there several days ago and I didn't see it until this morning after I had already finished preparing the sermon.

So I believe that in that context, it is confirmation of the sermon because of how prophecy deals primarily with the Middle East and then from there, prophecy deals with Europe and Great Britain and the European nations and Europe as being Russia, the Ukraine and so forth and then proceeding from there around the world to America and Australia and China and so forth and Asia and the Americas from there.

All proceeding from the Middle East and going around the globe.

God watches us, everybody on earth, but even more so, God watches his chosen people, those that are obedient to him and those that seek him in truth and are willing to grow in truth.

He watches us more than he watches the lost people that he turns ahead to because the bible does say that he turns his head away from those people even when they pray, it says that even when they fast, even when they pray, even when they sacrifice, even when they call out to him, he will turn his head away from them.

This is what it says, this is what the Bible says.

So he watches us more than anyone else, he pays attention to us and favors us and speaks to us much more than he does the wicked even though he does try to reach out to the wicked to try to get them to repent, but then eventually he gets sick and tired of that, of the rebellion and does at least temporarily and here and there give up on them until they are ready to change.

I know that goes completely contrary to what traditional religion says, but I'm telling you what the Bible says, and everything I say can be backed up with the Bible there.

So I do believe we have a divine confirmation of today's sermon and also not only that but the meme that I saw yesterday about, what did it say, something like this, that you are shocked or you are surprised, family, friends, you are surprised, you are shocked about what's happening and what is to come, what is to come, you are surprised, you are shocked about things that are to come, what, did you miss my previous 5,000 or 50,000 posts, whatever it said, you know, did you miss all these, everything I've been writing for years and years and years, everything I've said 50,000, 100,000 million posts, you've missed everything? You've missed all of this? Why are you shocked? Why are you surprised? Amen?

To see that meme, I believe it goes right along with the theme, but let's first do a small prayer and then we'll begin the sermon. We'll dig into the Scriptures and the prophetic announcements that we have made for many years. Let's go in prayer. Lord Heavenly Father, praise Your Holy Name. We thank You, Lord, for Your confirmations, Your leadership, Your guidance, Your direction, for the sermons, for the ministry, for the church and for Your people and for this day. Thank You, Lord, that You have gotten us thus far through all the trials and tribulations of our life and of this wicked world. We know that You are faithful to finish the work that You started in us and to finish the work that You started in this earth and in this universe. You saw the end from the beginning. You saw it. You are faithful and true to see it through. Praise Your Holy Name. We accept Your blessing and Your anointing upon today's worship services and on this message that we're about to receive.

We pray that this message will help us to understand more clearly and more absolute of the events that are happening right now and soon to occur and in the future. That we would understand better than before today and that we would be better witnesses of prophecy, being able to more effectively and more accurately witness to people, our families, our friends and people that we meet concerning prophecy. We know that prophecy is the Spirit of the Lord. This is what the Scriptures tell us and that at least a third of the Bible is prophecy. So we accept the importance of prophecy as being part of the Gospel, part of the Scriptures and very needful for today and the time that we live in. May Your people grow in the knowledge of the Lord and of Your will and of Your plan. And may we agree with Your plan and not resist it in any way, shape or form. Please realign our thinking, our thoughts, our beliefs. Realign our hearts and our minds, our spirits and our souls and our path to the center of Your will. Your will, Heavenly Father, not ours, not mine, but Yours. To the Father be the glory in Jesus' holy name. Amen. Amen. Praise God. Praise Jesus. Amen. Let's turn to the Bible to Daniel chapter 12. Daniel chapter 12 or chapter 11. Some words on that and we'll find out here in just a few minutes the direction that God will take us.

For the people that are tuning in for the first time, listening for the first time, we're reading from the Alpha and Omega Bible, a restoration of the original Scriptures using older manuscripts than what was used for the King James Version. And even older manuscripts than what was used for other traditional Bibles, NIV, New American Standard and other translations.

We are going back to the oldest available, most reliable manuscripts that we have of the Bible, the Alpha and Omega Bible. You're welcome to follow along in any translation that we've got available in front of you there. Daniel chapter 12. In Daniel, in Alpha and Omega Bible, we have two translations of each verse. And for each verse of Daniel you'll see two paragraphs for each verse. The top paragraph will be the Theodotion version of the first century A.D. and then the second paragraph of each verse will be what we call Old Greek which would be from anywhere from the first to the third century B.C. rather than the, or even older, rather than the first century A.D. So it's an older version of Daniel.

I was going to start in chapter 12 but I believe we'll start in chapter 11 verse 40. Chapter 11 verse 40.

Now before we read this, let's get a little bit of the context of Daniel 11. Daniel 11, in Daniel's lifetime, Daniel is seeing and hearing from God about prophetic events that would occur from his lifetime and even before his lifetime maybe up until the absolutely, even before his lifetime of Nebuchadnezzar coming to power and so forth and Nebuchadnezzar's family and grandparents coming to power and then proceeding over into the Persian empire and then the Greek empire, then the Roman empire and then the end time empire and the end time anti-Christ. Now a lot of people love to strive about words and say that the anti-Christ, that there are many anti-Christ's in the world. That is what the Bible says, absolutely, there are many anti-Christ's in the world. But when I say in the context of today's sermon, when I use the word anti-Christ, I'm using the vocabulary of a typical Christian and a typical person, Christian and non-Christian, in today's vocabulary of the world, not the vocabulary of the Bible, the vocabulary of the world, the way everybody talks, the way everybody talks in the world today. When we say the anti-Christ, everybody knows what I'm talking about, the end time person that will claim to be God, that will invade Israel, that will fight a war against the Jews and against Israel and against the saints, that will dominate the world government, that will dominate and control a one world government and one world religion. That's what we talk about and that's very clear, everybody understands that. So all those people that want to strive about words and say that there are many anti-Christ's, shut up. Amen. When I say anti-Christ, people know what I'm talking about. And so chapter 11 goes to different generations and comes down eventually to the end time anti-Christ. And all the different biblical scholars across different denominations and different study bibles that have been published by different organizations and different printing publishers and so forth, they all agree on what I just said. And then when you come down to verse 36, they all agree that that is when it transitions to the end time anti-Christ, the son of perdition, end time world leader.

All the verses in chapter 11 up to verse 36 has already been fulfilled in history. Verses 1 through 35 already fulfilled in history. Everybody agrees on that all across the world, across all different denominations and scholars. But then you're coming up to verse 36, that's when it starts talking about our generation and the end time events. They all agree on that and I agree on that as well. In verse 36 we see that the end time anti-Christ world leader will magnify and exalt himself above every god and everything called god. Right there is very revealing right there. If he is magnifying himself, exalting himself above every god of every religion, above all the Hindu gods and Buddhism gods which they claim they don't follow but they do when you research it and really carefully and sincerely examine it, they absolutely do have false gods in Buddhism even though they try to hide it but they do. He's magnifying himself above the Christian gods and all the other gods throughout the earth and also the Islamic god, Allah. So we have to understand that the end time anti-Christ figure will magnify himself above even the Islamic god of Allah. But he has to come to power through two different things at one time and that is both war and conquering as well as deception. Getting people, convincing people to follow him. So certain people he deceives to follow him and other people he conquers. Both of those occurring at the same time. So you have the deception of getting Muslims and Christians and Hindus and Buddha people and atheist people and people from all different religions on earth to covert, to change religion, to worship him.

So that's what you see right now is that how the Catholic church and people of different religions believe that we should coexist and work together as a one world religion. Not only one world government as globalism but also in coexistence of religions and what they call inner faith. Is that the term? Multi-faith, inter-faith congregations. Basically that's what it is. Where even at the crowning of King Charles that he said that even though he is the leader of the church of England that he supports, that he embraces all faiths, all religions. And there was representatives of Islam and Hinduism and so forth, different religions, representatives of several different religions present and met him and acknowledged him and so forth and showed their support at his crowning. So he's involved in this as well unfortunately. Even as God chose King Saul and King Solomon but they fell away from God. But we still acknowledge that God has called King Charles, that he is the rightful king to the throne of David in our generation according to the Bible and according to history and the facts at hand. But he is not serving God in truth but he is fulfilling God's will because God is behind everything, good and evil. God is behind everything.

There is no power that exists that does not come into existence without the approval of God and the plan of God. Everything is a plan and it's all being worked out. And the globalism and the communism and the coexistence, one world religion, one world government, the antichrist, all these things must be fulfilled.

It's all part of God's plan. So we have to remember that and that gives us peace and it gives us comfort and it should because God is truly in control. We have to remember that. So when it says here that he magnifies himself above every God, that includes Allah and there is only one man on earth right now that can fulfill that and that is Bashar Assad, the president of Syria. Most people laugh and mock at that statement but his name is in the Bible. In Revelation 13, which we are going to read in a few minutes, his name is in the Bible. We will read that later and we will address that later. So we will keep that on the table and come back to it. But his name is in the Bible. And we also have Isaiah 10 and other verses in the Bible, other chapters and other books of the Bible that we repeatedly say repeatedly over and over in the context of the end time world government, the end time antichrist, it calls the antichrist, it calls him the Assyrian. And Bashar Assad is the leader of the Assyrian nation today, the nation of Syria. And I know that in different times of history they were not the same. But they are the same today. You have more Assyrian people, population of Assyrian people in Syria today than anywhere else in the world.

And prophecy is actually simple as well as all truth is much more simple than people make it out to be. If the Bible says the Assyrian in the end time prophetic decorations of the Bible is written that way, that the end time people would understand it. You don't have to translate it into he is the president of Turkey or he is the president of Armenia or something else or something else. It is written to where we could understand it if we would just accept it and believe it. And that is easy to accept and easy to believe if we are willing to believe the Bible. The people are not really willing to believe the Bible. They are really not willing. They always want to say it is this or it is that or it is this. It is simple. The Assyrian. You can't get more simple than that. And the truth is simple. So in Bashar Assad we do have proof. We have videos on our ministry website at isawthelightministries.com. We have video proof that his soldiers do force people to say that Assad is God above Allah. That Assad is God above Allah. We have video proof of that.

So he is the only one alive today that really fits that description of what the Bible says.

And we will go down now to verse 40. Daniel 11 verse 40. And at the end of the time, the end time generation, he, Assad, will collide with the king of the south. Now we are reading the top paragraph which is the Theodotion version. But I want you now to compare that with the old Greek version. Second paragraph verse 40. At the time of the end. The king of Egypt. Not the king of the south, but the king of Egypt. So when we would compare the Theodotion version of the first century AD with the older Greek of the BC years of the same verse, the older Greek actually identifies who the king of the south is. So we no longer have to wonder who it is talking about as far as the king of the south that comes against the anti-Christ.

So here is a prophetic declaration of the Bible. It is not me, Pastor Tim, Apostle Zimmerman, I Saw The Light Ministries. It is not me. It is what the Bible says. But people want to say well that is your interpretation. They always want to say that to me and about what we say. No, it is not my interpretation. This is what the Bible says. It says it.

So we will see Egypt coming to war with Syria. That is what we are going to see. And we can already see elements of that coming into fulfillment because of how the government of Egypt right now still has a lot of the remnants of President Mubarak of the 1980s and 1990s up until the time of Obama and Obama helped overthrow Mubarak and the Muslim Brotherhood came to power in Egypt. But eventually the Vice President that was under Mubarak came back to power, overthrew the Muslim Brotherhood. So right now you still have the Mubarak assistants, his people, his people, apprentices that were under him back in power right now and they are enemies of Assad to a certain extent and they are American allies. So that helps us see the better, more complete picture. You have basically America, NATO and Israel and Saudi Arabia as American allies against Assad. So that is what we are going to see and that helps us also understand who the King of the North is because if we go back to verse 40 here and let's read the old Greek version. At the time of the end, the King of Egypt will lock horns with him, will lock horns with him and the King of the North will be very much angered at him, at Assad with chariots or ships with many horses, many ships, so shall he enter into the province of Egypt. So in this war we will see Assad invade Egypt.

Verse 41 old Greek: And he shall come into my province, 42 old Greek: Into the province of Egypt. There shall not be in it one who escapes. It's going to be a very full complete conquest of Egypt. Verse 43: And he shall lay hold on the place of gold and the place of silver and all the desire of Egypt and the Libyans and the Ethiopians should be in his multitude. That's a little confusing there about whether he will work in cooperation with the Libyans and the Ethiopians or rather he will conquer them and it could be a combination of both, conquering them from within and then they work in cooperation with him. However that comes out to be, what we do know is that Egypt will be at war with Assad and that Egypt will lose that war.

And then verse 43 old Greek: And he, Assad, will lay hold on the place of gold and silver and the desire of Egypt. Verse 44: And a report from the east and from the north will trouble him and he will come forth with strong wrath and sword to destroy utterly and to kill many. 45 old Greek: And he shall set up his tabernacle or his palace or his control then in the midst of the seas, the Red Sea and the Mediterranean Sea in that region and the desired holy mountain and then the hour of his end will come and there should be no helper for him.

In other words his empire will not be forever but rather Jesus will return to earth and conquer Assad and nobody, America, Egypt, NATO, no one will be able to conquer or kill the anti-Christ Assad except only Jesus. So once we see this happens there is no sense, there is no use in praying for Assad to die, for somebody to kill him with a sword, with a gun, with a missile or whatever because that is a vain prayer, it is a useless prayer.

There is a lot of people today praying vain useless prayers against God's will and against God's plan for world peace and so forth. You ain't going to have world peace, stop praying for it. The Bible predicts war, that is what is going to happen. You can't prevent it by fasting or praying or working in cooperation with anyone. People want to use that Bible verse that if my people will pray and fast and repent then I will heal your land. The problem with that is the Bible also says that these wars will occur and that the anti-Christ will conquer these nations and so forth and so forth and so forth. We have many different prophecies of what will absolutely occur. Absolutely occur, not an if.

So then when you compare that with the verse that says if my people will repent and fast and pray I will heal your land. That is an if compared to verses that are absolute that this is what is absolutely going to happen is war and conquest. That is an absolute not an if. So the only conclusion we can come to is that the people are not actually going to repent. Therefore God is not going to heal the land, the nations, the people, the world until all the wars happen first. So these people that think that if they get together only 160,000 Americans to pray and to fast that will change the world.

Bullcrap. You have already got that many people praying and fasting.

They do. A bunch of more than 200,000, more than 300,000, more than twice that number of people are already praying and fasting without any results. Because that scripture doesn't just say pray and fast. It says repent. They always want to leave that part out. They always leave that part out every time. You can see those memes all across the internet and you can hear them preaching and watch their videos on YouTube and every time they leave out the word repent. You can pray and fast until you are blue in the face but if you don't repent it ain't going to do no good. Amen. The people are not going to repent until the war conquers and destroys every nation. Only then will people repent. That's reality.

That's not my interpretation. That's not my opinion. It's scripture. We don't have any evidence in the Bible at all that people will actually start repenting and have a great revival or any such thing until the final year of the great tribulation. You can search the Bible diligently, sincerely, with a magnifying lens, carefully searching for any prophecy of an end time revival and it never occurs in the Bible until the final year of the great tribulation. That's clear. Even in Joel 2 and chapter 3 and in the book of Revelation chapter 7 and 14. Those two places confirm each other. That is only in the final year that people will actually start really in mass numbers start repenting. And the truth is you can repent even without fasting. You can do that. That's possible. That is possible. Absolutely.

I'm not against fasting but when people fast in vain without repentance then it's in vain. It's useless. Of course you might get health benefits but that's a whole different thing. I'm talking spiritually. If you're going to fast and fast and fast even for health benefits you're still going to eventually die. We have to have eternal life. We have to gain eternal life. This mortal must put on immortality. What is physical exercise? Even as it says in the Bible that these things have only temporary benefit.

Little benefit. Small benefit. Exercise does it says. God is not against exercise but the more important thing is eternal life. Amen. Amen. Now anytime we study the book of Daniel and the book of Revelation we must also consider Matthew 24. So let's turn there right now.

We must always consider Matthew 24. And the Parallel Gospels I think is Mark 13 and maybe Luke 21 if I'm correct on those. That Parallel Matthew 24. But we're just looking at Matthew 24.

Matthew 24 verse 1. And Jesus came out of the temple and was going away when his disciples came up to point out the temple buildings to him. And he said to them, Jesus said to him, "Do you not see all these things? I tell you the truth, not one stone here will be left upon another which will not be torn down."

So what that tells me is that the temple now is not truly a remnant of the temple. If we look in history we can actually confirm that. That the temple now is actually the western wall is actually more specifically the western wall is actually the remnants of the Antonia fortress, the Roman fortress and that even Antiochus had something to do with it as well. It is not the remnants of the original temple because Jesus said that not one stone would be left on top of another one. Alright, then verse 3. And he was sitting on the Mount of Olives and the disciples came to him privately saying this, tell us when will these things happen and what will be the sign of your coming and the end of the world. Now a lot of traditional churches, false preachers try to claim that Matthew 24 is talking about 70 AD when the temple was destroyed in 70 AD.

Which is 30 to 40 years after the death of Christ. However, that can't be true because the question was not only about the destruction of the temple but rather more so the sign of your coming and the end of the world. People say well that could also be translated the end of this age.

But the problem is 70 AD was not really the end of any age other than the end of the temple.

But it wasn't the end of the Roman Empire. It wasn't the end of the Roman conquest of the Jews or anything like that. That's why it's not the end of the age at all. When you think of age, time periods, "epochs". When you think of time eras, you in the Bible, if we use the Bible as a guide, as an instructor, as a teacher, if we allow the Bible to teach us time eras would be divided into the empire of the Babylonians, the Assyrian Empire, the Egyptian Empire, the Persian Empire, the Greek Empire, the Roman Empire. Those were the time eras of the Bible.

There was no such end of the Roman Empire in 70 AD.

And the word, the phrase here, sign of your coming. Christ did not come in 70 AD. Amen.

So that's more than anything else. More than anything, that right there is absolute proof.

The sign of your coming, your coming back. Amen. Absolute proof in that particular phrase right there is not talking about 70 AD, but rather our time, his second coming. And therefore, it should be translated into the world and not the end of the age in the context of that phrase, sign of your coming. And then also, even when you go into verses later in the chapter, verse 30, and so forth, and verse 29, then it becomes extremely clear it's not talking about 70 AD.

So that confirms it as well. So we have double confirmation there.

Then we go back to Matthew 24:4. And Jesus answered and said to them, "See to it that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and yet will deceive many people."

That can be taken two different ways. You might consider, you might read into that, that many will say that Jesus is Christ. And yet they're still going to be deceiving people with false doctrines, even though they're claiming that Jesus is God. They're still deceiving people with false doctrines, Sunday doctrines, Trinity doctrines, Christmas, Easter, a million different false doctrines of traditional Christianity.

The other way you can take it is that people are actually claiming to be the Christ. The problem with that interpretation is you don't really deceive a lot of people when you claim to be Christ. You might deceive a cult group of 100 people, 200 people, 1,000, 2,000, even 10,000. There are some really large cults that believe that Christ already walks on earth.

Jehovah Witness is one example of that, that they believe that Christ is already on earth.

It's a very demonic, silly, ridiculous doctrine. I don't see how anybody would be so foolish to be entrapped by the Jehovah Witnesses and other cults that believe that Christ is already on earth. It's just mind-blowing ridiculous. How can anybody fall for something so ridiculous? I have no idea. But there it is. There it is. Verse 6, and you will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place. But it's not yet the end. For race or nation will rise against race and nation, and kingdom and realm, against kingdom and realm, and against places where there will be famines and earthquakes or Herod camps. But all these are the beginning of birth pains.

Birth pains. So in other words, just like a woman that is pregnant, that over time her pain will increase as it gets closer and closer and closer to the actual true date of her given birth. In the symbolism here, all of the trials and tribulations of the world increase over time until they explode into the actual birthing of the great tribulation. And just like a real pregnancy of a woman, there would even be false labor, where the woman thinks that she is going in labor a month early, two months early, three months early, that she is going to give birth early. That happens extremely often. So if we use that symbolism of a woman that is pregnant, we can understand these things.

Now, a lot of people would say that atheists and mockers and people that don't believe that we're at the door of the great tribulation, they will say, well, people thought it was the end of the world in World War II, even in World War I, even probably even in the Civil War and the Revolutionary War, people thought that it was the end of the world. Yes, yes. Even in the time of the prophets of the Old Testament, people thought it was the end of the world. Yes. Even Peter in Acts 2 thought it was the end of the world, that it was the opening of the sixth seal. Yes. In many different times in history, because of intense warfare, because of volcanoes, they thought it was the end of the world. Comets, they thought it was the end of the world.

So why, how can we know that this is truly, truly, truly, truly, finally the last generation and that this next war is really the end of the world? How do we know that? Well, for one thing, we can look at Ezekiel 37, the Valley of Dry Bones, that pictures two different things. And one thing it pictures is the second resurrection, a physical resurrection of dead people coming back to life and a restoration of Israel, of the Israelite tribes, the Americans, the British, the Jews, the people of Denmark, Ireland, Scotland, all being coming back together again. That's one thing, a prophecy of the second resurrection. But it is also a prophecy of regathering of the Jews all across the world coming back to the land of Israel. It is a prophecy of that as well.

And that second interpretation is the most commonly accepted interpretation and it is correct, but they leave out the prophetic picture of the second resurrection because they have no knowledge of the second resurrection because they never read Revelation 20. They just completely ignore Revelation 20. And when they do read it, they don't understand it at all because it proves them wrong about immediate heaven and hell upon death. It proves them wrong, therefore they have absolutely no understanding at all of Revelation 20 and do not get the full understanding of Ezekiel 37.

But we do have that prophecy that has the two different meanings as a lot of prophecy has two different fulfillments. A lot of prophecy has at least two different fulfillments. But it is in part a prophecy of regathering of the Jews which was fulfilled in my mom, my dad, their lifetime. Amen. I'm not talking about our great-great-great-great-grandparents, but rather our parents and some of you that might be older than the hills in your lifetime. Amen.

So that's our generation. That is our generation.

And that is the time era that we are living in right now.

So it was not actually possible for the end of the world to come in all the previous generations, but now it is possible because that particular prophecy has now been fulfilled and had to be fulfilled before the end of this generation. It is now fulfilled. That makes us, our generation, different than all the other generations before us. It makes us much, much different than all the other generations that was wrong about when the end of time would come.

Also, we now have nuclear bombs.

And we also now have Assad, whose name is in the Bible, which we're going to read in a few minutes.

So the fact that we have the end-time Antichrist alive on earth, and also the fact that we did have two popes until recently, which I believe very possible that we'll have two popes again before it's done and over with. Very possible. But we never, well we did have two popes before sometime in history I think, but the majority of time in history we very, very rarely had two popes in human history. Extremely rare. So the fact that we recently had two popes is one of those shakings, a spiritual shaking, a spiritual foreshadowing.

Amen. A foreshadowing of things to come, which is a very extremely rare event. And so the list goes on and on and on. We also had the invention of COVID and now the false COVID vaccines. That is a new event. The chemical warfare and so on and so on.

These are things that are unique to our generation. Even though you had epidemics that killed millions of people before that, but now we've got worldwide genocide. So you've got the combination of the worldwide genocide and you see the one world government coming into existence. You see the one world religion coming into existence. You never really had any of these things before this generation. So everything, all the different pieces of the puzzle are now coming together.

That piece of the puzzle of the Jews coming back to Israel. That next piece of the puzzle of COVID and the fourth seal of epidemic and death in the context of not only viruses that have always existed and epidemics that have always existed, but the mixing of the iron with the vaccine, the fake vaccine, Daniel 2, that you would have the toes, feet of the iron mixed with clay and it says and it prophesizes in Daniel 2 that they, the Nephilim, the new world order, the Antichrist, would mix iron with clay. That's more than just nations. That is the DNA of humans.

When you examine the agent words, what those words mean, the context of it, there's an indication there of the pollution of human blood and human DNA. That's what is indicating extremely strongly there in that particular wording in Daniel 2. We never had that before until this generation.

We have Elon Musk, the World Economic Forum, Charles Schwab, Bill Gates that were not present in the present form that we see them in today until this generation. The internet, IBM, Apple, all of these different components of globalism and the new world order and the ability of those people, those entities, those demons to conquer the entire world in ways that were not possible into our generation. Nuclear warfare, ships, missiles, so forth and so forth, airplanes, jets, tanks, the equipment that we have today was not possible to conquer the world into our generation. Also, you would not expect a delay of another 100 years or even another 20 years because how the puzzle is now almost complete, it's almost finished, it's almost complete.

All the pieces of the puzzle are coming together. We are only lacking really only maybe two pieces of the puzzle. It's all the things that are lacking to be fulfilled. The war in Egypt and so forth that has to come into action and that's only going to come in action only in the final days, a month or two before it actually happens. So once that occurs, it's not going to be 10 or 20 years. Amen. So the pieces of the puzzle are coming into action as we speak.

Now we'll continue in Matthew 24 here. Verse 9, "And then they will deliver you up to tribulation or trial and will murder you and you will be hated by all nations because of my name."

Think about that right there, because of my name.

The name Yeshua, Yahweh and those hundred different variations of the letter Y, Assyrian names which people falsely call Hebrew. People are not hated for those names.

Those names are openly and lovingly embraced by the Freemasons, the Shriners, the New World Order people, the powerful elite witches, Satanists, Torah cults, the list goes on and on and on. You're not hated for the letter Y Assyrian names that they falsely call Hebrew, but you are hated for Jesus' name. Absolutely. Amen.

You're hated for Jesus' name. More and more and more Christians, false Christians, fake Christians and other so-called believers are turning against Jesus' name, rebuking Jesus' name, hating Jesus' name, speaking against Jesus' name and in large numbers more and more and more and more every year. It's a very demonic, dark manifestation of spiritual warfare against Jesus' name.

It is a fulfillment of prophecy right there. That's another piece of the puzzle coming into play. Never in history since the first century AD has there been so much hatred of Jesus' name.

Verse 10, "And at that time many will fall away."

That's part of the war against Jesus' name. People falling away against Jesus' name and they will betray one another and hate one another and many false prophets will rise with deceived meaning. All these different people saying Planet X will crash into the earth this month, two months from now, three months from now, that the rapture is going to happen today, that the rapture is going to happen this year. You get even more of that junk on YouTube and the internet every year. It only increases and yet people still fall for it.

If they would just read the Bible, just Matthew 24 alone and Daniel and Revelation throughout the Bible, it's impossible for Jesus to come back before the tribulation.

Totally impossible.

It ain't going to happen if you just read the Bible. If you just read the Bible instead of listening to John Hagee and all the other false prophets out there.

Verse 12, "Because transgression of the law will increase. Most people's love will grow cold or increase cold."

So again, the Sunday churches, the hyper-graced churches, the co-exists, they compromise with Buddhism. All these things are what we are seeing being fulfilled now more than we have in 2,000 years. That's the truth.

The breaking of God's law, the teaching against God's commandments. Verse 13, but the one who abides or endures, perseveres in Christ to the end, that person will be saved.

So we see there that there's a measure of salvation that even though we're saved at baptism, we're not truly, fully, completely saved until we actually return to spirit.

Amen? And that we must endure in Jesus all the way to the end of our life.

This is not talking about physical survival. It's not. It's not talking about physical survival.

It's talking about spiritual survival. Amen? Stand in the tree of life, John 15.

Stand within the tree of life all the way to death and into the next life. Amen.

So that right there is also proof against the once saved, always saved through the Jesus.

Verse 14, "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world will be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come." All these people that believe in Billy Graham and Joel Osteen and traditional religion, Sunday religion, Christmas religion, Easter religion, if that was the true gospel, the end of the world would have already come. Amen.

The fact that the end has not yet come proves to us that their gospel is not the true gospel. Amen.

Because their gospel had already reached around the world already. Long time ago. But the true gospel, this gospel, amen, the real gospel will be preached in all the world and not until then will the end come. Well, that was impossible until radio, TV, the internet.

That was impossible in previous generations. That's another piece of the puzzle. That's not possible into our generation.

So again, over and over and over and over again, for the first time in all of human history, the end is actually truly and truly possible to come. Amen.

Verse 15, "Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, let the reader understand that those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains."

In other words, the time has come, finally. When you see this event, when you see the abomination of desolation, then that is when you must flee, you must hide. According to Daniel 12, you only have 30 days to go into a hiding place and then the great tribulation starts.

Problem is, everybody misinterprets what is the abomination of desolation. That's the problem.

And they also misinterpret what is the holy place. Everybody thinks it's an earthly event.

The problem of that false interpretation, the traditional interpretation, the problem of that is if you have a man standing on the temple mount claiming to be God, he's not going to deceive more than maybe 10,000 people max, 20,000 max, not millions. And that won't be sufficient to gain control of the whole world. And a peace treaty is also a false interpretation of Daniel 9.

It doesn't say peace treaty. There's no way that you can make it say peace treaty. The context does not have anything to do with a peace treaty. So they continue, traditional religion continues to misinterpret the Bible without any confirmations in the Bible to back up what they're trying to teach. And their prophecies are not simple. And their doctrines are not simple, but rather very confusing, which is why the Bible calls it Babylon, the word that means confusion.

The real interpretation, according to the Bible and not my opinion, is that the temple that is talking about in 2 Thessalonians 2 and Revelation 11, and when you compare this verse with those verses, the temple and the holy place is not on earth, but in heaven. Revelation 11:19, that's not my opinion. That's what the Bible says. Revelation 11:19, the temple in heaven.

That's what it says, the temple of God in Heaven. So that's not my interpretation. That's what the Bible says. The fact is the temple now is not the remnants in the Western Wall, rather to be more correct. The Western Wall is not the remnant of the Holy Temple, according to the words of Christ. But rather, history shows, is the Roman and Syrian fort, Antonia fort. It's not a holy place. And it won't become a holy place. If the Jews were to begin doing animal sacrifices today, it still would not be a holy place. The definition of what the Jews call holy is not the definition of what God calls holy. If they were to start doing animal sacrifices, it would not be holy, but wicked. Because animal sacrifices are contrary against the blood of Christ Jesus. God and the Scriptures would not call it a holy event or a holy place. The holy place and the Holy Temple in our time is not on earth built by human hands. Not. But rather it is in heaven built by God. And that's simple and logical and biblical. If you look at 2 Thessalonians 2, it's very clear that it's a heavenly event. What it is is a false rapture, a false coming of Christ. That's the abomination of desolation. It says that He, the son of perdition, 2 Thessalonians 2, will sit in the, however it says it, the seat of God. I think it says it. That He will sit in the seat of God.

And people say, that is blasphemy. How dare you, they say. They say, how dare you try to claim that God will allow a demon, a fallen angel, the antichrist, to sit in his seat in heaven.

That ain't going to happen, they say. Impossible, they say. But it's exactly what the Bible says.

And they reject what the Bible says. They reject what the Bible says because they are blinded by the teachings of men and women. They are blinded by the teachings of humanity while rejecting what the Bible says. Yes, it would be a very blasphemous thing. That's why it calls it abomination. It's not an abomination so much just to stand on the temple mount.

It is a greater abomination to sit in the seat of God, which is exactly what it says is going to happen. The seat of God is not on the temple mount. Last time I looked at a satellite picture or a live webcam, I did not see the seat of God on the temple mount. They said, oh, but it will be built. They got planes, they got blueprints, they got the approval, they got the animal sacrifice, they got... They've been saying that for fifty years too.

Every year, oh, this is when it's going to start because they're going to do the animal sacrifices of this Passover there. This makes it able to be fulfilled. It's going to happen now because they did the animal sacrifice because they killed one goat, because they killed one sheep, or whatever, whatever, whatever. I couldn't count the number of times I've heard this crap.

Verse 16, those in Judea flee to the mountains. People always ask the question. Well, that's the people in Judea. That they must flee. What about us and other nations? Common sense, the great tribulation will not be limited to the Middle East, or just to the Jews, or just to the Judeans. Amen? The great tribulation, according to the Bible, Book of Revelation and Daniel, the great tribulation is going to be worldwide.

It's going to be worldwide conquest. Every nation on earth, we're going to read that in the verse here in a minute here, that the Antichrist will be given every nation on earth. Every nation.

You see people, you see groups, you see cults saying, oh, let's flee to Jamaica, let's flee to Arkansas, let's flee to whatever, you know, let's flee to Disney World, let's flee to the Bahamas. They treat it like a vacation. Let's flee to the beach island hotel.

Crazy, crazy stuff. You're not going to be able to escape the great tribulation by just moving to a different nation. The great tribulation will be in every nation. So, it would be wise for anybody in every nation to flee to the safest place that they could possibly find. And the wise thing would be to even do that right now as far as getting out of the urban cities, the danger zones, where there is the most crime, the most murder, the most robbery, the most rape, the most communism, to try to get out of those areas earlier rather than later for the sake of your family, for the sake of your own safety and prosperity, to help yourself. Amen. That's the wise thing to do is not have to wait to the last moment. Amen. If you wait to the last moment, you might end up with nothing but just a backpack and that's it.

Even as these people here in this chapter and the parallel gospels as well, that they're not even going to have time to go in and pack the clothes and get ready. They're not going to have any supplies. Whereas, if you were to at least get out of the worst danger zones, you might have more than just a backpack to take with you into the great tribulation to help you survive.

Because I'll tell you what, survival will not be easy in the great tribulation. There's a lot of people that have the mentality that they're going to do so very well that they're not going to lose any weight, that they're going to be well supplied, well equipped, well skilled, and they're going to just prosper so beautifully. I would advise those people that mentality to watch just one episode of the TV show called Naked and Afraid. The people on there, a lot of those people, are survival experts who even teach survival skills. A lot of them do. But when they get into that situation of 21 to 40 days in the wilderness with nothing but a knife and a fire starter, they come out 20-50 pounds thinner than what they started out.

20 to 50 pounds weight loss in only two to three weeks to four or five weeks time a month, two months time max, two months max time, 20 to 50, 60 pounds probably. That's mind blowing. Think about that. It's not going to be easy and we're going to need one another. We're going to need every person possible to help with fishing and hunting and surviving and everyday chores. We're not going to be just sitting around in lawn chairs all the time.

We're going to be working, working, working, working, working every day.

But it will be such a wonderful time in another aspect, another way of thinking accurately. At least, at least despite all of that, it will be a great deliverance from the bondage of the internet, computers and cell phones and carnal jobs and false or demonic laws, wrong laws that they had put against the people and many other things that are corrupt about society that will be destroyed and turned upside down. It will be in our favor.

A lot of people will hate being without electricity and without phone and internet and cars and jobs, but it will be a great deliverance. It will be the best thing ever happened to us except for salvation, of course. It will be a great time in that aspect, but it will at the same time be very trying and difficult. Every one of us will lose family, friends and people, acquaintances, people that we know to death through starvation and disease, famine and earthquakes, war, invasion, biological war, nuclear war. It's going to be a lot of death, millions and millions and millions of people to die very quickly. It's going to happen very quickly once it starts beginning. Once it starts beginning, it's going to be an avalanche that everything one after another after another will just be an avalanche of disaster and we must prepare for it. We must prepare for it, absolutely.

According to this, you read this entire chapter and the entire Bible. It does not say that God's people, the saints, will be taken up into heaven, therefore you don't have to worry about any of this. When did Jesus say this?

When did He say this? He never said that, never. Paul never said it. Peter, Paul, Matthew, Mark, you look at all the prophets and apostles and disciples and Christ Himself, they never said don't worry about the anti-Christ, don't worry about these events, don't worry about these prophecies. We're given these prophecies but you're not going to be here to see it. Bullcrap. It's really very silly, traditional doctrine of a pre-tribulation rapture. It's a very silly doctrine, very silly.

Why would God give these prophecies if you're not going to see them being fulfilled in the last generation? He's given the prophecies to the church, to the church, to the saints and yet you're not going to see it? That's crazy talk, that's crazy talk. We can skip down here to save time in the sermon.

Verse 21, "Then there will be a great trouble. Such has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now nor ever will be, and unless those days will be ended no life will be preserved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be ended." And that just simply means that the great tribulation will not last forever. Amen, that's all that means and that if it were to continue, if Christ were not to come back, then mankind would destroy themselves and destroy that all life on earth would be destroyed through nuclear and biological war and so forth that the genocide would be successful against every human on earth if Christ did not come back but he is coming back and there will be an end to the great tribulation. There's a lot of people that think that this means that the great tribulation will not be a complete three and a half years. That's silly talk. You have to have the fulfillment of all seven seals. You have to have the fulfillment of every word in the Bible. Every word in the Bible has to be fulfilled. To say that the great tribulation will only be what they claim. What's Revelation 9? Five months. That's what it is, five months.

That men will be tormented five months by the locusts. They say that the great tribulation will be shortened to five months because it says five months in Revelation 9. These people are so insane. It's so ridiculous what people think. If you really think that the great tribulation will be cut short to only five months, then you're not going to have the fulfillment of everything in the Bible. All seven seals, all seven trumpets, the seven last plagues.

Come on people. The doctrines that people fall for are so crazy. Crazy, crazy, crazy, crazy, crazy. I even saw on the internet more than, at least one person I saw on the internet teaching that the seals are not even in order. What? Oh, come on. People are crazy.

And they fall for it. They've got more followers than I do and yet they're teaching such crazy, insane doctrines and are able to get thousands upon thousands upon thousands of people to follow their YouTube channels and their websites and everything. And people just fall for that insane, stupid, stupid, stupid, stupid doctrines. People are crazy. And that's the fulfillment of Daniel. You know, I missed that verse. Hold your page here. I missed that verse in Daniel. Let's go back to Daniel about madness filling the earth. Amen.

Daniel 12:4. As for you, Daniel.

Actually, let's read the Old Greek (second paragraph), verse 4. "And you, Daniel, conceal or close out the words and seal the scroll until the time of the end, until the earth be filled with madness or violence and unrighteousness."

I put madness slash violence because that particular Greek word is difficult to translate with just one English word. So I put both words there because it has a little bit of a meaning of both. It is in the sense of the world becoming filled with violence because of people's insanity, because people are crazy, insane.

And that's what we see right now with Bill Gates and Klaus Schwab and Biden and other one world leaders that are trying to get all nations to become one, one world religion, one world government is that the world is being ruled by mad scientists. That's what's happening, mad scientists, corrupting human DNA, trying to kill people on purpose by the billions, poisoning the water, poisoning the food, the air. The list goes on and on and on. The world is being ruled by mad scientists. Amen? And even those that are not scientists, men that are mentally insane are ruling the world and controlling what's happening and trying to bring all this to pass.

Not until the time of Nikola Tesla in the late 1800s did we have this level of wicked knowledge. That's what it is, wicked knowledge, technology, the iron industry, the industrial revolution of the late 1800s, early 1900s into the technological revolution and so forth. These revolutions that they claim improved mankind actually is destroying mankind. Amen?

So we should not be surprised by the increase in violence in our cities, our nations, because the Bible predicted the increase in violence and the increase in insanity. I've got to tell you, I'm not a young man. I've been preaching for something like 16 years and even before that, I've always my entire life since I was 10 years old, kept up with what's going on in the news, the world events and studied the Bible and so forth and examined the issues of the world even as a child. I'm not a young man anymore and I've been around the block quite a few times and I feel like that I've lived several lifetimes even though I've not and I do not believe in reincarnation. I'm not saying that so please do not misunderstand what I'm saying, but rather I'm saying that I have lived a life experience, a life packed full of different experiences that I feel like that I have the experience of somebody that's lived for several hundred years. I'm not trying to brag or exalt myself, don't get me wrong. I'm trying to explain that I'm not wet behind the years I wasn't born yesterday and that my life experiences have been unusual to where I have a different perspective on things.

So with that experience behind me, I have to say, I have to testify that I have never seen such an extreme level of insanity, madness upon this earth as a person that has always kept up with the news and the Bible.

It blows my mind the level of extreme insanity that we see happening in government, in church, in society, and in people that think that they're saved. People that think that they hear from God.

People who think that they're seeing visions and dreams from God when really it's from the devil.

This level of insanity we're talking about is not chemical brain imbalance, but rather it is demonic possession and demonic manifestations upon the earth. And the Bible does predict a great increase in demonic manifestations upon the earth in the last generation. And you would have that throughout all of human history. But you would have a great increase in demonic manifestations in the last generation. I didn't see this level of demonic manifestations back in the 1970s and 1980s and the 1990s, but only in recent years has it reached this extreme level of madness.

Only in recent years and is multiplying in huge numbers. Only in the past one year and two years and every month and every year now, the amount that it is multiplying is not just a little bit every year, but it's like doubling and tripling that much increase every year. Do not be surprised, do not be surprised with the extreme magnitude of demonic manifestations that are going to occur in the near future. Do not be surprised to see demonic manifestations in the sky, in heaven itself, and on earth, in government, in church, in society, in all areas of life.

Do not be surprised at the increase in earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, storms, drought, famine, starvation, disease, poverty, economic collapse, coups, wars, overthrows, revolutions, death, famine, disease, epidemic, genocide, and the list goes on. Do not be shocked, do not be surprised because all these things are absolutely going to happen to you, to your nation, to your city, to your neighborhood, to your family. It's not going to be on the other side of the world. It's not going to be on the other side of the nation. It's not going to be on the other side of the neighborhood or other side of town. It's going to be in your town, in your neighborhood, in your family. It's going to affect you. It's going to affect your life. Not him, not her, but your life. Don't be surprised. It's going to be worldwide. Every neighborhood, every town, every nation. Amen. The world is going to be filled with madness and violence and unrighteousness. Amen.

For how long? Verse 7. Old Greek, "I heard him that was clothed in fine linen who was over the water of the river saying, 'Until the time of the end.' And he lifted up his right hand and his left hand into heaven and swore by the God that lives forever that 'for a time and times and half a time should be the end of the hands of release of the holy people and all these things should be finished.'

Now this is easy. This is easy. A time is one year. And times is two years. And half a time is half a year. And that all adds up to three and a half years. How do we know that? All you got to do is compare Revelation 11. Revelation 11 says 42 months. That's three and a half years. Amen. It's simple. It's easy. It's not complicated. But people want to try to say there are two three and a half years making seven years. Well if it was seven years it would say a time and a time and a time and a time and a time. Amen. Or you would have some other verse saying seven years in a very clear context of the end time. Congratulations.

They try to point to some other context in history. They don't point to the end time graduation. We got to make sure the context is correct. It's only three and a half years according to the Bible. That's not my interpretation. It's what the Bible says.

Alright. Verse 10. Old Greek. Many will be tried and sanctified and the sinner's sin and none of the sinner's sin. You know I understand that the wise, that those that understand will give heed, will listen and obey. Amen. And it says from the time of the removal of the long term offering which is in heaven and when the abomination of desolation will be allowed, then there will be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. So right here is defining the time and times and half and time. You don't even have to go to Revelation 11. The same chapter explains itself. That's what the Bible does over and over. It explains itself. Amen. A thousand two hundred and ninety days. How long is that? That's three and a half years plus thirty days. Amen. One thousand two hundred and ninety days is forty two months that you see in Revelation 11 plus thirty days. So in other words, forty three months. So that's your twelve sixty days of great tribulation plus your thirty days of flint. So that's how I get thirty days of flint. It's simple. It's easy. It's easy math. Amen. I did pass the sixth grade. Amen. So it's easy. And then verse twelve. Blessed is he that abides and stays true and assembles at the one thousand three hundred and thirty fifth day. That's the day the Lord comes back. Amen. And not until then. Not until then. How do I know that's the day the Lord comes back? Because that's when it finishes.

Because that's the end of the Bible. That is the end of prophecy except for when you get into the millennium. In other words, the end of this age. It's the end of this world. That Matthew twenty four was talking about. Amen. Amen. Where's my amen? Amen. Amen. Alright. Whoa. Whoa. The trumpets are good. Alright. Praise God. This is easy stuff. Traditional religion makes it complicated. The truth is simple. Amen. The Bible explains itself and interprets itself.

Just got to read the whole thing. Now we can go to Matthew twenty four.

Matthew 24:23 Then if anyone says to you, behold here is the Christ or there. Do not believe it. Because false crisis.

Now let's say because false Christ. This is what you're going to see.

Because false crisis and false prophets will arise.

And that word arise could even possibly even be translated as ascend. Ascend. Amen.

And will show great signs and wonders so as to deceive if possible even the elect.

In other words, don't be surprised at the magnitude, the severity of the demonic manifestations of a false Christ who will arise into the sky.

It doesn't say don't worry about this because you ain't going to be here to see it. Doesn't say that. Doesn't say that Christ is going to come back first before this happens.

Doesn't say it. But rather it says that there will be a false Christ. Amen.

That's what you're going to see. That's what you can expect. Don't be surprised. Amen. And false prophets. So if you compare that to Revelation 13, which we are going to read.

You're going to have the anti-Christ, the false Christ, a fake coming of God in the sky. And you're false prophets. So that is going to be one or two popes standing with Asa. So that is coexistence between the Catholic church and Islam. Coexistence. One world religion.

We see that coming to pass with the crowning of King Charles, with the Muslims being present there and him saying that he accepts all religions.

That's a foreshadowing. That's a warning to the world what we just saw in the news occur.

And these are really great miracles. Great signs and wonders. These are not small signs and wonders. These are not weak signs and wonders. This is not a man standing on the temple mount. These are great signs and wonders. These are heavenly signs and wonders. Amen. These are signs and wonders in the sky. That's what he's really talking about.

Jump down for the sake of time to verse 27. For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of mankind be. What does that mean? It means that you can see the storm coming. It's not a surprise. Amen.

You can see the lightning from a distance before it even arrives to your neighborhood. You can see the storm and the clouds and you feel the wind starting to pick up and you start seeing the leaves blowing the trees. You see it getting cloudier and cloudier. You see the lightning over there way up to the north, way up to the east, wherever it is. You see the storm get closer and closer. So will be the sign of the coming of God. Amen. In other words, it's not going to be that you're just asleep and all of a sudden you're in heaven.

Although that's what they teach in the false churches.

Or you're just sitting at your office desk and you're just typing on your computer or on your cell phone and then all of a sudden you're going up into the air, up into heaven, all of a sudden without any foreknowledge, without any warning. That's crazy talk. That's not the way that God's coming. That's not the way Christ is coming according to this. You have to see the abomination of desolation first. You have to see the false Christ first. You have to see the false prophets first. You have to see Revelation 13, Revelation 11, all of it. You have to see all that fulfill, all seven seals, all seven trumpets, all seven last flags. You got to see all this occur before Christ comes to the earth. Amen.

Verse 28, wherever the dead bodies are, there where the raptors be gathered.

Now that's where it talks about the rapture is actually birds eating the flesh of dead people.

The rapture is not people going up into the air, but rather the rapture is birds eating the flesh of dead people. So if you want to be raptured, the birds will have their stomachs full of your intestines.

That's your rapture for you. Now I'm not saying that the saints will never be caught up to heaven. That's not what I'm saying. But that's an entirely different word.

That's not the word rapture. They're teaching rapture. Amen. The saints being caught up to heaven, that happens on the Day of Atonement according to the Bible, according to the book Revelation chapter 11, that the two witnesses lay dead in the streets at the end of the great tribulation, that they would have fulfilled the 42 months, the 1260 days it says, of their prophecy, of their ministry, and then lay dead in the streets three and a half days, and then they rise at the last trumpet, 1 Corinthians 15, Revelation 11, they rise at the last trumpet, the last trumpet, not the first, not the second, not the third, it's not out of order. God has an order to this at the last trumpet, the seventh trumpet. The last trumpet is not the first trumpet. The last trumpet is not the third trumpet. Common sense people. Amen.

And then that reminds me, God gave me this just as the sermon was starting or as the music was starting today, a reminder of something that I just published recently. What was it? Let me get here. I don't even remember what it was. I have to pull it up because God brought it to my attention a while ago. Right here it is. It is the Dead Sea scroll that's called the Melchizedek scroll, 11Q13, that particular scroll that has that identification of 11Q13, the Melchizedek scroll.

I learned about that recently. I published that I had learned about it, and what it proclaims is that the saints would be united with Melchizedek, the Christ, on the Day of Atonement, at the blowing of the trumpet. Amen. Now, let's see here. And not only that, but the day before I found this particular Dead Sea scroll, I had preached a sermon about is the law done away with? Is God's law void? And in that sermon, we read part of Hebrews 7 that talks about King Melchizedek, and how Abraham paid tithes to him, to Christ Jesus, and therefore we should pay tithes to Christ Jesus, and that Christ Jesus is still Melchizedek, and he is still high priest forever. So if Abraham paid tithes, and that was before Moses, before the law of Moses, before the appearance of Mount Sinai, if Abraham kept the laws, the statutes, the commandments of God, including paying a tithe of everything, the first tithe, not the leftover change, what's left over, but the first tithe of everything, not just food, but everything, it says, then we shall do the same that our father Abraham did. Amen. Praise God.

Now, in that sermon, I did that, and also in that same sermon, the day before I found out about this scroll, I said that Melchizedek, by common sense, would have ruled as a king of Salem, of Jerusalem, for more than just one day. It says he was king of Salem. Common sense says that he would have ruled for many years. We don't know how many years. There's not a record of him that we know of, unless there is a record that is hidden from us, perhaps with a different name on it, that they changed whatever, but we don't know of any records of his reign. That common sense dictates, common sense demands, that he would have been on his throne for more than just one day, and that I believe that eventually sometime in the future that we would learn about his reign. That's what I had said. So that next day after that, when I learned about this particular Dead Sea scroll, it says in the last paragraph, quote, he, talking about Melchizedek, Christ, when he returns, is to instruct them, the saints, about all the periods of history for eternity.

Every time period that he will instruct us, he would teach us about all the previous periods of time. We're going to learn about that. We're going to learn about every period of time that had existed, about what the truth was about that time period, what had happened, and how God was really involved in that time period, and how God's plan was being worked out in that time period.

That would include the time period of King Melchizedek and Abraham, would it not? All time periods include that particular time period. Amen? So it was a confirmation of what I had said in that sermon. So then going back to why I bring that up. Brother Jared, do you know why I bring that up? Because the same manuscript, Dead Sea Scroll, talks about the saints being united with Melchizedek on the Day of Atonement at the blowing of the trumpet. So that particular Dead Sea Scroll confirms not only the sermon I had preached the day before about Melchizedek and the law of God and tithes, but also that same Dead Sea Scroll confirms the Day of Atonement and the prophetic timeline. Amen.

It confirms God's presence in this ministry. Amen.

Now, finally, let's go to Revelation 13.

Revelation 13. We keep bringing up this chapter over and over, so finally, let's get to it. Let's get to the heart and core of this matter. Revelation 13 verse 1. And the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore, the Mediterranean Sea. Then I saw an evil beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads blasphemous names. It's a Middle Eastern beast. It's not a beast in the United States. Amen.

It is a Middle Eastern beast, even as I saw that bookmark this morning. They had been laying there for days, but I had not saw it until this morning. And the bookmark says Middle East.

It is a Middle Eastern beast, not an American beast. So all these people that proclaim that America is Babylon and that the Antichrist is either Biden or Trump or some American president or Prince Charles, this verse and the entire Bible, proves them wrong. It is a Middle Eastern beast. It is a Middle Eastern empire. It is a Middle Eastern Antichrist. And on his head is blasphemous names. Now, to understand that, we have to compare that with Revelation 14 verse 1. Revelation 14 verse 1, which we find in the Alpha Omega Bible at the end of chapter 13. The reason I did that is because they divided the chapter numbers in the wrong place. The chapter numbers and verse numbers were not in the original scriptures. Those were added by mankind much later on. They're not part of the original scriptures.

So when they divided these chapters, they divided it in the wrong place.

So chapter 14 verse 1 in the Alpha Omega Bible, I have it at the end of chapter 13. And that particular verse says this, Then I looked at behold the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 have in his name, Christ's name, even the same name as the Father written on their foreheads. Amen? Amen. It's not two different names. It's the same name. The name of Christ is the same name as the Father. Amen? Because they are the same being, but two manifestations, even as Melchizedek was another manifestation. And the man that Jacob wrestled with was another manifestation, the angel of the Lord, and so forth. You have different manifestations of the same Spirit, the same God, one Lord, one baptism, one faith. Amen? So it's the name of Jesus on the forehead of the saints and on the 144,000. This is not saying that the 144,000 are the only saints.

It's just saying, it's just only saying that John does see the name of God in those foreheads compared to chapter 13 verse 1 of blasphemous names on the forehead of the antichrist beast government empire. Amen? So the name of Christ compared to and in opposition to the fake God, the fake Christ. So here you have a comparison in chapter 13 verse 1 and chapter 14 verse 1, a comparison of names. The name of the true Christ and the name of the false Christ. Jesus versus Yeshua. Plain and simple. Plain and simple. And it is only logical that the Assyrian antichrist would be using Assyrian names, Arabic names, Assyrian names, Aramaic names.

Yeshua is not Hebrew even though they all claim it is. Yeshua being Hebrew is the teaching of the Catholic church, is the teaching of the Shriners, the Freemasons, demons.

It is not Hebrew, it is Assyrian. This is very simple, very logical, and very easy to prove. Verse 2, and the wild beast, it says here in the alpha-mega Bible that in Arabic, if you were to read the Arabic Bible, which does actually exist, there is of course a Spanish Bible and an Arabic Bible and a Chinese Bible and a Russian Bible and so forth. If you look at the Arabic Bible, instead of saying wild beast in English, because it is not an English Bible, it is Arabic, you would actually see the Arabic name of Assad's real family surname. That is what you would see. And I have sincerely and repeatedly examined this claim. Is it true? Is this accurate? I have repeatedly, over and over and over, tested myself, tested what this Arabic word is, what actually appears in the Arabic Bible. I have repeatedly examined this to make sure that this is accurate teaching, that I am not deceiving myself, that I am not misinterpreting, that I am not misunderstanding, and that I am not leading anyone in deception. And every time I have sincerely and independently examined it, it was accurate. Every time. It is accurate. Amen? It is accurate. Brother Jared, have you examined this independently from me? "Yep, and I can do it again." Amen. So you said yes.

And I am sure some of you others listening have done this as well, examined it. It is accurate. There is Assad's surname, his last name in the Bible, identifying him as the beast. And it says that he, which Assad was like a leopard, and it is very easy knowledge to come by, that the leopard is a symbol of Iran, and Assad is actually Iranian. His family, his grandparents, came from Iran, and his feet was like of a bear. Everybody knows the bear is a symbol of Russia, and that Syria and Iran are both very closely friends, allies, of each other, that Russia, Syria, and Iran. They are allies. They are one beast part.

They are working in cooperation, militarily, financially, economically, in every aspect. They are working together as a confederation of Islamic and communist nations, just like we see in Ezekiel 38, exactly.

And he has the mouth of a lion. Now a lion is one of the symbols of Syria, and of the Assyrians, and that word in Arabic, in the Arabic Bible, the Arabic word for lion is Assad. There is his name again. There is his last name. We already had his old family surname for beast, wild beast, that is wild beast, in Arabic would be his surname. But his last name in Arabic would be lion. His current surname that he uses. So his original surname of his family and sister before his grandfather changed the last name. And then his current surname and his current surname that he uses, Assad.

So that is very relevant that it is his last name twice. His original last name and then his current last name that he uses. That is very relevant. That is very important. And yet people, after hearing this, still don't believe that he is an antichrist. You can't ask for greater proof than that. You can't ask for greater proof than that. And yet they still don't believe it. And such people, very clearly, very obviously, if you just be honest with yourself, such people don't want the truth. Because if they really wanted the truth, that would be enough evidence right there. When you actually have his original last name and his current last name in the same verse, in the same verse, you can't ask for better proof. It doesn't say King Charles.

It doesn't say Trump. Amen. It doesn't say Putin. It doesn't say the Romans. It doesn't say the European Union. Even the contacts of the Mediterranean Sea. Come on now. And verse 3, one of his heads seemed like it had been slain, but his fatal wound was healed and the majority of the earth was amazed and followed after Assad, after the evil beast.

The traditional interpretation is that he suffers a gunshot to the head, dies and comes back to life. Well, that could possibly occur, but I don't believe it will. Because really, if it were to occur, it would only be a second, secondary interpretation, even if it turns out to be accurate. It would only be a secondary meaning of the verse. The primary meaning of this verse, and I believe that the only way it would actually really be fulfilled, is the destruction of Damascus, because that's in the Bible. What is it? Maybe Isaiah 7 or 9 or something like that, or chapter 10. Isaiah 17. Oh, maybe it is. Yeah. Maybe it is. It doesn't say it here, does it? It does say 7. Well, it says the head of Syria is Damascus. It's a different verse. Here it is, Isaiah 17. It does say it in the footnotes. Isaiah 17, verse 1, that the masses would be a ruinous heap, fallen and ruined. So if you compare Isaiah 7, verse 8, that says that the head of Syria is Damascus, and you compare that verse with Isaiah 17, verse 1, that Damascus should become destroyed, a ruinous heap, a fallen ruin, then the Bible interprets itself. Amen? So, people think that this is a human head, but actually the Bible interprets it in Isaiah 7, verse 8, that the word head refers to a capital city. And you can confirm that even in the Greek language, that it's referring to a capital city.

Now, the Greek word could refer to several other things as well, but it can also refer to a capital city. And then the Bible verse, Isaiah 7, verse 8, confirms that that would be the appropriate and correct translation. This is not talking about a gunshot to the head. This is talking about a war. The war of Daniel 11. Not only the invasion of Egypt, but you have the king of the north and the king of the south, which is NATO and Turkey, and Egypt as the south, coming against Assad. He's not going to come to power, I mean, as far as a manifestation as the antichrist. That's not going to come as the result of a peace treaty, but rather it would come as a result of an attack of the American allies against Assad. Another piece of the puzzle that has been fulfilled or coming to fulfillment is that only in recent years, the last 10 years or so, however many years it's been, I'm losing count, but only in recent years has the world and American allies attacked Assad.

We also must consider the fact that Syria and Assad has attacked Israel before and tried to destroy Israel and invade Israel. It has happened before. So, the fact that we see that Syria is actually the arch enemy, even more than Iran and Saudi Arabia, even though all the Islamic and communist nations hate Israel, but Syria is really the arch enemy above all else because of the fact that Syria claims the land, and it claims the land of East Jerusalem, and that the United Nations supports that claim. That the United Nations have repeatedly, over and over and over again, proclaimed that Syria is the rightful owner to East Jerusalem. And you didn't have the United Nations in existence until the 1940s.

So, that's another piece of the puzzle. Amen. And then the war of 1967, when Syria lost that land to Israel, and then the war of 1967 that Israel was able to take that portion of Jerusalem from control of Syria. So, that's recent history, recent history. In the time frame of human history, it would be recent, in the context of human history.

Wasn't that war on the Day of Atonement, the Yom Kippur War?

It might have been the Yom Kippur War, but I don't know if I'm confusing two different wars or not. But that would be significant to confirm about whether it is the same war or two different wars. In 1967, is that the Yom Kippur War, the Day of Atonement War or not? So, we're looking to that. Some of you, I'm sure, already knows.

So, if we just look at history, recent history, and ancient history, all these things confirm.

Even in the destruction of the temple in 70 A.D., even though it was the Roman Empire that did that, it was actually Roman soldiers in cooperation with Syrian soldiers. Those are actually soldiers sent from Syria to actually do that. So, the hands and feet that were actually present in the destruction of the temple was Syrian soldiers in 70 A.D. That's the foreshadowing of the invasion of Israel in our day and time.

So, you have confirmation after confirmation after confirmation. How much confirmation do you want? Come on, now. You either want the truth or you don't want the truth. It's simple.

Verse 4, Revelation 13, verse 4, they worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the evil beast. So, that shows that the worship of Assad is directly connected to the worship of Satan, but that they're not the same person. A lot of people out there claim that the Antichrist is Satan in the flesh or fleshly appearance. That's not accurate because right here it says that Satan gives the authority to the beast. It's very clearly two different beings.

It's got to be two different beings because one gives the authority to the other. And they worship the evil beast saying, who is like the evil beast and who is able to wage war with him? It has nothing to do with the peace treaty. It has to do with war. Amen.

Who is able to wage war with him? The American allies have tried to wage war with Assad for year after year after year after year trying to overthrow him. Israel actually attacks the Syrian army and the Iranian army in Syria on a constant basis. Constant, constant. It's so often I don't even report on it anymore. Amen. It's a constant thing and they're not able to overthrow him.

Verse 5, they was given to him a mouth speaking arrogant words and blasphemies and authority to act for 42 months, not 7 years. You see how simple this is? Verse 6, and he opened his mouth and blasted me against God to blaspheme his name. He's not going to blaspheme Yahshua.

Common sense because Yahshua is a Syrian word. He wouldn't blaspheme that. And his tabernacle, his temple, that would be in heaven. Amen. And those that dwell in heaven, that's not people, that's angels. Because John 3, I think it's John 3, it says, no man has ascended up to heaven except for the son of mankind that came down from there. If you believe the Bible, instead of people's visions, instead of people that said they died and went to heaven, they died and went to hell, they died and went to Disney World. People are like, what about this? What about this person? What about this book? What about this video? What about all these people that saw this? Well, you can either choose to believe those insane people or you can choose to believe the Bible. Which one are you going to believe? It's that simple. Do you believe the Bible or people? It's that simple. Which one do you choose to believe? The Bible says no one has ascended up to heaven except for Christ. Amen.

So David is not even in heaven. So David is buried. If you read it, it says the dead cannot praise God. It says the dead has no knowledge nor even a reward. How many verses do you have to read to prove something? How many verses does it take to prove something?

Verse 7, "And it was given to him a sword to make war with the saints and to overcome them."

That's totally opposite of a pre-trib rapture. That's totally opposite of the saints not needing to be concerned about the antichrist and his identity. That's completely opposite of safety in heaven. The Bible says that the antichrist will conquer the saints of God. And not only does it say it here, it also says it in Daniel. So we have a confirmation of that. So David and also authority. The antichrist will have authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him. That includes America. That includes South Africa. That includes Barbados and Jamaica and all the beach resorts that people want to flee to. Like if this is just going to vacation.

That includes Florida, Arkansas, and New York. All and every nation and language and tongue on earth. Every neighborhood, every town, every side of town, every college, every school, every church, everybody on this earth except for only a very select few saints that God will protect from this beast power according to Revelation chapter 12. That's your family. That is your friends. That is your co-workers. That is the Sunday church. That's the Catholic church. That's the Protestant church.

That's all these people telling you don't worry about the identity of the antichrist. We can't know the identity of the antichrist. All that bullcrap. Those same people are the ones that's going to be bowing to the antichrist when he appears in the sky because they're going to think it's Jesus. They're going to think it's Christ. They think it's the rapture. They're going to bow to a demon. And then they're going to say, but he's healing the blind. He's raising the dead. He's giving out free money, free cell phones. He's giving out free college.

He's healing people. He's working mighty miracles. He's bringing them fire down from heaven. These great miracles. Who do you believe? This demon or the Bible? Don't be surprised. Don't be shocked at how tremendous those miracles are going to be. Don't be deceived. That's the first words Jesus said when they asked Him what are the signs of all this to come. The very, very, very, very first word He said was don't let anyone deceive you. Both Matthew and the book of Revelation warns you over and over don't be deceived. There is going to be false Christs. There is going to be demonic manifestations. There is going to be great miracles. And people will sell their soul to the devil even as they've already been doing with the fake vaccines. People will sell their soul to the devil even as they have already been doing by buying the halal mark products, knowing that it's got the mark on there, knowing that that mark represents obedience to Islam, submission to Islam, world conquest by Islam, Islamic anti-Christ. There is going to be great miracles.

Saying that's not the mark of the beast, that's not the mark of the beast, it's got to be a microchip. Bullcrap. Bullcrap. It's a currency, it's a credit card, it's a bar code. Bullcrap. I've heard this crap all my life. Even when I was a child people were saying all this is a bar code, it's this, it's that, it's a credit card, it's a currency, it's a microchip. I've heard it all my life. And yeah, that particular store is already accepting payments through the microchip in your hand. I've heard that every year. That store is doing that, that store is doing that, that proves it. It don't prove nothing. That's been around for a long time. The mark of the beast, the mark of the beast, is really and truly more than anything else, false religion. All false religion. And the reason I know that and the reason I can say that with absolute, 100 percent, without any doubt, is all you got to do is compare one Bible verse with another Bible verse. Amen.

The Bible interprets itself. You don't have to have an opinion. When you start dealing with personal opinions, that's when you go wrong. I have no right to my personal opinion about prophecy. The Bible says let no prophecy be a personal interpretation. That's what the Bible says. Amen. So all you got to do is compare the verses in Leviticus, and I believe it might be in Deuteronomy, that tells you that the mark of God in our forehead and in our hands is obedience to the Sabbath and the biblical holy days and the law of God. That is what brands us in our forehead with the name of Jesus to identify that we belong to Jesus, even as a farmer would brand some initials into a cow. God brands the name of Jesus, not just 144,000, but rather all of the saints worldwide even now. We don't have to wait until the sixth seal to receive the mark of God, the branding of God in our forehead, the name of Jesus in our forehead. That's not something reserved for the sixth seal. That's not something reserved for the 144,000.

We can receive that right now through obedience to the ten commandments given our first ten percent to God and the biblical holy days, Passover, Pentecost, Peace of Tabernacles and so forth. So if we compare that verse with this verse, it's the same thing as comparing Revelation 13 verse 1 with Revelation 14 verse 1. Amen.

Between demonic Assyrian names, letter Y names, and the Islamic holy days, which originally included Christmas and Easter. Absolutely. Absolutely. The original Muslims that existed thousands of years before Muhammad was born, even though it wasn't called Islam yet, it was still the worship of Allah, which actually did exist, the worship of Allah existed before Muhammad was born. I'm sure that even the Muslims would confess that. I mean, come on now. Even the Muslims, even though they try to claim that, even though the encyclopedia might say Islam started with Muhammad, that's stupid. Come on now. That's stupid. Think about it. If the Muslims claim that Allah has always existed and they claim that the prophets of old were Muslims, that's what the Muslims claim, right? That's what they claim. So out of their own confession, Islam already existed thousands of years before Muhammad was born, out of their own confession, even though that we know that they're lying about the prophets of old being Muslims, right? But Islam has always existed under different names. It was the worship of Queen Easter. It was the worship of Sunday Easter morning.

It was the worship of Easter sunrise in Ezekiel chapter 8. It was the worship of Christmas, the twelve days of Christmas, New Year's. It was the worship of St. Valentine's Day and Ash Wednesday before they changed the names. Amen? All false religion brands you in your forehead with demonic names, whether it's the name of Allah or Yahshua or Buddha or Hinduism, the sacred cow, the golden calf, whatever it may be. Primarily, more than anything else, the mark of the beast is worshipping false religion. Of course, there's going to be a physical counterpart and the physical counterpart is what is called the halal mark and they actually call it a mark. The Muslims do, so I'm not making this up. Some of the Muslims say that it is the Islamic mark, the halal mark, and what it is out of their own confession of the Muslims, their goal is to put the Islamic mark on every product and service in the entire world. It is already required in certain Islamic nations.

And it is part of Sharia law. You must come to this understanding that it is the goal of Syria, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, and other Islamic nations to work in cooperation with Russia and China and other nations to put the halal, Sharia law marking on every product and service in the world and to make it legal law and legally enforced that unless the mark appears on the product or service, that you are not allowed to buy it or to sell it. And that is their own words. That's not my words, that's their words. This is what they are publicly proclaiming. So you can try to believe that the mark of the beast is a microchip or a currency or a barcode or a credit card or whatever you want to think it is, but out of the words of the Islamic leaders themselves and the Islamic forces themselves is that the Islamic Sharia law mark will be on every product and service in the world and they are progressing toward the fulfillment of that more and more of a mark than every year.

So that's another piece of the puzzle. Amen. That is the fulfillment in our generation. But people get so caught up in only the physical manifestations of such things.

We cannot forget and should not overlook or diminish the importance of the spiritual side of the mark of the beast. It is about worship. This same chapter, Revelation 13, uses the word worship or a form of the word worship, whether it's worship or worshiped or worshipping, whatever five times in this chapter. It's all about worship and who and how you worship.

Worship, worship, worship, worship, worship. It is not as much about buying and selling which it only mentions once. It is not as much about physical things as what it is about spiritual things. Amen.

We must remember to go to bed much earlier on Friday night and then Saturday morning as soon as we wake up, start googling that coffee and that tea.

I know I'm very long winded. If I get through this, bear with me. A lot of you people never heard this before.

Let's jump down to verse 11. "Then I saw another evil beast in addition to the antichrist coming up out of the earth and had two horns like a lamb, yet he spoke like a dragon." Everybody agrees that ten horns in verse 1, verse 2, whatever it is, is ten end time world leaders.

So why would two horns not be two people?

We had two popes up until recently. I believe it's a strong possibility we will have two popes again soon, very, very soon. It could be that John sees two horns, two people, two popes because he saw the time frame when both popes were alive. I don't believe it's 100% necessary to have another pope, two popes, in the future because we did have the fulfillment already. We don't have any indication here that one of the horns would die or fall away. So there is a possibility that there will be two popes again, but it's not necessarily required.

It could be that John saw Pope Benedict and Pope Francis both standing beside each other or not really even seeing any popes, but rather just seeing the animals that represent them, but yet God was using that symbolism to show us that when we saw two popes, two false prophets, two religious leaders, common sense, a prophet is a religious leader. A prophet is a religious leader. So the antichrist is more of a government leader even though he is also a religious leader because he is claiming to be God. If you were to compare the two witnesses with the false prophet and the antichrist, the two witnesses in the book of Zechariah who was a governor, a political person and then the high priest, you had a religious figure and a government figure. These are prototypes, these are foreshadowings, these are symbols that the antichrist, that the beast power, that the devil wants to copy. Whatever God does, the devil wants to copy and make it counterfeit. The Muslims are going to claim that the true Jesus is the antichrist.

Right? And the Muslims are going to say that the two witnesses of God, that they are the false prophets. Amen? Don't be shocked at this, don't be surprised. Don't be surprised.

The two witnesses are the true prophets. Two prophets, not just one. So it's very possible we are going to see two prophets, not just one. Don't be surprised. What's the name of the current pope? Pope Francis? Don't be surprised if Pope Francis retires and there comes up a second pope. Don't be surprised. It don't have to happen, but don't be surprised if that happens because it is a very strong possibility. But I can tell you that they would definitely claim that the true prophets of God, that they are the false prophets, when the opposite will be true. I can tell you that, for sure, what they will claim.

So really you are going to have a trinity if you do have a second pope come into existence, which is a very, very, very, very strong possibility. You would really have a trinity, which is the Freemason doctrine, the Catholic doctrine. I don't know why people want to believe in a three-headed God when it's very clearly a very demonic, pagan doctrine. You can look back in the agent Assyrian and agent Greek mythologies. Queen Easter was part of the trinity. Tammuz and all this stuff. It's a very demonic doctrine. And Sunday worship, very demonic. All this, even the pre-Trib rapture teaching is very demonic. People say that we should not split hairs over a rapture doctrine because it has nothing to do with our salvation. Well, yes, it does have to do with our salvation. You're saying that only the same people are going to be raptured. It's a salvational issue. And they say it's not. It is a salvational issue. It's a demonic doctrine that will take place.

They'll entrap people to worship the anti-Christ. So when you listen to preachers that teach a pre-Trib rapture, they are preparing you spiritually, mentally, and emotionally to worship a false appearance of Christ. A false appearance of Christ. A false rapture. That is the express purpose of the pre-Trib rapture doctrine. It is to cause people to worship the anti-Christ. This is absolutely a salvational issue. This is absolutely something to argue about and fight against and to expose. Amen?

And look what it says, verse 12. They exercised all the authority of the first evil beast, the anti-Christ, in their presence. And they made the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first evil beast, the anti-Christ, whose fatal wound, which is the destruction of Damascus, was healed. He overcomes the attack on Damascus. They performed great signs so that even they may far come down from the sky to the earth in the presence of mankind.

Don't be surprised at the extreme magnitude of the demonic miracles.

Verse 14. "And they deceived those who dwell on the earth because of the signs which was given to them to perform in the presence of the evil beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to observe, to ordain, to commit a stone to the evil beast who had the wound of the sword," which is just a symbolism of war, "and has come to life," which really just only means that he survives the destruction.

Now, a stone. The image of the beast. What is the image of the beast? A lot of people think it's going to be a hologram or something over the internet or television. Maybe it's television. People seeing the anti-Christ on TV. Well, to think this way is very carnal. It really is because it's very fleshly minded thinking that it has to be a physical manifestation rather than a demonic manifestation. Which has got done talking about heaven, I mean, far coming down from the sky. Come on now, people. Come on. We're talking about demonic manifestations. We're not talking about electronic devices. We're not talking about TV and internet and holograms and things like that. We're talking about Project Blue Bean. These are physical things that people want to imagine. We're talking about demonic power. Demonic demons. They don't need electricity to deceive people. They don't need a TV or internet or Project Blue Bean or a hologram to deceive people. They have spiritual power. They have magic power. They don't have to use their electrical tricks to deceive people. Demonic manifestations is what we are looking at in these verses. Then also you must consider history. We can't ignore the importance of the Black Stone of Mecca in both Catholic history and Islamic history. We cannot ignore that the image of Diana in the book of Ephesians, I think it is, or Romans, Romans, the book of Romans. No, Acts, the book of Acts. The book of Acts, Acts 19. Acts 19, that it has a very strong connection, possibility, with the Black Stone of Mecca. We cannot ignore that in Islam they teach that for salvation you must travel to Mecca, which is where they are built in the end time city of Babylon. You can't ignore any of this. You must travel there they say and kiss and worship the Black Stone. You can't ignore the Islamic prophecy that claims that in the end time that the Maori will come out of the sky riding on a white horse and that the Black Stone of Mecca will come to life and actually speak commanding the killing of the infidels that do not worship Islam and the Maori that do not worship the Maori, they must be beheaded. Beheaded.

What does the Bible say that the saints will be beheaded for the refusal of the mark of the beast? To think that it's a picture on the TV or any other electronic trick is to forget about all these facts. To just throw all these facts out of the window. We can't do that. We have to consider all of this evidence, all of these facts. We must consider the red pecker on the tree out there. Sorry for that, the beautiful sight of the woodpecker, the red-headed woodpecker on the tree. (Jared: We see the tiny ones pretty often, but not the red spotted ones.) The tiny baby ones were cute too. Sorry for digressing, I just couldn't help but to notice that and point it out to Brother Jared.

But anyway, God is good. Amen, God is good. These are demonic manifestations that we are talking about. It says in verse 15, it was given to them to put a spirit in the stone to the evil beast so that the stone of the evil beast would even speak and cause his many who do not worship the stone of the evil beast to be murdered. Now notice they put a spirit in it. In other words, there is a demonic manifestation. People think that maybe John was mistaken. That when he sees some kind of electronic image, whatever type of electronic image, he just thinks it has a spirit. He just thinks it has a soul because he sees the electronic image of moving and speaking.

Therefore he thinks that there is a spirit connected with it. In other words, they think John is wrong. Amen. But I think John is right. That there really is a spirit in the image of the beast. That there really is a fallen angel demon spirit in the image of the beast.

Amen. Amen. And you know whatever the traditional teaching is, is usually wrong most of the time. Amen. Whatever the traditional teaching, that squirrel is listening to this prophecy. He is right at the door. You want to come on in and get saved, little brother? God is good. When the animals start listening, something is up. Amen. God is good. God is good.

By the way, I met Noah and I hope he is listening today. A young man named Noah. He was very interested. I talked to him at the grocery store. He was very interested. I am sure, I feel very positive about this, that he will be our next brother in Christ. I feel it. I hope. I hope I am right on that. Amen. So, brother Noah, whether you are listening live today or whether you will be listening to this sermon soon in the recordings, welcome brother and we are very happy to meet you and talk to you and get to know you. I feel, I believe, I hope, I pray that you are going to listen to this at some point of time and grow in the truth and grow in salvation and grow in the measure of the Holy Ghost of Christ Jesus and of the knowledge of Holy Scripture. Amen. Praise God. We want the one more man, the one more woman, that is willing to surrender to the truth in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Then we continue here in the verses and it says in verse 16, and they call to all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, the free man and the slaves, to be given a brandy in their right hand or on their forehead. Again, we compare that, I have got it in the footnotes, you compare it to Exodus, I had said Leviticus, but there may be one there or two, I am not for sure, but it does say Exodus 13 verse 6 through 16 and Deuteronomy 11 verses 16 to 22 declares that the keeping of the Sabbath and of the holy days of God, the Ten Commandments, that that is our brandy in our forehead and in our hand, compared to Revelation 14 verse 1, Jesus' name in our forehead, compared to Ephesians 1 and Ephesians 4 that we are sealed with the Holy Ghost, if you consider all of that and compare it with the counterfeit of the devil, then it is Sharia law, would be the spiritual, including Islamic holy days, which includes Christmas and Easter because they were originally Islamic holy days and also Francis, not Francis, but Assad, loves Christmas and Easter, Assad does, even though he is a Muslim, he actually visits the churches, so called false Christian churches on Christmas and Easter and gives a special blessing, a special Christmas speech and so forth. Why would a Muslim leader do that? Think about that, why would an Islamic leader who is extremely religious, he is, very devoted to Islam, why would he work in cooperation with the Catholic church and the Orthodox church and Sunday churches and Christmas churches and Easter churches, why would he do that? Right there is co-existence with one royal religion, right there, how much proof do you need? How much proof do you need? In verse 17, that no one would be able to buy or sell and accept he to have the branding, the name of the evil beast and the multitude of his name, verse 18, here is wisdom, let him who have understanding determine the multitudes of the evil beast, the multitude of humans, his multitude are the Nazis, the Muslims and the communists, how come it does not say 666 here?

I tell you why it does not say 666 here, it is because John is looking 2000 years into the future and in his day and time, he had no idea what the number 6 would look like in the end time because the number 6, the number 1, 2, 3, 4, all of our numbers today are called officially, officially, if you look it up, the numbers we use today are called Hindu-Arabic numbers, that is what they are called, Hindu-Arabic numbers, they did not exist in the same appearance in John's lifetime as they did in John's lifetime as what they exist today, so if he was to see the number 6, he would not even recognize it and would not even know how to draw it or write it because he did not know the Hindu-Arabic numbers.

If we look at the revelation that God gave me back, a long time ago, God healed me of severe pain and in my arm through a divine miracle and divine leading to go to a certain town at a certain time, a town I had never been to before in my life, to go there on that date, I knew he was going to die and healed my arm, he also delivered me from cigarettes on the same day in that town, in that same town is Greenville, South Carolina, where you have the Bob Jones University and in their college is a copy of the Codex Vaticanus, the Codex Vaticanus is from around 300-325 AD, a lot of people say 350 AD but I believe it is older than that, I believe it is around 325 AD and it is the most complete oldest manuscript of the Bible that we have.

We also have the Sinaiticus but the Sinaiticus, despite what some people claim, I believe is a few years younger, not as old as the Vaticanus and I do not believe that we can trust the Sinaiticus as much even though we can get some benefit from it, of course, we should consider all the manuscripts but I think the Vaticanus is more dependable and older and the older you get the better.

In that manuscript, when you look at this verse, it looks different from other manuscripts, you would have different scribes writing or copying different Bible manuscripts, different scribes would have drawn it differently but God has shown me that particular manuscript, so people can say, oh but it does not look the same in the other manuscript, that does not matter to me, God showed me specifically this particular manuscript and it is this particular manuscript, the knowledge of it, learning about it that led to the next piece of the puzzle and the next piece of the puzzle and the next piece of the puzzle.

And then when you compare this with that particular manuscript of how it appears to look like the Nazi swastika and the name of Allah and the Communist symbol of the sickle and hammer, look at modern day events and you compare it with Revelation 6, the four horsemen, all these things confirm each other. What you actually see happening on the earth, Nazism, the hatred of the Jews, the hatred of the white race, the hatred of the Israelite nations, the hatred of Israel, that is Nazism, then you have the name of Allah working in cooperation with that, then you have the Islamic symbol, I mean the Communist symbol of the sickle and hammer, how that Canada has been conquered by communism, how America has been conquered by communism, how Mexico and Europe and even England has been conquered by communism, how Australia has already been conquered by communism, how South Africa back in the lifetime of Mandela was conquered by communism and around the world.

So what we see actually occurring helps us understand the Bible. Amen? Helps us to understand the Bible when we actually see it being fulfilled in front of our eyes.

Comparing all of this to Revelation 6, the four horsemen, how that the first one is false religion, false peace, coexistence, the Nobel Peace Prize, all those things, the Olympics, which is false peace, coexistence, that's what the Olympics is, all together, it's all that, it's not just one thing. How the next seal, the second seal, the second horseman of the apocalypse, the apocalypse, thank you. So I let my left brain speak for me. Red horse, communism, the sickle and the hammer, it confirms it. The third horse being black, that's Nazism, the time of the Great Depression, the World War II, the Dust Bowl, the famine, the starvation across the world, even in America. It's simple, it's easy, it confirms the Nazi swap sticker.

The fourth horse being the pale green horse, being Islam, and how that the Muslims spread disease with their poop in the streets and poor sanitation and things like this and how that Islam is cooperating in the new world order with the COVID vaccines, how China and Russia and Iran all helped to bring in the Black Lives Matters and Antifa, the election fraud, to overthrow Trump and bring in the Biden dictatorship, the illegal dictatorship that America is under right now, how America has been conquered already by Russia and China and Iran and Syria through the Biden dictatorship. It all confirms the translation of Revelation 13 that these are not numbers, these are symbols and symbols are extremely important in religion, in history, and in prophecy. Amen.

We've also got to consider about the mark of the beast, I mean the image of the beast, the prophecy that they, at the southern last plagues, the wrath of God being poured out from the wicked, it says, and they still did not repent of the worship of gold and silver and wood and stone and demons. I don't have it in the right order, but that's what it says, that they still didn't repent of their worship of stones, of wood being Christmas trees, stones being statues of Mary and the black stone of Mecca, demons being the demon that's in the black stone and the demons of the antichrist and the demons of the popes.

Amen. Demonic worship and the wood being Christmas trees and so forth. It all confirms that the everything I've been saying. I'm giving you a lot of different pieces of the puzzle and every piece confirms the other piece, they all connect perfectly. I'm not having to twist, I'm not having to shove a piece into the puzzle to make it fit. Every piece of the puzzle connects to the other piece of the puzzle perfectly. Traditional interpretations are usually, most of the time, wrong. I'm not going to read it right now, we read it recently many times over and over. Ezekiel 38 describes Gog and Magog, that the leader of that confederation of Islamic and communist nations, which confirms the identity of 666 as being Islamic and communist nations, invasion of the Israelite nations, America, Canada, Australia, England, Scotland, Ireland, invasion of these nations by Russia and China. Russia being the person, the nation that comes out of the extremity of the north. These have been confirmed, these understandings of prophecy have been confirmed through many different prophetic dreams across the world.

Ever since 2008, a lot of different people have contacted me through email and other ways of contacting me and even a man I met at a laundromat one day, telling me of his dream or vision, whatever it was, of the Gog Magog invasion of America. It's been confirmed I understand you cannot always depend on or believe people's dreams and people's visions.

Even as I said earlier today, who do you believe? Mankind or the Bible, people can claim anything that they saw on their deathbed, they went to heaven, they went to hell, they went to Disney World, whatever. They saw Elvis in heaven, they saw Michael Jackson, people got all kinds of stupid things they claimed. But, there is such a thing in the Bible of the end time prophecies of dreams and visions. Amen? Just because you have the fake stuff, the fake teachers, the fake religion, the fake anti-Christ, the fake visions, the fake dreams, the demonic manifestations, just because you have all that, doesn't mean you don't have the true Christ, the true prophet, the true church, the true teaching, the true dreams, the true visions. In fact, you've got to have these. If you don't, something's wrong. If you have a church, a preacher, a teacher, a church, a congregation that does not have prophetic dreams and visions, then you should run away from it. It's not right. Something's wrong there. Amen? The Spirit of God is not mute. The Spirit of God is still speaking today.

God is still calling disciples, apostles, prophets. He always has, He always will. God does not change about His characteristics. Amen? He might change certain ordinances.

Yes, He might. He did. If you look at the Bible, when they went on the ark, it was illegal to eat certain unclean animals. But, when they came off the ark, God said you could eat anything and everything that moves, everything. God can and has in history changed certain laws, certain ordinances, specifically. But, His character doesn't change. When we use that Bible verse, that He changes not, He's the same today, tomorrow, and forever, it is absolutely demonic to try to twist that to mean that God is still concerned about rather a man who has his foreskin and clean and unclean meats and stuff like that. That's absolutely bull crap. It's twisting the Word of God. It's defiling the Word of God to use it in that manner. What it actually does mean is that His character, His way of acting, His way of performing, interacting with mankind, has not changed. That He has always been a God of judgment. He's always been a God of righteousness, and truth, and mercy, and grace.

That He has these characteristics forever. And, part of that characteristic is that He has always worked, interacted with people like Moses, Elijah, Elisha, and many other people. Noah, Daniel, Ezekiel, Matthew, Mark, Luke, Paul, and Peter, Timothy, and today.

That He would still call a pulse of prophets, even as the Bible says that we're going to have two prophets in Jerusalem preaching for three and a half years. Amen. It's easy. This is easy stuff. So we've had dreams and visions. Different people contacted me over the years.

Some people see only the Russian soldiers invading America. Other people see only the Chinese soldiers invading America, depending on where they live. Amen. But it's going to be Russian and Chinese both coming in. And even some Hispanic, Latino nations coming in. I believe it would be in full cooperation with the leaders of Mexico. Full cooperation.

And what are we seeing right now? Talking about pieces of the puzzle and things coming together right now in the news. What are we seeing in the news right now? Just the other night, they're calling it Title 42. Yeah, Title 42 expired. Which means that the illegal righting dictatorship regime has now opened the gates and allowed thousands upon thousands upon thousands of foreigners, illegal foreigners, to come into America to just walk across the border. The borders are wide open now. As I speak, thousands of people continue to cross the borders. And the Biden regime has actually given them, some of them, money, debit cards and cell phones for free, and bus rides and bus travel, and transported them across the border in cooperation with the Mexican government. This is an invasion that we are witnessing right now. And it just happened within the last 48 hours or so. We are witnessing right now an invasion of America by the thousands upon the thousands upon the thousands. And it's not just Mexicans coming in. It's people from Haitian, Haiti. It's the Haitian people from Haiti. It's Chinese, Iranians, Russians, Syrians, Saudi Arabians, people from all across the world coming in across the border in mass numbers. This is an invasion of America that's happening right here, right now, as we speak. And being equipped and funded by the illegal Biden regime. For the purpose of making America and Canada and Mexico one nation, which they have for many years proclaimed that that's what they want to do. That's on public record.

It's on public record. And it's on public record.

And that they would get all of those foreigners to vote in the elections. Because of course if you're going to give them a free cell phone and free money and a free bus ride and free passage into America, why would you not vote for the Democrats? Of course they will. It's to steal the elections, make it one world government, communism, and so forth. Now I can't blame these people that want to come here. As far as those that want to make a better life for themselves, I can't blame them. I'm not pointing the finger at the poor people that want to come to America to make a better life for themselves. I can't blame them. But who I do blame is the illegal Biden regime that's using these people, using them, to destroy the world. And that's exactly what's happening. And yet all these people think that we're going to turn this all around just by fasting? Bullcrap. Bullcrap. That's what I'm saying. And all these people that think we're going to turn this around by voting.

I tell you, I'm not going to vote in the next election if we even have one. I have said that even if it's rigged, we should vote just to make a stand. Just to speak against evil.

Just to support the most righteous side, even though all the sides are corrupted, to make a stand. But I now, at this point of time, because things change, things progress, things get worse, things change in this world. Situations change. At this point of time, to go and vote is absolutely useless. Absolutely useless. Absolutely useless at this point in time.

A year ago, two years ago, we still had some hope to at least, at least delay things or hold things back a little bit. But at this point, no. There is no holding back from this point on. At this point, we're going to have to accept the reality that we're going to have to accept the reality that America is already conquered. Entirely conquered. Entirely conquered. We have no hope in politics, even though we should still expose the wicked politicians and proclaim which one is better than the other one. We should still do that. But nevertheless, go there and vote. Israel is just a waste of time and is complete vanity. Amen.

I still would not oppose people joining rebel groups in Cuba, South Africa, Zimbabwe and other nations. I still would not oppose certain individuals joining rebel groups to try to do whatever they can for their community, for their nation. I could not oppose such a thing because a man is a man. A man wants to fight for his nation. A man wants to fight for his neighborhood. A man wants to fight for what's right. I cannot oppose what God gave us naturally in our minds and hearts to try to fight evil. I cannot oppose such a thing because God created this spirit within us to oppose evil. Amen. But voting would be the weakest thing that a man could do. Amen.

If a man had any hope in any change, if a man had any hope of really making any difference, if a man had really any hope of making a change in his neighborhood, in his nation, in his town, on the street he lives in, it would be in the mannerism of the Maccabees and of the Civil War. It would be in the mannerism of Billy the Kid or Butch Cassidy, those heroes of the past, men that we can look up to. Amen. Amen.

I must say a dream, as we're talking about prophetic dreams and so forth and events of the future that we should not be surprised by. A long time ago God did give me a dream.

I know it was God. It was confirmed in more than one way that eventually there will be a collapse of the Hoover Dam. Now the Hoover Dam is a really huge and very important dam in the Las Vegas area, Nevada, at the area of the Grand Canyon in that region. The Grand Canyon is something that God showed me even as a kid when I was ten years old. It was one of the very first pieces of the puzzle that God gave me as a child. It just was about to learn about the Sabbath and it was just about to learn all the different elements of the truth. The image of the Grand Canyon was one of the very first things that God showed me. I didn't know it, that it would have such a tremendous importance to end time events. With that Hoover Dam collapse, I don't know what point of time it's going to happen or how it's going to happen. I don't know any details. The only thing I saw in the dream was the Hoover Dam collapsing.

I do not believe that it's from an earthquake. In fact, I can tell you it's not from an earthquake because of how the confirmation came. That is, not only did my nephew have a dream of the same thing happening, probably on the same night as far as we could, because he told me his dream like a week or two later, but we tried to figure out the time frame when his dream would have been and when my dream would have been. We think it may possibly have been maybe the same night or close to it. That confirms it's not my imagination because my nephew had the exact same dream. Not only that particular divine confirmation, but also later on in much later on, I learned about a man in the state of Washington that had not a dream but a vision of that same event occurring. In his vision, not only did the Hoover Dam collapse, but 30 minutes later, the Grand Coulee Dam, another very important dam in the state of Washington collapsed 30 minutes later in his vision. The woman that told me about that man also had dreams of dams collapsing as well. Then other people I've seen on the internet have reported dreams of the Hoover Dam collapsing. Then you can count the number of movies where the Hoover Dam collapsed. In different earthquake movies and movies that show acts of terrorism and different things, prophetic movies of the end time and so forth, different movies repeatedly over time show the Hoover Dam collapsing. It is an obsession of the New World Order.

The New World Order, just like the movie that came out predicting the collapse of the Hoover Dam or exposing that they would attack the train in the town of East Palestine, Ohio. That movie was called White Noise. We had watched it. They put information in the movies for whatever reason to claim, just like a terrorist group would say, that they had done something, to claim and to reveal certain things, for lack of better words. We can look at such things, even as I did in The Simpsons, over and over and over and over and over again in The Simpsons. Certain events occurred in the cartoon TV series, and then it occurred in real life, like the election of Trump and so forth. Different things that have occurred on TV and in the movies and then occurred in real life.

So we have a lot of confirmations of the Hoover Dam event and because of 30 minutes later, another dam in Washington State, a thousand miles away, that's not an earthquake. That's not an earthquake. It's a human cost event. It's obviously going to be a terrorist event.

In the past, I have wavered about whether it's going to be an earthquake or what it's going to be. Different times. But as time continues, and God's going to do something that continues to work in me, just as God continues to work in you, things become more clear. Things become more self-evident, and God changes us. He changes our thinking. We've got to be adaptable to God. We should not be stubborn and proudful in what we think we know, like so many people are. And all these people we try to witness to and testify to and share the truth with, they think they can't be wrong about anything. That's pride, stubbornness, stiff-neckedness. We've got to be willing to adapt and allow God to change our thinking, even as I am right here, right now, now acknowledging that there's no way that could be an earthquake. It has to be an act of terrorism. And I believe that it would probably be the action of the New World Order in cooperation with Islamic terrorism, or perhaps Antifa, which is Islamic terrorism. Perhaps Black Lives Matter or whatever group that they choose, all of it is Islamic terrorism. They have a bit of it. You cannot discount the influence of Islam in the New World Order, even some of these mass shootings and so forth.

You should not leave out the influence of Islam. Everybody wants to point their fingers at the Jews. Everybody wants to say that the Jews is the New World Order and it's the state of Israel and the leaders of Israel and it's the Jews that fought for everything in the whole world. Everything is the fault of the Jews. That is a demonic way of thinking. It is you have fallen victim, if you believe such things, you have fallen victim to Islamic propaganda. Amen. And communist propaganda.

I have shared the videos over and over and over as that meme says, why are you surprised? You missed 50,000 things I've said over and over, 50,000 posts, come on now. I have shared these videos over and over and over and the articles giving you the proof that the Communist Manifesto, their plan that they have had in the works for a long, long time, for decades, is to infiltrate the churches, the schools, the government, the governors, the presidency, the media, Hollywood, the music industry and everything else in society, the families, everything else to infiltrate, to turn the people against the government, to turn the people against the police, to make racial divide, to raise war, everything else, for the ultimate purpose of turning America and the western nations into a state of chaos in order to eventually bring the people together in communism and one world government and Russian and Chinese conquest of the world.

And all of that is in cooperation with Saudi Arabia and Syria and Iran. You can't leave out any of these. All of this is important. The fact that they are now allowing thousands of people to enter into America, Chinese, Russians, Iranians, Mexicans and other people to invade America right now as part of their plan and it's coming to pass. It's coming to pass. It's all being fulfilled in our day and in our time. This is only going to intensify violence. It's only going to intensify the new world order plan.

I just saw that Elon Musk is giving up control of Twitter. He's given up his position as chief executive officer and given it to a woman which the media believes is going to be this particular woman, whatever her name is, that is a chief executive chair of work, of the workforce, of like changing the jobs and careers across the world of the World Economic Forum. Now I looked at her information. She seems to be a conservative. She seems to be a Christian, false Christian.

She's sharing bible verses that were posted by somebody else, a Hollywood woman. So they're trying to make it look like that is not a Communist conquest of Twitter but rather is conservatives that are in agreement with Elon Musk that's going to keep free speech and so forth and they might keep free speech for a while. But the truth is the ultimate goal is that Elon Musk is in cooperation with the World Economic Forum and that's exactly why they're going to bring in this woman who also works for NBC News which is a liberal communist Islamic organization even as the New World Order is, even as the World Economic Forum is. She is in cooperation with Charles Schwab, Bill Gates. She has said some certain things in the past in promotion of the vaccines. So even if she keeps free speech on Twitter, the ultimate goal is to deceive people, to catch people by surprise and then I also saw a statement within the past 48 hours that exposed why Elon Musk is really ultimate goal of why he took over Twitter and why the New World Order allowed him to do that and worked in cooperation with him to do that because you don't do that without cooperation in the New World Order. You don't. Come on, let's get real.

The statement was made by Elon Musk because the reason that he took over Twitter is for the ultimate goal of the New World Order, of connecting it with a new digital experience. I forget what all it said, combining like three different things that he said. Basically, I would interpret that to say globalism and to tie all technology together, big brother, that the New World Order would be able to track every financial transaction and everything that you say and everything you do and who all your friends are and your family, who you support, who you don't support, whether you did have the vaccine or didn't, all of this. Elon Musk is of the devil. I like that he brought back free speech but really that's just a tool to deceive us, to get us to like the man and everybody's falling for a hook, line and sinker. At the end of the day, he's working in cooperation and being a tool of Satan. They're clever. Even as the Bible says that Satan is more clever than all the other beasts of the earth. Clever.

Even Biden. Clever. People think that Biden is stupid. He's not stupid. He knows what he's doing. He's playing the part perfectly. Perfectly.

Another thing is I believe that, I believe they're going to impeach Biden. This is not a prophecy of the Lord. This does not say of the Lord but what I'm seeing with my eyes, where the Republican House of Representatives is getting more and much more and much more solid, undeniable proof, evidence against Biden and the Biden regime, the Biden family. It looks like, in my opinion, this is where I do have an opinion outside the Bible politically because of the things I'm seeing with my own eyes. It looks like there's a strong possibility that they will eventually impeach Biden but that won't help anything. You can cheer. You can say, hooray, hooray, hooray, wonderful, wonderful, wonderful but it ain't going to solve anything because that's just going to make Kamala Harris to become the next president. And then when that happens, she could appoint anybody she wants to as vice president under the American rules and law. She could appoint anybody she wants to as vice president. It has to be approved by Congress but the person that she appoints does not have to be already a politician, already in power. So I would think that she might appoint a very strong possibility. She would appoint Hillary Clinton and then after she appoints Hillary Clinton that they would impeach Kamala Harris or she would quit, whatever, or something else would happen, whatever, and then Hillary Clinton would be president.

This is not say of the Lord but it looks like some strong possibilities. There are some prophecies of other people and even things I said in the past that Hillary Clinton would be the last president of the United States and that Russia would invade and conquer us during the presidency of Hillary Clinton. That might happen, that might not happen. But I can see right now the way things were evolving how that could occur. It's not thus say of the Lord. I'm just sharing the possibility with you. That we see things progressing that could possibly point in that direction very quickly. It wouldn't take long to occur. They're really piling up the evidence against Biden big time. I know there are other prophecies but we want to stick with the most important. Is there any major huge big prophecies that I should proclaim that we have left out? Anything you think of? The invasion of America, invasion of Europe, the conquest of all the free world, domination by Assad, false prophets, the beast, the halal market of the beast, the dams, violence, economic collapse, poverty, fleeing, hiding, war, invasion, disease, earthquakes, more earthquakes, storms, and there are others but those are the highlights. Amen. Those are the highlights.
